BUSINESS OFFICERS TO HOLD MEETING

Seventeenth Annual Gathering of Association Convened Here May 13 and 14

The seventeenth annual meeting of the Association of University and College Business Officers is to be held at the University of Nebraska, May 13 and 14. The association was organized in the west, and in the seventeen years of its existence has grown to include practically every large university and college west of the Alleghenies. The University of Pittsburgh is the farthest east of all the members of the association. The meetings of this association bring together the heads of the business departments of many of the largest colleges and universities in the country. Problems arising from the business side of university management, and the consideration of their solution, is the principle object of the meetings. Round table discussions and addresses on the various phases of university finance, by the financial heads of the several universities are used as an aid to the solution of similar problems in other schools.

Program
The program of the association follows:
Friday, May 13
Frank H. Walcott—University of Colorado, Discussion.
1:30—Luncheon, Egyptian Room, Lincoln Hotel.
Address of Welcome, Dean Edgar A. Burnett, Acting Chancellor.

Miss Goldstein Goes To National Meeting

Kate Goldstein, president of Gamma Alpha Chi, left yesterday for Columbia, Missouri as the Nebraska representative at the national convention of the national honorary advertising sorority. While in Columbia she will attend many meetings being held in connection with journalism week which is being celebrated this week on the University of Missouri campus, and at which a number of nationally known people will be present. She will return Friday.

Last Review Preceding Inspection Is Wednesday

A Regimental Review in honor of the Reserve Officers' association of Lancaster county will be held Wednesday evening, May 11, at 5:00 o'clock. The review is the last preliminary to the annual inspection which starts Saturday.

Major R. M. Danford and Major H. C. Bonesteel are to be the inspecting officers, and will decide whether the University of Nebraska shall be rated as one of the coveted Blue Star institutions in its military organization this year. The rating is honorary, and one-fifth of the colleges in the country are annually selected to this rank.

Personnel Worker Arrives

Mrs. Florence Robnett who will be in Lincoln Monday and Tuesday under the auspices of the A. W. S. and Lincoln Altrusa Club. Mrs. Robnett will have personal conferences with University women, will conduct round table discussions, will speak at convocation Monday and at Vespers Tuesday. She is an expert in personnel direction and vocational guidance. She is now managing director of the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupations.

Engineers To Meet In Special Convocation

"A special convocation of all Engineers is called for 4:00 o'clock Monday afternoon and is to be held in the Temple theater. Every Engineer is expected to be in attendance and absence from classes for this purpose is hereby approved." Signed O. J. Ferguson, Dean, College of Engineering.

Last Issue of Ag Publication Is Distributed

The last issue of the Cornhusker Countryman, official publication of the College of Agriculture, has just appeared on the Agricultural College campus. It is dedicated to the high schools of the state.

The feature article is "What Will My First Year as a Home Ec Cost Me?" by Alice Loper, '30. It contains a summary of the cost accounts kept by several home ec girls. The average cost for one semester for everything was $275.67 based on sixty accounts. For twenty-four non-sorority freshmen girls, the average was $348.29 for one semester. For four sorority freshmen girls, it was $401.51.

Miller Tells Experience
Another story of special interest is "Our Trip to Europe," by Ross Miller, '27, who recounts his experiences on the cattle boat S. S. Movaria in a trip from Montreal, Canada, to Liverpool, England. Miller made the trip with Theodore King, '26. In this account, he describes the routine on the ship and also some of the places of interest which were visited.

The fifth of the series of "In The Foreground," gives a short sketch of the life of Dr. T. A. Kiselbach who is recognized as an authority on corn breeding. He has also done some (Continued on Page Four.)

Engineers Hold Annual Banquet

Large Number Attend Meeting; Dean Potter Gives Principle Address of Evening
One hundred and seventy-five students and faculty members attended the annual Engineers' banquet at the University Club Friday evening.
Dean A. A. Potter, of the Schools of Engineering at Purdue, was the principle speaker of the evening. His topic was "Taking Stock and Looking Ahead."
"Every thinking person reflects on things past and looks ahead. Let us make an inventory of the things you should have attained as your own because of your schooling and technical training," Dean Potter declared in his opening remarks.
Division Inventory
He divided his inventory into seven heads, saying, "briefly, pour college course is intended to develop in you character traits to act nobly, ability to think straight, willingness to work hard, personality to make you acceptable to your fellowmen, disposition to make friends, aesthetic qualities to enjoy the beautiful, and breadth of vision to take your place (Continued on Page Four.)"

