

ONE TOURNAMENT GAME PLAYED YESTERDAY

Alpha Theta Beat Delta Sigma Championships for Groups V And VII Are Decided

Yesterday's Results
Alpha Theta Chi 14, Delta Sigma Lambda 4

Kappa Sigma 1, Mu Sigma 0 (forfeit)

Phi Kappa Psi—Delta Upsilon, postponed.
Phi Sigma Kappa—Farm House, postponed.

The interfraternity baseball nine got into action again after nearly a week's idleness. One contest was played yesterday, and another one forfeited, both of which decided group championships. Mu Sigma forfeited their game with Kappa Sigma, giving the Kappa Sigs the right to represent Group V in the elimination round.

Alpha Theta Chi triumphed over Delta Sigma Lambda in a tilt that was decided from the first inning. The Alpha Thets hit Schiefen hard and piled up a good lead. Schiefen was relieved by Spahn, and after that the game tightened up, but it was too late to win. Delta Sigma Lambda put over two runs in a ninth inning rally. Townsend was in the box for Alpha Theta Chi and Potential was behind the bat. This contest gave the winners the championship in Group VII.

ant professor with whom she once went to concerts and plays. The young man is now abroad, and has written to the older member of the faculty. But "Laddie," formerly Miss Evelyn, is uninterested in his letter. She is waiting for the university's biggest sheik to get his car fixed, and has no time for letters from assistant professors. In the meantime, the sorority has (accidentally, in all probability) picked up another girl who is "different." And Laddie, the girl who might have been an individual, urges her to fit in and do like the other girls, because one can have "such a good time."

The authoress does little more than state the problem, but with a situation such as this, a statement sufficiently clear to make the majority aware of its existence, is about all that can be done toward a solution. Miss Costine did remarkably well in the leading role. Edward Taylor, famous for his clowning, successfully overcame a reputation for being a funny-man in his characterization of the elderly professor. Henry Ley, as the young man from Oxford, is good; Thad Cone, as the campus politician, plays the role with skill which reveals observation of many Nebraska "big men."

The sorority sisters and their "dates" are played superbly. The minor members of the cast brought repeated laughs from the audience. An author's note, printed on the program explains the title: "Sent as a present from Annam A red cockatoo. Coloured like the peach-tree blossom Speaking with the speech of men. And they did to it what is always done To the learned and eloquent— They took a cage with stout bars And shut it up inside."
