HUSKER TEAM ENTRAINS FOR EAST TODAY

Bearg Selects 26 Men to Make Trip for Tilt with Pitt Panthers

RADEL'S HAS LAME FOOT

Line Captain Expected to be in Lineup by Saturday; Squad to Practice in Chicago

Nebraska's Husker football team will leave Lincoln at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon for the camp of the Pitt Panthers where the Scarlet warriors from the Cornhusker state will meet Pittsburgh university in an inter-sectional football battle. Coach Ernest E. Bearg, Husker football mentor, will take twenty-six football players with him for Nebraska's second inter-sectional tilt of the season. Bearg is taking two full teams and an extra guard, tackle, end, and backfield man.

The starting lineup of the Pitt-Husker game and a comparison of weights is as follows:

Pittsburgh	Weight	Nebraska	Weight
Donchess	175 lb	Lee	173
Kern	185	Richards	205
Fox	185	Holm	191
Cutler	195	James	195
Roberts	190	McMullen	215
Wasmuth	190	Randels	188
Guarino	175	Lawson	174
Parkinson	191	Bronson	161
Welch	185 (C)	Prussell	181
Hagan	180	Howell	187
Booth	200	Oehlrich	184

Practice Is Light

The practice session on stadium field last night consisted of a light workout and signal drill for the Pitt game. No strenuous scrimmage work will be on deck before the all important inter-sectional clash as Bearg wants to keep the injury list down to zero. Ray Randels, line captain of the Husker squad, was watching practice from the sidelines last night and will probably not workout with the Nebraska squad until the arrival at Chicago where Bearg will send his warriors through a limbering up session on Northwestern's field. ## CANDLE LIGHTING SERVICE IS HELD

Miss Erma Appleby Speaks on "The Inner Life" at Symbolic Vespers

The Candle Lighting Vesper service, symbolic recognition of membership in the Y. W. C. A., was held Tuesday at 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Miss Erma Appleby gave a talk on "The Inner Light" and Helen Clarke lead.

Christianity and how it should influence the lives of girls was stressed by Miss Appleby in her talk on "The Inner Life." The speaker further stated that the matter of the ideal self and the actual self should be considered. St. Augustine and St. Francis were cited by Miss Appleby as examples of two men who made these two selves identical in their lives.

Invitation Week Ends

The service Tuesday terminated the activities of Invitation week which opened Monday, October 31 with a luncheon at Ellen Smith hall. Individual candles were lighted from two tall white candles depicting the light of the Christian religion. Mary (Continued on Page 2)

"The Home Is the Foundation Of Nations," Says Lulu S. Wolford

"The home is recognized as the foundation of nations," declared Lulu S. Wolford, assistant superintendent of public instruction, in a radio talk yesterday in connection with the American Education week program.

"Even the savage and nomad provided themselves with some form of habitation or shelter," Miss Wolford continued, "the home instinct is found in all nature. The birds build nests, the wild animals have shelters and dens, and old Dobbin comes into the barn at night. One of the finest poems ever written, 'Home, Sweet Home,' is based on this love of home which is inherent in the heart of mankind. The improvement of the most fundamental institution among mankind marks the degree of his education and advancement. How important it is then that we devote a quota of our time to this dearest of all our institutions, the one in which every individual has a distinct and peculiar interest, the home."

"It is related that an Englishman, a Frenchman, a Scotchman, and an American were asked to give their

Dean James Attends National Meeting

Dean H. G. James, dean of the arts and science college and the graduate college, left Tuesday afternoon for Washington D. C. to represent the University of Nebraska at the meeting of the Association of American Universities, November 10, 11 and 12.

The addresses to be given will deal almost exclusively with the graduate student and the graduate college. The association will be the guest of the Catholic University of America.

