

2,400 NEBRASKA FRESHMEN TAKE OATH TO SCHOOL

Dr. G. E. Condra Administers Cornhusker Rites to New Students

EVERY MAKES ADDRESS

Schulte and Bear Represent School; Elsa Kerkow Talks Activities

"It is our hope and prayer that you may become good Cornhuskers, filled with the loyal spirit of the University of Nebraska." This extract from Dr. G. E. Condra's speech completely portrays the tone of the freshman initiation which took place in the field house yesterday morning.

Twenty-four hundred students attended the initiation of the class of 1930 Wednesday and the great Cornhusker spirit could not have been better displayed on any occasion. There was no hesitancy in the responses to the explosive leadership Nick Amos' guidance in the cheering and singing, and if the leaders of the program were there to instill into the freshmen the invincible spirit of true sons and daughters of Nebraska, they had a good example of what the first year classmen had already learned in their short term as students of this university.

The program included an address of welcome by Chancellor Samuel B. Avery, Coach (Indian) Schulte's talk on the "Nebraska Spirit," Coach Ernest Bear's talk on "Loyalty to the Team," leading of cheering and singing by Nick Amos, a talk on "Woman's Part in Activities" by Elsa Kerkow and the administering of the Nebraska oath by Dr. G. E. Condra.

The entire initiation hinged on the administering of the oath. The oath is complete as follows:

THE CORNHUSKER OATH

I PROMISE THAT:

- 1. I recognize the debt I owe to parents, friends, school and state for the sacrifice made, encouragement offered, and the education and character possessed which qualify me to enter the University of Nebraska.
2. I appreciate the opportunity to become a student of the University of Nebraska.
3. I will be loyal to the administration, faculty, traditions and purposes of the University.
4. I will enter the University with the purpose to advance scholarship and those social qualities which make for good citizenship.
5. I will enter my classes and other work with such preparation and applied attention as will insure a margin above passing,—not failure.
6. I will budget my time to be devoted to study, recreation or activities and rest, and follow this schedule with due diligence.
7. I will censure and guide my conduct and work towards my educational advancement and will safeguard the relation I hold to the University, its welfare, and services to the state.

World Forum Sessions Will Start in October

College Men Wanted In 'Big Business' Certainly! Asserts Recent Graduate

Has the college graduate a welcome in the world of "Big Business" or do business executives prefer high school boys to college men? A recent article in the Atlantic Monthly, decrying college graduates in "Big Business," has finally met a powerful refutation at the hands of a recent college graduate, James D. Wyman of Summit, New York, who replies to the article's charges in a letter to the New York Times.
Four years at college, believes Mr. Wyman, certainly cannot warp a man's outlook or dull his intellect to the extent that his assailants contend nor do facts point to that conclusion. He is wanted and is in "Big Business" the writer points out in excerpts of the letter which follow:
"As a representative of the young college men new to the intricacies of the grown-up work of business, I feel some chagrin to learn that even one prejudiced by close contact with young graduates, a self-confessed representative of the big interests, should be able to fill some half dozen

New Features Added To Football Programs

Several new features will be used in the year's football programs, according to Jimmie Lewis, 26, who is handling the preparation of the programs. Otherwise, it will be practically the same as last year.

The program for the Drake game will be thirty-six pages. Full page group cuts of the football men are planned. Fifty pictures will be used in the booklet. One innovation of importance is the tabulation of the penalties on a page in the program. Corresponding numbers will be found on the score board, so that the spectators will be able to understand why the teams are penalized. Some of the pages are reserved for Drake players, and a cut of the Husker squad will occupy another.

VARSITY TRAMPLES FRESHMEN 32 TO 0

Blue Howell and Jug Brown Were Shining Lights in First With Yearlings

In the first practice game of the season, Coach Bear's gridsters took the husky freshmen to a 32 to 0 trouncing yesterday afternoon. The yearlings battled the Varsity squad on even terms for some time until the Husker scoring machine, after repeatedly being penalized for being offside, began to function.

