PLAYERS GIVE PULITZER 1926 PRIZE PLAY

"Craig's Wife" Presentation By University Actors Is Well Received

PERFORMANCE REPEATED
Student Matinees to be Given Today and Tomorrow; Shows Both Evenings

"Craig's Wife," 1926 Pulitzer prize play presented for the first time Thursday evening by the University Players, more than fulfilled all expectations held in it with a splendid cast and unusually fine portrayals, before a small, but enthusiastic audience.

Eleanor Fogg Whitham, in the role of "Mrs. Craig," the selfish wife who is house crazy, together with Thad Cone, in the role of Mr. Craig, were splendid. Mrs. Whitham scored with her excellent shading and modulation of her lines. Esther Zinnecker, as Miss Austen and Cleo Slagel, as the honest and open-minded domestic offered unusually creditable performances. The rest of the cast were capable, and handled their parts with skill and ease.

Play is Strong Drama
The play, written by George Kelly, author of such dramas as "The Show-off," and "The Torch Bearers," is a remarkably strong drama of domestic life. The fate of a home as involved in the continued efforts of narrow-minded wife is truthfully and naturally carried out in the plot and lines of the work, which are exceptionally fine.

The play will be repeated at student matinees both Friday and Saturday, with evening performances at 8:30. The Saturday matinee will commence at 2:30, but will start this afternoon at 3:00.

ANNUAL BOWLING TOURNAMENT OPENS

Fourteen Teams Enter Tournament; First Round Complete This Afternoon

Thursday Results
Beta Theta Pi, 1893; Sigma Nu, 1954.
Xi Psi Phi, 2247; Zeta Beta Tau, 2061.
Kappa Sigma, 2390; Delta Upsilon, 2248.

Friday's Games, 4:00 P. M.
Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Theta Chi. Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Mu Sigma. Phi Kappa vs. Phi Sigma Kappa. The annual inter-fraternity bowling tournament got under way last evening at seven o'clock with the Sigma Nus, the Beta Theta Pis, the Xi Psi Phi, the Zeta Beta Tau, the Delta Upsilon and the Kappa Sigma on the allies. These teams started the first round of the tournament. Being only fourteen teams in the tournament the first round will be completed Friday afternoon. The two teams to draw byes were the Phi Delta Theta and the Pi Kappa Phi.

Games Close Contests
All the games Thursday evening were very close contests none being over two hundred in the difference in the scores. The Kappa Sig took the place for the team having the highest individual score with total of 900 pins. Krall, Kappa Sig, was the high individual scorer of the evening with 609 pins and Freese, D. U., was the second high with 548 pins. These were the only two men to make over 500 pins.

COUNTRYMAN STAFF MEET FOR DINNER

New Members Discuss Future Plans; Expect to Hold Regular Bi-monthly Dinners

The new staff of the Cornhusker Countryman, official publication of the College of Agriculture met for a dinner and discussion of future plans Wednesday evening in Home Economics Hall.

Emil Glaser '27, editor-in-chief, presided. He outlined the policy which will be followed for the following year and introduced the members of the staff.

Prof. R. P. Crawford, chairman of the College of Agriculture student publication board, gave a short talk on a general nature concerning the future of the Countryman.

It is planned to hold such get-together dinners on the second Wednesday of each month for the purpose of talking over any new plans for improvement of the magazine and to listen to short talks of interest to the staff.

Plays Lead

Mrs. Eleanor Fogg Whitham, who took the leading feminine role in "Craig's Wife," presented at the Temple theater last evening by the University Players. The performance will be continued today and Saturday.

VARSITY DANCE PLANS COMPLETE

Committee Promises Saturday's Party Will Be Big One Of The Season

DECORATIONS ARE READY

With the plans for the traditional Varsity party nearing completion, the executive committee promises that this year, as other years, this party will be the big one of the season. A few changes have been made in the plans that were announced originally. Definite plans for entertainment during intermission have not been announced since the preliminary plans were given out.

The job of decorating the armory will begin Saturday morning, Vinton Lawson, of the decorating committee declared yesterday. Extensive valentine decorations are the present plans of the committee. A large heart will be placed at the west end of the floor and will be lighted with an elaborate lighting system. Streamers from this heart will reach in all directions, making this the center of the design. The orchestra stand, and the space reserved for the chaperones will be extensively decorated with streamers and hearts. The decorations will be carried to a much greater extent than has been the custom in the coliseum. The difference in size of the two buildings (Continued on Page Three.)

