NEBRASKA LINE PRONOUNCED FIT FOR TIGER GAME

Bearg Says Smoother Team to Enter Game This Week Against Mizou

TIGER PUNTER IS OUT
Fowler, Missouri Hope, is Compelled to Quit Game; Studebaker to Kick

When Coach Henry and his thirty-three Tigers go into action on the Stadium field Saturday they will face a smoother working Husker line than that seen in the Drake tussle. Much of the preparation has been centered on the linesman, and under the pounding of freshmen ball toters, they have gradually been rounding into better defensive shape.

A. Mandery, right half, 173.
Howell, fullback, 186.

Defensive dummy scrimmage work against Missouri passes and signal practice kept Bearg's gridsters busy yesterday afternoon. Dailey, Ashburn, and Lee are still on the injured list and it is doubtful whether they will be in shape for the Mizou contest.

Two Month's old Baby Jean Is New Charge At Home Management House

The Home Economics House of the University of Nebraska, located at 1224 R Street, has a new baby. It is a little girl christened Baby Jean by the senior students in the department of home economics. She is two months old and the home management house will keep her one year. This is the fifth baby the department has had; each year a new baby is temporarily adopted.

Miss Ruby Simpson of the department of home economics is in charge of the house and the baby. Each girl in the department is given individual instruction in regard to bathing, feeding, preparing of food, laundry, and sleeping and waking hours of the baby.

Baby Jean has a regular schedule. Each girl is responsible to Miss Simpson in the care of the baby. A pediatrician who is interested in this particular case, is consulted periodically. Baby Jean is weighed and advice is given to the girls on the care of the baby. The girls take the baby to the clinic and in this way receive valuable instruction in baby care.

The home management house was organized about five years ago. The first child to be taken was a little girl named Katherine. She has been adopted and is now a girl five years

New Nebraska Songs

(Clip these and take them to the rally tonight.)

WIN! NEBRASKA!
For Nebraska, you're playing the game, lads,
And the gang here is backing the team.
Each Freshman will join with the old grads
In cheering the Scarlet and Cream.
The Soph'mores are making a big noise,
The Juniors and seniors chime in.
Remember the Cornhusker cry, boys.

FIGHT A CLEAN FIGHT—BUT WIN.
NEBRASKA.
Vict'ry is our cry.
Hit 'em high, boys, hit 'em low.
Show your pepper, go, gang, go.
We will dance it, prance it, spell it,
Yell it 'till we die.
NEBRASKA.
Vict'ry is our cry.

Varsity Party IS ON SATURDAY

Committee Expects Crowd at Coliseum; Missouri Orchestra to Play

Approximately twenty-four hundred students will attend the second Varsity party at the Coliseum Saturday evening, the committee estimates. As nearly twelve hundred couples attended the first Varsity dance, it is expected that the patronage will be fully as large. The crowd will be swelled by a number of Missouri students.

The Missouri Quadrangle orchestra, just returned from a six month's tour of Europe, will furnish the music. The orchestra is one of the best known in the Missouri Valley. A canopy will be placed above the orchestra so the music will carry to all parts of the building.

Missouri colors, black and yellow, entwined with the Scarlet and Cream will give a collegiate tone. A "Welcome Missouri" sign will be placed in full view.

Refreshments will be served in the east and west ends of the Coliseum. The refreshment committee has been enlarged so that better service may be given.

The chaperones for the party are: Dean Heppner, Miss Piper, Professor and Mrs. Grumman, Dean and Mrs. LeRossignol, Professor and Mrs. Thompson, Captain and Mrs. Foster.

The admission to the party will be seventy-five cents a couple. Single admission for women will be fifty cents and for men seventy-five cents.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO HOLD TRYOUT SOON

Date is set for October 21; Three Minutes Will Be Allowed for Each Skit

All students, dramatically inclined, will be given an opportunity to try out for membership in the University Dramatic club on October 21. The time and place of the try-outs will be announced in a later issue.

Three minutes will be allowed each student and five minutes if two persons appear together. The aspirants are required to present a part from any play which they prefer. If the part calls for two characters and the contestant prefers to enact only one, an arrangement can be made for another to read the intervening lines.

Over a hundred students tried out last fall and it is estimated that from one hundred to one hundred and fifty will come out this year.

"The Dramatic club is not a departmental organization but a social club to which any student in the University, interested in Dramatics is eligible to become a member," said Miss Ruth Clendenin, president of the club.

The College of Agriculture is one of the many schools that has home management departments along with home economics. Oregon, Iowa State, Minnesota, Michigan and Cornell also have this feature.

