BIZAD STUDENTS CELEBRATE TODAY

 10:45 a. m. Athletic activities—Antelope park.

Noon Barbecue lunch—Antelope park.

1:00 p. m. Student-faculty baseball game—Antelope park.

2:30 p. m. Inter-college baseball game—Antelope park.

8:00 p. m. Vaudeville—Lindell Party house.

8:30 p. m. Dancing—Lindell.

10:00 p. m. Special entertainment during intermission.

Winners Will Receive Prizes

The winners of all the athletic events held during the morning at Antelope Park will receive prizes donated by Lincoln merchants. There will be student and faculty races, the main features of which will be a bicycle race between Bernice Trimble and Esther Swislowsky. All contestants to qualify must be registered in their event thirty seconds before each race and be registered in the University for at least one hour.

The barbecue lunch at noon will be welcomed especially after the strenuous events of the morning. The lunch will consist of barbecue sandwiches, buns, salad, pickles, "Coney islands," apples, and "pink" lemonade.

The student-faculty baseball game promises many thrills and much excitement for both the young and old. The inter-college baseball game will probably be between the Bizad team and the Engineering team.

Hold Vaudeville Show

The vaudeville show at the Lindell commencing at 8:00 p. m. sharp will consist of five acts. The acts are as follows:

A. "A Case at First Sight"—Bernice Welch-Edwin Compton. (Sponsored by the Girls' Commercial club.)

B. "Riff-Raff"—Elizabeth Gilbertson, Albro Lundy, Madelin Brown, Margaret Smith, Bernice Allsworth. (Sponsored by the Men's Commercial club.)

C. "Daily Doings"—Nelle Daly.

D. "Faculty Meeting" or "What Have You" (two acts). Members of Alpha Kappa Psi and Delta Sigma Pi.

E. "Jassmania"—Dorothy McKinsey, Madelin Brown, Margaret Smith.

The Revelers will furnish music for dancing immediately following the vaudeville entertainment. During intermission special entertainment will be furnished by Harriet Cruise Kemmerer who will sing the latest songs and by Charles Wiles who will perform on the Xylophone and Vibraphone.

All those who can furnish cars for transportation in the parade to the park and asked to meet in front of the Social Science building at 9:30 a. m. Those who are willing to carry extra passengers should report to William Fleming, Glenn Munn, or Wayne Gragny, members of the transportation committee.

— come here for —
SMART SPORTS WEAR
 All the memorable events which mark the end of the school year demand smart and colorful attire for those gala days. Sports clothes are entirely suitable and most smart for such occasions—choose them from our newly arrived displays.
HATS — should be not only smart but becoming and in keeping with the colorful gaiety of the season. Beautiful models have just arrived from exclusive designers. Felts, straws, silks in high sports shades and becoming shapes. Priced 5.00 to 25.00. Fourth floor
SWEATERS — reign supreme this season in sports wear—and have won their remarkable popularity by the charm and variety they display. If you like tailored trig effects choose those with small students collars that fit closely, if you prefer newer and more unusual styles, choose the new V or square neckline. Stripes, plain colors, checks, and plaids in pastel and high shades. Priced 2.95 and 3.95. Skirts of crepe de chine or flannel are available in our sportwear section to wear with these. Priced 5.95 to 13.75. Striped blazers are also new and most effective for outdoor wear. Priced 5.00 to 12.50. Second floor
DRESSES — are here in complete variety as to style, material and coloring. There are gay prints, sheer plain colored georgettes and attractive combinations of plain and fancy materials. All colors—plain pastel shades, plain high shades and varicolored printed patterns are all here. One and two piece styles, with fluttering panels, tailored pleating, fine tucking are developed in smartly youthful and distinctive styles. Priced 19.00, 29.00, 39.00. Second floor