That the squad has plenty of good backfield material is one of the points verified by yesterday's workout. Blue Howell hits hard and picks the openings. Jug Brown, who has been alternating at half and quarter, slipped through the fresh line for several gains. Another man who will bear watching is Glen Presnell, who plunged through for three touchdowns later in the game. Bob Stephens and Bill Bronson are quarterbacks who looked good in the scrimmage.

The Varsity team which first took the field was composed of Vint Lawson and Willard Burnham at the ends, Captain Lonnie Stiner and Cliff Ashburn at tackles, Clarence Raish and Dan McMullen at guards, Ted James at center, Jug Brown at quarter, Blue Howell and Avar Mandary at the half positions, and Victor Beck at fullback.

Against this combination the freshmen took the ball on their ten yard line and, through small gains and many varsity penalties for being offside, took the ball to the middle of the field before losing it to the varsity. After a few exchanges the Huskers scored their first touchdown when Jug broke away for a twenty-yard run and Howell carried the ball over for six points.

Team B, which took the field after the first touchdown, had even better success against the first year men. With the linemen making big openings in the freshman defense, the backfield combination, Stevens-Mielenz-Presnell-Oehlrich, scored three times, Presnell making two touchdowns and Stevens, one. Mielenz added one point on the kick after touchdown and missed one attempt. Stevens made good on the other try. In the last few minutes Presnell went over for his third touchdown.

The freshmen will scrimmage the varsity again Saturday afternoon in the first open practice of the season. This will be the first chance that the followers of the Scarlet and Cream have had to see their team in action.

CAPELLA A CHOIR IN ITS SIXTH YEAR

With its sixth year of service about to begin, the Lincoln A Capella choir, one of the few of its kind in the country, is training strenuously for the opening service. There are still a few places open for men singers and anyone interested should apply to John M. Rosborough, dean of the University school of music.

The Lincoln A Capella choir is made up mostly of University of Nebraska students, with Lincoln studios and the University school of music supplying the remaining members. This season the choir will appear every Sunday from November 1 to June 1 at the new Westminster church located at Sheridan and South Streets.

The program is chosen from the finest classics of music lore. To insure the smooth going of the performances four strenuous rehearsals are held weekly. Each year the choir has as its guest conductor Peter Christian Lutkin, dean of the music department of Northwestern university, and known throughout the country for his ability in conducting unaccompanied choirs. Mr. Lutkin is a personal friend of Mr. Rosborough, the conductor of the Lincoln choir, and his presence and help at the rehearsals has added a great deal to the prestige and ability of the Lincoln aggregation.

FRANCES GETTYS TO APPEAR ON MONDAY

Noted Soprano Will Appear Before Home People; Sails For Foreign Tour Soon

Meetings of many of the societies and fraternities of the University of Nebraska will be closed early next Monday evening to give the members an opportunity to hear the Frances Gettys concert which will open the Lincoln and University musical season at the city auditorium. Unusual interest in the concert was reported by the members of Alpha Chi Omega who are selling tickets for Miss Gettys' appearance.

With two concerts of unusual interest to music lovers scheduled within a week the University students are having an opportunity to hear the best sopranos of the younger talent in the world. The one—Miss Tally, whose voice has aroused great enthusiasm in the United States—the other—a University of Nebraska girl who made one of the most sensational debuts Rome has ever accorded an American girl singer.

Tickets for the Frances Gettys concert were moving rapidly Thursday, according to the business manager. "After all, home people do realize they have a wonderful artist in their midst," he said. "It will be a tremendous thrill to Miss Gettys to be able to appear before her own home friends and students at her university after she has appeared before the greatest critics of music in all Europe."

DEANS GIVE PRAISE TO VARSITY DANCES

University Authorities Believe Plan Will Fill Long-Felt Needs Of Nebraska Students

Approval of Varsity dances has been voiced by the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and several presidents of student organizations. Each of those interviewed expressed the wish that the parties in the Coliseum may be even more successful than the All-Uni Mixers formerly held in the Armory.