The purpose of maintaining the home management house is to give young women knowledge and experience in the raising and training of children. The babies in the home management houses are generally less than one year old so that the girls get practical experience when the babies need the most and the best care.

Three Are Promoted In Nebraska R. O. T. C.

Three seniors, Glen A. McKinney, W. Sherwood Kilgore, and Henry Rosenstein were promoted from the office of second lieutenant to that of first lieutenant in an order issued yesterday by Lieut. Colonel F. F. Jewett, commandant of cadets. The men have all taken three years of R. O. T. C. training and are seniors in the University. Assignments of the three men to their respective companies have not been made, but will be published within the next few days.

KOSMET CONTEST CLOSING SATURDAY

Plots and Manuscripts Must Be In For Annual Play; Award To Be Announced November 1

All plots, manuscripts and finished plays to be submitted in the annual Kosmet Klub play writing competition must be reported to the business manager of the Kosmet Klub, Donald Sampson, at the Kosmet Klub rooms before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The winner of the competition will be announced in the near future, according to an announcement from the Klub headquarters, and the annual prize of $100 will be awarded on November 1.

"Contestants need not have their plots completely filled in," said Greg Watson, chairman of the play committee, "although it has always been the policy of the Klub to award the prize to the writer whose work is the most nearly complete and practicable for staging with music."

Two plays have already been reported to the Kosmet Klub. Both are in completed form with music and manuscript finished.

Requirements of the Kosmet Klub competition state that the writer of the play must be a regular student of the University or connected in a faculty capacity. The plays must be finished before the final decision is made by the Klub. The entire Klub acts as judges in making the final decision.

Tentative plans set the date for the annual show in December this year instead of June. The plans call for a state-wide trip with the show during vacation, plans of which will be definitely announced as soon as the arrangements can be completed.

Schulte Returns From Football Meetings to Direct Nebraska Track

Coach Henry F. Schulte is back at the University ready to direct fall track and cross-country after being away most of September and the first part of October on football meetings.

Coach Schulte spent the past week giving talks at Chadron and Scottsbluff. He has toured practically the whole state giving talks on football and football rules.

He is planning a series of exhibition races to be staged between halves at the football games. He hopes also to put on some exhibition field events between halves at the later home games.

Football Coaching Broadcast
KFPU broadcasting station at Kansas University is broadcasting football coaching by Franklin C. Cappon head football coach at the University.

Glee Club Try-outs Are Continued Until Friday

Tryouts for membership in the University of Nebraska Mens' Glee club will be continued on Friday of this week due to the fact that a number of candidates were unable to enter the competition on Wednesday. Herman Deckler, director of the club has set the second tryout period at 4 to 6 p. m. in Library 301.

While a number have already tried out for the club there is still an opportunity for more men in every section. All those who did not try out on Wednesday are invited to enter their names on Friday. The list of those chosen will appear in Sunday's Daily Nebraskan.

LOCKE TO RUN CENTURY DASH AS EXHIBITION

World Champion Sprinter to Entertain Crowd at Game With Tigers Saturday

CROSS-COUNTRY ON CARD

Nebraska Distance Runners To Be Seen in Action For First Time This Season

Roland Locke, world's premier sprinter, and Bill Hein, who with Locke kept Nebraska sprinters at the top of the Valley for three years will participate in an exhibition 100-yard dash which will be the finish of the Nebraska-Missouri cross country meet will feature the between halves program at the Nebraska-Missouri football game Saturday. Several of last year's freshman squad and other varsity candidates will also run in the exhibition race.

The cross-country run will be started shortly after the start of the first quarter so that the men can finish between halves. Coach Schulte reports that Missouri has a fine team and that a close and fast race can be expected.

All other candidates for the Nebraska cross-country team including Freshmen prospects will run a try-out race Saturday also. They will start shortly after the start of the varsity dual race.

Captain Hays, Glen Johnson, McCarty, Reller, Chadderdon, and Cumings will represent Nebraska in the cross-country meet. All are apparently in good shape for the opening meet of the season. The team as a whole is green and should develop as the season progresses.

Coach Schulte is planning several track events for each of the other home games of the season to be put on between halves. This will be the first opportunity to see Nebraska's new track prospects in action.

CORNHUSKER DRIVE SHOWS HIGH SALES

Tassels First Among Organizations With Corn Cobs Second; Allen and Elva Erickson Lead

The Cornhusker campaign is exceeding the highest expectations of the management of the 1927 year book, according to the report issued Thursday. Although some of the organizations are slow in checking in their sales, the results so far point toward a record-breaking campaign.

