IN THE VALLEY By JACK ELLIOTT

Certainly a good thing for Nebraska that Coach Bear doesn't have to build a new football team next season, that is, an entire new eleven. The moguls in the Big Six have cut the spring football season to fifteen days and with the few weeks in the fall, football mentors in the Big Six next fall will have to whip a gridiron aggregation together in short notice.

Last spring Bear had six weeks of training for his gridiron warriors and by the time school opened in the fall he was pretty sure of what material he had for his team. The first game on the Husker schedule comes early in October with Iowa State. It is considered a championship game and the 1928 Cornhuskers will have to step on it.

Even at that Nebraska is not nearly as hard hit as two of its sister members in the Big Six, Kansas and Kansas Aggies. These two schools are starting out next season with new football coaches. The players will have to learn their new mentor's system of coaching and in all probability an entirely new one. Kansas will have "Big Bill" Hargiss and as yet the Aggie school has not selected a man to fill Bachman's vacancy.

Football players will marry. Herb Joesting, Minnesota's All-American back for two seasons and his classmate sweetheart, Miss Lora Davidson of Minneapolis were married last Tuesday and Herb will take his bride with him to San Francisco for the benefit game there December 26. Herb and Pressnell will work together at the backfield positions on the All-Eastern eleven.

The smoke down on the Kaw has just about blown away now and things are back to normal. Merchants were found guilty of betting and sending scouts to Missouri and the athletic board at the university has decided that they can't let "Phog" Allen leave his post as basketball coach. There was much talk that Allen be relieved of his coaching position so he could give his undivided time as director of athletics but the athletic board of control says "Phog" shall handle both.

Coach "Chick" Meehan has decided to remain with the New York Violets next season according to the New York American. Meehan has signed a contract at the New York school for three years at $15,000 a season. Meehan had four demands from New York university and they are as follows: That he have a voice in scheduling games; better co-operation from the authorities; higher salary; and the right to name his coaching staff.

Coach "Bunny" Oakes has just about the largest crew of freshmen basketballers out for practice every night that has ever graced the Coliseum floor. "Bunny" will not think

VARSITY CAGE SQUAD LOSES

(Continued from Page 1) turned in a clever performance. Scores of the other two Missouri Valley games played Saturday night include a win for the Oklahoma Sooners over Grinnell by a score of, 44 to 16. Drake took a close contest from the Oklahoma A. and M. institution, 37 to 33.

These scores place Oklahoma in the lead with two victories, and Kansas Aggies and Washington following with one victory apiece and clean slates for their first encounters.

Spuring, brilliant sophomore center of the Tiger quintet, got in the game for a scant two minutes of action. He soon received a serious ankle injury and had to be replaced. Nebraska has no more games until after the Christmas vacation when they engage Missouri and Washington on January 7 and 9 at the Coliseum.

In the Friday night encounter, the Huskers lost a hard fought battle to the Washington Bears by a single point. Finishing the first half on the long end of a 11 to 9 score, the Nebraska cagemen were unable to stop Washington's shifty forward, Wientge, and lost the initial tussle of the season, 27 to 28.

Kenny Othmer led the scoring for the Scarlet and Cream lads with a total of seven markers. Five free throws and a basket were marked up to his credit during the game, while Glen Munn sank three baskets for six points and second honors for the Varsity men.

Brown Trys For Free Throw "Jug" Brown made a single basket but had a chance to tie the score during the last half minute of play. His effort at a free throw rolled off the hoop, however, and the game ended with no farther scoring by either quintet.

Forward Wientge possessed such an accurate eye for the hoop that he sank his shots from all angles and led in individual scoring with his point total of ten. Wientge was especially good at the high arch type of shot and rang up his total with four baskets and two free tosses.

Kansas Aggies Defeat Kansas Other Valley games resulted in wins for Kansas Aggies, Oklahoma, and Oklahoma Aggies. The big upset of the evening was the win by Kansas Ags over Kansas, 20 to 13. Burton, Hauser, and Schmidt of the Kansas quintet were held down by the hard working Aggies who in turn scored eight baskets and four foul throws for their twenty markers. Oklahoma Sooners defeated the Drake basketballers at Norman, 42 to 24, and showed an efficient brand of the basket art. Grinnell suffered a set-back in a heavy scoring argument with the Oklahoma A. & M. at Stillwater Friday evening. The final result was 54 to 43 in favor of the Stillwater farmers.
