

The Daily Nebraskan

Station A, Lincoln, Nebraska... OFFICIAL PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA... Published Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Sunday mornings during the academic year.

TAKING THE OATH Today, some two thousand freshmen will be administered the "Cornhusker Oath" by Doctor Conrad.

CAPPING THE CLIMBER Privileges in the life of a freshman are often mistaken for hardships. This afternoon the male representation of the class of 1932 will don green caps.

MODERN EVE "Personality is that vague something that can take a five-dollar loan from you and make you think you have received a favor."

IT'S A SUNNY DAY Further evidence of promise for Varsity Parties was indicated Wednesday when the fillings for sub-chairmanships on the Varsity Party committee were collected.

TWO THOUSAND WILL TAKE OATH AT CONVOCATION The convocation is an annual tradition at the University.

HUSKERS BUSY WITH PRACTICE RAIN Important Cornhusker cheers will be taught to the freshmen by the varsity cheerleaders.

HEPNER IS HOSTESS AT ANNUAL TEA TODAY Several housemothers are assisting in the dining room.

Since outside laboratories have begun there are more mob scenes on the University campus than there are in Ben Hur.

They talk about the follies of collegiate youth. But there haven't been any collegiate dance marathons nor pole sitting endurance contests.

Now that the buildings are supplied with radiator heat, all one has to hope for is that his class is free of those chronic fresh air merchants who are continually insisting that the windows be wide open.

"When the University president pastured his cow on the campus" starts off an advertisement in an Omaha paper under a picture of University hall before its decapitation.

"IN MY OPINION— Watch Your Scholarship"

Wonderfully good material has entered Nebraska this fall. We hope that the fraternities and sororities will handle it well and wisely.

Now is the time to start—WATCH YOUR SCHOLARSHIP! R. L.

COLLEGE DOORS OPEN

Colleges and universities all over the country are opening and thousands of young folks are trooping in for the first time.

There will be a lot of lonely folks in these Freshman groups that are on a college campus for the first time.

This is an age when the challenge of agriculture is greater than it ever was. It is an age when brain is a mightier asset than brawn.

It doesn't matter a great deal as to how many of the studies of college are forgotten.
