RECORD CROWDS ANTICIPATED AT DADS' DAY TILT

15,000 Tickets Already Sold For Nebraska-Syracuse Football Game

BEARG GIVES MEN REST Husker Gridders Lay Off Work For Rest of Week; Pass Defense Stressed

Nebraska's Scarlet clad Huskers yesterday went through the last workout on the schedule for this week-end and Coach Bearg is giving his pigskin warriors a three-day rest before resuming intensive practice for the important clash with the Syracuse Orange eleven on Stadium field Saturday, October 29.

Passing, punting and signal drill was the extent of the workout last night. The position of quarterback will receive a great deal of the sessions next week, as well as the punting and passing department. Syracuse is bringing a passing aggregation to the Cornhusker stronghold and Bearg is drilling his men on the defensive passing attack. The art of knocking passes out of the air has received the larger part of the coaches' time during this week.

Fifth Meeting
The Syracuse-Nebraska game will be the fifth meeting of the two eleven and is booked to be one of the best home games of the season and will probably draw one of the largest crowds. John K. Sellock, manager of student activities, reports that 15,000 tickets have already been sold for the game and he expects the sale to go over the 25,000 mark before the day of the game.

This date of the Syracuse clash is the annual Dad's Day at the Husker school and all the dads of Cornhus-

TRACKMEN ENGAGE IN FALL CONTESTS

Slow Times Prevail in First Meet of Season; Becker Shows Up Well in Both Dashes

No exceptional times were recorded in the first fall track meet to be held at the University of Nebraska, which took place Thursday afternoon on the Stadium track. The meet, which is open to all non-varsity men, was run on the time basis, and men were allowed to enter as many events as they wished.

A track numeral is to be given for a sufficient number of points scored, similar to the numeral meets of the regular track season. According to a statement by Coach Henry F. Schulte, there will probably be another meet of the same kind later in the fall. The head coach also said that there were several promising track men who didn't turn out for the meet, and that he wanted to see them working before the next contests.

Summary of Events

Becker lead the scoring with first in the 100 and 220-yard sprints, while the remainder of the events were divided evenly. The summary: 100 yard dash: first, Becker; second, Eller; third, Easter. Time: 10.5 seconds.

220 yard dash: first, Becker; second, Bailey; third, Welley. Time: 22.5 seconds.

440 yard dash: first, Wyatt; second, Ritcher; third, Mays. Time: 54.8 seconds.

1 mile run: first, Dexter; second, Skidmore; third, Kuroke. Time: 4 minutes, 47.5 seconds.

2 mile run: first, Etherton; second, Jaunbeig; third, Botie. Time: 10 minutes, 36 seconds.

120 yard high hurdles: first, Trumble; second, Krause; third, Thompson.

Low hurdles: first, Thomson; second, Reynolds; third, Isenhart.

Pole Vault: first, Morris; second, Oestian; third, Reid. Height: 11 feet, 3 inches.

High Jump: won by Cook with a jump of 5 feet, 8 1/4 inches.

Shot put: first, James; second, Mosel.

MUSEUM OPEN TO CLASSES

Geography Department is Transferred From Nebraska Hall Rooms

Equipment and offices of the geography department of the university will be moved today, from its location on the second floor of the Nebraska hall, to new quarters in the old museum building. Classes in that department will be conducted in the new rooms after today. The offices of Professor E. B. Lackay, dean of the department, will be housed in the east end of the building.

Nebraska Sons Write Dads Inviting Them to Celebration on October 29

Dear Dad:
First quarter reports have just come out, and I'm "up" in hours—enough so they'll let me stay in school—but I can't get home for a while.

The university has an annual "affair" for every fellow's dad. I want you to break away and come down for it. All the fellows are writing home to see if their fathers can't come down, too. I want you to meet my room-mate and a couple of my profs, and maybe that girl I wrote about last time.

This year's Dad's Day is planned for Saturday, October 29. They usually put it on the date of a good football game, and this year they've scheduled it for the Syracuse game, —and you're not my dad if you don't want to see that one.

At noon there'll be a big luncheon, and we'll meet a lot of the dads of the fellows I run around with. I'd kind of like to have you see some of them,—I'm mighty close friends with a dozen or so.

Then we'll go to the game—if you want to—and say, if you can, bring mother. She can't go to the luncheon—that's just for us—but we can take her to the game.

Gosh, sometimes it's lonesome down here; and the cooking's not mother's.

Your son,
John.

