WEATHER-Mostly cloudy to-

VOL. XXVII, NO. 11.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1927.

PRICE 5 CENTS

PIGSKIN POISED FOR FIRST GAME OF NEW SEASON

Everything Set for Opening Battle Between Ames And Nebraska

BOTH IN PERFECT SHAPE

Many Candidates Chance To Show Wares

Nebraska and Iowa State will open the 1927 Missouri Valley football season on Memorial Stadium field Saturday at 2 o'clock. The Husker eleven is in perfect condition for the Cyclone aggregation and will attempt to repeat the 31 to 6 victory of last

This is the probable line-up for Saturday's game.

Nebraska	pos.	Ames
James	center	Ayers
Lee	end	Johnson
Lawson	end	Burton
Randels	tackle	Lutjens
Richards	tackle	Smith
McMullen	guard	Roc
Holm	guard	Fischer
Howell	half	Miller
Presnell	half	Holman
Oehlrich	full	Lamson
Brown (C)	quarter	(C) Weiss
Brown (C)	quarter	(0)

Light Workout Today

ballers.

scrimmage with "Choppy" Rhodes awards scholarships which exempt The third eleven staged a fierce freshmen eleven who had the edge on the Varsity scoring a touchdown on an intercepted pass early in the game. The yearlings were holding the reserves to downs and on offense they would carry the ball to Graduation with the cum laude

tee. This is a severe blow to Coach of the graduating class. Bearg's football squad and especially to the kicking department as Elkins was the best punter and kickoff man September 20 Holds on the Husker squad. With the absence of Elkins in Bearg's lineup it looks as if Glenn Presnell, Husker half, will handle the punting job in Saturday's game with the Iowa State

Bearg will continue his policy of the opening game and it is very solar radiation expert at the College

VARIETY PROMISED

All Students and Faculty Members Invited to Annual Program Of Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.

Everything from a demonstration Quaint Wainut Organ of East India magic to games and refreshments are offered to those attending the Annual Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Mixer Saturday evening, from 8:00 to 10:00 in Ellen Smith Hall. All students and faculty members are cordially invited. New students rooms of the State Historical Society are especially urged to come and in the Library building is a solid bring their friends.

"We are making intensive plans and spending much time in preparation for the party," said Dana Easteveryone."

A reception committee will be on 1864. at home, and to introduce them to three feet tall and four feet long it faculty members and other students. still possesses a tone which equals Charades, square dancing, and spethat of the later type organ in melcial stunts and games are among the entertainment offered.

Mary Elizabeth Ball; Entertainment, from Civil war times until after the Frank Denton; Decoration, Frank Mockler; Refreshments, Freida Cur- the World war. The brass reeds are

STUDY HALL FOR ENGINEERS

Prepare Special Room

the Hhrary.

Corn Cobs Requested At Nine This Morning

All Corn Cobs are requested to be in front of Social Science building this morning at 9 o'clock. Members of the organization will meet the Iowa State football team, which will arrive in Lincoln et appear in uniform and with as many cars as possible.

Coach Bearg Intends To Give STAFF NAMED FOR BULLETIN

Board of Editors for Nebraska Law Publication Numbers Twelve Students

PROF. MERRILL IS EDITOR

Announcement has been made of French, John H. Kuns, Phillip H. for entertaining and decorating.

dition to serving as the official or- committee. gan of the Nebraska State Bar As- The date of the fall election for sociation, is devoted to research in the several class officers, the honorand comment upon Nebraska law. It ary colonel and such vacancies as is published by the College of Law may appear on the student council of the University of Nebraska under was set for Tuesday, October 11. tonight before Saturday's game. Sig- as one of the distinctive honors open with the qualifications for each will nal practice for the first two elevens to law students. However, some men appear in the columns of Sunday's was the main number on the Husker for one reason or another find it im- Daily Nebraskan. coach's program last night. The for- possible to accept membership, so ward pass formation was receiving a good bit of the practice session taken as comprising a complete list PLAYERS MAY ADD and then Bearg dismissed his foot- of honor students of the law school.

