

"But little pleasure would a man have if he did not flatter himself."—Renaud

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

"We enter and utter a cry—and that is life! We yawn and depart—and that is death!"—Moliere

VOL. XXVI. NO. 25

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1926

PRICE 5 CENTS

"Y" DRIVES TO START EARLY IN NOVEMBER

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Join To Ask Support From Students and Faculty

CHEST FUND CUT DOWN

University Organizations Need Funds More Than Before, Committee Chairmen Declare

The University Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. are making plans for a simultaneous campaign for financial support from the campus the first week in November, according to Eloise MacAhan and Ralph Bergsten, finance chairmen for their respective organizations. Bob Davenport has been appointed as campaign chairman for the Y. M. C. A., with Oscar Norling as vice chairman, and Miss MacAhan will act as campaign chairman for the Y. W. C. A.

The two campus Christian Associations are facing a critical situation, according to Davenport, because of the drastic cut made in their allotments in the Lincoln Community chest budget for the year ahead. Last year the Y. W. C. A. was in the chest budget for $1800, this year for only $1200. The Y. M. C. A. was reduced from $3500 to $1800.

"Our expenses will be the same," stated Miss MacAhan, "and if the program which has been carried on is to be continued, funds to make up the $600 deficiency for the Y. W. C. A. and $1700 for the Y. M. C. A. must be secured outside of the chest. The two associations, therefore, must depend more than ever upon the support of the campus."

"Increased student subscriptions alone can not be expected to make up for the reduction in the support of our campus Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. by the Community Chest," was the statement made by Bergsten. "We must ask faculty members who are interested to come to our support through sustaining memberships in the two organizations. This is not a new plan, but we need now increased support from this source. I am sure all faculty members want to see the very useful program of the two associations continued."

The Y. W. C. A. drive committee has held several meetings with the captains preparatory to the actual campaign. The Y. M. C. A. committee and captains met for the first time Wednesday night in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

SCHULTE ARRANGES FALL TRACK MEETS

Freshmen and Varsity Will Tangle In Opener October 27; Greeks To Enter Competition

A series of special fall track meets to be held shortly was announced Wednesday afternoon by Coach Henry F. Schulte. One of the weekly numeral meets is to be held this afternoon.

Besides the regular numeral meets, Coach Schulte has arranged three special meets. The Freshmen and Varsity will meet in a track meet as the opener of this series on October 27. On November 3, an inter-fraternity track meet will be run off and an inter-fraternity cross-country will be run November 10.

All fraternities intending to enter either the track meet or the cross-country meet should register at the athletic office for them immediately.

The regular numeral meets will be continued on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the fall. If the weather is good, indications from performances last week and this are that some good marks will be turned in this afternoon.

Interesting Sidelights on Student Life In the Eighties in Nebraska Alumnus

Many interesting and amusing sidelights on student life in the eighties are contained in an interview with Mrs. H. R. Angelo, '81, which appears in the October number of the Nebraska Alumnus.

One of the items of chief interest and perhaps practical value is contained in the following words, "When the military department was instituted, few of the men were able to afford new suits besides their regular clothes so they bought the regulation blue ones with a blue cap and two sets of buttons—one brass with the governmental insignia, the other black rubber. Many a time Mrs. Angelo helped clumsy masculine fingers to "change buttons" when drill time came.

Bobbed hair is regarded by the girls of today as typically modern, but such is far from the truth for Mrs. Angelo says that then the girls wore their hair exactly as the boys except that it was parted in the

Helen Turley to Appear In Thursday Convocation

Helen Turley, contralto, will appear at the convocation Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at the Temple building. Mrs. Turley lately returned from New York and is returning in a week or two. Marjorie Little will be her accompanist. Following is the program:

Group I
Invocazione di Orfeo.....Jacob Peri Stormello
Cimara Aria—O, Don Fatale, from Don Carlos.....Verdi

Group II
Estralita—Mexican folk songs, arranged by.....Frank La Forge
The Fairy Pipers.....Brewer
The Heart of a Rose.....Warren

ANNUAL PHOTOS ARE DUE NOV. 13

Pictures For Class Sections In Cornhusker Must Be Taken At Once

"The number of upperclassmen that have made arrangements for their photographs for the 1927 Cornhusker is far too small," states V. F. Jones, Editor of this year's annual publication.

