THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL. XXVIII --- NO. 20.

THREE PRACTICE

DRILLS REMAIN

BEFORE CONTEST

Coaches Working Varsity Overtime To Prepare

For Syracuse

ORANGE COMES FRIDAY

Howell Shifted To Quarter

And Fisher Plays End

On Husker Team

Three more days remain on the practice session before, the intersectional clash with the Syracuse

New York. Coach Bearg and his this strong eleven from the At-freshman football coach, victory last week.

Passing will

Syracuse Depends on Line

Orange

lantic.

men.

uggers.

eleven from Syracuse,

28.

G

PRICE 5 CENTS.

TICKET SALE OF

'MATCH-MAKERS'

Seats Are Still Available for

Fall Musical Comedy

Of Kosmet Klub.

REHEARSALS PROGRESS

Features Cast, Chorus,

New Melodies

Friday evening in the Liberty

Lynn Twinem, president of Kos

MOVES RAPIDLY

lut

r ( ent

Of

tud iy

10

17 ner Fht

hat

ter E 1

lou mr

par

th

ic i riel

ath alve

nda

rep me

rin

n lin n lin n lin n lin n lin n unid pr sten loni

Re

)ec

E E

AI

égi

Hn

eld

en

nts

tes pec fay

agit

10 th es foll iy e icin

ores om

nts 730,

rge

29, lay b in hot it t

con ie c iait ill l ing

spe y n gat

r o gri het f s gat

lisso te f

ARTICLE RELATES EDITORS' OUTING MADAME GALLI-Asked To Assemble

Catherine E. Hanson, a senior in the School of Journalism at the University of Nebraska, is the author of an article in the September issue of The United States Publisher. The article tells of the Nebraska was held in Omaha, July 26, 27, and 28. Three hundred Nebraska and Iowa editors visited industrial plants and took other trips at this

RECEIVE INVITATION time. "At the outing itself," the article reads, "there were over three hundred Nebraska and Iowa editors and their families. On the first day of the trip, the editors Warm Welcome Will Await enjoyed an all-day train ride, visiting eleven Omaha industrial plants. "A six-car train furnished by the Missouri Pacific railroad, together with two flatcar observations took RALLY IS ON PROGRAM the editors and their families on

Five thousand dads received the ing overtime in preparation for invitation from the student body, the Innocents society and Chancellor Burnett to be their guests

The Syracuse eleven will arrive on Dad's Day this Saturday. In in Lincoln Friday and work out on addition most students are sendthe stadium sod for one session ing personal invitations to their before the game Saturday. Hal dads. Features of the annual fete this

Cornhusker Fathers

Here Saturday

Baysinger, captain of the Orange eleven, was watched by a Husker year are the Dad's Day luncheon scout last Saturday when the Syra- to be held at the Chamber of cuse eleven met John Hopkins at Commerce and the intersectional Syracuse. Coach Charley Black, football clash between Nebraska scouted and Syracuse. the Syracuse eleven and brought Prominent Speakers Obtained back to Lincoln the stories of the Governor Adam McMullen, R. E. power possessed by the Orange-ber of Commerce, Chancellor E. A. Burnett, and Coach Schulte will not be the only give short talks at the luncheon present.

W. A. A. Saleswomen

ning seen on Memorial Stadium Saturday noon. The Corn Cobs will field this Saturday. The Orange provide some entertainment and team did very little passing in last the affair will be over in plenty ship Wednesday by the Student week's game. It may have been of time for everyone to attend the due to the nature of the game but football game. the passing ace did very little hurling. A fast backfield combination working Sebo, Orange half- their fathers. Student tickets may back, seemed to be the big cog in be exchanged at Latsch Brothers the Dramatic club rooms.

for seats in the Dad's section. The next two afternoon sessions The Corn Cobs, who are in in the Cornhusker camp will be charge of the sale of tickets for The Syracuse-Nebraska sororitles are having Dad's ban-Husker schedule of three intersec- the evening.

