FRATERNITIES SEEM TO FAVOR PLAN FOR CARS

General Fraternity Opinion Appears to Approve Recommendations of Council
REGULATION IS PROBABLE
Groups Located at Some Distance from Campus Offer No Opposition

General opinion of fraternities at Nebraska favors the plan of car control proposed by the Interfraternity Council. Some of these Greek-letter organizations have not yet given their opinion, but a general selection of fraternities considers the plan commendable.

Briefly, the plan provides for: (1) Registration of all student-cars, (2) Written permission of parents for student cars, (3) Restriction of use of cars to sophomores and above in good standing in school, and (4) Prohibition of parking within campus area.

Fraternities Express Opinions
Fraternities that have expressed their opinions as favoring the car control are: Acacia, Alpha Chi Sigma, Alpha Sigma Phi, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Sigma Lambda, Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Rho Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, and Phi Kappa Phi. Of these fraternities, Acacia, Delta Upsilon, and Phi Gamma Delta are situated at some distance from the campus. Sigma Phi Epsilon opinion is that for their men cars are a necessity. "We are more than a mile from the campus," stated a Sig Ep. "and we feel that for us cars are a necessity."

BLUE PRINT WILL GO ON SALE THURSDAY

Raikes Announces Increase in Size of Engineering Publication to Thirty-Two Pages

The December issue of the Blue Print, official publication of the Nebraska Engineering Society, will be ready for distribution Thursday, according to Ralph Raikes, editor. This issue will contain thirty-two pages, which is slightly more than the former issues contained. The cover design will be an architect's drawing of a modern skyscraper.

The feature article of the issue is "Modern Sewage Disposal." The article was written by R. M. Tracy, city engineer, Fairbury, Nebraska. This article compares an obsolete method of sewage disposal with a modern one such as is used in Hastings.

Another important article is "Agricultural Engineering," by Oscar Sjogren. This is a paper describing the main divisions of agricultural engineering. It also outlines this work as offered at Nebraska.

New Motor Described
There is also an article on "The Fairchild Camerz Motor." It is a descriptive discussion of the new cam drive motor, including technical details, specifications, and operating characteristics.

From the geology department, is an article on "The Value of Geology." This paper will take up and discuss the place of geology in a liberal education and as a technical preparation for professional service. The article was written by A. L. Lagn, instructor of geology in the University of Nebraska.

Foremost in the engineering achievements department, the new department of the magazine, is a description of the "Hudson River Suspension Bridge." This article discusses the 3,500 foot suspension bridge which will span the Hudson river. When completed, this bridge will be the largest bridge ever built.

AG CLUB HOLDS STAG

Oyster Feed is Feature; Program in Conjunction With Y. M. C. A.

The annual Ag club stag was held at the College of Agriculture cafeteria Tuesday evening. The main feature of the evening was the big oyster feed.

The program was held in conjunction with the Y. M. C. A. stag. Joe Hunt opened the program with a short talk on the purpose of the Y. M. C. A., and its place in the College of Agriculture. This was followed by two humorous selections by Theodore Alexander of St. Paul and Clarence Clover of Exeter.

William Gross of Burwell met Raymond Nixon of Fairfield in a wrestling match, after which there was a three round boxing match. This program was arranged by Cecil Adams, C. A. president of the Ag club.

Conference Delegates

CHANDLER WRIGHT, Chandler Wright of Tufts college, Medford, Mass., is national chairman of the third annual conference of the Student Council which meets on this campus Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week.

CARROLL E. BLACK, president of the Student Council at Wabash college at Crawfordsville, Ind., will also attend the conference in Lincoln this week as a delegate from his college.

NEW AWGWAN IS RELEASED

"Science" Features December Number of Monthly Humor Magazine

PICKERING DRAWS COVER

The Scientific number of the Awgwan was released yesterday, featuring scientific matter. "Collegiate Science," "Fraternalism," and "Scientific Love Making" were some of the feature articles of the scientific issue.