SISTERS DINNER HELD THURSDAY

Over Two Hundred Co-Eds Attend Annual Event At Armory

GIVEN BY BIG SISTERS

Dancing, songs, stunts and music all helped to make the annual Big and Little Sister dinner, held yesterday in the Armory, a success. More than two hundred girls attended. The dinner was given under the auspices of the Big Sister board.

The Big and Little Sister dinner, one of the most important events in the school year, is given in order that all university women may become better acquainted. Special games and dancing helped the girls to meet each other.

The following entertaining program was given: dancing, Margaret Smith; vocal solo, Maxine Mathers; vocal duet, Alice Duffy and Katherine Arensburg; whistling selections, Dorothy Sterns. Patricia Nichols accompanied the vocal duet numbers. Miss Appleby, secretary of the University Y. W. C. A., was a special guest at the dinner. Members of the Big Sister advisory board were also present. They are: Mrs. Ralph Fortna, Mrs. E. L. Hinman, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. H. Brownell, and Miss Lee, head of the physical education department.

Geraldine Heikes was general chairman of the dinner. Members of the committee were Marion Eimers, tickets; Helen Clarke, entertainment; Ruth Clendenin, program, and Ruth Barker, menu.

BUSINESS EXPERT TALKS TO CLASSES

Dr. Harold Marshall of Nash Clothing Company, Cincinnati, Speaks To Business Students

Some phase of marketing will be the subject discussed by Dr. Harold Marshall before Professor Martin's class in Retail Store management, Monday morning, October 31, at 9 o'clock in Social Science 302. At 10 o'clock in the same room Dr. Marshall will address Dean LeRossignol's class in Labor Problems on some phase of Industrial Relations.

Dr. Marshall is vice-president of the Nash Clothing company, Cincinnati, and is in close touch with their affairs, so he will speak with authority on these questions.

The Nash Clothing company has been prominent in profit sharing and other welfare work. It is one of the chief exponents of the golden rule in industry. About two years ago the president of the Nash company refused a million dollars and turned it back to his employees.

MYSTIC FISH HAS MEETING

Eather Gaylord Elected President of Freshman Co-ed Society

The Mystic Fish order held its first meeting of the year Wednesday, in Ellen Smith hall, when the election of officers took place. Both last year's and this year's members were present at the gathering.

Esther Gaylord of Lincoln, was elected president, De Lellis Shramak of David City, vice-president; Gertrude Ray of Lincoln, secretary, and Krethen Lanphere of Rapid City, South Dakota, treasurer.

Secretary Hayes Goes To Kansas Conference

Mr. C. J. Hayes, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., left yesterday afternoon for Lawrence, Kansas to attend the Regional Conference of Y. M. C. A. secretaries. This council will be in session Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 21, 22, and 23.

SPECIAL SALE OF YEARBOOKS CLOSES TODAY

Price Tomorrow Will Return To Regular Five Dollars For Each Book

TASSELS LEADING RACE Individuals Also Compete for Trip to Nebraska-Kansas Aggie Football Game

The student's last chance to procure a Cornhusker for $4.50 will be gone after 5 o'clock today. The sale will close at this time. Annuals may then be procured for $5.00.

The Tassels are ahead in the number of subscriptions sold, and the Silver Serpents are very close behind, with still a chance of passing the Tassels in the race for the $50.00 prize. Those organizations who are competing for the prize are Tassels, Silver Serpents and Xi Delta.

Individuals are also competing for the prize of a trip to Manhattan for the Kansas Aggie game with all expenses paid. No reports have yet been given out concerning the progress of the individual contest. Cornhuskers may be ordered in the Cornhusker office in the basement of "U" Hall, or they may be ordered from the Tassels, Xi Delta, or Silver Serpents.

Dwight Wallace, editor of the Cornhusker, is now in Minneapolis conferring with the artists and engravers, making plans for the new sections of the book, and working out the art theme of the book.

RULES ALTERED FOR ACTIVITIES

Students Must Be Carrying at Least Twelve Hours to Get Appointments

ALL LISTS TO BE CHECKED

All minor class officers, chosen at class elections, and all members of organization and activities committees, must be approved by the Dean of Student Affairs before being made public, according to an announcement from the office of Dean Thompson yesterday. The ruling comes as a result of frequent publications of various appointed officers, some of which are not eligible under the Dean's ruling. This does not include honorary societies.

To be eligible for appointments, students must be carrying at least 12 hours of successful schoolwork, and must have carried at least this many in the previous semester. Freshmen must be carrying 12 hours passing work, and must maintain their good work in order to remain in the office.

