BANQUET TO CLOSE ENGINEER'S WEEK

Committee of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Dean Potter is a personal friend of Dean Ferguson, and it was through the efforts of Dean Ferguson that the committee was able to get such a prominent man as Dean Potter to address the banquet.

Many Entertainment Features
In addition to the address by Dean Potter, the committee headed by Theodore Blaschke has arranged several other features for entertainment.

The "Sledge", official scandal sheet of the engineers, will be distributed. Following the regular custom, the name of the editor will not be made public.

Sigma Tau will make the scholarship award, and will present a picture of the man elected to the Hall of Fame. This picture will be placed in the Hall of Fame in M. E. building.

A scholarship award in the civil engineering department will be made by Clark E. Mickey, chairman of that department.

Ed Jolley, '27, General Engineers' Week Chairman, has made arrangements to have Tommy Tompkin's Cornhuskers furnish the music for the banquet.

1200 EXPECTED AT ANNUAL FETE DAY

OPEN HOUSE IS VISITED BY 2000

colation starts with a crude drug and by adding water a solvent is formed which produces a liquid.

The room dealing with physiological subjects under the microscope was crowded all during the evening. Many interesting specimens were shown here revealing muscles, blood vessels and the finer tissues.

The last feature of entertainment for the evening was music furnished by the Pharmaceutical orchestra in the large lecture room on the main floor. A favor, compounded by the students of the College of Pharmacy, was presented each guest upon leaving the building.

A University of Minnesota student orchestra will tour the Orient this summer.
