PHI DELTS CAPTURE HARE AND HOUND RUN

Phi Psi's Finish Second But Lead in Total Points For Three Races.

KUBE COMES IN FIRST

The third hare and hound race of the season was won by Phi Delta Theta when they garnered an aggregate score of 193 points. With one man running as a hare and two men placing third and fourth in the finishing they edged out the Phi Psi men by a scant four points.

The race, beginning near the Belfinishing down in a deep canyon almost completely hidden. Following the example set by the runners last week a large group of men ran off on a blind lead and many who have been well up in

The men placing high in today's race were in the order named: Harold Kube, Beta Theta Pi; Keith Hopewell, Phi Gamma Delta; Stewart Campbell, Phi Delta Theta; Merle Morgan, Phi Delta Theta and Charles Harlemert, Theta Chi. ## ARIKARA VILLAGE IS FOUND ON WHITE RIVER

Museum Curator Expresses Opinion That It Is Old And Long Habitated

Discovery of the first Arikara Indian village located elsewhere than on the Missouri river was made by W. H. Over, curator of the museum at the University of South Dakota, after making an inspection of an Indian village reported by John A. Erickson, farmer, of Lyman county.

Covering twenty-five acres of land on the banks of the white river the Arikara village shows evidences of long inhabitation by the early tribes. From large amount of material picked up locally, in-cluding bone tools and implements, as well as into and clay pottery, Mr. Over is of the ated last year from the Kansas opinion that the village was a very State College, Manhattan, Kansas. old and long inhabited one.

All Others on Missouri

All previously discovered Arigara The Arikara Indians stuck to the Missouri because of the natural protection offered by the river, that acted as a barrier to hostile tribes. The Arikaras were a highly intelligent tribe and are classed as sedentary and agriculturs' ... their habits, Mr. Over states. They are especially noted for the unique construction of their villages and for their pottery, much of which when preserved.

Madame Galli-Curci Is Always Happy Singing to Audience or in Isolation

Passionately and Considers It a Great Gift

Madame Galli-Curci, who will appear in the university Coliseum, Wednesday, October 17, is always absolutely happy, whether singing to a monster audience stilled to silence that not a magic tone of hers be lost or in isolation on a moun-taintop at her summer home, Sul To those about her she is forever cheery, lovable and sympa-

After a concert in which overwhelming honors have been shown her, she is content with crackers and a bowl of cream for supper. If at Sul Monte, and following a forenoon of hard study, she will tramp five miles in a game of golf on the green not far away, and again it is the same thing with her-a sunny happiness. terested in everything worthwhile; she loves her art passionately, feeling that a Higher Power has granted to her great gifts, and that she is merely a channel to express them. There is no air of aloofness about her. One might be in the society of this great woman day after day, and no word of the ex alted place she fills in the world would be spoken by her.

Accomplishments Amazing

It is only when one stops to think of all that Galli-Curei has accomplished, and all that she means to millions that one is amazed. That golden voice of hers is the greatest since the days of Adelina Patti's zenith; she has won magnificent Coach "Bill" Hargiss down at land, Australia, and New Zealand, son.
