Chance of Retaining Valley Championship Rests on Seniors

Eight Husker track and field veterans will wear the Scarlet and Cream for the last time in the Missouri Valley meet here Friday and Saturday, and on the shoulders of those eight rests Nebraska's chance of regaining the Valley championship.

The eight are: Captain Roland Locke, Ed Weir, "Choppy" Rhodes, Jack Ross, Paul Zimmerman, Jimmy Lewis, Bill Hein, and "Big Ox" Kriemelmeyer. Locke has been bothered with a cold for about a week but expects to be ready for another great exhibition of running this week-end. This will be Locke's last chance to set new Valley records. Good weather permitting, "Gip" should cross the tape in his usual easy form for two new Valley records, with the world's records in the 100 and the 220-yard dashes again in danger. As anchor man of the half-mile relay team, Locke will have another chance to finish in record time.

Four Strong Teams in Relays
Some great relay races are expected Saturday. At least four strong teams will be represented in both the half-mile and the mile relays. Nebraska's world-record team from the Kansas Relays would hold the edge were it not for the uncertain condition of Bill Hein. The little Wilbur star's leg sprain, received in the mud at the Drake Relays, has proved quite persistent and what his condition Saturday will be is still problematical.

Meanwhile, Kansas University is figuring strong on the half-mile relay, with a team of cracks headed by the fast Rooney and the little Chinaman, Wongwai. Missouri has another fast group of sprinters with Grantello, Farley, Smith, and Ream anxious to show their heels to the pick of the conference. Recent reports indicate that Grinnell has a fast 880-yard relay team also and any from the other schools are likely to appear stronger than is now expected.

Keen Competition in Mile
The half-mile relay doesn't hold a thing on the mile relay for keen competition. Fans who remember the whirlwind race here in the Missouri-Nebraska dual meet, have an inkling of the type of race to be expected in the mile relay here Saturday. In the Kansas-Missouri dual last week, Kansas bested Missouri by a narrow margin in another fierce race. Iowa State is bringing another collection of fast quarter-milers who are capable of turning in some good time. With these four teams running on as fast a track as that in the stadium, a real race is assured.

Ed Weir has run some great hurdle races while competing for Nebraska and is anxious to wind up his career with victories in the Valley meet. Weir has been going better each meet but will face a classier array of talent in the Saturday barrier-topping races. One thing is certain and that is that Weir will furnish a great race for Valley track and field fans whether he wins or loses.

"Choppy" Rhodes has had a great season in track this year. Starting with a victory in the all-around championship at the Illinois indoor relays early in the spring, he has consistently placed well up in the pole vault and broad jump this spring.

Kriemelmeyer's showing with the shot Monday night was indicative of what can be expected from him in his final competition for Nebraska. Much is also expected of the three distance men Ross, Lewis, and Zimmerman, when they run their last race Saturday. Ross is conceded a good chance of besting the crack Conger of Ames in the mile. It will be some race, to say the least.

Lewis in Old Form
Lewis had the bad luck to be sick about the time of the Drake relays and has had a hard time getting back into shape, but he has been going better during the last week and there is a strong chance that he will be in his old form for the 880. Zimmerman will face some stiff competition in the two-mile, especially from the Oklahoma distance men, Rutherford and Niblick, but with his team-mate Searles stands more than an even chance of breaking the tape ahead of the rest of the field.

Athletic Director Gish announced yesterday that student tickets would not be good for the Valley meet. All tickets for the preliminaries on Friday will be 50 cents. Admission Saturday will be $1.00 and $1.50 for reserved seats. The four north sections of the east side of the stadium will be reserved. Tickets may be reserved now at Director Gish's office.

LAST TIME IN CORNHUSKER TOGS

Upper row: Ed Weir, hurdles; "Choppy" Rhodes, pole vault, broad jump and hurdles; Captain Roland Locke, sprints and low hurdles; Jack Ross, half-mile and mile.
Lower row: Jimmy Lewis, half-mile and mile; Paul Zimmerman, two-mile; Kriemelmeyer, shot put; Hein, sprints.

