

DEBATERS MEET KANSAS AGGIES THISSATURDAY

Two Teams Will Discuss McNary-Haugen Bill in Law 101 Saturday Afternoon

SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED

Fellman, Spear, and Hunt Named to Represent Nebraska in Farm Relief Debate

Nebraska's affirmative debate team on farm relief is ready for the opening clash on the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill Saturday afternoon in Law 101 at 2:30 o'clock. The Cornhuskers will face the Kansas State Agricultural college.

Kansas State comes fresh from an argument on the same subject, "Resolved: That the essentials of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill should be enacted into Federal law," with the University of South Dakota at Vermillion, South Dakota. This is the first debate Nebraska has had on this subject.

David Fellman, '29, Omaha, Lloyd Spear, '29, Superior, and Evert M. Hunt, '28, Lincoln, will represent the Cornhuskers speaking in the order named. Acting Chancellor Burnett, dean of the College of Agriculture since its separation from the Industrial college in 1902 will preside over the discussion of one of the vital farm problems of the day.

White is Judge at Vermillion

H. Adelbert White, Nebraska coach, judged the debate Thursday evening at Vermillion between the Kaggies and South Dakota. He will return to Lincoln with the Kaggie team.

Frank J. Morrison, captain of the Kansas State team, is debating his fourth year in intercollegiate debating. He has also represented Kansas State Agricultural College two years in oratory and is member of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity.

Clarence J. Goering, sophomore, enters the debate for the Kaggies with experience from two freshman debates last year and two years of high school debating. Selection of the first Kaggie speaker has not yet been made. He will be either Solon Kimball or Jay O. Rodgers. One was to debate at Vermillion, the other in Lincoln. Coach Summers of the Kansas State team, stated that he would probably use Rodgers against South Dakota and Kimball here. Kimball is a freshman with two years of experience in high school debating and oratory and participation in a freshman debate with Kansas University. Rodgers is a sophomore with three years of experience in high school debating.

Grinnell Here March 18

The debate is being held in the afternoon to avoid interference with the Nebraska-Kansas basketball game in the evening. This will be the only opportunity to hear the Nebraska affirmative team on this question this year. The negative team will meet Grinnell here March 18 in the next home debate. The affirmative will journey to Grinnell on that date.

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE OFFERED GRADUATES

American-Scandinavian Foundation Offers $1,000 Fellowships in Nordic Countries

The American-Scandinavian Foundation is offering scholarships of at least $1,000 each for graduate study in the Scandinavian countries. Information may be secured by getting in touch with Prof. O. S. Sjogren in room 209, A. E. building, at the College of Agriculture.

Application papers, including letters of recommendation and a photograph, must be filed at the office of the Foundation before March 15. Papers may be sent in directly, or they may be filed at the office of the President or Dean of his college before March 1. Successful candidates will be notified about April 15, after which a final selection of Fellows will be made a jury of university professors and technical experts appointed by the Foundation.

Qualifications for Candidates

Qualifications are that the candidates must have been born in the United States or its possessions. It is necessary that they be capable of original research and independent study and each must submit a complete and definite plan of study. It is desirable that they be college graduates and familiar with at least one language in addition to English, preferably Swedish, Danish or Norwegian.

One academic year is to compose the period of study. Students in forestry would plan to spend the summer at the beginning or conclusion of their work abroad in forests and forest schools, and leave in June or

Students Warned to Keep Ticket Covers

Students holding season athletic tickets are cautioned to keep the covers to their athletic books. The book cover will admit to dual track meets to be scheduled and will also be worth fifty cents towards the admission price of the Missouri Valley track meet to be held in Lincoln May 20 and 21.

Dates will be announced through the columns of The Daily Nebraskan when students may be able to purchase tickets to the Missouri Valley track meet at the reduced price.

PHI SIGS ENGAGE MEDICS TONIGHT

Medical College Tourney Winners Want to Decide Championship of University

PLAY AT COLISEUM

The fraternity basketball championship of the University will be decided tonight when the Phi Sigma Kappa basketball team, local champions, will clash with the Phi Chi team, champion of the Nebraska Medical College by virtue of their victory over the Phi Rho Sigma aggregation. The game will be played at the Coliseum at 7:30 o'clock.

