DR. CORA BEST CONVOCATION IS FEATURE EVENT

'Thundering Rapids' Is Subject Of Illustrated Lecture This Morning

TRAVELS ARE EXTENSIVE Talk Designed to Carry Appeal For Conservation of Natural Things

Dr. Cora Best's lecture "Thundering Rapids" given at convocation in the Temple this morning at 11 o'clock, will be one of the outstanding features of the year's convocation program. Dr. Best is an interesting explorer and author, having to the tropics.

Under the auspices of the bureau of commercial economics at Washington, D. C. the lecturer is attempting to "sell America to Americans." ing to "sell America to Americans."
Her talk will be illustrated by moving pictures and slides that are new and interesting, pictures of scenes that have never before been photographed. Dr. Best spends some months in Canada each summer

An especial appeal for conservation will be made in her lecture since she believes it necessary to create

FOOD TESTS REVEAL

Amounts of Food Necessary For Human Body

Students in the University of Nebraska are underfed, according to basal metabolism tests taken of different members of the foods class in the home economics department at the College of Agriculture.

The basal metabolism machine measures the amount of oxygen be- Difficulty in Obtaining Material on ing used by individuals when their bodies are in a state of complete rest, and from the results of these tests it is possible to determine require.

the use and the results of the machine. Diseases can also be detected in the body of a person by the use of the basal metabolism machine.

Nebraska at Kappa Epsilon National Conference attend their national convention. Ep- ses the means of eliminating a great at 4 o'clock. silon chapter of the University of engineering hazards, Ohio will act as hostess during the chapter of University of Nebraska of overcoming Mississippi floods. at the convention are: Jennie Banning, '28, Seward, and Millie Coler, One Penny Is Price of and Iota Sigma Phi.

Phi Chi Theta Elects New Yearly Officers were elected for the ensuing year: ball veterans). president, Eleanor Paul, Lincoln; Although the dancing is costly the wood, South Dakota

Professor Camp Talks On Expansion Theory

Prof. C. C. Camp of the department of mathematics, gave a talk on Strum-Liouville Expansion Theory at the Math Seminar meeting Wednesday. Professor Camp will also be one of the speakers of the mathematics section of the Mathematical Association of-America which will be held in connection with a meeting of Nebraska Academy of Sciences at Fremont next Saturday. The program is being arranged by William C. Brenke.

Banquet Speaker

hunted, climbed and traveled from the Inter-fraternity banquet, May 1. charge. the snow covered land of the north Mr. Ramsey is president of the Nebraska Alumni Association and a prominent lawyer in the state.

months in Canada each summer can Nebraskan Is Chosen by Theta Sigma Phi Sunday's issue of The Daily Nein Americans the desire for conser- braskan will be sponsored by Theta vation of things of nature, birds, Sigma Phi, honorary and professionflowers, animals, and forests. Con- al journalistic sorority. Women in vocation is not limited to students, the School of Journalism will handle and the public is invited to attend. all work in editorial departments of the university publication. No changes will be made in the work of Detroit Pastor Talks Before the business staff.

Dorothy Nott, assistant managing STUDENT UNDERFED editor of the Nebraskan, will act in the capacity of managing editor for the co-ed number. Duties of the the Bethel Evangelical church of De-Home Ec Department Girls Discover news editors will be carried on from troit, Michigan, has concluded a ser-5 until 7 o'clock by Ruth Palmer, ies of talks dealing with religion assistant managing editor for last and modern life which have been (Continued on Page 2.)

BE OUT APRIL 25

Chicago Inspection Trip Causes Delay

April issue of the Nebraska Blue whether or not their bodies are get- Print will be somewhat delayed, and ting the proper amount of food they will be distributed to students about Postponement is April 25. The girls in the department first due to delay in obtaining material process by which the food after it has engineers' week, which was not abeen digested, is converted into blood vailable until the latter part of the and tissue. Now they are studying month, according to Ralph Raikes, Ohio Educator Will Open Sessions day and Wednesday evening under

Besides containing articles on engineers' week and the inspection trip, there will be an article describing written a few words on what his 27, for a series of meetings. Banning and Coler Will Represent respective department covers, and Three meetings are being planned page edition.

of Kappa Epsilon, pharmaceutical Professor J. W. Haney, has to do with next Friday.

