DOPE IS UPSET IN INTRAMURAL BALL TOURNEY

Unexpected Strength in All Leagues Stirs Interest To High Pitch

HEAVY HITTING IS SHOWN Plans Are Nearly Complete For Championship Meet Between Winners

(By Jack Lowe)
Unexpected strength, flashed in every league of the interfraternity baseball tournament has stirred interest in this sport to high pitch, and with the third week of competition now reached, pre-tourney dope and prophecies have been thrown skyward. Both tremendous hitting and invincible hurling have been offered up in the games already played, indicating that contests in the championship league will be hotly contested.

Alpha Sigma Phi, present leader in league 1 has but one more game to win in order to clinch the title in that bracket. The leaders have tucked away three games, all with substantial margins, scoring 53 points to the opponents one, and a victory over Delta Chi this week will assure a championship.

League Two Doubtful
Phi Delta Theta is setting the pace in league two, holding wins over Delta Tau Delta and Theta Chi. With three more games to be played, however, the winner of this league is still doubtful. The Phi Deltas are a tower of strength on the offensive and have also turned in excellent records in the field.

A three-cornered struggle, has resulted in league three between Farm House, Sigma Chi and Kappa Sigma. The situation will be relieved today when Sigma Chi and Farm House meet. Kappa Sigma has shown strength at the plate in its three contests.

HORSESHOE FINALS START THIS WEEK

Title Honors Will Be Determined By Round-Robin Meet; Net Classic Continues

League winners having been determined in the interfraternity horseshoe tourney, championship contests in these events will start this week, according to James C. Lewis, intramural director. The title will be determined by a round-robin tournament.

League winners of the horseshoe doubles meet who will vie for honors are Delta Sigma Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, and Phi Gamma Delta. In the singles tourney, Kappa Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi and Tau Kappa Epsilon will fight it out, winners of the other leagues failing to report the results of their games.

Handball May Start
Handball doubles championship games may also be started this week, although titles in all the leagues have not been decided. Alpha Chi Sigma, Sigma Chi and Sigma Alpha Mu have clinched their leagues but the standings of Delta Upsilon and Tau Kappa Epsilon, the other two prospective finalists are not yet determined. Sigma Alpha Mu is favored to carry off handball honors, according to followers of the sport.

Tennis games scheduled for today follow: north court, Sigma Phi Sigma vs. Phi Kappa Phi, 1 to 2:30; Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon, 2:30 to 4; Omega Beta Pi vs. Sigma Chi, 4 to 5:30; south court, Phi Delta Theta vs. Phi Sigma Kappa, 1 to 2:30; Farm House vs. Delta Chi, 2:30 to 4.