Calvert, McNeil, Feng, Wengert, Genty, Hamsa, Yoder, Bruning, Staley and Wisko are the men that will represent the medic champs at the Coliseum. The Phi Chi team defeated the Phi Rho team by a very decisive score, 31 to 10. The Phi Rho team consisted of Forcade and Weigant at forward, Moritz at center, Wilmarth and Winkle at guard. The Phi Chi team showed plenty of class and will no doubt cause the Phi Sigs plenty of trouble.

The Phi Sig team will probably be composed of Grace and King at forwards, with Lewandowski at center, and Higgins, Nicholson or Beechner at guards.

The interfraternity athletic authorities issued the challenge to the local champions and it was readily accepted by them. A similar challenge was made last year but remained unaccepted.

ADDITIONS MADE TO CONFERENCE GROUP

Twenty-one Names Added to List of University Representatives at Wesleyan Meeting

Twenty-one university women have been added to the group which is to represent Nebraska at the week-end conference on the divine possibilities of human life with Miss Oloolah Burner. The conference is to be held on the Wesleyan University Campus Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Burner is a specialist in religious psychology and a national secretary of the Y. W. C. A. The conference is limited to an enrollment of one hundred in order that the discussion groups may not become too large for real discussion. There will be sessions held Friday evening from 7:30-9:30; Saturday morning from 9:30 to 12:00; Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30; and a Sunday session is to be arranged.

The following women registered today to attend this conference: Cyrena Smith, Mable Utter, Lyndell Brumback, Enid Williams, Elise Willson, Elinor Cooper, Vivian Fleetwood, Elva Erickson, Francis Ledever, Eva Cooper, Olga Sixts, Janice Willis, Dorothy Otto, Florence Lottpeick, Mary Kinny, Aesenth Schill, Margaret Schill, Marjory Sturdevant, Ava Lee, Ruth French.

Lutheran Students Sponsoring Program

The Lutheran Student Club of the University will sponsor a program Sunday at the vesper service of the First Lutheran Church, thirteenth and K Streets. This is the second of a series of services of programs given by the club in the Lutheran churches of the city. The service will consist of short talks by members of the organization and also musical numbers.

The meeting will begin at five. At 6 o'clock lunch will be served, and at 6:45 Mr. Theodore Diers, radio announcer and director of the University radio programs over KFAB will both speak and sing about "Favorite Hymns of the Church." These have been most favorably received over the radio, and all Lutheran students are cordially invited to attend this program. The hour at 6:45 is conducted by the Lutheran Students at the University.

SKIT DEADLINE COMES MONDAY

University Night Committee Says No Copy Accepted After 5 O'clock

ACTS MUST BE COMPLETE

The dead-line for all University Night material is 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. No skits submitted after that time by University organizations or by individuals will be considered, according to an announcement of the committee Thursday evening.

Plans for fifteen-minute skits or for certain acts must be complete. General plans for acts will no longer be given attention, according to members of the committee, who say that there is no time for consideration of skits which are not complete in all details.

Monday evening, March 28, has been selected as the date for the annual fun-fest, which will be held at the Orpheum theater. The faculty committee on student organizations has given special permission to hold the show on a Monday night. Prices of tickets and the date when they will be placed on sale will be announced soon.

Prize Skit Will Be Staged

The University Night committee has again offered a prize of twenty dollars for the best skit submitted. Pi Epsilon Delta, honorary dramatic society, has agreed to stage the prize-winning act. It is understood that Sigma Delta Chi, which won the prize last year with its burlesque, "Bigger and Better," is writing a skit again this year.

Rehearsals on a few of the acts have already been started. The committee (Continued on Page Three.)

BRADFORD DEFINES THE HONOR SYSTEM

Speaker at Ag College World Forum Discusses Arguments Pro and Con at Weekly Lunch

"A mechanical device to get young people to stand on their own feet in order to do things for themselves without cheating," was the definition of the honor system which Prof. H. E. Bradford, chairman of the vocational education department, gave in his discussion before the weekly luncheon of the Ag College World Forum yesterday noon.

He presented arguments for and against the honor system which were followed by a general round-table discussion in which several students and faculty members gave their ideas.

Due to lack of time to complete the discussion, Professor Bradford was asked to continue the discussion at the next meeting on Thursday, March 3.

In speaking for the supporters of the honor system, he stressed the value of character formation in the development of the habits of honesty through the working of the system. The supporters claim this to be accomplished by putting the student on his honor in examinations or in the preparation of notebooks.