The ruling is being made public, to save all organizations the trouble of re-electing persons to fill vacancies left by non-eligible students. It is also the opinion of Dean Thompson that those carrying their work successfully should be considered first. Announcements of the Dean's findings will be returned to the organizations and if they are accepted, they are eligible for publication.

Hereafter, the Nebraska office accepts no names of appointed committees to officers, unless proof is given of the Dean's approval.

Cornhusker Daughters Ask Dads to Bring Mothers Along to Festivities

Dearest Dad:
I have glorious news for you. The quarterly reports have been released, and I have passed all of my subjects. Gee, but it feels good, after working so hard, for it is such fun to be with all the girls, and share all of their good times with them.

But after all, sometimes I wish I could have you and Mother alone with me for a few moments each night, just to talk together like we used to. It is awfully hard to keep on growing up, when I know that I am growing further and further away from you all the time.

Say, Dad, the university is going to have a Dad's day on October 29. You know that date, for it is the day of that Nebraska-Syracuse football game you have talked so much about. Won't you forget about business for a day and come visit me? All the girls are just living for that day, for most of them have already talked their dads into coming down.

I know it will do you lots of good to be here on that day, and I just won't take "no" for an answer, so bundle mother into the car, and hustle down. She can't go to the banquet, but we'll take her to the game, and we'll go somewhere in the evening where we can be alone. It's just going to be loads of fun dad, and I will be awfully disappointed if you don't come.

Oceans of love to you and mother,
Your Daughter,
Mary.

Palladian Society Meets This Evening

An open meeting of the Palladian society will be held this evening in the Temple. The members of the society that are in the Arts and Science college will have charge of the program. The entertainment for the evening will be a play entitled "Luck". This play will be held in Palladian hall in the Temple building, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Annual Picnic Of W.A.A. Set For Saturday

Freshmen women interested in sports will be entertained at a picnic at the Auto Club park Saturday afternoon, October 22. The Women's Athletic association has sponsored this annual picnic for several years. Helen Clarke, chairman of the committee, reports that W. A. A. plans to make this the most successful picnic of them all. Cars have been hired to take the guests to the park at four o'clock and to call for them at seven. The menu indicates that appetites will be completely satisfied.

To accept this invitation of W. A. A. it is only necessary to sign the poster on the bulletin board at the east entrance of the Armory. Guests and W. A. A. members are to meet on the steps of the Armory in sport togs at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, October 22. Cars will be waiting to take the picnickers to the grounds.

Every freshman woman who is at all interested in sports is urged to attend this picnic whether or not she personally knows any W. A. A. member. The purpose of the picnic is to draw together girls of mutual interests and make acquaintance possible.

Book Lovers May Hear Readings by Doane At University Club Sunday

Readings for lovers of books will be resumed Sunday afternoon at the University club, 1124 N. street. Mr. Gilbert Doane, university librarian, will begin the series with selections from Rupert Brooks, the best known of the war poets; Dorothy M. Richardson, a highly original British writer who has allowed but little of her verse to appear in print; Vachel Lindsay, the Illinois minstrel of democracy; Edna St. Vincent Millay, celebrated lyricist of New England, and other contemporary poets. All men students are invited. The readings begin promptly at 5 and end at 6 o'clock.

For the women a fortnightly series will open at a week from Sunday, at Westminster House, 335 North 14 street. At this time Professor C. H. Oldfather will read from Gilbert Murray's translation of "The Trojan Woman," a great Greek tragedy by Euripides, which tells us that these "contemporary ancients" also wrote eloquently and convincingly against the veils of war.

MARTI ADDRESSES AG FORUM

Benefits Students Get From Campus Politics are Indicated

Lloyd Marti, Ivy-day orator of last spring, spoke at the Agricultural College World Forum yesterday on "Politics in College." His talk dealt with the present condition of politics in the university, bringing out the benefits students derive from participating in honest and well organized politics.

Miss Ruth Davis and Lloyd Strombeck are presidents of the Agricultural College Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. organizations. C. D. Hayes, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., was present distributing "N" books to the freshmen. The Agricultural College World Forum is held every Thursday noon from 12 until 1 o'clock, in the Home Economics building.

PRIZE OFFERED AT STOCK SHOW

Silver Loving Cup Will Be Given to Best Showman At Ag Exhibits

BEGINS AT 7 O'CLOCK

A silver loving cup will be presented to the Grand Champion Showman of the Baby International which will be held at the judging pavilion Saturday evening, October 22 at 7 o'clock.