"Military Science" was the cover picture concerning which the Awgwan contest was held. It was drawn by Tom McCoy, and depicted Miss Laura Margaret Raines as Honorary Colonel. James Pickering's representation of "Scientific Love Making" was one of the high spots of this issue of Nebraska's humor magazine. Other cartoons were drawn by Alan Klein, and Terry Doren. Lloyd Kennedy has a clever scientific poem entitled, "Hot Molecules." A full-page parody on "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," by Henry Brainerd, features "the girl who didn't talk."

AITKEN IS VESPERS SPEAKER TUESDAY

Lincoln Minister Lauds Jesus as Worthy of Universal Adoration of Mankind

"The Message in the Book of Revelations," was the topic of the talk which Reverend Walter Aitken, of the St. Paul Methodist church, gave at the weekly Vespers service held Tuesday evening in Ellen Smith Hall at 5 o'clock.

"I believe that Jesus is the most unique character in the history of the world," said Doctor Aitken, "and that, of course is a very commonplace statement, but Jesus is worthy of the universal adoration of mankind from four distinct standpoints."

Four standpoints given. First, he was worthy of this adoration from the standpoint of his moral superiority, for he was probably on a higher moral plane than any other individual who has ever lived.

Second, he was worthy of praise

ANNUAL PARTY IS SATURDAY

Members of Class in Psychology Plan Christmas Party for Saturday

The members of the Psychology 101 class will entertain at their annual Christmas party Saturday evening in the Psychology laboratory. All former members of the class are invited to attend.

Sixty persons are expected to meet at 6 o'clock for the supper, a feature of the party, which will be followed by entertainment in the form of skits based upon psychological take-offs.

The decorations will carry out the psychological scheme. A. B. Walling, Jr., is the general chairman.

Library Possesses Collection of Novel World War Newspapers

By Leon Larimer

Among the many interesting publications in the possession of the University library is a complete collection of "Gazette des Ardennes" and "Gazette Illustrée," newspapers printed in France during the World War, ostensibly legitimate French publications, but in reality, propaganda for the German Imperial head.

When the Germans began their invasion of France, the printing works of A. Ancliaux in Charleville, Ardennes, was requisitioned by the invaders, and Ancliaux was compelled to publish "Gazette des Ardennes" which was the official organ of the German General Staff Headquarters for the occupied districts of France.

M. Ancliaux was therefore able to secure a few complete collections of these papers which comprise 768 publications. The complete set is very rare, and was secured for the University through Mr. Gilbert Doane, University librarian.

Captions Attractive
All of the pictures are accompanied by eye-catching captions such as "French wounded carefully cared for by German doctors," "French example of the means taken by the

ALPHA SIG WINS FROM DELTA U

Basket Tossing by Norling Is Stellar Performance in Feature Game

PHI SIGS STAGE COMEBACK

Alpha Sigma Phi defeated Delta Upsilon for the championship of league 4 in the feature game of last night's program, while Phi Sigma Kappa staged a comeback to defeat Phi Delta Theta, and cause a tie between three teams for the championship of league 2. Sigma Alpha Epsilon overcame Phi Kappa in the league 3 championship game Monday night. Xi Psi Phi went down to defeat before Theta Chi, which gives Kappa Sigma the lead in league 5.

Results

Delta Sigma Phi 34—Delta Sigma Lambda 3
Alpha Sigma Phi 27—Delta Upsilon 15
Kappa Sigma 2—Acacia 0 (forfeit)
Lambda Chi Alpha 2—Kappa Rho Sigma 0 (forfeit)
Pi Kappa Alpha 16—Theta Xi 8
Tau Kappa Epsilon 18—Phi Kappa Psi 5
Delta Tau Delta 30—Phi Alpha Delta 7
Theta Chi 27—Xi Psi Phi 16
Phi Sigma Kappa 15—Phi Delta Theta 9
Alpha Gamma Rho 16—Delta Chi 15
Sigma Chi 11—Sigma Nu 11
Sigma Alpha Epsilon 14, Phi Kappa 8.