It is necessary that the greatest haste be used since all prints are due on or before November 13. A list of eighty Juniors and Seniors appear each day in the Daily Nebraskan under the heading "Studio Assignments". All members of those classes are requested to examine it each day and note whether their names are given. If present, they are asked either to call in person at the studio assigned, or telephone, at the time given, and make an appointment. Fraternity and sorority members should have an extra print made for the panel of their organization. This print will cost fifty cents.

As stated above, the upperclassmen are not cooperating with the Cornhusker and the Hauck and Townsend studios as they should. There are many photographs to be taken and only a few appointments have been made for the purpose. It is imperative that all Juniors and Seniors act with the greatest haste as all prints must be in by November 13. Remember the date, and be photographed as soon as your name appears under the "Studio Assignments" column.

W. A. A. TO ELECT MANAGERS FRIDAY

Will Choose Hiking and Tennis Leaders; Ballot Boxes Will Be Placed in Armory

Election of hiking and tennis managers by the members of the Women's Athletic Association is scheduled to take place Friday, October 22. A ballot box will be stationed at the east entrance of the Armory from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Every W. A. A. member should consider it a duty to vote as the successful candidates automatically become members of the W. A. A. executive board.

The nominees are: Hiking: Marjorie Eastabrooks, Esther Robinson; Tennis: Leara Chapman, Hazel Snavely.

Professor Pool Will Lecture Friday Night

Professor R. J. Pool will lecture on Norway, "The Land of the Sunlit Night" at the first semester banquet of the Baptist Students Club at the First Baptist church at 6:15 Friday evening. He will illustrate the lecture with stereopticon slides.

Worley Gets Zoology Laboratory Material

A large amount of routine material for the zoology laboratories was secured by Mr. Leonard Worley, assistant in the department. Much of this material has been collected and a considerable amount has been purchased by the department.

Mr. Worley spent the summer at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Friday Harbor, Washington. As a result of his work, he was able to secure a large amount of valuable marine material for the department. Some very fine specimens of star fish, jelly fish, crabs, sponges, marine worms, are among the forms of marine life that were secured by Mr. Worley.

Lutheran Club to Seek New Members

The Lutheran Student Club of the University is launching a strenuous membership drive during the next ten days to enlist every Lutheran on the campus as member of the club. The club membership has been divided into groups of twos, and these teams are going to visit the Lutheran students on the campus. The drive will culminate in a rally service for students and Lutherans of the city, on University Church night Sunday at the First Lutheran Church near Thirteenth and K Streets.

MRS. HINMAN TO SPEAK ON CHINA

Other Entertainment Planned For Big and Little Sister Meeting Today

ALL WOMEN INVITED

Mrs. E. L. Hinman will speak on Nebraska's work in China, at the big and little sister convocation at 5 o'clock at the Temple, Thursday. "The Bride of the Dragon King" is the title of the skit which will be produced at this time by the members of the Grace Coppock committee. Geraldine Heikes will have the leading role. The members of the University Girl's octette will give a number of Chinese songs and will be dressed in native costumes. Evelyn Lindeman will give an oriental dance. "The Bride of the Dragon King" is the story of a Chinese prince who in all his great kingdom can not find a lady who satisfies his ideal for a wife. The play has been adapted for use at this time by Ethel Saxton and Audrey Beales with the help of Ethel Hartley who spent four years in China working under Grace Coppock.

The cast for the skit is as follows: Lung Wang—Geraldine Heikes. Counselor—Alice Olmsted. Fisherman—Edna Schrick. Fisherman's Daughter—Audrey Beales. The Fish—Himself. Helen Eastman is general chairman of the convention, Elva Erickson is in charge of the music and Mary Louise Freeman is looking after the publicity.