The law faculty, under authorization of the Board of Regents, also the holders from payment of tuition fees for instruction. Such scholarships are limited in number and awarded on the basis of both scholar-the end of the chain for first downs. degree, with its accompanying mem-"Chief" Elkins will be lost to the still the most coveted honor of law previously announced production. year if they do not see any of the conveniently located and ample Varsity squad by the ruling of the students, and is open to all who at- Ray Ramsay, in charge of production, subscription solicitors. Missouri Valley eligibility committain a position in the highest tenth cited the possible change as due to

Record as Clearest Day for Four Months

September holds the record for the clearest day in four months. Tuesday, September 20, was the clearest day since May 11, according to figthe past in using a large lineup in ures worked out by W. D. Bancroft, probable that all the reserves will of Agriculture. The air has been exget a chance at the Cyclone eleven. tremely clear which gives the sun rays, violet and ultra-violet, more of

AT SATURDAY MIXER rays are very helpful to the health of tuted without changing the proposed the human body. On the day of variety of the season offerings. Sepetmber 20, the radiation of the sun was increased 25 per cent over the shorter wave lengths.

Graces Library Rooms Of Historical Society

One of the quaint curiosities which greets the eye of every visitor to the into the state.

man, chairman in charge. "There Cornell family of Verdon, and was give talks. will certainly be plenty of fun for probably brought to their home in Richardson county over the ice of the frozen Missouri river in the year

Though the organ is only about ody. This seems remarkable, in view of the fact that it was used Committee chairmen are: Games, regularly over a period which dates signing of the armistice, which ended tis, and Fublicity, Florence Seward in good condition and the keys are all good though some have turned slightly yellow.

The old organ was a great joy to the Cornell family and a unique cu-Students in Mechanical Arts Building riosity to the entire neighborhood, which came from far and near to hear its sweet and soft tones. No One of the many new improve- doubt this organ contributed as ments in the Mechanical Arts build- much toward an enjoyable evening ing is a new study hall. Each year to this early settler element, which there has been an increasing need gathered in a dimly lighted room for such a room, as there has been and sang the old songs to its acno adequate place for study. Here- companiarent, as the radio and other today.

COUNCIL NAMES GRATIGNY FOR VARSITY DANCE

9:30. Corn Cobs are requested to | Senior Is Chosen from List Of Candidates Examined At Meeting

BALLOTING ON OCT. 11

Fall Elections, Honorary Colonel, and Council Vacancies To Be Considered committee for the coming year by the student council Thursday evening, in a special meeting at the Temple.

peared in person before the committee and qualifications of those applying were carefully analyzed by the the appointment of the following selecting board. Gratigny was city men to the board of editors of the manager for the Demolay dances for SALES CAMPAIGN GOES ON Nebraska Law Bulletin: Paul B. a time. His plans presented to the Bowen, David F. Foster, Herbert S. council outlined new arrangements

Chadderdon, George F. Johnson, Lu- Nebraska campus probably every for "The Eye-Opener", first nummir Otradovsky, Donald Russell, two weeks for the remainder of the ber of the Awgwan, went into the Charles Uhlig, Clarence C. Virtue. school year, under the supervision of hands of the printers Thursday noon The Nebraska Law Buletin, in ad- the newly appointed varsity dance while the annual subscription drive

RECENT STAGE HIT

Ramsay Says Intensive Preparations Under Way for Giving "The Beggar on Horseback"

One of the most successful and unusual plays of recent years, "The Beggar on Horseback," may possibly Other students wishing to sub- and offices. be presented this season by the Uni- scribe may secure their subscriptions | Prof. A. A. Reed states bership in The Order of the Coif, is versity Players, in place of another in the Awgwan office for $1.25 a university extension division is now activities. the fact that intensive preparation has been made toward eventually UNIVERSITY MEN'S presenting the play.

Mr. Dwight Kirsch, in charge of stage arrangements and sets, has been busy for a year designing sets for this spectacular play, and feels that they are now ready in case the play is decided upon. His classes in stage design have aided him in working out these sets, which are numerous and unique.

Science has taught that the suns Horseback," could be easily substi-ince season tickets are $2.75.

Farmaceutical Fest Given Tonight For Co-Ed Pharmacists

The Farmaceutical Fun Fest of the C. A. cabinet. Kappa Epsilon is to be held this evewalnut organ, which was one of the ning at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss first, if not the first, to be brought Ethel James, 724 North 22nd street. dried affair but will be a live get This organ was purchased by the are to be present and are going to ticularly urges all university men

Cheering Section To Practice in Stadium

All members of the Cornhusker cheering section will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the stadium, for a short practice session. This will be the only practice of the year and it is imperative that every man be there. The Corncobs and the cheerleaders, who are in charge of the section have a stunt arranged for the Iowa State game which will require a short practice. Places will be assigned at this time and instructions will be given.

Wayne Gratigny, '28, Lincoln, was FIRST AWGWAN

Applicants for the position ap- Parody by Ethylyn Ayres Is Feature of Last Copy Sent to Printer

Robinson, Ronald G. Yoder, Norris Varsity dances will be held on the written by Ethylyn Ayres, final copy sity, states that over 5000 cards have early last fall. Campus critics called it one of the finest pieces of parody work they had seen. The take-off on Milt Gross' style brings campus Extension Side scenes and characters into play.

Fraternities and sororities wishng block subscriptions should phone their orders to Hal F. Childs, business manager of the Awgwan. Twenty-five copies of each of the lars over the regular price.

STAG TO BE SUNDAY

Meeting Will Be Weekly Affair For Get-Together and Discussion Of Campus Affairs

The play itself relates the dreams be held at the Y. M. C. A. head- the day and night classes. of a musician; succeeding scenes are incongruous and warped, as are his dreams, which allow for a wide scope dream dreams, which allow for a wide scope dreams, which allow for a wide scope dreams, which allow for a wide scope dreams in weird and striking sets. One of Mr. Oberlies has become well known in the day and night classes. "The a chance to get to the surface of the the productions already chosen is a in Lincoln as the head of the largest extension service," he says, "is a play of type, so that "The Beggar on men's Bible class in the state of Ne- cross section of most of the depart-

Evening tickets for the first play, to be a weekly affair during the re- versity students who are not carry- ization in charge of the custom. "Alias the Deacon," are going fast, mainder of the school year, is to ing the maximum number of hours. Fraternity and non-fraternity men the average day of September and while the Student Matinee tickets give university men a better chance A variety of subjects are offered to are cooperating in checking up on this increase is greater at the end of for Friday afternoons are proving to become acquainted with each other students. Business, professional, the first year men. Only those in popular with students. Evening sea- and to discuss various campus prob- journalistic, educational, active, and the new cheering section in the east son admissions are $5, student mat- lems. At the present time there is fine arts subjects are just a few of stands are exempt from this rule. no satisfactory meeting place for uni- the many different courses which will versity men and it is hoped that this be taught. KAPPA EPSILON ENTERTAINS will serve for that purpose. There is a picked group of 100 men who will attend but this places no ban BUSINESS STUDENTS whatsoever on other university men. The university men's stag is under the auspices of the University Y. M.

This stag will not be a cut and New Members Are Initiated into Several of the honorary members together party. Mr. Oberlies parthat are interested to come.

Ames Captain and Half

Captain Walt Weiss of the Iowa State eleven in action on one of the week. Next week Mr. Gramlich goes two hundredth anniversary. It is o'clock on "The origin and der tofore the students have had to use modern conveniences furnish for us Cyclone fake plays, passing the ball to Harry Lindblom, halfback. These two men will figure in the Cyclone-Husker clash Saturday.

ALL STUDENTS GO TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

Annual Day for University Worship Is Moved Up To October 2

DESIRE EARLIER START

Send Out Over 5000 Cards to Nebraskans Urging Their Attendance

Sunday, October 2, is to be All-University Church day. It is customary for students, faculty, and anyone connected with the university to attend their own particular church on this Sunday. The purpose of this All-University Church day is to start the students to going to church early in the school year.

All the Lincoln churches are cooperating in an endeavor to fill every church to capacity for this year's Church day. A statement from F. W. Leavitt, president of the Federa-Huskers in Saturday's game at Me-power to make this rally a success. Featuring a parody on Milt Gross, tion Church workers in the univerbeen sent out urging the university students to attend church Sunday.

Endorsed by Burnett All-University Church day, has moved into its third day of activity. been endorsed by Acting Chancellor E. A. Burnett in the following state-Miss Ayres' article, "Milt Gross ment: "The invitation, which goes Witt a Wisit to Universitas Nebras- out to students of all religious conkensis", was characterized by Alan nections, has my hearty approval. I McIntosh, associate editor, as one of shall be greatly pleased if the move-Coach Bearg gave his Husker ele- the editorship of Professor Maurice Filings will be made in the student the cleverest parodies ever submitment results in a marked increase in ven a light scrimmage last night and H. Merrill. Appointment to the Board activities offices in the Coliseum. The ted to the Awgwan. Miss Ayres was attendance at all places of worship. of last year, writing the "Alice in has well become an All-University Bewilderland" series which appeared tradition, and every student is urged (Continued on Page 2) which formerly occupied rooms in the schick, eight issues will be furnished for Social Science building is now located $25, a saving of more than six dol- in the old Museum building. The division now extends over two floors > space is provided for every department of the service."

Of University

ever, is at the disposal of the University Extension Service and is used mainly for students who are seeking ens' Student Board were in the rereference. The entire building has ceiving line. The color scheme of been re-decorated in the interior and will be ready for use within a few both in the refreshments and decoradays. Partitions have been made An all-university men's stag will which will provide more rooms for

Commercial Club at Meeting In Temple Building

Plans were formulated for a Bizad Frolic, to be held October 28, at the Commercial club initiation at the est discussed. The Bizad Frolic will Activities building. be arranged as an equal to the Bizad tive to the Bizad Frolic, names of necessary for admittance. the new Commercial club members were announced. The list included; Student Directory To Stewart Randall, Jean Moyer, H. A. Benedetto, Edward Anderson, A. J. Mayborn, Lynn Wagner, Henry (Continued on Page 2)

Gramlich Judges at

Professor Gramlich, head of the gressing slowly. Animal Husbandry department, is judging the Shorthorn and Percheron classes of live stock at the Oklahoma State fair at Oklahoma City this to Wichita Falls, Texas, to judge a the Convent of Ursuline nuns, ment of business training in the man fair in that city.

founded in 1727 at New Orleans. versity of Nebraska."

Cyclone Fullback

"Bob" Lamson, Iowa State fullback is one of Coach Noel Workman's strongest backfield men and morial Stadium.

A. W. S. BOARD IS HOSTESS TO CO-EDS assisted by the Corn Cobs.

About Two Hundred Fifty Women Attend Tea at Ellen Smith Hall Thursday

Approximately two hundred and rally. will hold one more light workout of Editors has come to be regarded complete list of positions to be filled a regular contributor the first part This is one of the fine customs that members of the Associated Womens' Student board as hostesses.

> tea, assisted by Esther Heyne, arranged the following program:

Popular selections, Helen Slade;

The information booth, conducted very popular feature of the afterby Laura Margaret Raines, proved a and a basement, providing classrooms noon's entertainment, as the freshopportunity to inquire about campu

Dean Amanda Heppner presided at the tea table during the first hour The third floor of the building hostess at Ellen Smith hall. Miss provides for offices except for one com, which is set aside for a geowomen, and Mrs. E. W. Lantz, assist ant in the dean of women's office, served during the second hour.

Members of the Associated Wom tions.

According to Professor Reed, the Freshmen Must Wear Verdant Headgear at

All freshmen must wear the tradiments of the university and teaches tional green caps at the Iowa State a large number of courses." Nearly game Saturday, or be reprimanded The purpose of this stag, which is all of these courses are open to uni- by Iron Sphinx, sophomore organ-

> New shipments of the caps received by Speier's are sufficient to supply all those who have not al- terested in graduate work and inready bought them, according to quired about university entrance rethose in charge at the store. Tickets quirements an dtransfer credits. He for the caps may be bought either was formerly dean of the College of LAY FROLIC PLANS at the Student Activities office in Arts and Sciences at the University the Coliseum or at Speier's.

AG PARTY PLANS FINISHED

Short Program Will Be Followed By Dancing, Games and Lunch

All preparations for the Ag Col-Temple last night. A banquet, pro- lege faculty party are finished and gram, and dance were tentatively the teachers are expecting a record Club last evening at the annual planned, and other features of inter- crowd this evening in the Student initiation held on the Ag campus.

A short program will start the lunch was served the new members. Day celebration, giving two general evening's entertainment followed by Cecil Means, president of Ag club, meeting of the members each year. dancing and games. A light lunch gave a short talk outlining the activ-At the end of the discussion rela- will be served later. Tickets will be ities and duties of Ag club and Ar-

Be Ready November 1

The University Directory will prob- sell Nettleton, Paul Bauer, Warren ably be out about November 1, ac- Rice and Robin Spence. cording to Wilbur Mead, in charge of its compilation. Due to the great LeRossignol Speaks Oklahoma State Fair mass of material to be arranged, checked, and rechecked, work is pro-

School Celebrates Anniversary

HUSKER SPIRIT AWAITS MATCH OF FIRST RALLY

Enthusiasm Ready to Flame at First Demonstration of Football Season

ALL URGED TO ATTEND

"The Greatest Year in Cornhusker History" Taken As Slogan

The first football rally of the '27 season will be held this evening at 7:15 in the Coliseum. This will serve as the first opportunity to show the spirit that may make this "The Greatest Year in Cornhusker History.'

The slogan "The Greatest Year in Cornhusker History" has been adopted for Nebraska this year, and if this goal is to be reached it must the Ames coach is figuring on the start with this first football rally. big fullback for yardage against the The Corn Cobs are doing all in their

Today is "Pep-Day" at the University of Nebraska. At 10:50 o'clock this morning the band will meet in front of the Social Science building, where a short pep meeting will be held. The yell-leaders will officiate,

House-to-House Tour At 5 o'clock this evening the Corn Cobs will make a house-to-house tour of the sororities on the Nebraska campus, urging them to cut the evening meal short, and come to the

Promptly at 7:15 the rally will begin. Phil Sidles, newly elected head day at Ellen Smith hall with the cheer leader will lead the cheering, assisted by Charles Dox and Hal Childs. The first number on the Helen Van Gilder, chairman of the pep-program will be a selection of numbers sung by the Varsity quartet. Following these musical numbers a few speeches will be made, and ac-Now in Museum Dance, Ermanelle Waldo; Dance, cording to authorities the speeches Irene Davies; Piano solo, Marjorie will be short. Every student of the The University Extension Division Billsby; Clarinet solo, Kathryn Rei- University of Nebraska who has the Cornhusker spirit should turn out to this rally in order that he may learn the songs and yells that will be used

Rally attendance, as an evidence men women took advantage of this of loyal support of the football team, will help to make 1927-28 "The Greatest Year in Cornhusker History," pep, and support are the ingredients of successful football in Nebraska this year.

VISITS UNIVERSITY

Associate Director of American Council of Educators Stops In Lincoln Wednesday

Dr. David Allan Robertson, associate director of the American Counof Educators, spent Wednesday forenoon in inspecting the university. Dr. Robertson, whose home is in Nebraska-Ames Game Washington, D. C., was enroute from Washington to inspect Doane College at Crete, Nebraska.

> While in Lincoln Dr. Robertson visited his personal friend, Chancellor Avery. Chancellor Avery was formerly connected with the National Association of University, of which, Dr. Robertson was a member. The lor Burnett and the Deans of the colleges.

> Dr. Robertson is particularly inof Chicago, and he has spent much time in educational work.

AG CLUB HAS INITIATION

Sixty Men Taken into Organization At Annual Ceremony

Sixty men were initiated into Ag After the sports were over a light thur Hauke, chairman of this years' Farmer's Fair board spoke on the fair, urging everyone to take an active part in the festival.

The initiation committee w Kenneth Anderson, chairman; Rus-

At University Station

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the college of business administration will The oldest girls' school in the speak over the university broadcast United States has just celebrated its ing station this afternoon at three