Coach Bearg has picked these men to start against the Kansas Aggies this afternoon. They should make up a defensive wall which will be hard to beat. They are all in good condition and ready for the whistle.

COUNCIL REQUESTS SILENCE IN HALLS

"The Thanksgiving contest is one that students will be looking forward to and the days preceding this game should be most enthusiastic ones; there cannot be an excess of clean cut, well intended, true Nebraska spirit. Classes are dismissed Thursday and Friday, but Wednesday's classes will be held as usual and every effort will be made on the part of the Student Council to uphold the Executive offices in their desire to discourage the "hall gangs", the Council statement declared.

Response to this request, the Council asserted, they felt confident would meet with the cooperation of the student body. Probably many have not stopped to consider that instructors attempting to hold classes may often times be disturbed by the noise in the halls.

Princeton Abolishes Hazing
The student council at Princeton University has ruled that freshman hazing be abolished because it is both an expensive and foolish tradition.

Secretary of Home-Ec National Society Here

Miss Alice Edward, executive secretary of the American Home Economics Association, visited in Lincoln last week. She appeared on the program of the Home Economics Section Friday, was honor guest at the luncheon at the Cornhusker Hotel, and talked to a group of deans of women of various colleges of the state.