Big and little sisters are urged to attend together, but all university women are invited. The convocation will begin promptly at 5 o'clock and will last less than an hour.

15 INITIATED INTO BIZAD FRATERNITY

Professors Arndt and Blood Taken Into Organization as Associate Members; Banquet Held

Thirteen candidates were initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity Wednesday at the University Club. At the same time, Professors Karl Arndt and F. C. Blood, both of the College of Business Administration were initiated as associate members.

The initiation proper was held Wednesday afternoon at the University Club, and was followed by the traditional Delta Sig banquet. Wayne Gragny spoke on behalf of the newly initiated men, Leslie Brinkworth for the actives, and Arthur Oliver for the alumni. Other speakers were Professors Arndt and Blood, and Melvin Kern entertained with several songs. Victor Brink was toastmaster.

Delta Sigma Pi is an organization in the Commerce college to foster scholarship and leadership, and to develop friendships among the commerce students. It sponsors many activities in the college and stands ready to cooperate in any project which has for its object, the betterment of the Commerce college.

The newly initiated men are as follows: Wayne Gragny, Parker Matthews, Al Gorman, Leo Carpenter, Henry Lucas, Leroy Lucas, John Shepard, Fred Marquard, Arthur Croft, Harold Douthit, Paul Koeller, Fred Hutchins, and Harry Paulson.

Freshmen Council Will Discuss "How Honest Shall We Be In Our School Work?"

The Y. M. C. A. Freshman Student council will meet tonight at 7:00 o'clock, in the Temple to discuss "How honest shall we be in our school work?" Several minor subjects involved in this topic will be discussed as follows: "Is there any harm in cribbing?" "Does friendship to the other fellow demand that I give him needed help during an examination?" "Does the fact that an examination is unfair justify cribbing?"

The committee for the council consisting of Glory Glazier, George Gregory, Clayton Moravec, Dick Van Metre, and Paul Ray, met Tuesday evening and discussed topics for future meetings.

The Freshman council meets every evening from 7:00 until 8:00 o'clock. Considerable interest has been taken in these discussions, but there is still room for a good many freshmen in the group.

Clothing Lectures Are Given Womens Clubs

A series of lessons on clothing selection will be given the women's clubs of Lincoln by the members of the clothing staff in the College of Agriculture. These women will receive University credit for their work. They meet every two weeks in the Social Science building. Miss Morton, head of the clothing department gave the first lecture last Friday afternoon.

Freshmen Women To Be Guests at Picnic

All women who wish to attend the annual picnic given by the Womens Athletic Association will have until Friday evening only to sign the poster, announced Helen Clarke, social chairman Wednesday. As guests, W. A. A. will entertain all the newly entering and Freshman women, and every W. A. A. member will be assessed whether she attends or not.

The menu planned by the refreshment committee sounds ample, to say the least and the picnic will not last long enough to interfere with Saturday evening engagements. Put on your knickers, join the crowd at the Armory steps next Saturday at 2 o'clock and enjoy yourself.

A. W. S. SELL 6000 STAMPS

Stickers Advertising Husker Homecoming Day May Be Bought Now

Stamps, advertising Homecoming, will go on sale this morning. They may be bought for one cent each at sorority and fraternity houses, Long's Bookstore and from members of the stamp committee.

The Associated Womens Student board is sponsoring the sale with Orrel Rose Jack as general chairman of the committee. A pre-sale of stamps has been conducted by the chairman to accommodate sororities and fraternities in sending out alumni letters for Homecoming. Six thousand stamps have been sold for this purpose.

It is hoped by the committee that the students will cooperate in using these stamps on their letters, thus further advertising Homecoming, the primary purpose of the sale. Business houses have supported the project with unusual enthusiasm, reports Miss Jack; eleven thousand stamps having been contracted for. The following firms will use the stamps during the next two weeks on advertising projects: Mayer Bros., Miller and Paine, Magees, Howland-Swanson Co., Ben Simon and Son, Fred Gardner and Son, City Shoe Rebuilding Co., Beachley Bros., and The Famous.

