HUSKER DEBATE TEAM PREPARES FOR CAMBRIDGE

Nebraska's Famous "Think Shop" Hums With Activity Before International Meet

LAWYERS COMPOSE TEAM

Special Features Announced Include Open-Forum Discussion

Nebraska's "Think-Shop", for twenty-six years the center of activity for Nebraska forensics, is humming this week as the Husker team prepares for its international clash Monday with Cambridge university, England.

An all-law team is Nebraska's offering for the Cambridge debate. George Johnson, Robert Baldwin, and David Fellman won their places on the team in a tryout in which six old Husker debaters participated. In the last two weeks they have been spending hours daily in the "Think-Shop" preparing their case for the Cambridge debate. The team is one of the most experienced in forensic work that Nebraska has put into the field in recent years.

New Features Added
Features of the debate, the first international contest engaged in by a Nebraska team, include the plan of no rebuttal speeches, each speaker having five minutes longer for his discussion than the preceding speaker on his side; an audience vote before and after the debate; and an open forum discussion.

The open-forum discussion will furnish the audience a splendid opportunity to see English native wit, as exemplified in her college debaters, exercised. Members of the audience will be permitted to quiz the debaters on both sides in regard to

FOURTH ISSUE IS PUBLISHED

Number of Features Added to Autumn Issue of Literary Quarterly

CIRCULATION IS LARGE

The Prairie Schooner's autumn number will be ready for distribution Monday with a new dress.

It will be the fourth issue of the university's literary quarterly, and to celebrate the passing of its first year will have a new cover, in addition to numerous stylistic and typographical improvements.

The magazines will be distributed from Long's book store and the Co-op book store, both opposite the campus, and from University hall, 104-b. The price is forty cents.

Wimberly Has Article

The Prairie Schooner will carry its usual quota of the best stories and poems from writers among students and Nebraska residents, and in this issue will have several very interesting essays and sketches. Among the latter is an article entitled, "The Decline of the Ghost," by Prof. L. C. Wimberly of the English department, who is the author of a study, "Death and Burial Lore in the English and Scottish Popular Ballads," published this summer as one of the university studies in language, literature, and criticism.

In the "Midwestern Writers" section, Willard F. Gostelow, an undergraduate student in the university, is the author of an appraisal of Carl Sandburg, whom he knows personally.

Poems by Chinese Students Published

Chen Yuan and Kwei Chen, Chinese students in the university, have a short series of poems which the Prairie Schooner's editors consider excellent.

That interest in literary matters is on the increase at Nebraska it is believed. Almost 1,200 copies of the July issue of the magazine were sold, and it is believed that the autumn number which will be issued Monday will sell as rapidly. According to the editors, there seems to be more interest in the magazine among younger students, freshmen and sophomores, than among the upper-classes. Whether this indicates that the "younger generation" is in advance of the older students can not be determined.

Margenau Has Article Published in Magazine

An article written by Henry Margenau, former instructor in the physics department of the University of Nebraska, appeared in the October number of the Physical Review. The topic of Mr. Margenau's article was "Zeeman Effect in the Spectrum of Serium."

Blind Reader

Walter Gran, who, though blind since the age of thirteen, is a college graduate and a well-known reader and elocutionist.

PLAYERS BRING BLIND MAN HERE

Walter Gran, Famous Sightless Reader, Will Appear at Temple Monday

SIGHT LOST IN ACCIDENT

Walter Clarence Gran, famous blind reader and elocutionist, will appear at the Temple theater October 31, under the auspices of Pi Epsilon Delta, national collegiate players. Mr. Gran will read "The Shepherd of the Hills," Harold Bell Wright's novel.

Mr. Gran was deprived of his sight by an accident thirteen years ago. Since that time he has won success in schools and dramatics. To quote the Minneapolis Daily Star concerning one of his performances, "He not alone read the well known novel of Harold Bell Wright, but he lived and breathed life into his portrayals of such characters as 'Dad Howett,' the shepherd of the hills, the ruffian, Wash Gibbs, the young Mat, raging with anger and the tender sympathetic young Sammy Lane mourning over the grave of her father."

Mr. Gran has not always been blind so had a view of the world long enough to have formed artistic tastes and an insatiable thirst for learning. He was graduated from the North Dakota school for the blind in 1914 and entered Jamestown college the following fall. He studied expression and dramatic art in many of the leading schools and colleges of dramatic art and public speaking.