Lever Will Read From Chesterton

The Rev. John H. Lever of Trinity Episcopal church will read before young men interested in books at the University club Sunday afternoon from 4:30 until 6 o'clock.

He will read from G. K. Chesterton. All book lovers are invited.

Daily Nebraskan Inquiring Reporter

Every day he asks a question from different students picked at random on the campus.

Are you in favor of reviving the tradition of a scandal sheet on University Night?
Joe Weir, '27, Superior, Agriculture. "It has always been looked forward to with anticipation and it would be all right if handled in the right way."
Helen Reager, '29, Grand Island, Journalism. "It creates more enthusiasm."
Margaret Dunlap, Twin Falls, Idaho, '27, Teachers. "No, I am not."
Wm. Card, '26, Lincoln, Graduate. "If you find anyone with any wit to write it; but I don't think you can."
Joe Hunt, '29, Scottsbluff, Arts and Science. "I do think it adds spice to the whole meal of university night."
Lucille Paddelford, '27, Miller, South Dakota, Agriculture. "It is all right in some phases and in some it isn't. I think it would be all right if it didn't go too far."
Archibald Storms, '28, Holdrege, Law. "All right if it doesn't go too far."
Robert DuBois, '28, Cheyenne, Wyo. Business Administration. "Sure, it's a good idea."
Henry Lucas, '28, Omaha, Business Administration. "A good idea if not carried to the extreme."

Three Games Scheduled For Playing Saturday

Interfraternity basketball will continue play at the Coliseum tomorrow morning. A battle between league leaders is the feature of each game.

Games scheduled for Saturday are:
10 a. m.—Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Kappa Sigma.
10 a. m.—Phi Gamma Delta vs. Aencia.
10:30 a. m.—Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Phi Sigma Kappa.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE MUST FILE

Few Filings Made Thus Far; Time Closes at Five O'clock Tonight

ELECTION TO BE TUESDAY

Only one senior, two juniors, and one sophomore have filed as candidates for class officers thus far. No one has filed for the office of freshman class president or Ivy Day Orator. The four class officers and the Ivy Day Orator will be elected at the regular second semester election to be held on Tuesday, February 15, in the Temple lobby.

Today is the last day to file for any of these offices. The filings are made at the Student Activities Offices in the Coliseum. Any student who is qualified in his respective class has an average of 75 percent for the preceding semester and no standing delinquencies is eligible to hold the offices.

The students having less than 24 hours are qualified as freshmen, and from 24 to 52 hours as sophomores, 53 to 88 as juniors, and all students with 89 semester hours or more so long as he is a candidate for graduation is qualified as a senior.

Candidates have been asked by the Student Council Committee in charge of the election to check with the registrar before filing. No candidate disqualified by the registrar's office on Saturday, February 12 will be allowed to run for election on Tuesday regardless of efforts to be reinstated. Scholastic difficulties should be removed by candidates before filing for the offices.

Student Vote Will Decide Ivy Day Orator Choice

At the class elections next Tuesday the question of keeping the tradition of an Ivy Day orator will be settled by a general student vote, according to a decision reached yesterday afternoon by Mortarboard, senior women's honorary society.

A separate ballot containing the candidates for Ivy Day orator will be filled out by the voters, as well as the question of keeping the speaker. The latter will be decided first, so that in case the tradition is ruled out, no votes for the position will be counted.

This action was taken by Mortarboard following the recent discussion of abolishing this part of the Ivy Day program.

FOUR DAYS LEFT FOR PICTURES

Deadline for Cornhusker Pictures Is Set for February 15; Report to Studios

Only four days remain for pictures to be taken for the fraternity and sorority sections of the 1927 Cornhusker. All members who have not yet had their picture taken should report to either Hauck's or Townsend's studios immediately. No pictures will be accepted by the Cornhusker later than February 15.

All commissioned officers of the R. O. T. C. unit are also requested to have their pictures taken as soon as possible. Plans for the military section of the Cornhusker have been completed and the pictures are needed at once. The officers are required to have their picture taken in uniform.

Organizations are again urged to turn in their reports. A full list of members as well as a list of officers, should be sent to the Cornhusker office immediately.

According to W. F. Jones, Jr., work on the annual is progressing rapidly. All of the page borders have been printed and the opening section is nearing completion. At present work is being concentrated on the fraternity, sorority and organization sections.