The proceeds of the sale will go into the fund the A. W. S. board is maintaining for the future support of a cooperative house. The board at present has seven hundred dollars in the fund and when it reaches the thousand dollar mark the house will be started.

By this plan a group of women who wish to make their living expenses nominal will be selected to live in the house. They will be required only to buy and cook their own food, and manage the house, the general running expenses being paid by the A. W. S. board. One of the dormitories will probably in the future be converted to this use. The plan of a cooperative house has been very successfully worked out by the A. W. S. board at Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois Universities.

DISCUSSION GROUP TO MEET TONIGHT

Freshmen Council Will Discuss "How Honest Shall We Be In Our School Work?"

The Y. M. C. A. Freshman Student council will meet tonight at 7:00 o'clock, in the Temple to discuss "How honest shall we be in our school work?" Several minor subjects involved in this topic will be discussed as follows: "Is there any harm in cribbing?" "Does friendship to the other fellow demand that I give him needed help during an examination?" "Does the fact that an examination is unfair justify cribbing?"

The committee for the council consisting of Glory Glazier, George Gregory, Clayton Moravec, Dick Van Metre, and Paul Ray, met Tuesday evening and discussed topics for future meetings.

The Freshman council meets every evening from 7:00 until 8:00 o'clock. Considerable interest has been taken in these discussions, but there is still room for a good many freshmen in the group.

IOWA STATE READY FOR TIGER BATTLE

Cyclone Squad Optimistic Concerning Coming Game with Missouri Valley Champions

Ames, Iowa, Oct. 20.—Special: A new note of optimism is noticeable in the Cyclone camp this week as preparations are made for the Dad's day game with Missouri at Iowa State Saturday. Outplaying Grinnell in every department of the game that was hoped to be another Pioneer victory, the young Cyclones have demonstrated to Cardinal and Gold followers that they have a stone wall defense, and a great line plunging backfield, however lacking in weight and experience the Iowa State machine may be.

The great showing of Holladay Smith, new Cyclone tackle, and Kingery, veteran Iowa State lineman, were bright spots in the Cyclones scoreless tie Saturday. The giant colored tackle looms up as the outstanding new man on this year's Iowa State team. Kingery, who plays the other tackle position, was one of the mainstays in Iowa State's stonewall act against the Pioneer cork screw attack.

On Saturday Iowa State will meet the team that has won the Missouri Valley conference championship for two years and stands a good chance of repeating. The Tiger machine will outweigh the Cyclones 12 pounds to the man, both on the line and backfield.

CARNIVAL DANCE ON HOMECOMING

New Features Added to 1926 Military Carnival, The Committee Says

GAMBLING IS BANNED

Plans for the Military Carnival dance, to be held November 13, are complete, according to John A. Boyer, general chairman of the carnival committee. Interference by the city police have altered the plans somewhat and no gambling devices of games can be sponsored by the committee this year. This changes the aspect of the Carnival entirely but it is rather for the better than the worse, according to the committee.

When the former plans were shattered by the city authorities, the committee was forced to make new arrangements. Something entirely new and very different will take the place of the old booth system followed in former years.

The Military Carnival dance will not be a mixer in any sense but will be instead the best party dance in the city that evening and will have several features that will be attractive to every student and every returned alumni. A big surprise is to be given those who attend. What this is has not been revealed by the committee and will be held secret until that evening.

November 13 is the date set for Homecoming and the Military Carnival dance is given in honor of the returned alumni, not only of the Military department, but of all departments.

Several attractions will be offered for the benefit of the alumni but the program as a whole will please both the students and the alumni.

All of the committee members are working hard to put this new program across and they promise the school the largest carnival dance of the year.

LARGER AWGWAN IS NEW PLAN OF STAFF

List of Contributors Will Be Added To Representatives Wanted In Campus Organizations

In accordance with a general plan to increase the size and scope of The Awgwan, campus humorous publication, a drive for new contributors will be made by the staff during the next week. A determined effort will be made to discover campus humorists who have not submitted copy to the magazine. The drive is being conducted by Merle S. Jones, '27, associate editor.