Some opponents contend, he stated, that classes are a game and need the teacher for a referee the same as basketball or football need a referee. No definite conclusions were reached in the discussion but it is hoped that every student interested will plan to attend the next meeting.

NEW PLANS GIVEN FOR ANNUAL FAIR

Farmers' Board and Faculty Advisors Meet at Wednesday Dinner to Discuss 1927 Program

Some of the new plans for the ninth annual Farmers' Fair were presented by the members of the 1927 Farmers' Fair board and by the faculty advisory committee at a dinner served in the Ag College cafeteria on Wednesday evening.

The plan for the exhibits was presented by Arthur Hauke, '28, who is chairman of the exhibit executive committee. "With the moving of the Fair to the athletic field in order to make use of the Activities building, it was thought that the exhibits would be centralized," he said.

The new plan for the parade depicting Nebraska's agricultural progress was explained by James Jensen, '28, who is executive chairman of the parade committee. The various floats will represent some phase in the development of Nebraska agriculture starting with the first Nebraska farmer, the American Indian, and ending with the University of Nebraska.

International Friendship Forms Keynote of Grace Coppock Drive

"I wish you could see a Chinese person's face when somebody is talking about taking religion to the heathen Chinese," said Miss Agatha Harrison, who has been in China for several years working on the industrial question, in speaking to a group of girls interested in the Grace Coppock memorial. "Can't you see how galling that must be to China with all her traditions? You must go to her not with the idea of scrapping all her religions and placing above all Christianity, but with the idea of working with the Chinese to solve their problems."

This year when there has been so much discussion and feeling shown against China, there is more need than ever to demonstrate America's friendship and goodwill, the Grace Coppock staff decided. Letters have come from Y. W. C. A. secretaries in China asking not for aid for themselves but that China be allowed to work out her own problems.

So it is that Miss Roberta Chang, a Chinese girl who has been studying in New York for a year, wrote to Miss Harrison during her visit here. "I wish you could let me see that in spite of the nationalistic spirit in China, we also want to cherish international friendship. China is a peace loving nation, and we wish to keep this spirit, and hope that people from other nations will help us do this. "We consider that the Y. W. C. A. is the organization to fulfill this purpose. We have faith in it. Therefore we want to keep our Y. W. C. A. always the organization for international good will. How can we do this unless we have workers from other countries to work with us, to develop our leadership or make our program more ingenious does not mean that we want the Y. W. C. A. to be an inclusive organization, but in order to make the association's work more fruitful.

"We need people who have sound religion, the Christ-like spirit, and a real love for people. In other words we need people who have the willingness to work with us but not for us."

There will be a meeting of the team captains Friday afternoon at Ellen Smith Hall at 5 o'clock. The following will head teams for the Grace Coppock Memorial drive: Mable Utter, Helen Van Gilder, Hazel Sutton, Edna Shrick, Ethel Saxton, Elva Erickson, Helen Eastman, Audrey Beales, Ada Bauman, Moselle Austin and Helen Anderson.

Mary Louise Freeman will have charge of all publicity and Ernestine McNeil will be chairman of the dinner and tea committees.

BOWLERS REACH DECIDING ROUND

Kappa Sigs and Xi Psi This Win Semi-Final Matches Thursday Evening

The Kappa Sigs and the Xi Psi This came through the semi-finals to play for the championship of the annual bowling tournament. The Sig Eps and the Delts put up a strong battle but were decisively defeated in the end. The work of all the bowlers was very consistent. On the winning teams the average was over 400 pins. The Kappa Sigs defeated the Delts in an exciting contest and had a final score of 2414, the highest score made by any team in one match. The high scorer of the evening was Walter, Kappa Sig, who downed 521 pins for the honor.

The summary of the game follows:

Gish Outlines Plans for Annual Basketball Tourney Over Radio

Information about the coming basketball tournament was broadcast by Herbert Gish, acting director of athletics, from the University studio on Wednesday afternoon. "The Seventeenth Annual Nebraska High School Basketball Championships will be held in Lincoln, on the University of Nebraska campus March 10, 11, and 12," Director Gish began. "As usual, the championships will be under the auspices of the Department of Athletics. This tournament continues to be the largest of its kind in the country. It is true that a good many states have more high school teams than has Nebraska but in no state is the union do as many teams meet for a central championship as here in our own state. As originally stated, this is the Seventeenth Annual tournament, the first being held in 1911 with 21 teams taking part. The 1926 tourney will probably go down in Nebraska basketball history as the largest of all basketball tournaments anywhere in the country, this because of the new entrance requirements which have recently been put into effect and which will govern this year's tournament. It is now necessary for a school to win at least 40 per cent of their regularly scheduled games in order to be eligible for competition in the tournament. Previous to this the tournament has been open to all the teams in the state."