'LILIOM' WILL BE PRESENTED

Molnar's Great Work is Second Offering by University Players

LERNER HEADS THE CAST

"Liliom" will be presented by an unusually large cast, headed by Zolley Lerner, in the second season offering at the Temple theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, November 10, 11, and 12. This play one of Franz Molnar's greatest works, offers something entirely new in comedy, viewed from the modern angle. The sets are very attractive, including a wide range of striking effects, in both arrangement and vivid colors. The cast is: Liliom.....W. Zolley Lerner; Julie.....Beatrice Hullett; Mrs. Muskat.....Martha Bruning; Marie.....Pauline Gellatly; Young Servant.....Ellen Hedge; Other girls.....Louise Jenkins, Thelma Logsdon, Florence Floeden; First Policeman.....Edwin Compton (Continued on Page 2)

BARBECUE TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Annual Freshmen Event Scheduled To Start at 6:15; Prominent Men Will Speak

The annual freshmen barbecue will be held Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock in the coliseum. All freshmen are urged to attend this affair which will be sponsored by the Iron Sphinx, sophomore class society.

More than 300 first year men attended the barbecue last year. The purpose of the barbecue is to bring the freshmen class together so that they may make plans for the Olympics which will be held Saturday morning. Last year was the first time that the freshmen event was held inside, it having been held on (Continued on Page 3)

FRESHMAN GROUP TO MEET

Discussion Will be Held Tomorrow Evening in the Temple

Freshman council will meet Thursday evening at the Temple at 7:30 o'clock. Both the Wednesday and Thursday groups will meet at this time, as there will be no meeting Wednesday evening.

The meeting will be held immediately following the freshmen barbecue which is to be given in the coliseum. A continuation of the discussion started last week will be the feature of the meeting. Freshmen boys who are interested in these discussions are invited by C. D. Hays, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., to attend.

FAMOUS TENOR SINGS TONIGHT AT COLISEUM

John McCormack Appears in Lincoln Probably for Last Time Says Manager

TICKET SALE IS LARGE

Irish Tenor Had Planned Scholastic Career Before Voice Was Discovered

John McCormack, "the uncrowned king of song" will make his appearance before Lincoln and the university tonight at 8:20 o'clock in the coliseum. A brisk sale of tickets has been reported, guaranteeing a large crowd for the event.

Mr. McCormack and party, including his manager, Mr. D. F. MacSweeney and his pianist, Edwin Schneider, arrived yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the Rock Island.

Mr. MacSweeney, in an interview with a Daily Nebraskan reporter, pointed out an interesting fact about the great singer which is not generally known. It is the fact that Mr. McCormack is a college graduate. His father was a workman in the mills of Athlone, Ireland, and was unable to give the advantages of (Continued on Page 3)

ATTRACTION OF OLYMPICS LAGS

Innocents Society Urges All Underclassmen to Remain For Traditional Affair

SOPHOMORES PLAN UPSET

Unless both the freshmen and sophomore classes show more enthusiasm, the olympics may have to be held twice to determine whether the freshmen will wear the green caps until Christmas, according to the olympics committee of the Innocents society last night. The tendency of many is to go home over Armistice day, but all freshmen and sophomores are urged by the Innocents to stay for the olympics.

According to information received from Gordon Larson, chairman of the sophomore olympics teams, the sophomores "have a trick up their sleeves and they are going to give the freshmen a real battle." The Innocents society states that there will be even rivalry in all the events this year. The sophomores have had a year of experience in (Continued on Page 3)

LAW FRESHMEN ORGANIZE CLUBS

Groups Will Meet to Try Special Cases Before Faculty and Student Judges

Four law clubs have been organized by the freshman class of the college of law, under the supervision of the law faculty, after circulating a petition and a unanimous vote of the class at a special meeting. Each club is composed of about twenty law students with a sponsor selected from the law faculty.

LUNCHEON IS THIS NOON

University Commercial Club Holds Its First Event of This Kind

The University Commercial club will have a luncheon Wednesday noon in the "Y" room of the Temple. This will be the first luncheon of its kind which has ever been held by the Commercial club, and if successful will be inaugurated as a regular activity of this club.