The plan of the drive includes the appointment of local editors in each of the social organizations on the campus. The duty of each of these editors will be to compile all the comedy originating in his house during the month and submit it to the magazine. Appointments to these positions will be suggested by Betty Bell, '30, for the women's organizations, and by Dwight Wallace, '27, for the men.

All students not reached by this drive are urged to contribute whatever humorous material they may originate. Particular instructions and suggestions for contributors may be found in the University bulletin.

This Week Last Chance To Buy Freshman Caps

This is the last week for freshmen to buy their green caps at Magees, according to an announcement from the green cap committee.

All freshmen who have not bought the caps are urged to show their class spirit and equip themselves with the headgear before the freshman barbecue when freshman class organization will begin in preparation for the Olympics.

The wearing of the green caps is emphasized by the committee as a great help for developing proper class spirit.

GOOD HAMMERS ON AUTHORITY

Lincoln Lawyer Says It is Basis of Religion in Opening World Forum Series

"The Christian religion is a religion for a life to be lived and a reason for living that life. If there is not to be anarchy, it must be dependent upon the authority of an undivided church," declared Paul Good, Lincoln lawyer, in his address on "Authority As A Basis of Religion" before the World Forum Wednesday noon. About two hundred fifty students attended the weekly luncheon held at the Grand Hotel.

Mr. Good's address was the first of a series of three talks on the basis of religion to be presented at World Forum. A discussion of "Rationalism" will be given next week by Mr. Edwin C. Palmer, minister of the Unitarian church and the series will be closed the following week with an address on "Mysticism" by Professor P. B. Sears of the botany department.

"I find it difficult to see any real antithesis or agreement between the three subjects to be discussed in this series," declared Mr. Good. "I believe that the authority of the church is the only rational way to obtain the full value from all mystical experiences." Mr. Good then explained that he didn't wish to start an argument with people of other faiths. He stated that he did not believe it was the function of an individual to criticize those not in the same religious fold.

The necessity of authority was then pointed out by Mr. Good. "People talk of the freedom of modern life as if it were the most important thing," he declared. "It seems to me that we cannot have freedom without authority. Men have been greater slaves under anarchy than under any other form of government. The only question, then, is—what is the basis of religious authority?"

Mr. Good then called attention to the present situation of religious anarchy which he said was partially responsible for the disrepute into which religion has to some extent fallen. He asserted that authority should, however, appeal to reason. "Thousands of reasonable men," he stated, "have accepted the authority of the church."

Mr. Good proceeded with his discussion on the basis of two assumptions, that religion as a relation between man and God was valid and that the Christian religion was valid. He pointed out that the authority in Christian religion comes from above as contrasted with the condition in a democratic state in which authority comes from below. He acknowledged his belief in the Christian religion as a revealed religion.

The authority of an undivided church was put forward by Mr. Good as the only logical source of authority. (Continued from Page Three.)

Procedure of Nebraska Legislature Is Topic of Address by Mrs. Senning

The procedure of the Nebraska legislature from the opening to the adjournment was the topic of an address given by Mrs. J. P. Senning of the Nebraska Legislative Reference Bureau as a part of the radio program of the University Extension department Tuesday afternoon. Occasional references to the past sessions, such things as the "third party" or the "lobby", and a word about the personnel gave a little of the inside of civil work that few people learn about.

Mrs. Senning first told of the coming election and some of the changes this year as compared with last year. "Two weeks from today the electors of Nebraska will elect the state and county officers, who will carry on the business of the state for the next two years," the speaker explained. "The constitutional convention of 1919-1920 by an amendment to the constitution adopted by the people on September 21, 1920, authorized the legislature to provide for new legislative apportionments when necessary, though not oftener than once in ten years. There are one hundred members of the house of representatives and thirty-three senators elected from districts of as nearly equal population as is possible. They are elected for terms of two years but unless there are special sessions of the legislature their duties practically end at the adjournment of the regular legislative session in the odd-numbered years.

