Ball Tickets Selling Well
Music for the ball will be furnished by the College Club orchestra with extra pieces and entertainers. Short acts will be presented at thirty minute intervals throughout the entire party by talent from the University, and Omaha and Lincoln theatres.

Two tickets are being held for every student who submits original decorative ideas which can be used in addition to the plans now being worked out. These plans must be submitted to Austin Sturdevant at the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house some time today.

Lincoln stores are planning to give away merchandise to holders of certain numbered tickets during the ball. A $30 bottle of perfume will be given by a downtown drug store. Derbys and other articles for men will be among the prizes.

throat, the bird goes down again to repeat the maneuver and continues thus until its pouch will hold no more. It then returns to the keeper, who has been anxiously watching and encouraging its movements, and a little manipulation of fingers and thumbs outside the bird's throat makes it deliver up its booty. Of course the nthe bird is given its share as a reward and restored to its perch."