There will be no speeches this week as it will be an informal get-together for the members of the club. A large number of the faculty and student body have already announced their intentions of attending this meeting and all others are invited. Lunch will be served in the "Y" room by the Temple cafeteria.

The officers are making future plans for the organization which include a dinner on November 16. At this meeting there will be both music and a speaker. A convocation is being planned for the college of business administration to be held November 20. The speaker for this meeting is to be a very prominent man in the state whose name will be announced at a later date.

Senior Cuts May Be Made From Last Year's Proofs

Seniors not desiring to have their pictures retaken for this year's Cornhusker may have cuts made of last year's proof by filling out the regular class card and making a payment of $3.50 at the downtown studio where the picture was taken last year.

A. W. S. PLANS ANNUAL PARTY

December 9 Announced as Date of Girls' Cornhusker Party

HONORARIES TO GIVE SKIT

The Girls' Cornhusker party will be held, Friday, December 9, at the Armory according to a report made by Orrel Rose Jack, chairman of the party, at the regular meeting of the Associated Womens' Student Board, Tuesday noon at Ellen Smith hall. The party is sponsored annually by the Associated Womens' Student Board.

Skits will be presented by the members of the honorary organizations and three prizes are being offered for the best costumes. The members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will make the conclusion.

The Associated Womens' Student Board is also sponsoring a tea to be given at Ellen Smith hall, Thursday afternoon, November 17, from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock. Helen Van Gilder is chairman of the tea and is making arrangements for a program. The members of her committee who will assist her in making arrangements will be announced later.

Work on the point system, in charge of Kathryn Douglass, is nearly completed. A number of the women's organizations on the campus have been slow in handing in to Miss Douglass their list of members. Any organization that has not submitted its list of members is urged to do so at once.

New Form Of Cosmetics Is Recommended

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—Beautifiers for milady purchased at groceries are much cheaper and more permanent than those that come from drug stores. Especially if they are applied internally three times a day.

"Take vanity cases for example," suggests Miss Bertha Clow, of the home economics department at the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, formerly of the Indianapolis Dairy and Food Council. "The newest vanities are gaily colored and the most effective come in several shades of green and are made of leafy vegetables."

Make-up, too, Miss Clow insists, is most satisfactory when it comes from the grocery store. Vanishing cream comes in quart bottles and is called milk. It not only helps the skin, but brings relief to tired bodies strength to the bones, and makes firm white teeth and ruby lips. Young girls need at least four glasses (Continued on Page 4)

LEROSSIGNOL IS COLORADO VISITOR

Bizad Dean Returns from Semi-Centennial Celebration at Colorado School

"One meets Nebraska graduates wherever he goes" was the chief comment of J. E. LeRossignol, dean of the college of business administration, upon his return Tuesday from the semi-centennial celebration of the University of Colorado, held at Boulder November 3, 4, and 5.

Inter-Fraternity Cross-Country Race is Thursday

Fraternities which have not yet entered the annual inter-fraternity cross-country race which is to be run Thursday, November 10, may do so at once at the student activities office in the coliseum. The race will be run over the local course, and will begin promptly at 4 o'clock. Teams should report at the dressing room in the stadium before the race.

Fraternities may enter as many men as they desire, but only the first three will count. Three men must finish before any score will be recorded for a fraternity.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM WILL BE HELD MARCH 2

Daly Announces Change in Date Due to Conflict with Other Parties

PROM GIRL TO BE CHOSEN

Effort Started to Make Party Strictly Upperclassmen Affair

Changing of the date of the Junior-Senior Prom from February 26 to March 2 was announced Tuesday by Frederick Daly, chairman of the prom committee. Announcement that the prom would be held in the Scottish Rite temple with the selection of the prom girl again this year as the outstanding feature of the party was also made.

The date for the dance was changed because of the large number of formal parties already scheduled for February 25 and also so that the Scottish Rite temple could be secured for the ball. The Junior-Senior prom is one of the three major university formal parties, the others being the Military ball and the Pan-Hellenic ball. The Junior-Senior prom will mark the official closing of the university formal season.