Possessed of an excellent voice, an aptitude for public reading and poise, together with patience and great ambition, Mr. Gran never decried the loss of his sight.

TEFFT SPEAKS AT FORUM LUNCHEON

Former Rhodes Scholar Relates His Experiences While Attending British College

"I am still a Nebraskan though I came back from Oxford in a different capacity," stated Sheldon Tefft at the World Forum luncheon yesterday noon. Mr. Tefft introduced by Lee Rankin as the "man who has made the highest average ever made in the college of law," addressed those present on the subject "Comparison of English and American Universities." He added to his first remark, "I wish I were still a student at Nebraska."

Mr. Tefft explained that he could not easily compare Oxford with Nebraska because of the marked degree of difference. He said that the one of the impressive things about Oxford is organization. The average American, he continued, thinks of the college as a group of buildings in which different subjects are taught. Each college at Oxford is governed by a separate faculty who give only a few lectures and appoint an examining board to give the examinations.

MISS COLE IS EDITOR

Former Graduate Appointed on Staff of Congressional Digest

Miss Esther Cole who received her A. M. degree in political science at the University of Nebraska and has been taking work in economics at Brookings graduate school, Washington, D. C., has recently been appointed research editor of the Congressional Digest.

This magazine deals with foremost problems of the nation. Miss Cole, at present, is gathering information concerning Senator Vane of Pennsylvania and Senator Smith of Illinois, whose elections have been strongly contested.

CADET CRAWL IS SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

Plans Nearly Completed For First Event of This Kind At Nebraska

AFFAIR TO BE INFORMAL

Tracy Brown's Original Orchestra Will Furnish Music For Dance Program

Complete arrangements for the first cadet crawl to be held on the Nebraska campus Saturday evening October 29 are being made by members of the military department. The party is to take the place of the military carnival of former years but is to be an entirely different type of affair. The dance will be entirely informal in nature and all university students are urged to attend.

This is the first attempt of Scabard and Blade, honorary military society, to stage an informal party and every effort is being put forth by them to make the cadet crawl as important a factor in the informal party schedule as is the military ball on the formal calendar.

The military department hopes to make the cadet crawl an annual affair and as a large number of tickets for the party have already been sold, military department members feel confident of student support.

OLYMPICS HEAD MAKES CHANGES

Freshmen and Sophomore Tryouts Scheduled for This Week and Next

SOPHOMORES SET TO WIN

A few changes in the wrestling event of the olympics were announced yesterday by Tom Elliott, who is in charge of the olympics plans. The classes now read as follows: 125, 145, and 178 pound classes. This change has been made so as to enable more men to participate. The boxing events will remain as first stated.

Freshmen tryouts for boxing and wrestling will be held Saturday morning announced Harry Pritchard, a member of the freshmen olympics committee. These tryouts will be held in the wrestling room of the coliseum between 9 and 11 o'clock. Pritchard says that a large number will be on hand for the tryouts as many freshmen have signified their intention of going out.

Sophomores to Tryout Next Week

Sophomore tryouts will be held on Tuesday of next week, according to Gordon Larson, chairman of the sophomore olympics committee. The wrestling and boxing tryouts will be held in the afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock at the coliseum. Voegler and Kellogg will judge and referee the matches. These two men will probably also judge the olympics. The four men who will participate in the 440 yard relay will also be selected Tuesday afternoon. There will be no tryouts in the other events, but all who intend to take part are urged to report to Gordon Larson immediately.

There is a good deal of enthusiasm being shown concerning the coming meet and indications point toward a larger participation than ever before.

GREEN GOBLINS ELECT OFFICERS

Harry Reed Heads Freshman Society; Organization Will Attempt to Justify Existence

The Green Goblin election of officers was held Tuesday, October 25. A committee was also appointed to work on the organization of the freshmen class for olympics.

Harry Reed of Lincoln, was elected president; George Mickel, Omaha, vice-president; C. E. Davis, Omaha, secretary; Paul Nelson, Loup City, Missouri, treasurer; Wm. E. Swain, Omaha, sergeant-at-arms.

Robert Johnson of St. Joe, Missouri, is chairman of the olympic committee, and working on this committee with him are Harry Pritchard and Wendell Groth. Robert Day was appointed chairman of the social committee.

According to a statement by President Reed, in the next two weeks the Green Gobblins are going to make an earnest attempt to justify their existence on the campus.