CORNHUSKERS WIN SECOND IN KANSAS MEET

Jayhawk Tracksters Show Heels to Huskers in Spirited Triangular Meet

KAGGIES' WINS ARE FEW

Manhattan Farmers Are Put Out of Running by 63 for K. U. and 60 for Nebraska

Manhattan, Kan., May 7.—(Special to the Daily Nebraskan)—Kansas University, 63; Nebraska 60; Kansas Aggies, 34. Jayhawkers and Cornhuskers ran neck and neck today with the Huskers being nosed out by Kansas in the triangular track and field meet held here today, both teams pulling out far ahead of Kaggies. Considering weather and track conditions, good time was made in all events.

Durisch upset the dope when he beat out Thornhill of Kansas in the discus, tossing the platter 144 feet 6 inches. Thornhill finished second but Hurd and Popsill took in the other two places. Grady, Kansas, excelled in the sprints, winning both the 100 and the 220 with ease. Frank Wirsig appeared in a new role when he finished third in the 100-yard dash. He easily won the pole vault.

Johnson Wins
Glen Johnson turned in two good performances again, taking both the mile and the half mile against fast company. Doornbos made up for his defeat at Krause's hands in the hurdles in the Drake relays, taking first in both barrier races. Fleming also beat Krause in the high hurdles to finish second ahead of Fairchild of Kansas Aggies, third, with Krause fourth. Both hurdle races brought close finishes.

McInerney of Kansas, after finishing second to Grady in both the 100 and the 220, leapt 23 feet 3 inches for first in the broad jump. Almy wafted the spear 172 feet 2 1/2 inches for first in the javelin throw. Nebraska took three out of four places in this event.

Results:
100 yard dash: Grady, Kansas; McInerney, Kansas; Wirsig, Nebraska; Lowe, Nebraska. Time: 10.1.
220 yard dash: Grady, Kansas; McInerney, Kansas; Gartner, Kansas Aggies; Lowe, Nebraska. Time: 22.4.
440 yard dash: Cooper, Kansas; Dailey, Nebraska; Brockway, Kansas Aggies; Woods, Kansas. Time: 51.
880 yard run: Johnson, Nebraska; Moody, Kansas Aggies; McGrath, Kansas Aggies; Axtell, Kansas Aggies. Time: 1:57.8.
1-mile run: Johnson, Nebraska; Moody, Kansas Aggies; McGrath, Kansas Aggies; Chadderton, Nebraska. Time: 4:32.5.
2-mile run: Frzier, Kansas; McCarty, Nebraska; Sarvis, Kansas; Hays, Nebraska. Time: 10:10.5.
120 yard high hurdles: Doornbos, Kansas; Fleming, Nebraska; Fairchild, Kansas Aggies; Krause, Nebraska. Time: 15.3.
220 yard low hurdles: Doornbos, Kansas; Gartner, Kansas Aggies; Krause, Nebraska; Nixon, Kansas Aggies. Time: 25.2.

TEACHERS TAKE WIN FROM DENTIST NINE

Intercollegiate Tourney Starts With Campus Team Handing Defeat To Down-Town Nine

The Teachers College nine were victors over the team representing the College of Dentistry, by a score of 5 to 3, in the first round of the intercollegiate baseball tournament. The teachers displayed a well-balanced fielding and hitting nine, scoring three tallies in the second inning and were never behind during the tussle. The game was played on field directly south of the Municipal Swimming Pool.

"Dutch" Witte, on the mound for the winners pitched good early-season ball, pulling out of two pinches when the Dents filled the bases in the fourth and fifth innings. Witte was credited with five strikeouts during the seven inning fray and issued free passes to but three. Miller playing the center garden for the teachers made several spectacular catches during the afternoon while Kishada, dental abortstop, was the outstanding performer for the losers.

The Teachers College meets the Bizads in the second round of play next week. Below is the lineup:
