

YEARLINGS DEFEAT AG ELEVEN 32 TO 0

"Choppy" Rhodes' Freshman Team Overwhelms Ag Gridsters in Friday Game

A small army of yearling gridsters journeyed to the Agricultural College football field Friday afternoon and overwhelmed an eleven composed of Ag students, 32 to 0. Two university trucks were required to haul the squad that Coach "Choppy" Rhodes picked, and three teams selected from it were used against the farmers.

The freshman first team reeled off first downs at will until replaced early in the fourth quarter. Against the youngsters third team, the Ags fared better and were well on their way to a six point marker when the whistle halted their deserving efforts. Criezinger handled both the offensive and defensive tactics of his team practically by himself. He was easily the shining light of the Ag eleven, more than once tackling Long or Frahm when ten of his mates had been cast aside. Backfield honors for the yearling team were about equally divided between Scherzinger, Frahm, and Long, the quarter from Wyoming. These three galloping freshmen tore great holes in the Ag line and found their only opposition when they reached the secondary defense men.

Yearlings Show Polish
Although the Ag forward wall stayed with the yearlings from start to finish, they were hopelessly outplayed and outcharged by the campus freshmen. Through their training with the Varsity, the yearling line presented lots of polish with their offensive and defensive tactics. Brown, playing with the yearling eleven for the first time, handed in a dazzling performance at left end. He snagged passes with dexterity and seldom let an Ag back get by him.

Long started things by kicking off 40 yards to Hall, Aggie left half. On the first play, Broadstone, yearling tackle, recovered an Ag fumble on their 20 yard line. Frahm smashed the line for ten yards on the first play. Scherzinger waded through center for three yards, and then Frahm, husky freshman fullback from Beatrice, vaulted over for a touchdown. Long's placekick for another point was wide.

Soon after Long had kicked off to the Ags, Galloway sifted through the Aggie line and blocked and recovered Hall's punt. A bad pass from center put Scherzinger back 20 yards but he was undismayed by the accident, he took the ball down the gridiron to the Ag ten yard marker by line plunges. From there he circled the Aggie left wing in a touchdown sprint, and Long obliged by missing the try for point.

Teams Exchange Punts
After an exchange of punts, Brown seized a pass from Frahm and was downed on the Ag 23 yard line as the quarter ended. Frahm started the quarter right by hitting guard for 3 yards. Then he fumbled but Scherzinger recovered for a 2 yard loss. Being handed a 5 yard penalty for offside on the following play, Long decided things were getting worse fast, so pulled off a 27 yard side-stepping sprint for six additional points. It was a pretty run, as Long eluded four tacklers and received good interference the rest of the way. Frahm took his turn at the try for point, but nothing happened and the score remained 18 to 0.

The Aggies stiffened perceptibly after this transgression, and held the yearling gridsters scoreless for the rest of the half. However the freshmen were on the Ag 4 yard line as the horn sounded, and were on the big end of the 18 to 0 score. Phillips went in for Maasdam at center for the freshmen and the Aggies had the same lineup at the beginning of the second canto. Criezinger kicked off to Bolton who returned to the freshman 38-yard line. Long got off a nice punt to the Aggie 21 yard line and on their first play, Phillips broke through and tossed Schmid on his 8 yard line. The Ags deemed it wise to punt and Long brought the ball right back to the Ag 22 yard marker. Then Frahm hurled a pass to Roland who was bidding his time behind the Ag goal waiting for it. Just to make things different, Long placekicked the extra point and brought the yearling total up to 25.

Early in the fourth quarter, Frahm and Scherzinger carried the ball to the Aggie 10 yard line with a series of line smashes. On a wide end run, "Scherz" took the pigskin under his arm and wormed through to the opponents 2 yard line. Long called the ball to himself, and fell over the Aggie goal. Then Frahm pulled a pass to Roland for the try for point. Rhodes Sent in Second Team

With the score 32 to 0, "Choppy" sent in his second team. After eight minutes of action, he jerked them and brought out his third string. Then things got interesting for the Ag supporters. The Aggies carried the ball down the field and completed a long pass which put the ball on the yearling 22 yard line as the final whistle blew. A groan of anguish arose from the east side bleachers. The Aggie football fans wanted more than a zero marker, and had been making their wants known all through the contest.

The Aggie eleven was coached by Coach Caroski, and Assistant Coach Knight. Coach Rhodes and Line Coach Lehman were the mentors of the yearling team.

At The Theatres

"It certainly is one grand show." That is the way the famous critic on Life summed up his impressions after witnessing a performance of "The Bat," the tremendously successful dramatic play by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, which will be presented at the PLAYHOUSE Theater during the week of October 17. After all had been said and done about "The Bat," Life's critic surely has offered one of the best descriptions that could possibly be given of the play.

"The Bat" is primarily a mystery story. As such, it is unquestionably in a class all by itself. In fact, scores of critics have unhesitatingly called it the greatest mystery play ever produced. But there is real drama and there is comedy in "The Bat." In fact, there is quite as many laughs as thrills during the play and as entertainment, pure and simple, it is 100 per cent plus.

The story of "The Bat" never has been told and it never will be if the wishes of authors and managers are respected. The first words which catch the eye when the audience opens its programme are a request that the story not be told. And thus far, although the play has been seen by more than one million persons, it is doubtful if one has ever broken the confidence imposed.

Suffice to say, the story of "The Bat" is well worth while, it must be. No play in years has had quite the success of this play.

Amateur Stock Show To Be Held Saturday

Of sheep, two classes of horses and one class of hogs. A representative of the Kansas Agricultural college at Manhattan, will judge all classes. During the show there will be several acts of entertainment with music throughout the entire evening. After the awards are announced there will be a dance in the Student Activities building, also sponsored by the Block and Bride club. The admission will be 25 cents, and all the proceeds will go to defray expenses of sending the senior judging team to the International live-stock show held in Chicago, November 26 to December 3.

A fraternity group of Boston University applied to several insurance companies before they found one that would insure an expensive chandelier in the dining room of their house. The company demanded a rate of 12 per cent.