Committee Meets

This year's party will be limited to junior and senior men, it was decided by the Junior-Senior prom committee in their opening meeting a week ago. Mr. Daly announced Tuesday in giving out plans for the party. In order to place the prom back on the campus the party was not limited last year. Mr. Daly stated that the intention was to limit it in an attempt to make it a strictly junior-senior affair, the real purpose of a junior-senior prom, which was formerly the custom here as elsewhere. A second meeting of the Junior-Senior prom committee will be held Thursday evening to conclude initial preparations for the party.

DEAN THOMPSON ISSUES LETTER

Head of Student Affairs Composes Letter Concerning Types of University Entertainment

With the intention of informing faculty and students of that entertainment which the university sponsors or endorses, Dr. T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs, has sent a letter to faculty members to be read in the classrooms. Such a statement is pertinent especially at this time, since Friday is a holiday, and also since, due to the fact that the Nebraska team will be in Pittsburgh, the students should have some leisure time.

This is the first time that such an idea has been fostered at Nebraska. It places the university stamp of approval on what the authorities consider (Continued on Page 4)

CAMPUS CLUB WILL MEET

Luncheon for Women Faculty Members is Tuesday

The University Campus club will hold its November luncheon on Tuesday, November 15 at 12 o'clock. The luncheon will be served in the balcony room of the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee in charge requests that all reservations be made before noon Monday, November 14. Plates may be reserved by seeing or calling any of the following: Esther Anderson, Nebraska hall; Clara Craig, main library; Ella Witte, Morrill hall; Mary Keech, registrar's office; Martha Turner, State Historical Society in library, telephone B-2642. The charge is fifty cents a plate.

All women faculty members and full-time employees of the university are included in this invitation. Fifty-eight were present at the October luncheon, and a still larger attendance is expected this time.

Cosmopolitan Club To Entertain At Supper

The Cosmopolitan club will entertain at a box supper Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Dramatic club room, Temple, $01.

A business meeting of the club will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren, 237 North 16 street. The following topics will be taken for discussion: plans for the district convention, reports of international night, consideration of constitution for membership proportion and the election of members.

High School Dairy Club Wins in National Meet

The Nebraska 4-H Dairy club judging team won first honors at the national dairy exposition and thereby won a trip to England next June to compete for the world championship. Earnest Girardot, Smith-Hughes instructor at Albion, and M. L. Flack, extension dairy specialist at the college of agriculture, coached the team. The team is composed of high school students. The Nebraska team won the decision over 24 other states in competition.

AWGWAN HAS MANY CARTOONS

"Traditions" Number of Monthly Humorous Magazine Goes on Sale Today

KEZER PRAISES ART WORK

Featuring the largest number of cartoons published in one issue in Awgwan history, the "Traditions" number of Nebraska's monthly student humor magazine went on the press Tuesday. It will go on sale at 2 o'clock today. Block subscriptions will be delivered to the subscribing houses this evening and other local subscribers may get their copies by presenting their receipts at the College Book store.

Eighteen cartoons and an attractive two-color cover done in red and black by James Pickering are loaded into the twenty-eight pages of the November number. The art work of the second issue, according to Munro Kezer, editor of the Awgwan, is far superior to that of the first issue. Critics who have read advance proof on the "Traditions" number say that it comes up to all that was expected of the Awgwan after the first issue.

"Honeymoon" Is Feature

Work of Margaret Emery, former Northwestern artist, whose drawing and poem, "The Co-Ed" attracted favorable attention in the October issue, occupies a full page with a drawing and poem, "Honeymoon," which follows the fly-leaf drawing by James Pickering. Miss Emery has also furnished an attractive reminiscence of summer traditions with a bit of verse, "Infatuation" and a drawing accompanying.

The parody on the Sherlock Holmes' stories which is the lead-off story of the month is illustrated by George A. Koehnke with a startling story in light and shadow. Instructions to graduates on buying football tickets and to freshmen students on the university's dating traditions are other features.