HOLD TENNIS TOURNAMENT HERE

Conference Teams Come For Valley Championship Meet May 21 and 22

WINNERS ARE UNCERTAIN

The Missouri Valley Conference championship tennis tournament will be held here Friday and Saturday, May 21 and 22. All the conference schools are sending teams except Ames, whom Nebraska defeated last Friday, and Oklahoma A. and M.

Gregg McBride, assistant sports editor of the Lincoln Star, and Paul Mahood, Nebraska state tennis champion, have charge of the meet.

There are to be two separate tournaments, one for the singles and one for the doubles. Both will be strictly elimination contests. The finals will probably be played Saturday afternoon on the University courts. Each school will be allowed to enter four men in the singles and two teams in the doubles.

The dope as to who might win is very uncertain. The Royer-Brandenberg combination from Oklahoma has not been defeated this year and won the doubles championship last year. Muir Rogers of the University of Kansas won the singles championship in the conference meet at Nebraska in 1924. Nebraska defeated Ames last Friday, granting them only one set in doubles, but suffered a clean defeat from the Grinnell men on Saturday.

The entries for the meet are:
Drake University
Singles: Conklin, Everett, Herriott, Patrick and Harley.
Doubles: Conklin-Everett and Herriott-Harley.

Grinnell College
Singles: Nicolet, Struble, Stotts, and Smiley.
Doubles: Nicolet-Struble and Stotts-Smiley.

OFFICIALS FOR MBET ARE NAMED

A. A. U. Is Sending a Corps of Representatives; Other Plans Being Made

TED CANTY TO ANNOUNCE

Plans for conducting the nineteenth annual Missouri Valley track and field championships in the Nebraska Memorial stadium are moving rapidly forward. Announcements of the officials for the big meet was made yesterday by acting athletic director Gish.

Of chief interest to track and field fans is the announcement that Ted Cauty will do the announcing. Cauty is recognized as the premier announcer in the Middle West. He handled the announcing at the Valley meet held here two years ago. All who remember the ease with which he kept the big crowd informed of all results know that Cauty announcing means that the crowd will get the dope right up to the minute.

John C. Grover, veteran starter, will be on the job to see that the boys get off right. The Amateur Athletic Union is sending another corps of officials to clock the meet in case any records go by the boards. O. T. Doran will handle the official scorer's position as usual.

The other officials will be: Judges of the finish: Earl Johnson, head judge; Dean S. W. Beyer, Dr. W. G. Manley, Byron McMahon, A. A. Schabinger, Herman Jobst. Chief clerk of finish: Ernest E. Bearg.

Timers: M. F. Ahearn, head timer; Dr. F. C. Allen, Ben G. Owen, T. N. Metcalf, Dr. A. P. Condon, G. P.

FEW ENTERED TRICOLOR MEET

Novices in Last Event of Season; Marks Poorer Than Those of Freshmen

Coach Schulte's novices brought their meet schedule to a close in the last tricolor meet of the season last night. The Blues were again winners with 64 points. The Reds were second with 43 and the Whites were third with 37.

The meet failed to attract as large an entry list as the previous ones and marks were poorer than many of those made last week in the Freshman telegraphic. Krause stepped the low hurdles in nice fashion, running the 120-yard lows in 12.4 seconds. Frink and Cummings finished less than a yard apart in the mile, with Frink winning in 4:40.5.

The Phi Delta Theta baseball nine insured its participation in the semi-final round of the interfraternity baseball tournament by defeating Alpha Theta Chi, 15 to 10. The Phi Delt was pressed by their opponents, but managed to keep a sufficient lead throughout the contest to come through victors. Boyer was on the mound for the winners and Lindell was the catcher. Townsend hurled for the Alpha Thets and Potental received his offerings.

The three other tilts scheduled for yesterday were postponed. Two will be played today and one Thursday. It is hoped that the semi-final round will be played this week and the final contest will be one of the events of the annual Round-Up Week.