pared by H. D. Miller, (E. E. '24), is Ohio educator will speak, afternoon, April 24. Penny dances cism and professional training. At a meeting of Phi Chi Theta, na- are annual features of the W. A. A. tional professional commercial soror- program, and this one is given in honity, Thursday, the following officers or the Cloggers and the Niners (base-vice-president, Hilma Anderson, St. entertainment is free. Box lunches Paul; recording secretary, Marie at the price of thirty-five cents will Fraser, Lincoln; corresponding sec- be served. All co-eds are invited retary, Emma Grace O'Connor, Elsie; and those who can attend are asked treasurer, Catherine Brown, Dead- to sign up on the W. A. A. bulletin board before Monday evening.

Paul Pence, Baritone, Will Sing Again Sunday

Paul Pence, bariton, ctudent of Robbins Studios, will give a program of numbers from Franz, Schubert, Schumman, Brahms, Liszi, Wolf, and Strauss in Gallery A, Morrill hall, at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Miss Eudora Mallory will accompany Mr. Pence at the piano. This will be a reption of the program given in the Tempie theatre last Monday eve-

COMMITTEE FOR GREEK BANQUET

William C. Ramsey, President Of Alumni Association, Has Been Secured

PROGRAM IS SHORTENED Tickets for Annual Affair Will

Be Distributed to House Stewards by Monday

ciation, will be the principal speaker dealt with research work carried on Perly Wyatt, Janulewicz, and Potts, quet, scheduled for Tuesday even-to Nebraska students, at present be- ty years, ing head of the alumni, and one of the leading lawyers of the state. The Inter-fraternity Council consider able to obtain Mr. Ramsey to de-ing until 6 o'clock. In this he is follows: liver an address.

and the presentation of scholarship I consider Dr. Avery's return to awards to the fraternities by Prof. chemistry almost phenomenal, and it E. Wyatt, Capt. Wyatt. program. It is the plan of the com- of life," Dean Thompson continued. Sprague, Cummings, Etherton. (Continued on Page 2.)

Nebraska Peace Society Thursday Afternoon

gious council.

Hotel. He spoke on "International and a good representation of the composed of townspeople and faculty, and few students.

As Dr. Niebuhr sees the situation,

DR. B.R. BUCKINGHAM studied metabolism, which is the on the engineers' inspection trip and process by which the food after it has engineers' week, which was not a-

On Campus With Convocation At Temple Theatre

the various departments of the Col- the Bureau of Educational Research year. One hour credit is given for a Women Pharmacists to lege of Engineering. Each of the at Ohio State University, Columbus, semester of work. Attend Ohio Convention chairmen of the departments has is to be in Lincoln, Friday, April these outlines will be united into a at which Dr. Buckingham will speak. single article. This will be a forty- The first session is a Teachers College Convocation which will be held "Smoke Abatement," an article by in the Temple Theatre at 11 o'clock

"Mississippi Flood Control," pre- at the Grand hotel at which the on display until April 30.

tional research in the United States etchings by Albert Benson and some tests, magazine articles and books. Kirsch are included. Ted Becker has is also a member of Zeta Tau Alpha W.A.A. Dance; Program Research for Teachers is one of the several cartoons in the exhibit, and Costs Guests Nothing of classics and it is said that when has at least one item on display. he goes on a trip he takes a Greek Any co-ed with a penny can enjoy text along to read for pleasure. He Co-Eds Will Entertain at least one dance at the W. A. A. is acclaimed as being an excellent at least one dance at the W. A. A. is acclaimed as being an excellent penny dance scheduled for Tuesday example of harmony between classi-

KNOW YOUR KAMPUS

Do you know that?

ourses in the Romance Language department of which Professor Clara M. Conklin is chairman. The French classes claim 854 of these; the Span-ish department, 704; while 11 are studying Italian and 38 are pursuing ulty members. Slavic. These languages are taught by 19 teachers, 7 of which are women, 12 of the instructors are men.

Many students think that the sweetest man on the campus is Dr. A L. Candy, chairman of the mathematics department.

On clear, windy days the spray of moisture which blows into your faces in the vicinity of U hall and seems to mysteriously come from nowhere, really is blown from the steam chimney on the power house.

