The University of Nebraska Official Daily Bulletin

VOL. I. TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1926. NO. 29.

To All Officers of Instruction:
Prof. Gerald Birney Smith of the University of Chicago will give an address on "The New Day in Religious Thinking" at St. Paul's M. E. Church, Tuesday, April 13th, at 11 o'clock.

All eleven o'clock classes will be dismissed and ten o'clock classes should be dismissed at 10:40 instead of 10:50 a. m. so that the faculty and students may reach the Church in time for the meeting to begin promptly.

Very truly yours,
Florence I. McGahey,
Registrar.

CHARGE SERVICE PLAN

A tremendously important service introduced by this store to make it easier to buy fine clothing. You can do it now and pay out of income instead of capital; buy a suit or top coat and pay for it as you would for a bond, an automobile, or a home. Budget Buying is the new idea for the man who wants a fine suit and ought to wear one, but who finds it inconvenient to pay for it all at once.

More Than Price Recommends Our Clothes

Many men practice the dangerous method of "buying price." Our clothes have more than price to recommend them—superior style, woollens and workmanship—marked to produce the utmost value... A visit here will convince you