Dad's Day A Tradition

tional games with Army and Pitt. Husker Lineup Changed

A great deal of scrambling has tion at the University of Nebraska. been done in the Husker camp the The first such event was held in last two days and fans and followers of the mighy Husker eleven wondering just who will get observed annually thereafter. Last the call for the regular positions year the fathers were entertained make the Corn Cobs purely a in Saturday's encounter. Blue on the day of the Nebraska-Syra-Howell, co-captain of the Scarlet cuse game. This game was again as been moved to the signal call- selected this year because it will

There will ve a very impor-tant meeting of all Women's Athletic Association program saleswomen Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock in room 101 in the‡ Woman's Gymnasium. Everyone is requested to be THOUSANDS OF DADS

Press association's outing which the belt line tour of the city."

Names Will Be Checked for Eligibility To Pep Club Early Today

Campbell, president of the Cham- REORGANIZATION BEGUN Fifteen non-fraternity men have ship in the Corn Cobs. Twelve of these will be selected for member-Council. The names will be checked at the Dean of Student Affairs A special section in the stadium office today and those eligible will has been reserved for students and appear before the Student Council at its regular meeting tonight at This is the first step in the reorganization of the Corn Cobs. This action was taken to remove some spent in drilling for Coach Lew the luncheon, report a large sale of the objections of the athletic de-Andreas and his Syracuse pigskin of tickets. Most fraternities and partment and the student body as a whole. The reorganization is besame Saturday will open up the quets at their respective houses in ing made at the Corn Cobs' consent and request. A call was issued Saturday by Dad's Day has become a tradi-Student Council, for applications of in the organization. Six sopho-1922 when Nebraska played the Kansas Aggies and it has been mores and six juniors will be selected.

It is planned in the future to sophomore and junior organization.

Famous Soprano To Appear At University Coliseum This Evening

MADE EARLY SUCCESS

Italian Star Wins Hearts of Music Lovers in Europe And America

Madame Galli-Curci will appear Other interesting events of the at the Coliseum tonight at 8:15 > this evening is one of the first of tickets already reserved. a series to be given in a nationwide tour. Madame Galli-Curci always thrills her audiences, whether she sings operatic arias or melodies of deep appeal. In addition to her abil ity, she has a wealth of personality which she uses to advantage in pre senting her programs. Singer Loves Her Art Her secret is simply this-she forgets herself. Galli-Curci is interested in everything worth while; she loves her art passionately, feel ing that a Higher Power has filed their applications for member. granted to her great gifts, and that she is merely a channel to express them. There is no air of alooiness about her. One might be in the society of this great woman day after day, and no word of the exalted student activities office at the place she fills in the world would be spoken by her. It is only when one stops to think plished, and all that she means to put up. millions that one is amazed. That golden voice of hers is the greatest zenith; she has won magnificent present their identification cards success before the largest audicharmed Italy, Egypt, Spain, Russia, South America, Central America, England, Scotland, Wales, Ire-Eldred Larson, president of the land, Australia, and New Zealand. and her own America. Mere recapnon-fraternity men for membership itulation of this list astounds one. Star Born in Italy

Born in Milan, Italy, America is "This is the country and these at a later mass meeting. was, are the people among whom I wish to live and die." She has richly proved the sincerity of that assertion. Educated in a German school at Milan, in the Lyceo and the Conservatory of that city, where she won first honors for playing languages: Italian, French, German, Spanish, English. In each one of them she has read classics in

As a little child her father took her to hear famous singers at La

Scala, Milan's historic opera house.

Not knowing that she had an unusual voice, she obediently followed his wish that she become a concert pianist, just as she obediently studied to gain the splendid general education which supplements her glorious art. When her father met with business troubles, Galli-Curcl, then a girl of sixteen, supported the family for three years by giving

Madame Galli-Curci speaks

the original.

appear at the Collseum tonight at can history based on the Yale 8:15 o'clock. The famous soprano Chronicles of America is being will make her Lincoln debut debut to the morning until 5 clock in the New York. Coach Bearg and his Nebraska coaching staff are work-Nebraska, which contained a hearty affair were related in the article. Nebraska, which contained a hearty affair were related in the article. Nebraska coaching staff are work-Nebraska, which contained a hearty affair were related in the article. Nebraska coaching staff are work-Nebraska coaching staff are work-N Arthur M. Oberfelder. The concert the exceptionally large number of

Applicants For Presidential Office Must Present Names In Person

ELECTION IS TUESDAY

Candidates for the presidency of the junior class must file at the Coliseum before 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The filings started Monday and it is rumored that of all that Galli-Curci has accom- there have been several candidates

