back, was the stellar performer of the game and his sensational passing was the best exhibition of aerial work against Nebraska all season. Presnell opened the scoring in the Syracuse game after the first five minutes of play. With the oval on the six yard line, the DeWitt flash skirted end for the remaining yards and a Husker touchdown. Again in the opening quarter Presnell, Nebraska's ground gaining ace, thundered through the Orange line for another touchdown. The Syracuse eleven had lost its first game of the season.

Jayhawks Hold For Half
On November 5 the Huskers met Kansas in the annual Homecoming battle. Thousands of grads and Husker fans sat in the Stadium and watched one of the most spectacular games of the season. Nebraska's powerhouse got under way early in the game and roared up and down the sod but the Jayhawk trailed right behind. At the end of the first half, Nebraska had only a touchdown lead on the Kansas crew. In the second half the Scarlet eleven came back and unleashed one of its terrible drives and after the game was over the score read Nebraska 47, Kansas 13. It was one of the most decisive beatings a Husker team had ever given to Kansas.

Scarlet Faces Pitt
The next week the Nebraskans hit the road for a long trip to the east where the Pitt Panther was waiting for Husker meat. Pitt was rated as the strongest eleven in the east and had not lost a single game. Only six points had been tallied against the Panther eleven during the season. Nebraska was now up against the hardest game of the schedule.

On the opening kickoff Captain "Gibby" Welsh, spectacular Pittsburgh back, ran the length of the field for a touchdown. Giving the Panthers a seven point lead right at the start of the game the Husker machine got under way and with Presnell lugging the pellet the Scarlet came right back for a touchdown. The Panther still held the lead as the team from the "Smoky City" scored another touchdown by a long run just as the half ended.

Presnell Shows Easterners
All during the opening period the Nebraska backs had been ripping the Pitt line to threads and making large gains through the line and around the wings. The brilliant Presnell was giving eastern football fans the thrill of the season with his spectacular runs around end. In the second half a touchdown was marked up for each eleven and the game ended with Pitt holding a touchdown margin, 21 to 13.

Nebraska fans sitting in the Pitt oval that afternoon came back to Huskerland with tales of the great battle. It was the greatest battle of the season and Nebraska had no alibi. The Scarlet team had fought Pitt on even terms but the long run in the opening moments of the game won the fray for the eastern eleven. The Husker team returned to Lincoln for a week of practice and then journeyed down to Manhattan for a battle with the Kansas Aggie Wildcat eleven. The Aggies and Nebraskas had been playing football in the Valley for many years and the Purple crew had never won.

During the first half the Nebraskans and Kansas fought on even terms. Pounding and battering the Aggie line netted the Bearmen but little gain. The Aggie backfield tried the Nebraska during the opening period for gains but the forward wall of the Scarlet held the Bachman men for downs. A long pass from "Dutch" Witte to Lee was good for a Husker touchdown and the first half ended with the Nebraskans holding a touchdown lead.

Steam Roller Gets Under Way
But the second half found an entirely new Nebraska team on the Aggie field. The Scarlet steam roller got under way and pounded and drove the Aggie line until a 33 to 0 count had been scored, the worst defeat the Cornhuskers had ever handed the Purple squad. "Jug" Brown, Nebraska captain, played the position of halfback and went through the Kansas line for two touchdowns in the last few minutes of play. It was purely a Nebraska day at Manhattan and the Bearmen returned to Lincoln to prepare for the fast New York University eleven on Thanksgiving day.

New York was the third eastern eleven on the Husker card and like the Pitt team had not lost a game all season. In nine encounters the Meehan coached eleven had failed to lose and the last game of the season was on Memorial Stadium field.

Connors Led Violet
Led by Jack Connors, one of the country's fastest and most elusive backs, the Violet squad came to the Cornhusker stronghold to gain revenge on the Huskers for the defeat of the preceding year.

It was the last game of collegiate football for fourteen scarlet-clad warriors from Nebraska. Fourteen Cornhuskers were playing their last and they closed the season for Nebraska in a glorious and fitting climax.

35,000 Watch Huskers Win
In the stadium were 35,000 Thanksgiving football fans and out on the sod was a Nebraska eleven that was fighting its last and against the Violet. The Scarlet got under way like a whirlwind and in the first half had the much touted eastern eleven trailing the scoring column 19 to 6.

The second half the packed stadium came to their feet for a new kind of football was being played. The mighty New Yorkers came back with a rally that brought the count up to 19 to 18. The affair was no longer just a football game but a bloody battle for victory as the Huskers were fighting, tearing, and pounding the Violet into submission. A two point counter and then a touchdown and the game was over. The New York eleven returned to the eastern coast no longer an undefeated eleven for Nebraska had once more stopped the powerful Meehan crew on the gridiron and closed the Cornhusker season with a glorious victory.

ity to locate the hoop, gaining high point honors with 18 points.

Phi Kappa remained undefeated by overcoming Farm House 18 to 6. Heacock starred for Phi Kappa and was high-point man with 10 counters.

Pi Kappa Alpha overcame Phi Sigma Kappa, last year's tournament winners, 11 to 7. The game was closely fought from the first whistle with neither team leading by a large margin at any time. Lefler starred for the winners, while Fisher looked the best in the Phi Sig lineup.

Phi Deltas Beat Sig Chis
Phi Delta Theta beat Sigma Chi 18 to 15 in the first game in Thursday's play. The game was a closely fought rough and tumble affair with Phi Delta Theta leading most of the time. Lindell starred the game, while Minor played well in the Sig Chi lineup.

By gaining a safe margin over Alpha Gamma Rho in the first half the Delta Upsilon quintet was able to win easily by a score of 15 to 10. Rendel playing forward for Delta Upsilon won high-point honors with 8 points.

Phi Gamma Delta encountered little difficulty in subduing Lambda Chi Alpha 19 to 4. Boatsman holding down a position at forward shone for the winning team, while Sharpe showed up best in the Lambda Chi lineup.

Phi Sigma Kappa, returning to original form, defeated Sigma Nu 32 to 11 in the final contest of the evening. Jensen, playing center for the Phi Sigs, was high-point man with a total of 14 points.

The games won by forfeit last night were—Kappa Psi over Alpha Chi Sigma; Alpha Tau Omega over Theta Chi; Delta Chi over Kappa Rho Sigma; Pi Kappa Alpha over Omega Beta Pi. The game between Pi Kappa Phi and Alpha Theta Chi was postponed.