The offices of the Cornhusker are to be moved from their present location north of the Daily Nebraskan office, to the old dental laboratory on the south side of the basement in University Hall. The new quarters will provide much more room for both the Cornhusker and the "Rag" staffs.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM TO CLOSE FORMAL SEASON

Discarded Tradition Will Be Renewed at Nebraska on March 18

TICKETS TO BE $2.50

Closing Party of Season Will Be Held at the Coliseum Committee Says

March 18 has been set as the date for the Junior-Senior Prom, according to an announcement of Oscar Norling and Kate Goldstein, joint chairmen of the committee, after a meeting held yesterday afternoon. The Prom, which is to be reinstated at the University of Nebraska after an absence from the campus for several years, is given for the graduating Senior class by the Juniors under the direction of the Vikings and Silver Serpents.

Although the name implies that the Prom is to be an affair for Juniors and Seniors only, it is to be different at least for this year, according to the committee. Everyone on the campus will be eligible to attend the event which is to be held in the Field House. The Prom was delayed until after the basketball season to insure a good floor in the Coliseum and will close the 1926-1927 formal season.

Event has Prominence
Although the Junior-Senior prom has been absent from the Nebraska campus for a number of years, old-timers still look back upon previous Proms as events of great prominence. If the affair is a success this year, and the committee has every reason to think that it will be, the custom will be made a permanent one here; next year a definite date will be set aside on the University calendar for it and it will take its place along with the Military Ball and the Pan-Hellenic formal.

A definite date for the ticket sale to be opened has not yet been decided upon, according to Louis Turner, who will be in active charge with the Silver Serpents and Vikings. It will probably begin sometime next week however. A price of $2.50 will be charged for each couple, a price lower than that of previous formal this year.

Arrangements Not Complete
Full arrangements have not been made for the music and entertainment as yet, although several Lincoln and out of the city orchestras are being considered by the committee. Other entertainment will be provided also, according to the announcement made yesterday.

The committee in charge is: General chairmen, Oscar Norling, Kate Goldstein; Entertainment, Harvey Whitaker, Edith May Johnson; Decorations, Robert Davenport, Francis Tait; Refreshments, Henry Jorgenson, Elva Erickson. Reception, Merle Jones, Orrel Rose Jack. Favors, Sam St. John, Helen Anderson. Publicity, Arthur Sweet, Ruth Palmer. Ticket sales, Louise Turner. Checking, Don Samuelson.

Director Asks For More Men Chorus Members

Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, director of the University Chorus, issued a call late yesterday afternoon for fifty more men for chorus members.

Large posters to interest men in this work, she added, "will appear in a few days in prominent places on the campus. No charge will be made," she emphasized, "for late registration in this course which gives one hour credit." All men interested are asked to meet Mrs. Raymond next Tuesday afternoon before the rehearsal at 5 o'clock.

Oratorios and grand opera in concert form compose the work of this class which meets twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5 o'clock in Morrill Hall. Announcement will be made soon of the work for this semester which Mrs. Raymond hinted may be Japanese in character.

Year's Enrollment Grows At Oklahoma

Norman, Feb. 10.—(Special)—Total enrollment for the year at the University of Oklahoma stands at 4966. Later enrollments are expected to bring this total up to 5,000 before the end of the week.

This year's registration shows a gain of 252 over last year when the resident enrollment for the regular year was 4714.

The resident enrollment for the regular term does not count the summer sessions, extension classes, short courses nor correspondence students.

150 Senior Women Vote In Election

One hundred and fifty senior women cast their votes in the election of the May Queen, Maid of Honor, and suggestions for the members of Mortar Board for the year 1927-28, Wednesday and Thursday at the polls in Social Science. This is very nearly double the number of votes cast in the election last year.

The identity of the May Queen and the Maid of Honor will be revealed when they are publicly presented on Ivy Day. The senior woman receiving the highest number of votes will be presented as the May Queen and the one receiving the second highest number will be her Maid of Honor.

The 1927-28 members of Black Mask chapter of Mortar Board will be masked also on Ivy Day. These members are chosen from the thirty junior women receiving the highest number of votes.

Sigma Delta Chi Elects Members

Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, elected new members at a meeting last evening in University Hall 105.

Following are the new members: Edward Dickson, '29, Douglas, Wyo.; Frederick Daly, '29, Cambridge; Jack Elliott, '29, Newton, Kan.; Archibald Eddy, '28, Lincoln; Dwight McCormick, '27, Clayton; and Munro Kezer, '29, Fort Collins, Colo.