Due to a rule made by the Student Council all applicants will since the days of Adeline Patti's have to file personally and must at the time of filing. This is to ences in musical history; she has prevent a repetition of the last election when several names were filed without the knowledge or consent of the candidates. The election will be held at a mass meeting at 5 o'clock on Tuesday at the Social Science auditorium. At that time students who wish to vote must have their identhe land of Madame Galli-Curci's tification cards punched. Only the choice as a citizen. Soon after she president of the class will be elecreached our shores her declaration ted. Minor officers will be elected

Delta Sigma Pi Is Host To Bizad Men Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity, invites all men in the College of Business Administration to be present at a smoker at the Alpha Theta Chi house, 1806 D street, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Entertainment will be furnished during the smoker. PHOTODRAMA COURSE BEGINS OCTOBER 22 Study of American History

Revision of 1913 Production Based on Chronicles Is Being Offered Sale of tickets for "The Match-

A photodrama course in Ameri- Makers" started yesterday morning division at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening every other week, beginning October 22, at Nebraska hall theater. auditorium.

Photodramas are a new innova-tion in the teaching of American noon that the ticket sale had been history, and are being enthusiastically adopted by many universities ber of good seats remain unsold for as well as by patriotic organiza-tions and civic groups as a basis performances. All tickets for downfor instruction in Americanism.

This is the first such course to rows in the balcony of the Liberty be offered by the University of Ne- theater will sell for one dollar braska, and it has been ghly en- each. The next six rows in the bal dorsed by the state convention of the American Legion as being a cents, the next three for fifty cents est of the highest type of Ameri-canism." Season tickets are priced at five dollars, and one or two hours of college credit may be cred by those who have witnessed obtained by the writing of eight or the rehearsals to be one of the clevsixteen lessons.

sented in forty-seven reels of films ization and revision of a play preentitled Columbus, Jamestown, the sented by Kosmet Klub in 1913, An Pilgrims, the Puritans, Peter entirely new musical score has Stuyvesant, Galeway to the West, Wolfe and Montcalm, The Eve of the Revolution, the Declaration of Independence. Yorktown, Daniel and Dixie. Similar Courses at Chadron

Hamilton.

Similar courses will be given by the State Teachers' College at Peru and Chadron. Kearney, Wayne, Omaha University, Junior Colleges at Hebron, McCook, and Norfolk, and at other schools throughout the state. An extension course for teachers in the field of character education. carrying two hours credit, is presented by Prof C. C. Weldemann of the Teachers' College, Although character development is not a new subject in itself, the pointing of educational procedures to the development of character specifically is new, and the pioneer work

A one-hour course in the dramas of Henrik Ibsen will be offered over the radio during the first semester on Tuesday afternoons at two o'clock by Prof Paul H. Grummann. The course will consist of an analysis of eight plays by the toward modern problems.

very satisfactory, but that a num stairs seats and for the first two cony will sell for seventy-five "splendid contribution in the inter- and the gallery for twenty-five Clever Show Promised "The Match-Makers" is consid erest shows ever presented by Kos

There are fifteen episodes pre- met Kiub. The theme is a modern heen written by Joyce Ayres, Wilbur Chenoweth and Lamar Burling. featuring hits similar to "Lady of the Night" used in the spring show Boone, Vincennes, Alexander last year, Hamilton, the Frontier Woman, Rehearsals of cast and choruses the Frontier Woman, are being held every night and the show is hearly ready for presenta-tion, in the opinion of Kosmet Klub members. The complete cast in o der of their appearance Friday and Saturday evenings follows:

Mr. Peter Jones-Roger Robh Son Bell Boy-Warren Chiles

Miss Ethylene Grant-Irene Lay Marle-Florence Seward.

Mrs. Byrne-Jones-Grace Rows Continued on Page 4.

famous Norwegian dramatist. stressing the position of Iben IDEA IS NEW HERE sioned favorable comment.

ASSIGNMENTS GIVEN

First Group of Juniors and

Seniors Are Ordered To

Report At Studio

April 6, 1909. It presents an entirely new light on the question of

Bell Came From Seward

to summer camps then as it is now.

the bell's origin.

Professor Weldemann has occa-elv

Publication of Engineering College Is Replete With Scientific Articles

The first issue of the Nebraska Blue Print, the official publication of the College of Engineering, will make its appearance Friday, Octo-ber 19. of the College of Engineering, will ber 19.