The student body has wholeheartedly accepted the new plan of payment for the Cornhusker and in the end the students will gain by this plan, for many new features will be employed in the 1927 Cornhusker through utilization of the money saved in this way.

"No one who reserves a 1927 Cornhusker will have any reason to be disappointed," says W. F. Jones, editor-in-chief. "We have pledged ourselves to make the 1927 Cornhusker preeminent and with the wonderful support thus far given to us by the students, we shall find it much easier to fulfill this promise."

Those who intend to reserve Cornhuskers should do so at once for the price will be increased to $5.00 after Friday, the last day of the campaign. A limited number of extra copies will be available at the time the books are issued, but these extra copies will command a higher price than those which are reserved now.

All individuals and organizations are urged to check in immediately after the drive is over so that the compilation of standings may be prepared for publication.

The standings as announced Thursday are as follows:

Organizations

Tassels.
Corn Cobs.
Silver Serpents.
Xi Delta.

Individuals

Women: Elva Erickson, Pauline Bilan, G. E. Evans

Men: Amos Allen, Howard Kennedy, Fred Daly

Lindenmeyer, Tiger Tackle

Here is the man who disputed the all-American tackle honors with Ed Weir of Nebraska last year. Edgar Lindenmeyer, 192-pound Missouri tackle, was placed on several first all-American teams last year, his first season in Missouri moccasins. This year he should cause things to worry about. Lindenmeyer is 25 years old, thereby having Weir bested as to age. His home is at La's Forest, Ill.

DAD'S DAY TO BE BIG EVENT

Tickets for Noon Luncheon Are Being Rapidly Sold; Seats Available

Students desiring tickets for themselves and their Dads for the luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, Saturday noon, should inform the committee of their intentions by this afternoon. Fraternity and sorority people are selling tickets at organization houses and tickets may be bought at the University Y. M. C. A. in the Temple. They may also be reserved by calling Tom Varney at F2308, Bob Hoagland at B3907, or W. F. Jones at the Cornhusker office, University Hall.

A large number of tickets were sold yesterday, and a good crowd is assured. The program has been arranged and everything is in readiness to show Dad a real time before the Missouri-Nebraska game in the afternoon.

Guests at the luncheon will be seated a little before twelve and serving will begin exactly at noon, say committee members. This will be done that the Dads and children may get to the game in plenty of time for the contest. The speeches will be short and snappy, with yells and songs led by Nick Amos in between. Those students that have not reserved seats with their fathers by exchanging their athletic tickets may still do so, said Mr. Selleck yesterday. Many have already taken advantage of the opportunity.

SOUTH OMAHANS TO VISIT AG COLLEGE

Ak-Sar-Ben King and Queen Will Be Among Guests Saturday; Will Attend Football Game

For the twenty-second year, 300 visitors from South Omaha, representing packers, bankers, commission men, Ak-Sar-Ben officials and the king and queen of the Ak-Sar-Ben, will visit the College of Agriculture, Saturday, October 9, and in the afternoon, will attend the Missouri-Nebraska football game. A peculiar coincidence about their visit is that Nebraska University has never lost a game on the day the South Omaha delegation attended.

The party will arrive at 9:15 a. m. and will parade to Fifteenth and O streets. They will then be escorted to the College of Agriculture campus where they will view an exhibit of livestock that will later be exhibited at the International Livestock exposition in Chicago. During intermissions, they will be entertained by the Block and Bridge club.

Lunch will be served in the College cafeteria, after which there will be short speeches. The livestockmen will then go to the stadium, parading around the track before the game. The Commercial high school band of South Omaha will lead the parade. Special seats have been reserved for them at the stadium.

Archery is the newest sport at Syracuse University with an instructor in charge and there is the possibility that it may soon be recognized as a minor sport.

Engineering Society To Hold Meeting on Friday

The first regular meeting of the Nebraska Engineering society will be held in the University coliseum at 6 o'clock, Friday evening. An athletic program and plans for the annual engineers barbecue are the most important items of business on hand.

Clarence A. Sjogren, professor of Mechanical Engineering, is the speaker of the evening.

There is no admission charge and all registered engineering students are urged to attend. The meeting will be over in time for everyone to attend the football rally.

Automobiles Disturb Classes; Yellow Line Discourages Parking

An investigation set at rest the various speculations concerning the new yellow line extending down the east side of Twelfth street in front of the Social Science building.

Faculty members have complained for some time of disturbance to their classes caused by the cars near the building. Complaints were made to Lincoln city officials who took it up with the University authorities.