Chemists Read Papers at St. Louis Meeting

NAMES SPEAKER Ten representatives of the University of Nebraska were present at the seventy-fifth meeting of the American Chemical Society, which was held at the Chase hotel in St. Louis, Mo., April 16-19. Dr. Samuel Avery, Chancellor Emeritus of the University, presented a paper on "The Ac-Cinnamic Ester."

Dean Thompson, in an interview yesterday afternoon, told of the meeting. "Dr. Avery's paper," he Will C. Ramsey, '07, Omaha, presi-said, "was one of the clearest of the dent of the Nebraska Alumni asso-Mr. Ramsey needs no introduction American Chemical Society in twen- Robert Dubois, student manager, and night.

Displays Industry setting an example of industry to Half-mile relay-Capt. P. Wyatt An address by Chancellor Burnett the younger men in the department. Davenport, Tomson, Easter.

> ing the leader of a great university ganbright, Krause. for two decades, but who has now returned to his first love, chemistry. "To' this he replied in his usual

(Continued on Page 3.)

AG COLLEGE CHORUS HOLDS CONVOCATION

Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, pastor of Program Thursday Morning Is Given Over to Musical Cantata And Group Numbers

College of Agriculture chorus of sponsored by the Campus Inter-Reli- mixed voices entertained at the conous council.

Thursday afternoon Dr. Niebuhr ties building at 11 o'clock Thursspoke under the auspices of the Ne. day, April 19. All classes in the Colbraska Peace society at the Grand lege of Agriculture were excused. before an audience student body was present.

For the first time half of the program the chorus under the direction of Mrs. Altinas Tullis gave the canthe great cause of the trouble in the tata, 'The Man Without a Country.' the state are expected to arrive in credits in journailsm to an amount countries of Europe is the feeling Miss Elizabeth Set the cantata. The Miss Elizabeth McPherson and Mrs. Lincoln today, to attend the annual equal to twenty per cent of his total entire chorus sang 'Good Night Be- of the Modern Language association 3. Candidates may be either men ety and sorority presidents or their loved.' The contraltos and tenors of the Modern Language association or women, members or non-members delegated representatives were guests gave 'Dear Alice, Where Art Thou.' The program ended with the chorus singing 'Pale in the Amber West.'

this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in of Sigma Delta Chi.

4. Candidates' grades must be avuluiversity at the University Club last singing 'Pale in the Amber West.'

fall. The members meet each Mon- Saturday with a noon luncheon at the direction of Mrs. Tullis. About thirty-five of the student men and women have availed themselves of ence Fossler, University of Nebraska, Dr. B. R. Buckingham, director of this opportunity each semester this

Work of Art Club Is Placed on Exhibition In Morrill Hall Gallery Colleges of Pharmacy at Kansas and

Work done by members of the Art sorority, plan to leave Lincoln Tues- one of the greatest problems in inday, April 24, for Columbus, Ohio, to dustrial centers. This article discus- an address for elementary teachers on exhibition in Gallery A, Morrill hall, Wednesday. This is the annual A dinner will be given at 6 o'clock exhibit by the club and will remain

The exhibition consists of pictor-Students who will represent Beta a discussion of the causes and means Dr. Buckingham is one of the out-ial compositions, charcoal drawings, today. He has published a number of designs for stage settings by Dwight best known books. He is a scholar practically every member of the club spected every three years and are to have an average of not less than 80 critics of life and letters scattered education for women at a breakfast hike and afternoon picnic, Sun-

Five-thirty is the hour set for the Weather Forecast for There are 1607 students taking breakfast hike at which the sophomore majors will be hostesses. The group will hike to Epworth Park

Company B Platoon Wins Wednesday Evening Drill

Second platoon of B company was judged the best in the Wednesday evening parade by the reviewing officers. Second in honors were given to the first platoon of L company and third to the first platoon of F company. The next parade will be held next Wednesday at 5 o'clock.

HUSKER CINDER TEAM DEPARTS FOR LAWRENCE

Coach Schulte, Captain Wyatt, Janulewicz, and Potts Leave Thursday

tion of Sodium Benzyl Cyanide with 26 MEN WILL MAKE TRIP

Nebraska Leader Declares No Intention of Entering Decathlon Event

Coach Henry F. Schulte, Captain by himself since the beginning of the vanguard of the Cornhusker Husker track followers will drive to Lawrence by automobile today.