She next told of the procedure of both Houses before they are ready for their regular routine of work. The selection of a clerk, a speaker, a committee on credentials and other employees necessary in the first procedure and on the third day a joint session of both houses is held to hear the message of the governor or governors.

Standing Committee Appointed
The last duty before the houses are ready for business, is the appointment of the standing committees. Mrs. Senning stated, "It is not ne-

400 EXPECTED TO BE ABOARD 'K. U.' SPECIAL

350 Students Buy Low-Rate Tickets to Lawrence; More Are Expected

AUTOS TO CARRY SHARE

Cornhuskers Will Rally At Kansas University When Huskers Play Saturday

Nebraska's football enthusiasts will board a special train to cheer their team to greater efforts when it invades the territory of the Kansas Jayhawks. It is expected that a large percentage of the student body will follow the eleven to Lawrence to witness the fourth gridiron combat of the season. The train will include the University Band, the Corn-Cobs, the Varsity reserves, the freshman squad, faculty members and students.

Dean Amanda Heppner has announced that the ruling that the women must buy sleeping-car reservations has been retracted and that at least two chair cars for women will be placed in the train. If the demand warrants, another chair car will be added. The chair car rate is considerably cheaper than the sleeper, and many more women will be able to make the trip.

The cars containing the co-eds will be chaperoned by Miss Simpson and Miss Wagner, instructors in the Physical Training department. These coaches will be more or less segregated from those containing male students, as the pullmans and day coaches for the women will be placed together. Other than this, the make-up of the train is not definite. However, the Corn-Cobs will occupy one coach, the freshman football one and the Varsity substitutes another.

The train leaves Lincoln at 11:30 Friday evening. There will be no rally for the team when it leaves for Lawrence. The regular football players will go on a train which precedes the special, and will go to Kansas City where they will remain until the morning of the game. The special train will arrive in Lincoln at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

Reports from the Union Pacific ticket office, Latsch Brothers and John K. Selleck show that thus far about 350 special rate tickets have been sold. A great number of students are planning to drive to Lawrence and probably a great many more will not know whether they will go or not until the last minute.

OBSERVATORY OPEN HOUSE NOVEMBER 9

Professor Swezey Will Lecture On "The Astronomy of the Earth;" Telescope to be Open

Professor Swezey of the University Department of Astronomy will hold the next open house at the observatory from 7 to 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 9. The public is invited to attend and view the skies through the telescope and listen to a short lecture at 8 o'clock on "The Astronomy of the Earth." These lectures, while short are instructive and very popular.

In the lecture, Professor Swezey will talk of important knowledge of this earth which is gained only through astronomy. All latitude and longitude, accurate time, and surveying depend upon astronomical calculations. This science gives us our knowledge of the weight, elasticity and composition of the earth and its movement in the solar system. These points and many others will be taken up in more detail in the lecture.

Mr. Good then called attention to the present situation of religious anarchy which he said was partially responsible for the disrepute into which religion has to some extent fallen. He asserted that authority should, however, appeal to reason. "Thousands of reasonable men," he stated, "have accepted the authority of the church."

Mr. Good proceeded with his discussion on the basis of two assumptions, that religion as a relation between man and God was valid and that the Christian religion was valid. He pointed out that the authority in Christian religion comes from above as contrasted with the condition in a democratic state in which authority comes from below. He acknowledged his belief in the Christian religion as a revealed religion.

The authority of an undivided church was put forward by Mr. Good as the only logical source of authority. (Continued from Page Three.)

Mr. Good then called attention to the present situation of religious anarchy which he said was partially responsible for the disrepute into which religion has to some extent fallen. He asserted that authority should, however, appeal to reason. "Thousands of reasonable men," he stated, "have accepted the authority of the church."

Mr. Good proceeded with his discussion on the basis of two assumptions, that religion as a relation between man and God was valid and that the Christian religion was valid. He pointed out that the authority in Christian religion comes from above as contrasted with the condition in a democratic state in which authority comes from below. He acknowledged his belief in the Christian religion as a revealed religion.

The authority of an undivided church was put forward by Mr. Good as the only logical source of authority. (Continued from Page Three.)