The grand champion showman is a new feature added to the international this year. Each showman winning a blue ribbon in each of the respective classes is eligible to enter in competition for the grand championship. The loving cup will become the permanent possession of the showman who wins the grand championship and his name will be engraved upon it.

The following program of the livestock show will give the classes which these boys will show in competition.

The Block and Bridle club, sponsors of the international, urge that all be present when the show starts at 7 o'clock sharp so that all classes will be completed in time for all to attend the mixer at the Students' Activities building.

Following is the program of events:

OLYMPICS SET FOR HOMECOMING DAY

Innocents Announce that Green Caps Must Be Worn at Least Until Thanksgiving

"If the freshmen win the Olympics on the morning of Homecoming day, they wear the green caps until Thanksgiving, but if they lose, they will wear the green caps until Christmas vacation." This is the rule handed down by the Innocents, and according to Merle Jones, the president, it will be strictly enforced.

"We want to have no misunderstanding about this rule," declared Jones. "The green cap tradition was built up apart from the olympics, and the connection that has grown up between the two is mostly the work of underclassmen themselves." He went on to state that judging from the amount of enthusiasm that has already been worked up over the annual fight, there will be some live scrapping between the two classes November 5.

The program of the olympics is

Nebraska Band Drills On Letter Formations For Syracuse Contest

The R. O. T. C. band has spent the past two weeks drilling letter formations for the Syracuse football game October 29. The band has practiced forming a mammoth letter "S" and an "N" which are to be made in front of the grandstand just before the game.

The "N" will first be formed and the band will play "U-U-U-N-I" and then march into the "S" formation and play a Syracuse school song. For the past few years this has been the practice of the band, and much time is spent in perfecting these letter formations for the football games. Much favorable comment was given at the Washington game last year by students of that school when the thirty-piece band which made the trip formed a "W" in front of the Washington rooting section before the game.

OCTOBER 29 IS DAY THAT DADS VISIT STUDENTS

Five Thousand Letters Sent To Parents Urging Them To Come to Lincoln

BIG LUNCHEON PLANNED

Prominent Lincoln Men Will Speak; Football Game Is Afternoon Feature

More than 5,000 Dads of Cornhusker students have been invited to come to Lincoln on Saturday, October 29, and spend Dad's Day with their son or daughter. The celebration is being sponsored by the Innocents society and will take place on the day of the Nebraska-Syracuse football game.

Dads' and sons' noon luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce will be the outstanding event of Dad's Day. The sale of tickets for this affair will be managed by the Vikings, junior honorary society. Tickets will be on sale at all fraternity houses and the Y. M. C. A., starting Monday.

Governor Will Speak

The speakers who will address the fathers and sons at this luncheon are: Governor McMullen; Verne Hedge, mayor of Lincoln; W. C. Ramsay, president of the Nebraska Alumni Association; Doctor Condra, Dad of Nebraska traditions; and Coach Schulte, Nebraska mentor. Merle Jones, president of the Innocents society will preside as toastmaster.

The following men have been invited to attend the luncheon as special guests: Chancellor Emeritus Avery, Acting Chancellor Burnett, Dean Thompson, Prof. Brownell, Prof. Almy, Herbert Gish, John Sellock, George Holmes, the Board of Regents, S. R. McKelvie, Mr. Witten, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Dwight Bedell, Harold Holts, and Mr. Hayes of the University Y. M. C. A.

Many fraternity and sorority dinners have been planned for Saturday evening, but these Greek-letter organizations are urged not to have noon luncheons in competition with the traditional affair at the Chamber of Commerce.

WIRE ADDRESSES A.S.M.E. MEETING

Representative of National Tube Company Shows Film Tracing Steel Development

Mr. R. W. Wire, representative of the National Tube company, Chicago, Illinois, provided the feature for the regular meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in room 206 in the A. M. building, last night.

Mr. Wire showed a five-reel film, tracing the development of steel from the ore to the finished product, the steel pipe. The film began with the savage methods of steel working and continued up to the present time, showing the open hearth and Bessemer methods of taking the steel from the ore. The three processes of welding steel pipe, namely, the butt weld process, the lapweld process and the hammer weld process were shown and explained fully.

Mr. Wire explained the processes shown at the end of every reel and answered numerous questions from the audience. At the end of the film he explained the cupping method of making pipe.