"Dr. Avery is entering into his work The complete Nebraska entry list with unusual zeal, arriving at 8 o'- for the Kansas Relays as announced themselves very fortunate in being clock in the morning and often stay- by Coach "Indian" Schulte are as

Mile relay-Davenport, Campbell,

Dr. Avery was introduced as be- 120-yard high hurdles-Trumble, Ar-

Pole vault-Ossian. Javelin-James.

High jump-Benbrook, Fleming. Ashburn.

Broad jump-Andrews. Decathlon-Potts. 3,000 meter-Griffin.

(Continued on Page 3.)

Modern Language Instructors cates. Of Nebraska Convene in Annual Meeting

From seventy-five to one hundred Delta Chi is located. modern language teachers from over 2. The student must have earned convention of the Nebraska division number of university credits. The chorus was organized on the ple, with an address of welcome by eraged for all university work taken evening at dinner. College of Agriculture campus last Prof. Laurence Fossler, and will close during the first three years.

the Chamber of Commerce. Address of welcome, Prof. Laur-(Continued on Page 3.)

DR. LYMAN GOES ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

Oklahoma Receive Visit of Nebraska Dean

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, made a trip last of Pharmacy of the state universities acter and type of instruction given freshman lecture. in each school is investigated. Re-(Continued on Page 2.)

Spring Keeps Prophets In Continuous Muddle

"We can't tell whether spring is here or not, but we certainly hops so," stated Prof. T. A. Blair of the weather bureau. 'We know that it is quite nice at the present time, but what it will be a day after tomorrow we cannot predict. The central bureau cach Saturday publishes a report of the probable weather conditions for the coming week; we do not have those facilities here so we don't | from Topeka, Kas., and holds the know what the prospects are for next | distinction of having attended the cold April weather has equalled all pated in them while in high school. previous years, the weather lately being much colder than at this time last ty of Nebraska.

In Kosmet Revue

quet, scheduled for Tuesday evening, May 1, at the Scottish Rite William C. Ramsey who has been Temple, according to an announcehe coursed as the principal speaker at Temple, according to an announcehe took over the chancellorship of he took over the chancellorship of "Mazie Murphy," or Zolley Lerner, secured as the principal speaker at ment made by the committee in the University. This is the first pa- twenty-six men who will participate Klub's "Midnight Revue," fire beneper Dr. Avery has presented to the in the Kansas events, along with fit show at the Lincoln theatre to-

Graduating Journalists Get Scholarship Award of Sigma Delta Chi

Florence D. Nott, '28, Elgin, and Lee Vance, '28, Fremont, have been announced as winners of the 1928 Sigma Delta Chi scholarship award. This award is made each spring to tertainers. Ray Ramsay, noted for his Discus and shot-Durish, Hurd and students with the highest average graduating from schools of journal-

Sixty-seven students from twentythree schools received the award this Potts and Captain Wyatt are year. The allotment to the Universcheduled to compete in the decath- sity of Nebraska is two. Oscar Norlon events starting this afternoon ling, '28, Litchfield, was a close of ceremonies. third in the contest this spring.

May Wear Key

The award, given by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalis- Gesman of "The Love Hater" will tic fraternity, carries with it a certificate of scholarship and the privilege of wearing the Sigma Delta Chi scholarship key. The following rules govern the awarding of the certifi- ANNUAL ROUND-UP

1. Candidates must be senior journalism students in a college or university in which a chapter of Sigma

The program will be as follows: HIGH AVERAGE WILL

Phi Lambda Upsilon Offers Prize to Freshman Having Best Grade In Chemistry Course

Freshman having the highest average in chemistry will be awarded a medal by Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemistry society, and have his name engraved on the Phi Lambda Gass Writes Criticism Upsilon scholarship cup now on exhibition in the glass case just outside room 107, Chemistry hall.