KIRSHMAN SPEAKS TO RETAILERS

Finance Professor Discusses Price Stabilization Before State Meeting

"Price stabilization means the steadying of average commodity prices," declared Prof. J. E. Kirshman, professor of finance in an address before the Nebraska Federation of Retailers Thursday afternoon.

"Therefore," continued Professor Kirshman, "the end of stabilization can not go beyond average conditions. Individual prices may continue to fluctuate but if changes in opposite directions offset one another, the end of stabilization as the term is ordinarily used is accomplished."

The speaker pointed out that business men as well as wage earners desire steady commodity prices because it reduces the economic risk of their positions. It is his belief that steady prices would eliminate one of the most prolific sources of loss to business men.

Explains Wholesale Prices
Professor Kirshman explained that wholesale prices of individual commodities are the result of two causes: first where the supply is fixed for intervals of time the general usefulness to the public control the price, which is true of agricultural products. But where goods are manufactured in whatever quantity the public demands the price is controlled by cost of production at the representative plants and mines.

"The changes in the average prices of commodities are," said Professor Kirshman, "the result of two causes: the first cause is found in monetary and currency, second reason for price changes, is found in general changes in the cost of production of manufactured articles."

Prices May Fluctuate
It is the speaker's opinion that the outlook of prices for the future depends on the course of the costs rather than on currency conditions. He stated that if volume production continues and technical improvements also continue the outlook for the continued decrease in costs and prices of manufactured articles. As it is concluded Professor Kirshman prices are likely to fluctuate narrowly as they have since 1922.

Faculty Return From Convention

Dean W. E. Sealock, Prof. R. D. Moritz, Prof. F. E. Henzlik, and Prof. C. C. Weidmann of Teachers College faculty arrived last night from Hastings where they attended the Nebraska State Convention of Superintendents and School Boards held Wednesday and Thursday.

Engineers Plan for Banquet Next Month

The student chapter of A. S. C. E. met Thursday evening, February 10, in Mechanical Engineering 206. It was decided to have a banquet sometime in March, at which time the department chairman for Engineers Week would be elected.

A motion picture of the cane sugar industry of Cuba furnished the educational feature.

Lukart Heads Scabbard And Blade For Semester

Gordon A. Lukart, '27, Riverton, Wyo., was unanimously chosen captain of Scabbard and Blade for the second semester at a meeting held in Nebraska Hall yesterday afternoon. The position was made vacant at this time by the resignation of William Cejnar, who left the office because of the pressure of other activities.

The names of twenty-seven second semester juniors enrolled in the advanced course in Military Science were proposed for consideration at an election of new members to be held next Thursday evening. Ted Johnson and Judd Crocker were named as a committee to verify their eligibility.

Plans for the annual Scabbard and Blade dinner dance were inaugurated by the appointment of a committee to choose a date for the affair. The committee consists of Horace Noland, chairman, Leslie Brinkworth, and Watson Foster.

The members and present pledges of the organization are urged to report at the campus studio next Tuesday at 12:00 o'clock sharp to sit for the Cornhusker picture. The next regular meeting of Scabbard and Blade will be held in Nebraska Hall at 7:15 Thursday evening, February 17.

RIFLE TEAMS ARE CHOSEN

Membership in Inter-collegiate and Seventh Corps Area Teams Decided

TEAMS IN COMPETITION

The membership of the Nebraska Inter-collegiate Rifle Team and of the Seventh Corps Area Team of Nebraska has been decided by Captain Lewis W. Eggers, coach and sponsor of the teams. Both teams are firing in their initial competition of the year this week, and the members have been very busy on the range, trying for desirable and winning scores.

The Missouri Valley Rifle League has formed the schedules of its entrants much the same as are scheduled the football and basketball games in the Missouri Valley Conference. This week the Nebraska Inter-collegiate team is firing against the team of Oklahoma University.

Oklahoma's score has already been received, and Nebraska's team will have to shoot better than 1411 out of a possible 1500 to win the match. Ten men compose the team, and the five best scores are counted in each match. Each man shoots in the prone, standing, and kneeling positions.

Prize Offered to Winners
The National Rifle Association, managing and judging organization of the Missouri Valley Shoot, are offering a prize to the winning school. The teams that Nebraska will fire against in the next four weeks, excluding Oklahoma, are Kansas Agricultural College, Missouri University, Kansas University, and Iowa State College.