Alan Klein, Tom McCoy, and Charles Senter complete the list of staff artists whose drawings live up to the pages of this Awgwan number. Klein and McCoy were both contributors to the first issue and reappear with some live art work. Senter is a new contributor, making his appearance with a fancy background sketch on sour milk.

Dr. Howe to Engage in Botany Research Here

Dr. Thomas D. Howe, who has been teaching for the past two years at James Millston University in New York, expects to return to Nebraska about the first of December in order to complete some research work in botany.

Dr. Howe received both his Bachelor and his Master degrees from Nebraska and then went to Wisconsin where he was awarded his Doctor's degree.

Faculty Members Enrolled

Forty faculty women have enrolled in the physical training classes of the University of Texas.

Indications Point To A Decided Decrease in Upperclassmen Vanity

More than a thousand juniors and seniors had their pictures taken last year to appear in the class sections of the Cornhusker. Alas, such is not the case this year! But two days are left until November 10 when all upperclassmen must have had their pictures taken, and there are five hundred who haven't even designated their intentions of having their photograph sitting.

The engravers insist that the panels be sent to them on this date and blank panels cannot be sent. The editor of the Cornhusker might stand out in front of Social Sciences in the morning with a camera and snap the forgetful juniors and seniors but what pictures they would be; not at all like a dignified upperclassman would desire.

SEND-OFF RALLY SCHEDULED FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Students to Parade from Social Sciences to Burlington Station

NEBRASKA SPIRIT REVIVES

Short Pre-rally and Classroom Singing Planned for This Morning

Nebraska's football squad will leave for Pittsburgh this afternoon with a parade and rally send-off from the Burlington station. The rally will start at 4 o'clock in front of Social Sciences, and the pep-procession will be formed immediately. Expectations are high for this rally. The send-off that the Husker team received on its departure for Missouri should be eclipsed by this rally, in the opinion of the rally committee, because of the greater national importance of the grid battle with Pittsburgh. Being an eastern team, Pittsburgh is expected to show up certain stellar Cornhuskers as promising All-American material.

Impromptu Speeches Planned

Nebraska students will parade to the Burlington station, led by the band, cheer leaders, Corn Cobs and Tassels. The parade to the Missouri send-off filled the street for over a block, and an estimate of the size of this Pittsburgh rally may be drawn from that. A few short impromptu speeches will be given by team members at the train. The rallying students will be given the opportunity to call for their own speakers.

A Short Pre-rally, Conducted by One of the Cheer Leaders, will be Held

PHI DELTA THETA LEADS IN CHASE

Delta Tau Delta Rises to Second Place in Hare and Howard Race Standings

Delta Tau Delta forged into second place by winning 52 points in the hare and bound chase run yesterday. Phi Kappa dropped to third place and District III was lowered to fourth place. Phi Delta Theta maintained the nearest rival by adding 34 points to its total, which is three over its nearest rival.

Delta, Theta Chi, and Wickwire, Delta Sigma Lambda, will be hares in the next chase. Stewart Campbell, Phi Delta Theta, and Leonard Janrog, Phi Kappa, led the pack of hounds over the course yesterday. (Continued on Page 4)

TEXTILE FILM IS SECURED

Home Ec Department Will Show "Romance of Rayon"

The clothing and textile division of the department of home economics have secured the film, "The Romance of Rayon," produced by the Viscose company, and it will be shown at the Agriculture hall this afternoon at 1 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. This film will also be shown in the lecture room in Chemistry hall, on the city campus, next Monday at 5 o'clock. The showing at Chemistry hall will be under the auspices of Iota Sigma Pi, honorary chemistry fraternity. "The Romance of Rayon" was recently shown at the Biltmore hotel in New York City, and the University of Nebraska is the first school to be given permission to show this film, which portrays the production of rayon. The Viscose method converts wood pulp into the lustrous fiber used commercially in the manufacture of rayon silk.