Article By Aylsworth Receives Recognition

Professor Aylsworth of the department of political science of the University of Nebraska, has received special recognition by having one of his articles on "Presidential Ballot" quoted in full in a book on "American Government" which was published recently by Alfred A. Knopf.

CAPTAIN SPEAKS AT CONVOCATION

Blackburn Compares Navy With Football Team in Navy Day Address

NAVY ACTS DURING PEACE

"The United States navy is like a football team," Captain Blackburn said in his Navy day convocation address in the Temple auditorium at 11 o'clock, Wednesday, October 25.

The navy's fleet tactics work out like football tactics; the idea is to concentrate the greatest force at the enemies point of least resistance. Exceptional battles, he continued, are like outstanding plays of the game. Nelson made a line buck at Trafalgar; at the battle of Jutland, the ends played too far and the game was lost. During the Russo-Japanese war when the two powers met in one of the greatest naval battles that has ever taken place, Admiral Togo made a brilliant center smash, consequently making Russian a third rate naval power.

Navy Aided Search For Fliers

The navy, according to Blackburn, is like a football team in condition by practice and maneuvers, and there are also many peace time duties to perform. Recently, during the Dole air race to Hawaii, the entire Northern Pacific was combed for the missing fliers. Ships are (Continued on Page 3)

November Issue Of Countryman To Appear Soon

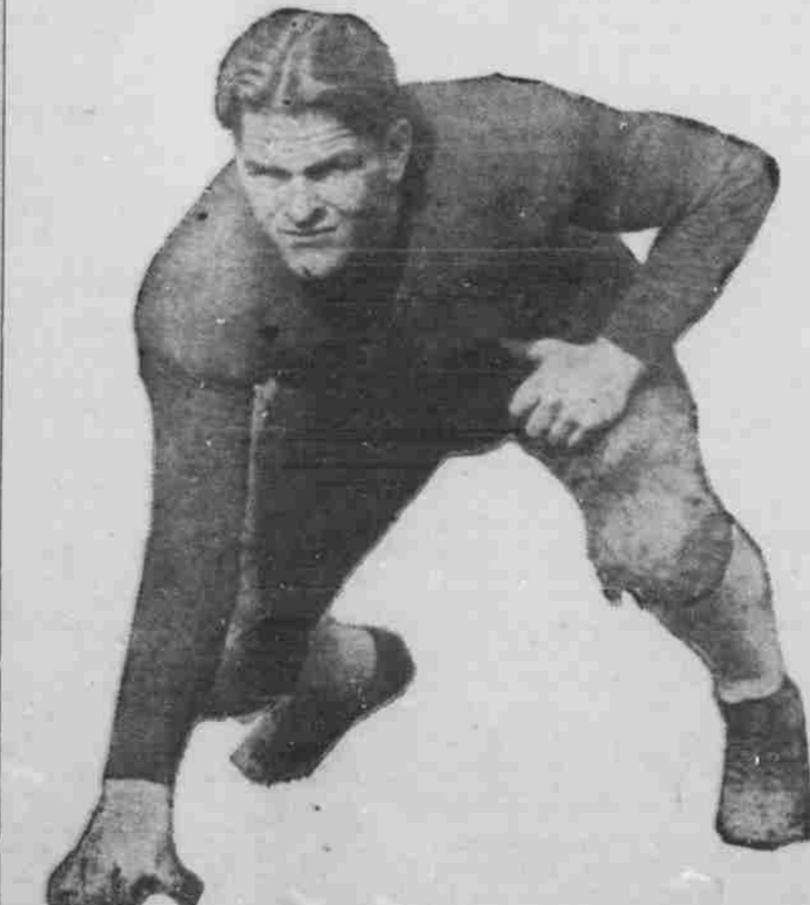

The November issue of the Cornhusker Countryman will be ready for distribution Wednesday, November 2. This issue will be larger than the previous one this year and it is the plan of the staff to put out a larger issue from now on featuring more student contributions.

The December issue will devoted almost entirely to the home economics department and the January issue will feature organized agriculture week which is always an important and well attended event on the college of Agriculture campus.

Through a new subscription policy which is being worked out this year, two hundred issues will reach farm homes throughout the state.

Staff meetings will be held at noon on the second Wednesday of each month starting November 9. These meetings are held to promote greater interest in the paper and a closer understanding between the members of the staff.