The staff of the Blue Print for this year consists of Ralph Raikes, 30. Ashland, general manager, Carl Olson '29 Lincoln, business manager, John M. Clema '29 Lincoln, editor, and George Gillespie 30 Omaha, circulation.

Flying Training in the U.S. Army," by Lieutenant R. H. Finley of the United States army training school at Kelly field, San Antonio, Texas, will be the feature article of the issue. This summary of student training course will be illus- cently, James Cody of Lincoln, a trated by cuts of flying formations. student in the College of Law, was tickets are bought before Tuesday

Vitaphone Is Discussed

An article on "Talking Movies," by Bernard Robinson, E.E. '31, gives an account of the mechanism the vitaphone and movietone, the inventions which are now revohationizing the moving picture buslitens.

A great engineering achievement. is described in an article on "The Highest Head Hydro-Electric Plant in America." The dam from which power is obtained for the operation ganize the club here. The purpose of the 495,000 horse-power plant is of the club is to advance and orlocated at Kings River, in the San ganize the campaign for Al Smith Joaquin valley in California. An article on "Engineering in dents and faculty. Business' by Thorne Brown gives the engineering student an idea of the business contacts that an en- evening in the auditorium of the gineer must be able to meet.

(By Bill McCleery)

canes we heard about a lawyer mother objected. And that brings us to the topic-"The Match-Makers," wherein the wealthy artorshipping mother tries to marry

"Doc" Twinem, in a fit of genrosity, gave away the plot of the whole Kosmet Klub fall musical comedy. It's one of these extravagant society affairs like they have al the Phi Gam house all the time.

l' isn't triangular love-but rather octagonal and it gags us to try o figure out who woos who in this

We'll call this story epaulet be-cause it's straight from the shoul-

Jones has a daughter and is a very intense art-lover. Next to making

Fond Mother On Hand *

her daughter to a man with aesthetic tastes.

little love farce

"ho had a brief case. It wouldn't been brief but the girl's

New Type Of Low Lived Villain Is Present In Kosmet's 'Match-Makers'

have an opportunity to witness a spectacle which will be a sample of the Cornhusker pep. The cheer leaders say there is no law against the dads joining in and doir ; a little yelling themselves. Many

coln Friday just for the rally. OF AL SMITH CLUB

Law Student Chosen Head presidential candidates and poli-Of University Demo cies this year. The meeting next Wednesday will be led by a demo-Organization crat who will tell of the democratic

At the first meeting of the "Al Smith for President Club," held reelected president. Leon Sprague, night, and forty cents at the door David Feilman, Enid Placek and Wednesday. Tickets were sold at Catherine Edberg are the vice-presidents Paul Haberian will be secretary, and "Blue" Howell, John Skiles, Gordon Hager, and Betty Thornton will compose the executive commit-tee of the club.

and the Al Smith club is invited to come. Both clubs are also in-Skiles, Hager, Betty Thornton, Howell and Fellman were desig-Wednesday when the democratic platform will be discussed. World Forum meetings are nated by the national organization headquarters as a committee to orstarted promptly so that those who go to one o'clock classes will not be late. However, after the lecture among University of Nebraska sturepublican platform by those stu-dents who wish to remain. All Clinton J. Campbell, a Lincoln attorney, spoke at the meeting Friday Social Sciences hall.

a, parachute jump from the Graf dads are planning to get in Lin- DEMOCRATS MEET NEXT

R. M. Anderson, chairman of the Republican speakers' bureau of Nebraska, will speak at the second World Forum luncheon today at the Hotel Nebraskan. He will tell of the republican platform and candidates.

World Forum luncheons are held at 12 o'clock on Wednesdays. Today's is the second of a series father was absent in South Amerof four which will deal with the

Over seventy tickets are re ported sold for today's luncheon.

The price is thirty-five cents if the night, and forty cents at the door and in Social Sciences Tuesday.

Party Clubs Invited

vited to attend the meeting next there will be a discussion of the university students and professors are invited to attend these lunch-meetings to show the political sit-uation this year, and to answer

Y. W. C. A. Staff Members

Asked To Attend Meet

All members of Y. W. C. A. staffs questions that may arise.