George R. Chaburn, Dean of Men, summed up his approval of the parties in the following words:

"It is to be hoped that the Varsity dance to be held in the Coliseum will be attended by practically all the student body. There has been a demand for a number of years, for facilities for the better mixing and acquaintanceship of the students. Now that we have those facilities, why not use them? Here, under the auspices of the University, there is an opportunity for a large, wholesome gathering of Nebraska's finest for an evening of clean, honest, enjoyable fun."

Miss Amanda Heppner, Dean of Women expressed her sentiments concerning the party in the following words:

"The Varsity parties ought to better the spirit of democracy and society on this campus. I hope, and believe, that they will fill the long felt need. I also think the Varsity dances may take the place of the numerous house dances given by the fraternities and other organizations."

On behalf of the Student Council, Glen Buck, the president, heartily approved all of the plans for the party and promised any assistance that the council could offer. He said in part: "The Student Council believes that the Varsity dances can be made a big factor of Nebraska. These parties should enable more students to become acquainted with each other and lessen the criticism that students in a large university have no opportunity to know each other."

Josephine Frisbie, President of Mortar Board issued this statement: "The Varsity party committee is promising us bigger All-University parties this year than have ever been held before. Owing to the fact that the new Coliseum is large enough to accommodate everyone, the crowded condition of the Armory will no longer exist. These parties offer an opportunity for all students to have a part in the social life of the university and I see no reason why they should not be very successful."

Chaperones for the Varsity dance, Saturday night in the Coliseum have been announced from the office of the Dean of Women. They will be: Colonel and Mrs. F. F. Jewett, Professor and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox, Professor and Mrs. Roy Cochrane, Professor and Mrs. D. D. Whitney, Miss Amanda Heppner.

Thousands Treated Annually In Nebraska University Dispensary

Does your head ache? Have you sprained an ankle, broken a leg or contracted the measles? If so, go to the University dispensary. Annually, several thousand students and faculty members take advantage of the free medical treatment furnished by the University in the College of Pharmacy building.

The dispensary is conducted by the University and is in charge of Drs. Charles Harms and Earl Deppen for male students and by Dr. Inez Philbrick for women. It is open to all students, faculty members and employees of the University.

The chief service of the dispensary is in giving first aid treatment and safe consult to the students. Its value cannot be estimated. An epidemic of smallpox was averted a year ago by the discovery of a few affected individuals and their immediate isolation and treatment. Many serious diseases have been discovered and checked while in the first stage. Every student that enters the Uni-

COUNCIL ACTION STIRS INTEREST IN STUDENT BODY

Avery Upholds Suggestion for Holiday On Friday After Thanksgiving

OTHER ACTIONS PRAISED

Prospects of Clean Elections Lauded by Organizations On Husker Campus

Action of the Student Council in petitioning University authorities for dismissal of school the Friday after Thanksgiving, and its resolutions to keep down the cost of orchestras, to keep elections clean, and to withhold identity of the Honorary Colonel until the night of the Military Ball, has excited keen interest among the students.

Favorable action on the dismissal of school was indicated yesterday when Chancellor Avery gave his support to the petition of the Council. Said the Chancellor, "In regard to the action taken by the Student Council Wednesday night regarding the dismissal of school on the Friday following Thanksgiving, I can see no reason why students should be held for school on the day after Thanksgiving when Nebraska does not play a football game at home."

The matter, however, he continued, will have to be presented before the Senate Committee before definite action can be taken.

Students were jubilant over the idea. Many declared they have been unable to understand why in previous years when no game was held on the local gridiron they have been required to remain for the one day of school.

The excessive charges being made for popular dance orchestras is deeply concerning many social organizations and from the enthusiastic support promised the Council by a large number of them it is quite possible that the prices may be lowered before the formal session.