According to the ruling of the High School Athletic Board the team must win 40 per cent of its regularly scheduled games. Tournament games are not regularly scheduled games and therefore do not apply toward tournament entrance. Neither do games with non-members of the Nebraska High School Athletic Association. Tournament games and non-member games therefore should not be reported on the official entry blank. Especially is this of importance to the schools close to the state border who play teams from across the state line. If the out of state team is a member of its respective state athletic association, the games count and should be reported.

University Players Class Presents Play

A group of students from the University Players class presented a one-act play, "Thursday Evening", in a College of Agriculture convocation yesterday morning. The stage in the new Activities building was used.

The scene of the play was in the kitchen in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John. The theme centered around the presence of the mothers of the husband and wife which was cause for a quarrel between the young couple. The mothers-in-law, hearing the quarrel, feigned a quarrel between themselves. The couple, overhearing this, made amends and smoothed over the difficulty.

Rose Cecil '27, played the part of Mrs. John; Jack Rank '27, the Husband; "Nancy" Foreman '27, the wife's mother; and Ardath Srb '27, the husband's mother.

CAGERS PRIMED FOR TILT WITH JAYHAWK FIVE

Coach Black's Basketeers Point Toward Important Game With Traditional Cue

HUSKERS HOPE TO REPEAT

Team Plans to Turn in Second Victory of Season Over Habitual Champions

The University of Nebraska basketball team will meet the Kansas University five on the Coliseum floor Saturday evening for the last home game of the season. The game is an official Missouri Valley game and will start at 8:15 o'clock with Fred Williams of Kansas City officiating.

Nebraska's title hopes rest on this game with the Kansas Jayhawkers and the Nebraska coach is whipping his Scarlet and Cream cagers into perfect condition for the last effort on the home court and in a final attempt to take Coach "Phog" Allen's Jayhawk team into camp. The Nebraska team is in the best of condition, and, with the exception of "Jug" Brown, are going a faster pace than they have all season.

Brown's Loss a Blow

With the loss of "Jug" Brown, Coach Black had a problem on his hands, but quickly did the Husker coach solve the problem of finding a running mate for Captain Clark Smaha. With Ken Othmer in the forward position opposite the Nebraska captain and Ted Page in the center ring, the Cornhusker basketballers have a powerful offensive five that will make hard sledding for any of the Valley guards. Big Ted Page is the cog of the Husker machine with four fast floor men revolving around him with machine-like precision.

Captain Clark Smaha is the scoring ace of the Husker quintet and at the present Missouri Valley rating he is second, being topped only by Byers of the Kansas Aggies. Clark is a dependable forward who can come through with baskets when baskets are needed. The Kansas-Nebraska game Saturday night will be the last time the Cornhusker captain will be

Daily Nebraskan Inquiring Reporter

Every day he asks a question from different students picked at random on the campus.

Question asked: What do you think of probation week?

Where asked: Various places on the campus.

Clarence Schulz, A. S., '29, Scribner. "It is utterly nonsensical."

Mary Dolan, A. S., '29, Lincoln. "I don't approve of it."

James E. Duffy, A. S., '30, Omaha. "I have been looking forward to this week-end ever since I entered the University. The practice is highly commendable and has my entire approval."

Mary E. Parkins, A. S., '30, Ord. "I think it's the 'bunk'."

William Kearns, A. S., '29, Omaha. "Pretty good idea—for every one but the freshman."

Helen McNeely, A. S., '30, Red Cloud. "It's all right but it should be a little more strenuous. How can the 'cocky' attitude be taken out of a freshman, without a broken neck?"

Helen Krug, A. S., '28, Omaha. "It is extremely childish. People should get over that before they come to college."

Louise Marsden, A. S., '30. "I don't know much about it, but it sounds absurd."

Fritz Daly, S. of J., '29, Cambridge. "It's a great thing, very uplifting."

Dorothy Deck, A. S., '30, Atkinson. "Rather pointless."

Dwight Wallace, A. S., '28, Casper, Wyo. "It's a good thing for the general run of freshmen if it isn't carried too far."

Louis Turner, Bus. Ad., '28, Omaha. "O. K."