It is the purpose of these

The Hoover-Curtis club is plan-

Temple, at Ellen Smith hall, candidates and platform.

the

ica mending his fortunes. Makes Debut As Gilda

And in those years the girl Amelita achieved a marvel never before recorded, trained her own voice unaided and alone, for opera. When her father returned ready to as-sume his place as head of the home, she brilliant debut in opera as Gilda in "Rigoletto," first at Trani, then at the great Constanzi Theater, now Rome's Royal Opera house. Her career started, Amelita Galli-Curci passed from one splendid triumph The Hoover-Curtis club is plan-to another, triumphs which in-ning to attend the luncheon today, creased with each recurring sea-

Letter To Student Council Lauds Corn Cobs For Re-Organizing

Approval of the re-organization plan for Corn Cobs was voiced in a letter from the Palladian literary society Tuesday to the Student Council. The letter in part follows: "To the Student Council:

discussion of the The Corn Cobs, Nebraska's pep organization for men, brought to us thru the columns of The Daily Nebraskan has been followed by us with great interest. When the news of the re-organization of the Corn Cobs to meet the demands of the University better appeared in the Sunday issue of The Daily Nebraska, we heartily approved of the plan. We wish to congratulate the Corn Cobs, the Student Council, and all other groups and persons who had a part in effecting the new plan. We believe that each fraternity will give more genuine co-opera tion to the University thru its Corn Cob representatives. We belleve that the admittance of twelve barb men to the group will assist in organizing the non-fraternity men in developing pep and univer-sity spirit."

The letter was signed by Dale E. Weese, president of Palladian Literary society on behalf of the organization

Monster Demonstration of Cornhusker Pep Will Be Held Friday

BIG PARADE IS FEATURE YEAR BOOK PICTURE

Another "noise party" is planned for this Friday evening at the Col-Iseum. This time for a double purpose; one to fete the Syracuse eleven and the other for the welcome of Cornhusker Dads.

A pep rally isn't all, however, There is going to be a parade after piano lessons in Milan, while her the session that will carry the student body thru the streets of Lin-coln to show the people and the Cornhusker eleven how the team is being backed. The school band will be there with plenty of Ne braska music.

Corn Cobs-Tassels Lead

The Corn Cobs and the Tassels husker today and tomorrow. They take charge of the rally, and will was prepared to make a ebut in opera as Gilda in field house and thru the streets of Lincoln. The parade will proceed to the hotel where the Syracuse squad is sojourning, and an opportunity will be afforded the students to be introduced to the visiting eleven.

The Syracuse team will be no old L. Aitken, Martin I. easy match for the Cornhusker warriors, according to newspaper reports. A large turnout is expected to greet the easterners, and to spur the Cornhuskers on to victory

Any visiting Dad is invited to attend the demonstration and see the seasons largest rally chuck full of enthusiasm. The noise will start promptly at 7 o'clock at the Coliseum, and after the indoor program, the students will form the line of parade.

TENNIS TOURNEY Delt-Phi Delt Bell Formerly Reposed BEGINS MONDAY

Entries for the Intra-Mural Mixed Tennis Tournament open today, and will continue to be open until Sat-As a result of the query raised | It so happened that the camp with about the Delt-Phi Delt bell yester- which the bell became familiar was urday noon. This tennis tournament is being day, material concerning its history has been gathered. The Innocents sponsored by both the girls' athletic department and the men's society has asked the two iraterni- battalion officers were returning athletic department. All students who can are urged to pair-up and ties to turn the bell over for a spehand in their names, but pairings cial use of university interest. will be arranged for those who do hot have partners.

book the bell came into the posses-The tournament will open next Monday. It is the first tournament of its kind ever held at the Uni-The most comprehensive history of versity of Nebraska.

Syracuse Gridders

Entrain for Lincoln Syracuse football squad will entrain today for Lincoln. It will arrive at St. Louis Thurs-day, and will work out on the Washington University field. On Friday, when the squad reaches Lincoln, a closed practice will be held on the stadium The gates of the stadium fleid. will be barred for this workout

Cheering Section Will Aid In Welcoming Dads At Syracuse Game

The University of Nebraska's new rooting section is to present "motion" stunts at the Syracuse football game next Saturday. By the use of the two-colored cards the rooters will welcome the Dads at the game with a handshake greeting. Another feature of the cheering section will be the "peeling of the orange," which will also be carried out by the use of the cards. "All students who have seats in the cheering section must be at the rehearsal Thursday, at 5 o'clock, so that we will be able to

All juniors and seniors whose names begin with A are to have do these stunts right and make a good impression on our dads Sattheir pictures taken for the Cornurday," says Carl Olson, who is in charge of the section this year. must be taken at Hauck and Skoglund studio or at 'Townsend's studio. "The moving stunts are new here. This notice refers to the follow-ing students: Lucille Ackerman, must be worked out."