The result was the painting of the line on one side of Twelfth. If this does not relieve the disturbance, a similar line will be painted on the west side of the street, and in front of Social Sciences on R street.

Dr. Bixby To Speak Before World Forum

Dr. Bixby of the Nebraska State Journal, Nebraska's famous columnist, will speak at the meeting of the World Forum next week.

Plans for the Forum are uncertain as yet. Another society's meeting had partially been arranged for at the Grand Hotel on Wednesday. Consequently, the meeting may be held Thursday noon instead of Wednesday noon. If held Wednesday noon, it may be necessary to hold it in a smaller dining room in which case the sale of tickets will be limited to one hundred. Definite announcement will be forthcoming before the sale of tickets next Tuesday.

Band Working on Special Exhibition For Husker-Tiger Game Saturday

The University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. band is working on special drill formations to be used at the Nebraska-Missouri football game Saturday. Band members, and others as well, noted the formations and marches of the Drake University band in its performance on the field between halves of the Bulldog-Cornhusker game here last Saturday.

In response to this and the fact that the bands of the two schools competing in the game will have entire access to the field between halves in all other games of the home schedule this year, the R. O. T. C. band is making a special effort to give the audience something of interest.

The formations that the band is working on are the making of a large "N". This will be made somewhat similar to the one made by the Drake

FIRST OUTDOOR RALLY WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

Monster Bonfire, Talks, Yells, And Music Will Feature Husker Rally

OVER CONFIDENCE SEEN

Students Urged by Mentors to Keep Morale of Team Up; Tigers Feared

A glowing bonfire will kindle the spirit of Cornhuskers tonight at the rally before the hardest game this season—the battle with the Missouri Tigers. Enthusiasm has already started by the students singing in classes, but a great deal more will be necessary to get "the old Nebraska Spirit" behind the eleven.

The rally starts promptly at 7:15 and will be over at 8 o'clock. The freshmen of the University will have to supply the boxes for the huge fire, which will take place on the field north of the Social Science building. The freshmen should have the fuel on the field by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

All today there will be pep meetings between classes in front of Social Science. The band will add music and cheer leaders will lead the yells. It is hoped that the students will have enough spirit by evening that the rally will give the team a real send-off.

Missouri is the most feared team for Nebraska in the Valley. They have held the conference title for two years, before which Nebraska had it. They also have the greater part of their team back this year, including Lindenmeyer, famous tackle. Nebraska made a good showing against Drake, but over confidence among the students, as was the case last season is being shown. After the Cornhuskers had defeated Illinois, it was thought that little difficulty would be experienced with Missouri, but Nebraska was set back by the Tigers. While Drake was not as strong a team as Illinois last year, the same thing is liable to happen this season due to too much confidence.

Thursday afternoon, two companies of R. O. T. C. men, football fans and the band, between 150 and 200 people went to the fence at the stadium, and cheered so that the squad could hear the yells and songs. Coach Bearg has been working his men very hard this week preparing them for the tussle with the Tigers.

The speakers at the rally tonight will be C. L. Brewer, director of athletics at Missouri, Harold Hutchison, the scrapping Cornhusker of last year, Captain Lonnie Stiner and Frank Latenser of Omaha. The talks will be short and filled with enthusiasm.

This rally will be the first one held outdoors this season. The one held last week at the Coliseum was very good, but the fans will have to do even better for the game Saturday. The games following Missouri will be away from home and the team cannot play before the entire student body, so the cheering and backing should be tonight and Friday to help the gridsters redeem the defeat of last fall and put their strongest contender for the Valley title out of the running.

Theta Sigma Phi Holds First Meeting of Year

Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic sorority, held the first meeting of the year Thursday. The new officers of the organization assumed their duties. The coming officers are:

President—Ruth Godfrey.
Secretary—Neola Skala.
Treasurer—Elice Holovtehrner.
Plans for getting acquainted with all girls in the School of Journalism were made.

Band Working on Special Exhibition For Husker-Tiger Game Saturday

band, from a formation of ranks of three. The "N" will appear right to both stands of the Stadium but the band members will face the east stand in which the student section is located.

From the formation of the "N" the band will then right-about-face and with only a few of the members marching to a new position, an "M" will be formed. This will be right only to the west stand where the Missouri delegation will be. This will include the Missouri rooters, possibly a band, and the Missouri team.

The band numbers about sixty or seventy men so the letters will be made in the center of the field and take up much of the space. Special effort is being made to perfect this because of the absence of stunts between halves.