Delta Sigma Phi broke through the Delta Sigma Lambda lineup with a score of 34 to 3 in the opening game of the evening play. The Delta Sigma Phi team experienced little difficulty in gaining a large margin over the opponents in the early period of play. With an offense consisting of Eno, Holm and Mason the Delta Sigma Phi team was able to score over the opponents almost at will. Eno won individual scoring honors with 12 points while Mason was a close second with 11 points to his credit.

Alpha Sigma Phi submerged the Delta Upsilon team 27 to 15 in the

Nebraska Has Best All-Time Valley Record

Nebraska's Cornhuskers have rated first in the football world in the Missouri Valley from 1890 to 1927. In statistics compiled by the University of Kansas the Cornhuskers top first place by a large margin, its nearest opponent, Iowa State having a percentage 177 points lower.

In number of games won in the thirty-seven year period, Nebraska leads with 81 games on the win side, 22 defeats and 7 ties giving the Huskers a life-time average of 786 percent. Iowa State, second and Kansas third have percentage rankings of 609 and 570 for games since 1890. For a grand total, 2070 points were accumulated by the Scarlet teams of the past thirty-seven years and only 601 points were allowed to be scored against Nebraska.

Kansas Has Most Ties
Kansas leads the conference with no-decision battles with 17 draws to its credit. Washington and Oklahoma

COUNCIL HOLDS JOINT BANQUET WITH VISITORS

National Officers of N. S. F. A. Meet with Student Council To Finish Plans

325 DELEGATES EXPECTED

Number of Representatives Due to Arrive Today and Early Tomorrow

National officers of the National Student Federation of America and Nebraska's student council met in a joint banquet in Ellen Smith Hall Tuesday evening, marking the beginning of the third annual Congress of the N. S. F. A. which officially opens here Thursday.

Miss Marvin Breckinridge, president of the N. S. F. A.; Chandler Wright, chairman of the congress committee; Miss May Hermes, representing the international student federation; Thomas M. Wilson, Jr., Miss Martha H. Biehle, and Douglas Orr, former Nebraska student, were present at the banquet besides the members of the Nebraska council.

Headquarters for the executive committee of the N. S. F. A. have been established in the chapter room of the Alpha Omicron Pi house. Members of the committee who had reached Lincoln by noon Tuesday spent the afternoon and evening completing plans for the conduct of the convention.

Members of Executive Committee

Remaining members of the executive committee, H. J. Budd, Franklin and Marshall college; Sidney Chappell, North Carolina University; J. Willard Rippon, University of the City of Toledo; and Mildred Boie, University of Minnesota are expected to arrive today. Stanley Weigel, Leland Stanford University, far-Western representative, will be the last member of the executive committee to reach Lincoln. He will arrive at 5 o'clock Thursday morning.

Nebraska's student council has practically completed plans for the handling of the convention. Points not yet settled were clarified at the joint meeting of the Nebraska council and the N. S. F. A. officers following the banquet in Ellen Smith Hall Tuesday evening.

Luncheon Is Given

Two delegates representing Marietta college, Ohio, arrived Tuesday afternoon ready for the convention. Others will reach Lincoln today with the bulk of the 325 delegates expected reaching Lincoln sometime Thursday.

Chandler Wright of Tufts college, Boston, chairman of the congress, arrived at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

STEPANEK SPEAKS ON 'SOVIET RUSSIA'

English Professor Will Recount First Hand Information at Forum Luncheon

"Soviet Russia" is the subject of the talk to be given by Professor Orin Stepanek of the English department, before the World Forum at the Grand Hotel this noon. Mr. Stepanek has been asked to speak to the students at this meeting in regard to the conditions of life and government as he observed them in Soviet Russia this summer.

He holds, at the present time, the position of associate professor of Slavonic languages, and instructor of English. He received his M. A. degree at Harvard. C. D. Hayes, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., stated yesterday, "I am sure that Professor Stepanek will interest the students because of his personal contact with his subject and his interest in it."

World Forum luncheons are held regularly every Wednesday at the Grand Hotel. Speakers who are interested in talking to students are brought by the committee to address the meetings. World Forum is in reality, very cosmopolitan, and many students are interested in it from that point of view. It is open to any student of the university. Tickets may be procured at the Temple, in Social Science hall, and at the door of the hotel.