Adams, Harold S. Adams, George H. At the first home game last Sat-Adams, Harold S. Adams, John Adams, Margaret E. Adams, Rob-which is 850 strong this year, ert K. Adams, Dean M. Aden, Alma made the letters "N. U." and "M. J. Adkisson, Lorelia B. Ahern, Har- S. C." Organization of the stunt Aitken. had to be completely changed this Leonard R. Aksamit, Ellen L. Alyear because the section was enber, Donald H. Albert, Ethel L. Allarged to twice its former size. bert, Wesley D. Alcorn, Dale Alder-

The new feature of "motion" stunts will make the rooting secson, George P. Aldrich, Mary E. Aldrich, Theodore H. Alexander, tion of the University of Nebraska Naomi Alfred, Dorothy E. Allan, Julia Allan, Nelson Allard, Amos C. Allen, Frederick L. Allen, Hope E. rank with the best. All those who belong to the rooting section are urged to attend the rehearsal Allen, Katherine Allen, Loren B. Almy, Samuel W. Alstadt, Mercedes Thursday at 5 o'clock, so that the stunts will be put on successfully Anna Ames, Oliver C. Ames, Marat the game Saturday, Tickets vel D. Amgwert, Bernice Amspoker, Donald Anderson, Harl N. Ander-Continued on Page 4. must be brought, so that each student will know his position.

In Belfry Tower Of Seward Church

f U 1884 8 8 9001 Her. rvez itin this 01 11.111 15 ebr que 88. B nd for How Hoy Th Swr L auc urit try cen liffe nal veri nu

According to material unearthed in an old Delta Tau Delta scrap book the bell came into the posses-incidentally the four officers de slon of the two fraternities thirty years ago, in the spring of 1898. who, according to the Lincoln Star's history, was among the small the iron trophy was found in an ar-ticle taken from the Lincoln Star of republican national committee in republican national committee in 1909. Harry Oury was in 1909 a major in the regular army of the United States, Guy Barnes and one noncommissioned officer made the party complete. Quartet Takes Bell a few miles from Seward. One balmy spring evening four from a sojourn in Seward. A bright moon was out. The landscape was

The iron bell over which mem-bers of Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta have been wrangling and Tau Delta have been wranging bars fighting for the past thirty years hung originally in the beltry tower bell. The four cadets decided that bell. The four cadets decided that braska. It was the justom of Uni- the bell was necessary to make versify of Nebraska cadets to go their happiness complete. It was Continued on Page 4.

section. Tickets are to make a good impression on the dads at the game Saturday.

tant as plans for the finance drive will be explained by Edna Schrick, chairman of the finance committee.

tain Count something. The Count rates ace-high with Mrs. Byrne-Jones, and the villain wants to get Marjorie Jones married to the Count so he can sell the Count and Mrs. Byrne-Jones some stock in a rooting

'peeling of the orange."

Ayres and Allan Shine But as the Sigma Nu said rush week, "You never have a man until you get him," and complications set in. Joyce Ayres and Barney The stunts to be practiced are a Dad's handshake and the Allan step into the story. Joyce is the hero and Marjorie Jones is der. It seems that Mrs. Byrne the other extreme-that is she represents the heroine. Harriet Cruise Continued on Page 4.

no-good gold mine.

Speaking of black hats and Zeppelin on Christmas eve she are asked to attend a mass meeting would rather have her daughter at Ellen Smith hall at 5 o'clock marry an artist than anything. Thursday. The meeting is impor-A. T. O.'s will be interested to know that the show has a regular way-down villain. He's so low he'd have to walk up on the roof to pet a snake. He is a very heavy lover (sit down Alpha Phi!) of a cer-eons.

Cheering Section Is

To Rehearse Thursday All students who have tickets in the rooting section are re quested to attend the rehearsal Thursday at 5 o'clock in the needed so that each student will know his position in the section. The rehearsal has been called so that the new moving stunts may be practiced and perfected