All freshmen taking either Chemweek to Lawrence, Kansas, and Nor- istry 1 and 2 or 3 and 4 are eligible. man, Oklahoma, to inspect Colleges The grades in the two courses are located there. Dr. Lyman is a na- the courses are taken. Studentts who the department of English comments averaged. It does not matter when tional inspector for the American As- took either chemistry 1 or 3 in the on "Modernism and the Novel" in the All Colleges of Pharmacy belong- or 4 in the first semester of this is termed by Professor Paul Elmer ing to the association are to be in- year are eligible. The students must More as one of the "little group of be classified according to information in his other subjects. This average over the land who have set their faces obtained from inspection. The char-will not include military science and against the all-invading currents of

The award will be announced next In other issues of the magazine Mr. ing force, and the material taught are will consist of Dr. C. W. Ackerson, called to accounting the modern trend Sophomores and freshmen physical examined. This plan of comparative professor of Agricultural Chemistry in literature. Professor Gass centers education majors will entertain the classification is being tried for the and counsellor of Phi Lambda Upsi- his criticism on the modern novel. staff of the department of physical first time. Formerly schools of lon, Dr. T. J. Thompson, Dean of "Circumstances," he said, "has Student Affairs, Dr. Fred W. Up- een playing such a jest upon some son, chairman of the chemistry de- of us for a score of years or more, partment, and George Bart, president and though I for one can smile at of Phi Lambda Upsilon.

Nebraskan Reporter Will Cover Jayhawk Relay Meet

Kansas university's relays, major track carnival of week, will be covered by a representative of The Daily Nebraskan for Sunday's isoue of the paper. Raymond Murray, who has been covering track this semester will go to Lawrence to cover the relays for The Nebraskan. Murray comes Kansas Relays every time since Prof. Blair stated that the recent | their inauguration, having partici-He is a freshman in the Universi-

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED FOR KOSMET REVUE

Fire Benefit Show at Lincoln Theatre Tonight Starts At 11:30 O'clock

PLAN NOVEL PROGRAM

Ray Ramsay Will Be Master of Ceremonies: Medley of Acts Offered

1800 persons are expected at Kosmet Klub's "Midnight Revue" to be held at the Lincoln theatre tonight, according to Austin Sturtevant, business manager of the Klub. The record-breaking crowd is expected as a result of the loyal support given the Klub by University students and citithe Playhouse fire before June 1, without solicitation of contributions or favors."

"Midnight Revue" starts at 11:30 o'clock, and through the cooperation NOTT AND VANCE of Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, university women will be allowed to stay out until 1 o'clock. Seventy-five cents admission will be charged at the door with no reserved seats. Students are urged by the Kosmet Klub to "come early and get settled."

Ramsay Presides

Kosmet Klub has prepared a novelty program for the midnight show with many well-known university en-"wise cracks" at Cornhusker football games will act as master of ceremonies. Persons who witnessed his announcing at Kosmet Klub's Thanksgiving morning show will know what to expect from the master

"Midnight Revue," fire benefit show, will burst into blaze with

Beck's orchestra presenting a medley of song and dance hits, George (Continued on Page 4)

PLANS DISCUSSED

Alumni Association Is Dinner Host To Fraternitiy, Sorority, and Society Presidents

Sixty-odd fraternity, literary soci-

They were later addressed by Chancellor E. A. Burnett, who considered the "Obligations of An Alumnus from the standpoint of the executive head of the University," by William C. Ramsey, '07, president of TAKE MEDAL AWARD William C. Ramsey, '07, president of the association, who brought to their attention the benefits of subjugating group interests to college interests in reunion plans; and by Harold F. Holtz, '17, secretary of the association, who presented the details of the Dix Reunion Plan, under which system the Cornhusker Seventh Annual (Continued on Page 3.)

On Modern Literature

Professor of English Is Author of Article on Novels in Current Issue of 'Forum'

spring semester of last year, and 2 May issue "Forum". Professor Gass irresponsible literature, the cumulative irony of its strokes, I suspect that the smile is, as the (Continued on Page 4)

Graduating Teachers Receive Appointments

John McKinley has recently received an appointment for next year to the department of history in Alleghany College at Meadville, Penn-

Several girls have received appointments to schools in Nebraska for the coming year. Helen Pischke will teach near Ames, Nebraska, and Mabel Poremus will teach at Me-Cook. Marie Dirks was appointed to Coleridge, Lucille Randall to Hartington, Hazel Mend to Calloway, and Ha Mae Cottrell to Scotia,