Stellar Syracuse Tackle

Jacob T. Patterson, 183-pound Syracuse tackle who will be on the line against Nebraska when Referee Edmonds opens the big inter-sectional clash. Patterson is the only Orange player who has ever played against Nebraska on the football gridiron. He was in the game back in 1922 when the Orange and Husker elevens met at Syracuse.

The big tackle is a world war veteran, and spent seventeen months with the marines in France. He was wounded in action and after the armistice was signed he returned to his home in Syracuse. His prowess has not only been established on the gridiron but also on the wrestling mat, for the big tackle is the heavy weight intercollegiate wrestling champion. His number is 25, watch for him in the game Saturday.

VARSITY GRID MEN SCRIMMAGE WITH RESERVES

Presnell and Howell Score in Opening Half with Orange Clad Squad

PEAKER PILOTS SECONDS

Nebraska Will Have Ten Pound Weight Advantage In Syracuse Game

A thirty minute scrimmage was the important number on the practice session for Coach Bear's Scarlet clad warriors last night on stadium sod. The second eleven took the field against the varsity crew and Presnell carried the oval across the goal line after ten minutes of scrimmage. His try for goal was wide.

The second quarter opened with the ball in possession of the varsity on the ten yard line. Three drives and Howell had planted the pigskin on the other side of the line and made his kick for goal good. This (Continued on Page 2)

TICKET SALE FOR DINNER IS LARGE

Affair for Journalism Students Is This Evening in Silver Moon

EVENT FIRST OF ITS KIND

Fifty tickets had been sold Wednesday noon for the school of journalism dinner which will be held this evening in the Silver Moon from 6 to 8 o'clock. It is estimated that twenty-five more will be sold before noon today. They may be bought from any member of Theta Sigma Phi, in University Hall, 104, or at Long's bookstore for sixty cents.

The affair will be the first of its kind in the history of the school and is open to all students registered in the school of journalism and to those who are taking an active part in journalism. Members of Theta Sigma Phi, national professional journalistic sorority, are in charge of the arrangements. Daily Nebraskan, Corn (Continued on Page 2)

MISS JACKMAN IS SPEAKER

Topic for Agricultural World Forum Is "Student Activities"

Miss Lois Jackman, '25, will speak at the college of agriculture World Forum at 12 o'clock today on "Student Activities". Miss Jackman is well qualified to discuss the subject as she played a prominent part in activities while attending the college of agriculture.

The college of agriculture World Forum is held every Thursday noon in the Home Economics building. Trays for the lunch are to be secured in the cafeteria line and taken to room 213.

Money or Tickets For Green Caps Requested

It is imperative that all Iron Sphinx members who have green cap tickets or money turn them in today, according to Richard Vette, who is in charge of the green cap sale. Tickets and money are to be turned in to Vette at the Daily Nebraskan office this afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock.

TICKET SALE DEADLINE SET

Places for Dad's Day Luncheon May Be Obtained Until Five O'clock Today

INNOCENTS ARE SPONSORS

The deadline on the sale of tickets for the Dad's Day luncheon has been set at 5 o'clock today. They may be obtained from members of the Vikings or from C. D. Hayes at the Temple. A canvass of the fraternity houses was made last night during the dinner hour by the Vikings.

The sales have been unusually heavy and all those wishing to attend are urged by the committee to make their reservations as soon as possible. A number of the fraternities are cooperating with the Innocents, who are sponsoring the event, by closing their tables Saturday noon enabling all members to attend the luncheon with their dads. The Troubadors, a local orchestra, will furnish the music for the affair. KFAB is announcing this dinner over the radio Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening.

Tickets for the Syracuse-Nebraska football game, in the special Dad's Day section are still obtainable. Student tickets may be turned in for those in this section, so that every son and daughter may sit with dad during the game. This should be done at once, as the ticket sales for this game has been the largest in Dad's Day history.

Paper Topics Announced For Arts Meeting

"The Progress of Municipal Art in the West," will be the topic of the Wednesday morning program of the American Federation of Arts to be held in Lincoln, November 21, 22 and 23.

This session, which will begin at 10 o'clock, will be one of the most important of the whole series. It will consist of four papers.

The first will be given by R. A. Holland, director of the Art Institute of Kansas City, and will concern the development of municipal art in Kansas City and plans for the future of the art institute there.

The second paper will be presented by Edgar C. Mehan, secretary of the Denver Art museum. He will tell of the progress of municipal art in Denver.

