

TEAM HARD HIT BY INJURY JINX

Victory Over Washington May Prove Costly; Several Regulars Out

Taking an easy workout to loosen stiff muscles resulting from the Washington game and return trip, the Huskers spent yesterday afternoon in running signals. The Piker contest added several new names to the injured list and the signal drill line-ups were considerably jumbled.

The 20 to 6 victory over the Washington Bears last Saturday may prove a costly one to the Husker team. Blue Howell suffered a sprained ankle, Jug Brown received a wrenched knee, Wally Marrow bruised a nerve in his shoulder, and Leon Sprague came out with an injured leg. Blue was still at the Lincoln sanitarium yesterday nursing a leg injury. The other boys were out to practice but did not appear in suit.

McMullen Back in Suit
McMullen, regular guard who was injured in the Mizouo struggle, was back in suit yesterday. Raish, who held down the other heavyweight position, is still on the sidelines on account of a sprained ankle received in last week's scrimmage. Dailey, Lee, and Lawson are back in the game, having recovered from their injuries of a week ago.

Despite the overwhelming defeat of the Jayhawkers by the Kaggies, Coach Bearg is not planning on any easy contest when the Huskers journey to Lawrence next Saturday. The sting of the Kaggie defeat, Homecoming Day, a game on their own gridiron—all are incentives which will result in the placing of a fighting Jayhawk team against the Husker eleven.

HARRIERS TAKE STIFF WORK-OUT

Schulte's Distance Men Must Fight "Up-hill" Battle Against Kansas

Kansas' cross country team's strong showing against Kansas Aggies Saturday indicates that Nebraska will have a hard meet Saturday. The Huskers should go onto the Kansas course Saturday in the best shape of the season.

Captain Hays, Chadderdon, Reller, Sprague, Johnson, and McCartney will probably represent Nebraska. The Kansas school has practically her entire championship team of last year back but was only able to beat Kansas by about the same margin by which Nebraska defeated Missouri. The Kansas course is considered one of the toughest in the conference. The runners pull off the track up a long hill that is a real endurance test. The course is a short course run twice so that the men have to climb the hill twice in five miles.

Work on Stadium Steps
Coach Schulte had the team running up the stadium steps last week while practicing for the Kansas hill. Monday night the men took a heavy over-distance workout, running about eight miles over the long practice course. The men are rounding into good shape and should go better than any time this season when they meet

Gets Attention

Arnold Oehrich, Columbus, who started the Washington game as fullback, drew much comment from the fans with his plunging ability.

A numeral meet for track men not out for cross-country will be held at the stadium again this afternoon. Final tryouts to select men to run in the exhibition half mile against Martin, the Northwestern ace, will be held later in the week.

Kansas U. is introducing a loud speaker system this year by which all intricate plays will be explained to the spectators, and other information as to the progress of the game will be announced.

IN THE VALLEY

By OSCAR NORLING

Stepping into football limelight with their victory over Tulane last weekend, "Chick" Meehan's New York squad is planning on making it a busy day for the Huskers when they play here the Saturday before Thanksgiving Day. Tulane, which had battled Missouri to a scoreless tie two weeks before, was unable to withstand the line plunging of the New York backs and went down to a 21 to 0 defeat.

Mike Strong, Meehan's fullback, has been kicking some tremendously long punts, some of them traveling nearly seventy yards on the fly. Connor, another punter, has gained a reputation for placing his kicks down the field and out-of-bounds. This does not compare in a favorable light, to the Husker point of view, with the punting displayed by Nebraska in her Valley contests.

Between the halves of the Jayhawk-Kaggie game last Saturday, both the Wampus Cats, Aggie pep organization, and the Jayhawk crew amused the fans with stunts. It has been the custom for the Kansas teams to take their pep organizations to represent them between the halves of their games on foreign gridirons. Since Nebraska has shown its disapproval of such action by denying the Corn Cobs their usual custom of giving stunts at the games, it is doubtful whether the privilege will be extended to the Kansas Aggie pep organization during the Kaggie game here November 6.

More than 1000 Kansas University students, including the University Band, various pep organizations, the freshman squad, and the entire Varsity reserve, made the trip by special train or automobile to the Intra-

Kansas affair at Manhattan Saturday. A hog-calling contest was held at the pep rally the evening before, and the winner was given free transportation to the game.

In contrasting present methods of practicing football with those of the past the Indiana Daily Student remarked that "The practice sessions of Indiana varsity teams in 1887 consisted of a team of the best players in school, outfitted in strange uniforms arrayed against a number of loyal students in their shirt sleeves."

The newest thing in football styles is a satin pants, states the Chicago Herald-Examiner in an article on football uniforms. These silk jeans weigh two ounces less than the old canvas duck, and are just as useful. Their only purpose is for looks, anyway, for the pads that give protection are now made separately and are strapped or taped on. One firm that specializes on jerseys has a patent on a shirt, the tail of which is guaranteed not to flap in the wind and so cause distress to the refined spectators. The modern outfit, from chapeau to cleats, weighs fourteen pounds five ounces. That is seven pounds lighter than the equipment of three years ago.

The 25-Year Parker Duofold Point

Lifelong Wear Combined with Writing Excellence

In a Non-Breakable Barrel Dropped 3000 Feet

PUT the Parker Duofold point under a magnifying glass and you'll see this. The two nibs are extra strong because made of extra thick gold, so skillfully tempered that they do not have to bind together for support, each is self-supporting. Thus a thin film of ink instantly forms in the channel between these nibs—ready to flow the instant the point touches paper.

To write, you do not have to shake a Parker Duofold or spring the nibs apart. The Parker writes immediately by its own weight alone—without pressure, without effort.

A point tipped with an extra large pellet of pure native iridium that defies a generation of wear.

And we can guarantee it for 25 years not only for mechanical perfection but for wear!
