New Mexico In Fight For Lands

vention of divine providence in behalf of a small, poor, struggling, but ambitious institution may be credited. This has excited the cupidty of other institutions or of persons in charge of other projects supported or endowed by Federal grants of lands. The result has been the passing by the New Mexico Legislature of Joint Resolution No. 10, which proposes to change the whole scheme of the original Federal grant of lands. This resolution was prepared, caused to be introduced and fostered in its passage by persons or institutions having in view the getting for themselves a part of the oil royalties which the university had been so fortunate as to acquire.

The New Mexican legislature has sent a resolution to Congress for an amendment to the constitution providing for a general pooling of the different land grants to the state of New Mexico.

The university has vigorously protested and in the words of its lawyers, "asks for fair play, for a square deal." It asks that it be permitted to keep what fairly and legally belongs to it and that Congress do not lend its aid to the scheme to deprive the university of this small good fortune.

Students Invited To Join Groups Working In Industrial Centers

The "Committee On Students In Industry", is making an offer to all University students who are interested in the project of working two months or more this summer in industry to learn by first hand experience the conditions of laborers and would like to co-operate with other students in the project.

This committee was organized by a group of college men and women to encourage the entrance of other college students into factories and mines this summer. Actual experience in industry is essential to a real understanding of labor and industrial problems, they say, and this will give those interested an opportunity to do practical laboratory work in economics and sociology. Groups are being organized in several industrial centers so that students can exchange their experiences and industrial reactions, and make contact with trade unions and employers.

A bibliography is being prepared so that students will be prepared to join in the discussion. In this way the standardized lecture system may be done away with and small seminar groups substituted.

Slips by which students can notify the Industry Committee of their interest in the project can be secured from Dean LeRossignol, SS 301 B. Following is a list of topics to be

- 1. Labor and the law.
2. Labor legislation.
3. Labor and Politics.
4. Labor's Weapons.
5. Problems of Organization.
6. Types of Labor Unions.

Athletics Discussed By Forum Speakers

ment of athletics within the last 30 years. "The day of informality in athletics is gone. For two or three weeks before the Notre Dame game last fall nothing else was talked about. For a couple of weeks beforehand practice was entirely secret. For a few days before the game the team was taken from Lincoln. Rallies were held every hour between classes. The whole thing had a professional attitude."

Mr. Morrow then explained that he did not mean that there was any professionalism, but that football had become a business rather than a sport.

Players Lose Time

"The evils of the present system include the effect upon the men who take part. I am speaking principally of football because it is there that most of the evils lie. There is a growing tendency to regard athletics more as work than as a sport."

"Another objection is the tremendous loss of time due to long practice hours and trips. The growing entry of professionalism is undesirable. It generally occurs in a polite form, usually through alumni without connection with the college, but with the knowledge of the college authorities. A prominent athlete is promised a good salary for some such job as keeping the bricks cleaned up on a prominent 'alumnus' lawn if he will attend a certain school.

"Insane" Desire To Win

"The chief evil is the insane desire to win. This is especially bad at Nebraska. It is not so much with the students as with the alumni and people downtown. However, if a coach loses one or two games, the students start panicking him, too."

"It seems that we are unable to understand that somebody must lose and that sometimes Nebraska must. The inability to realize this is a besetting evil of the situation."

Mr. Morrow then stated that the remedy must be in the nature of going backwards. "We must get back to a less systematized and professional basis," he said.

In order to do this Morrow advocated the abolition of spring football practice and the system of professional coaching, either by having faculty or alumni coaches or by limiting the tendency to have a coach for every man and of scouting and secret practices.

"Most important," said Mr. Morrow, "is the matter of abolishing inter-sectional games. Teams should be limited to games within their own territory. There is no sense in a team traveling from New York to California for a football game. The championship of the United States can't be decided and there isn't any use trying to decide it."

Many Entries For Ag Competitions

contests the students will judge two classes of horses, two classes of sheep, three classes of beef cattle, and three classes of dairy cattle. This livestock judging competition will start at 7:30 o'clock Friday and will last all day. The students will be required to give their placings on the animals and to give oral reasons for their placings on several of the classes.

The woodworking contest will begin at 8 o'clock Thursday and will last until 5 o'clock, with one hour off at noon. In this division of the contest the contestants will be graded on (1) progress made, (2) use and care of the tools, (3) time consumed, and (4) finished product.

WE JUST NOW THOUGHT of a comparison between a building and a suit of clothes. Sounds far fetched—but see if it isn't true. You can build of wood, brick or stone, can't you? But if the architecture is poor it's going to be a homely building in any case, isn't it? Just so a suit of clothes can be made up in worsted, flannel or cheviot. But if it is poorly cut, it's going to be a poor suit, even though the fabric's a fine one. Right?

Moral: Buy Society Brand Clothes. They're famous for their correct cut. And they come in wonderful exclusive fabrics too. (Here now in the smart styles for Spring.)

Ballot-Box Stuffed in 'Prom Queen' Elections
BLOOMINGTON, Indiana—(By Student Service)—When a school orchestra blares forth the music for the Grand March a Queen of the Junior Prom steps forward to lead the procession, by ancient custom in many colleges. Unlike Queens in democratic countries, this sovereign leads by a mandate of the majority. At two Indiana institutions attempts have been made to defeat the will of the people by "corrupt practices" in voting.
