

TRACK LETTERS ARE PRESENTED TO 19 HUSKERS

Eight of Men Receiving Honors Will Not Work Under Husker Flag Next Year

SEVEN MAY GO TO A. A. U.

Locke, Breaker of Paddock's Records, Hopes To Meet California Man During Summer Months

Nineteen track men were awarded letters by the committee Thursday for the 1926 season. The captain will be elected immediately and probably announced today. The letter men are:

- Captain Roland Locke, North Platte.
- Frank Dailey, Sargent.
- Robert Davenport, Norfolk.
- William Hein, Wilber.
- Glen Johnson, Stapleton.
- Walter Kriemelmeyer, Cambridge.
- Jimmy Lewis, Havelock.
- Frank Pospisil, Wahoo.
- Oliver Roberts, Owatonna, Minn.
- Jack Ross, Gibbon.
- John Rhodes, Ansley.
- James Searles, Hawarden, Iowa.
- Bobbie Stephens, Hastings.
- Milton Tappan, Sioux City, Ia.
- Perly Wyatt, Scottsbluff.
- Ed Weir, Superior.
- Frank Wirsig, Sargent.
- Paul Zimmerman, Lincoln.
- Ted Page, Crete.

Eight Men Graduate
The track squad will be greatly weakened by the graduation of the seniors. Eight men have completed their three years of competition or are graduates, and will not be available next season. They are Captain "Gip" Locke, Ed Weir, Walter Kriemelmeyer, Jack Ross, Paul Zimmerman, John Rhodes, Jimmy Lewis, and William Hein. The seniors carried off about twenty points in the Missouri Valley meet, not counting the relays, showing that the prospects for the coming year are more or less doubtful.

At present it is thought that seven Cornhusker track stars will go to Chicago to compete in the A. A. U. meet early in June. The men who will represent Nebraska are Locke, Searle, Wirsig, Wyatt, Ross, Kriemelmeyer and Dailey. It is hoped that Locke may be able to attend one or two other meets later this summer, one in the East and the other in the West, where he may meet the famous Paddock and settle the question which Cornhusker fans are today arguing with heat.

IN THE VALLEY

...by...
"Zim" and "Zim"

With the last man crossing the tape at the Missouri Valley track and field meet Saturday, was written the last chapter of 1926 Valley athletics. A glorious season in every branch of sports was pictured this season — a flash of the red of courage here, and a tint of the blue of loyalty there.

Some great athletic stars passed out of the picture forever. Men who have written with endurable new records, and greater feats will now be seen in the athletic halls of fame.

But there is something more to the game of competition than just winning, or just record breaking for that matter. On the field Saturday an athlete flashed to world fame doing what most sport critics had but yesterday said could never be done. The prowess of this athlete, and the greatness of the performance came not in a day, but through years of work and determination. In winning the champion has learned to play the game.

The crowd was watching the winners Saturday. That strange fascination of watching a man leap to the tape brought them there. The same calling, that feel of the tape as it snaps, brought every athlete on the track there too. Only the privilege is accorded to but one and may that courage, and skill, and work which makes the winner never be belittled.

Completing the same number of years of toil were other athletes there Saturday. Men who had equal courage and determination, but who were handicapped by the lack of the skill and finish of the winner.

The second, and third, and last places even, Saturday were occupied by men who by fate could never be winners. In their minds were thoughts of noble deeds. The basic fire of determination still burned as they went to the marks against the destined men of polish — the great athletes.

With the same grace shown by the winner, so did these other men show the good sportsmanship of the loser. Playing the game hard, the best they knew how,—they accepted defeat hiding the pain in their hearts—pretending they didn't care. That is also learning to play the game.

And then we remember the words: We can't all play a winning game, Some one is sure to lose—

But we can play so that our name No one may dare accuse: So when the one great scorer comes To write against our name, Not whether we won or lost But how we played the game.

Visit the Famous and Go Home in Style!

—no matter how depleted the allowance, there's sure to be enough for one or two $9 frocks from the Famous! You owe it to your Scotch to take advantage of this remarkable sale, even if you have to vend a few books and milk bottles. You see, these dresses were supposed to sell at two and three times $9, but you know the Famous when it comes to giving extraordinary values! Sport frocks there are, filmy chiffons for wear under summer moons, and models for every other occasion in an up and coming co-ed's life. So make haste to the Famous at 11th and O!

The Apex will take care of Last-Minute Cleaning!

—what if someone DID spill the punch on your favorite party frock? There's no use taking it home in any but its most immaculate condition! Suits and coats that have been out in a shower or two will also look much more impressive to the welcoming band, if the Apex runs an iron over them. You can get one-day service at this superior cleaning establishment at 123 S. 23rd street; and when they say "one day", they don't mean maybe! Just call B3331, and their motor will be at your door instant — to whisk away apparel wretched and shortly to return sartorial triumphs.

Gift-Choosing is a Pleasure at Eastman Kodak Stores, Inc!

—here you will find so many things you'd like to own yourself, that it's as simple as ABC to select attractive gifts for graduating friends! Kodaks, of course, come first on the list, with models to suit your purse from $5 up. And should the gift exchequer be particularly low, there is a Brownie camera for $2 that takes an excellent picture. Writing portfolios, address books, memory books, pictures, book ends, pen and pencil sets, pottery and butterfly jewelry are among the other delightful gift possibilities at the Eastman Kodak Stores, Inc. (formerly Lincoln Photo Supply Co., 1217 O)—so come in and browse around.

Step off the Train in a New Hat from Gold's!

—immediately the word will go around that you've gained pulchritude as well as knowledge at Nebraska! These new summer hats at Gold's seem to have the knack of flattering the features. Snub noses are but pleasingly retracee with such a background; those with a downward curve take on a Grecian aspect. These hats are of fine milan in the larger shapes; of summer-weight felt, of crocheted straws, of Visca and of fabrics in white and every fashionable summer shade. Chooses yours Saturday while selections are broad enough to make successful choosing easy. At Gold's!

Gold's will Help you Fill your Home-going trunk!

—they're ready with all the little necessities that you'll want to have on hand this summer! Your favorite powders, perfumes, soaps, rouge, and compacts are here in the shades and brands you're accustomed to. There are clever bits of neckwear, striking handbags, smart novelty gloves, gay scarfs and filmy stockings that will do such nice things to your appearance. Just now their stocks are particularly well-filled with new summer accessories, so shop today or tomorrow, if you would shop most satisfactorily.
