FARMERS' FAIR TO OPEN SATURDAY

 up of: Arthur Hauke, Woodrider; James Jensen, Madison; Anton Frolik, Dewitt; Gladys Renfro, Venango; Lucille Refshauge, Aurora; and Elsie Marsh, Lewellen.
 "The Pegeant of Progress," a parade depicting Nebraska's progress and the educational exhibits which will be centralized near the student activities building are two of the main features of the fair. "The Quest," a pageant written and presented by the home economics department, will show fifty girls in a production of color, dancing, and music.

Two Dance Orchestras
 The amusement committee has secured a large "glide," the first of its kind to be used in Lincoln. The dance committee is employing two of the best orchestras of Lincoln for the big dance on the main floor of the student activities building.

 The Follies girls and the Snorphenum boys will present their programs of dance and music during the afternoon and evening. The girls will show the old and new in follies, dancing old fashioned and modern dance steps. The boys are presenting an old time Friday afternoon country school program with some real old time music and jiggling.
 For those who wish to see the campus, a sightseeing tour has been arranged. Busses will leave a central depot with informed guides who will explain the interesting places on the campus.