Russell A. Plimpton, director of the Minneapolis Art Institute, will discuss the institution of which he is in charge, and tell of their plans for development.

The last of this series of papers will be given by Ernst Herminghaus of Lincoln. His topic will be "Ways and Means of Improving Smaller Municipalities."

SOCIETIES ASKED FOR INFORMATION

Names Beginning With N, V, and Z Posted for Correction Until Friday

All honorary societies which wish to be listed in the student directory must submit the name of the organization, the name of the president, and his address and telephone number to Sherman Welpton, Temple 101, of this week.

The posting of names for correction will be continued this week. Names beginning with N, V, and Z will be posted until Friday evening. Corrections should be made on cards and dropped in the box provided for that purpose.

Kansas Rooters Will Ride Special Train to Homecoming Contest

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 26.—Tickets for the Kansas-Nebraska football game to be played at Lincoln, November 5, have been received by the athletic office of the University of Kansas. Places have been reserved for 746 Kansas rooters. A special train with reduced rates will be run to Lincoln to take care of part of those who will go from Lawrence to the game.

LARGEST RALLY OF SEASON HELD FRIDAY EVENING

Torchlight Parade to Welcome Syracuse Team Is Feature

EVENT TO BE BROADCAST

Dads Invited to Participate in Celebration to Observe Nebraska Spirit

A Cornhusker football rally expected to be the largest of the season will be held in the Coliseum at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow evening. Coming on the eve of the Syracuse-Nebraska game, this rally will introduce some novel pep-producing ideas. The rally will reach a climax in a torch-light parade to the Lincoln hotel where the Syracuse team will receive a Cornhusker welcome of unusual proportions.

An interesting feature of this rally is that it will be broadcast over radio station KFAB. Every radio fan who has been accustomed to listening in on the Cornhusker football games will have an opportunity to hear a Nebraska rally. "Cheering, as well as the talks will be broadcast," stated a member of the rally committee, "and for that reason every student is urged to be present at this rally, and give the radio fans, as well as the team, an example of Nebraska spirit."

Rooters Will Parade to Hotel

The pep-parade to the hotel will be organized by the Corn Cobs and led by the Cornhusker band. The committee in charge hopes that this torch-light procession will equal in size and spirit the one held on the eve of the memorable Notre Dame-Nebraska game two years ago.

The Syracuse-Nebraska game is an important one on the Nebraska schedule, and deserving of a rally which will be remembered. The cooperation of every Cornhusker student is necessary, states the rally committee, if this rally is to be the outstanding exhibition of pep of the 1927-'28 season. To be in keeping with "The greatest year in Cornhusker history" this rally should be the greatest in Cornhusker tradition. Short pep-talks will be made at the Coliseum by coaches Bearg, Hutchinson and Rhodes.

Students are urged by those in charge of the rallies to attend the short rallies in front of Social Sciences building Thursday and Friday mornings at 11 o'clock. In addition to this, it is hoped that students will revive the old Nebraska custom of singing Cornhusker songs at the beginning of each class. Upperclassmen who have taken part in such manifestations of pep are requested to initiate the new students into the custom.

The rally in the Coliseum is the first number on the Dad's Day program. Every dad of a Cornhusker student is invited to take part in the celebration, and see how Nebraskans support their team.

SATURDAY NAMED AS "OMAHA DAY"

Many Expected From Neighboring City; To Parade From Burlington Depot

Saturday, October 29, is to be the annual "Omaha Day" in Lincoln. That morning at 9:15 o'clock three hundred people will arrive on the first special train to pull into the new Burlington depot. These people who represent livestock interests, packers and commission men and their wives of South Omaha, the South Omaha high school band, and officials of the Akosarben including the chosen king and queen, will parade from the depot to 15th and O street. At 10 o'clock they will be entertained at the judging pavilion on the agriculture college campus by stunts conducted by boys from the Block and Bride club of that college.

DISCUSSION GROUP TO MEET

Arts College Group Will Hold Meeting in Y. M. C. A. Office Thursday

The arts college discussion group will meet at the Y. M. C. A. office at 7:15 o'clock, Thursday, October 27. Chairmen of the departmental sub-committees are requested to be present at 7:00 o'clock to outline the work of the sub-committees.

Dr. Oldfather, of the classics department, will be present to answer questions concerning the conditions and distinctions of the A. B. degree. Everyone interested in this work and discussion is invited by Dr. Oldfather to be present.