NEW OFFICERS ISSUE MAGAZINE

February Issue of Cornhusker Countryman Is Published By New Staff

The new February issue of the Cornhusker Countryman is out under the management of the new officers. Emil Glasier has succeeded Glen Buck as editor-in-chief.

On the frontispiece is a picture of Dean Burnett, of the College of Agriculture, who is now Acting Chancellor.

Several features of this issue are: an article "Why Weeds Leave Home" by Burton Kiltz, a former Agricultural College student, and an article "Ag Campus Beautiful" by W. H. Duman, landscape gardener of the University.

The College of Agriculture conducts the only tractor testing station of its kind in the world. This is described in the issue. The purpose of this station is to test all tractors and thereby eliminate the sale of unstable tractors in Nebraska. Any make of tractor that has failed to pass the Nebraska official test may not be sold within the state. Interested agricultural agents from many foreign countries have come to the College of Agriculture to observe the experiments. Agricultural agents from Russia and Germany recently inspected the station. These tests are of great value to the farmer.

M. B. Fosson, state extension agent in animal husbandry, in an article gives some advice on how to keep the Farmer Boy satisfied on the farm.

NEBRASKA FIVE TO SET RATING IN KANSAS TILT

Nebraska Will Go Into Third Place in Valley Cage Race If They Defeat Aggies

SQUAD LEAVES TONIGHT

Ten Members Accompanied By Coach Black Will Go to Manhattan

When the Nebraska cagers meet the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan tomorrow night, the rating of the Nebraska five will be decided. Nebraska will go into third place in the Missouri Valley cage race if they are successful in defeating the Kansas Farmers. Ten members of the Cornhusker squad accompanied by Coach Black will leave Lincoln tonight at 7:30 o'clock on the Rock Island for the Aggie camp.

Coach Charley Black's warriors of the court have had a reputation so far this year of upsetting the predictions and hope in nearly every game they have played. In the Kansas game they were doped to lose, and again at Norman when the Huskers met the Sooners, sport critics placed the southern school as the favorite but in both games the Husker five came through with a victory. The Aggies were in Lincoln for a tilt with the Nebraska five early in the season and succeeded in taking home the long end of the count 34 to 23.

Faces Hard Game

Nebraska is facing one of the hardest games on their schedule as the Aggie Wildcats are rated as one of the strongest contenders for honors in the Valley. Although the Kansas State team has received three straight defeats from the hands of Oklahoma Aggies, Oklahoma and Kansas, their early season wins have put them in the 500 percentage column with Nebraska. After losing three games, the Aggies will be keyed for the best game of the season and the Huskers after winning from two of the teams that took the Kaggie five into camp will be out to even the odd count.

Varsity has Workout

The Nebraska squad after the sluggish win from the Grinnell Pioneers last Tuesday were going great in practice last night, and the Husker forwards were hitting the rim from all over the court. Last night was the final workout for the boys of Coach Black and the Nebraska coach has his varsity divided into two teams for a fast scrimmage.

Ted Page, Othmer, Klepser, Anderson and Holm were on one team and the second five was made up of Tom Elliott at center, Brown and Captain Smaha at forward, Gerelick and Krall at guard. The two teams were evenly matched and were doing good floor work, Captain Smaha's team winning 14 to 12. The usual free throw practice and basket shooting was also on Black's program last night. Short-shots are being stressed more than ever before by the Husker coach, as it will be the short-shot game that Black will employ against the Aggies at Manhattan.

Squad in Good Condition

The Nebraska squad is in good condition with the exception of "Jug" Brown, Husker forward who has been nursing a bad knee for the past week. "Jug" hurt the weak member again in practice last night, but it will not keep him out of the Nebraska-Aggie game.

Black will take ten men to Manhattan (Continued on Page Four.)

GLEE CLUBS WILL GIVE CONCERTS

Men's Club Will Appear at Numerous Programs During This Month; Broadcast Several

The University of Nebraska Men's Glee Club will take an active part in musical circles during February when they will be heard in three short concerts. The club will sing three numbers as a part of the Charter Day program which will be broadcast by the University on February 15.

Saturday evening February 19, the Glee Club will be heard over KFAB as a part of the Junior Chamber of Commerce program. On Sunday February 27, the University Band and the Glee Club will appear in a joint concert, probably at the Coliseum.

The Varsity Quartet, which is selected from members of the Glee Club, will sing Friday night at the Dental College banquet, and will also be heard by various conventions during the next two weeks.

The entire club with several special soloists will appear in their annual home concert at the St. Paul's Methodist church sometime during the latter part of March.
