Thirty Faculty Members Plan
 To Give Talks

Vermillion, S. D., March 26.—
 About thirty South Dakota high schools will have commencement speakers from the staff of the University of South Dakota, according to a report made by the Extension Division. A large number of schools have requested information and some have made arrangements for University speakers for the commencement exercises. Among the faculty members who have expressed a willingness to speak at commencement exercises in the state are J. H. Julian, vice president and dean of student affairs; John C. Tjaden, professor of German; Harry G. Barnes, instructor in public speaking; E. M. Stevens, professor of psychology; E. S. Sparks, dean of the college of arts and sciences; Harry W. Vanneman, professor of law; William H. Batson, professor of education; Charles C. Josey, professor of philosophy; Olin C. Kellogg, professor of English; Craig S. Thoms, professor of sociology; Lester W. Feizer, professor of law; Arthur L. Keith, professor of Greek language and literature; and R. J. Bradley, associate professor of education.

A few hours more, University Night will be over, and most of our collective reputations will be ruined—at least temporarily. So when you are feeling blue—after the deed is done—get out the Nebraskan and read the column, again.

Are You Feeling Blue Because Of—

all the things you are afraid they will say about you University Night? Well, if you drop in to see those six new low heeled models in Speier's shoe department, you'll recover your sense of humor. Should you go so far as to buy a pair you'll be able to stand anything they say with a smile. Don't forget that Speier's specialize in narrow sizes, and as for colors—just listen—Dawn, Shell Green, Rose Blush, Stone, and Stroller Tan. Then, just to make your latest acquisition complete, stop for I. Miller hose. They are matched to the shoes and are sheer and fine to meet the demand of the most fastidious college maid. Stop at Speier's tomorrow and you'll not be disappointed.

All Aboard For The Picnic Special

The Picnic Special has been running since March 13. Choose your own route and your stopping places. Choose your own lunch, too. It is lots of fun to build your fire and fry your own steaks. Just listen to this for YOUR Picnic Special, and only $1.25. Four individual steaks, ready to fry; French fried or shoestring potatoes; fried bread and butter sandwiches; fresh vegetables, pickles, coffee or punch. That is only ONE of four possible menus at the Idyl Hour. Mr. Austin only asks that is that you place your order at the Idyl Hour at least 30 minutes before you want to start on your trip. Plan your Picnic Special NOW—with the help of the Idyl Hour.

Before Vacation Start Planning—

your spring party. Now, of course, the first thing is an idea. And where to go for that rare thing—an idea? That's not hard to answer—when you have spent a few minutes among the bonnies and bonnets and baskets at George Bros. your mind will be so full of ideas for parties that some of them are just bound to spill over and become realities. There are rose baskets just waiting to be filled and put in the center of some luncheon table. And, oh so much of yellow—yellow chickies, yellow flowers, and the daintiest of yellow nut cups with yellow bonnets nodding at you over the brim. There is no doubt about it—you'll not lack in party ideas if you drop in at George Bros. tomorrow to see their Easter corner.

How Busy They Were—

when I dropped in at Orkin's Smart Shop for Women today. And why? Well, Wasserman in New York buying and every day he sends back something new. Today came a new shipment of Nikro model coats in tweeds and mixtures and soft gay plaids. I had slipped my arms into one of them and snuggled my hands deep into its pockets when I made a curious discovery. The coat, an adorable green plaid, was reversible, and upon being turned inside out became plain demure green. Wouldn't it be fun to have two coats in one? And that is just one of all the numbers of coats there, so just run in and pick out your new spring coat. You'll want something new to take home vacation time.

New Furniture For The House!

"Yes, of course," you said a month or two months or a year ago. "Of course we must have new furniture for the house." And you got it, BUT have you given it moth insurance? Now Evan's has a special process of moth proofing upholstered furniture and rugs—a special room and positively prevent the most persistent moth from entering a campaign against YOUR furniture. Then you won't wonder why "good" furniture wore out so quickly, because it won't wear out so quickly. And don't forget that Evan's is still on the job, cleaning coats and hats and dresses and gloves so that Easter may find the Nebraska Co-ed with a fresh wardrobe. Clean up economically for Easter at
