

NEBRASKA MEETS ORANGE IN EAST WEST GRID GAME

Syracuse Squad Arrives in Lincoln This Morning For Husker Game

LOCAL MACHINE READY

Two Elevens Mix on Field Sixth Time; Eastern Has Margin

The eve of the all-important inter-sectional clash with Syracuse university has arrived and the Cornhusker moleskin warriors are awaiting the signal from the referee to start the great battle for east-west honors. The Orange arrived in Lincoln this morning and will work out on the Memorial Stadium field this afternoon.

Nebraska will meet Syracuse for the sixth time on the football gridiron tomorrow afternoon and in the past five encounters, the Cornhusker machine has been able to get but two victories, going down before the Orange wave in three games.

Bearg Is Prepared

Coach Ernest E. Bearg, Nebraska football mentor, is prepared for this Orange team from the Atlantic. And Coach Lew Andreas, the Syracuse football coach, is more determined than ever to take the Cornhuskers into camp to avenge the stinging 20 to 0 defeat of last year at Lincoln.

Twenty-five Syracuse players accompanied by managers, trainers and coaches arrived in Lincoln for the Husker engagement. Yesterday the eastern squad took a stop-over workout on the Washington university gridiron.

Go Through Signals

The Cornhusker squad was back on its own sod last night after the sojourn out at the fair grounds. A series of signal drills and scrimmage formations greeted the Scarlet warriors on their return to the home camp. The coaching staff is still searching the squad for an end to lead the defensive attack against Hal Baysinger and his Orangemen from the east.

Have Varied Attack

Built around the attack of "Sammy" Sebo and Captain Hal Baysinger, the Syracuse eleven has a varied offensive attack that has swept the Orange through three victories this season. Coach Lew Andreas did not produce his wares in last Saturday's game with John Hopkins and the aerial game was kept under cover so Nebraska scouts had little information about the Syracuse passing game.

Coach Bearg has spent almost the entire week in developing a defensive passing team to line up against the eastern seaboard grid men. Starting in the backfield in tomorrow's game will probably be Captain Blue Howell, Clair Sloan, "Dutch" Witte, and George Farley. In the Syracuse backfield tomorrow will be Hal Baysinger at quarterback, Sebo and Stevens at half and Berner at full. Sebo and Baysinger both featured in the game against Nebraska last season and are booked to do plenty of damage in the game tomorrow.

The Syracuse Orange squad pulled away from Syracuse Wednesday amid the wild cheers of Syracuse students. Twenty-five players accompanied by coaches, managers and trainers, made the trip to Lincoln for the engagement with the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The Orange squad will arrive in Lincoln today for a workout on the stadium sod. Yesterday Coach Andreas put his men through a light workout on the Washington university field as a midway kink remover.

Nebraska's state fair grounds was the scene of the Cornhusker workout last night. On the sawdust ring of the coliseum, the Scarlet and Cream squad staged a spirited scrimmage, the afternoon down-pour driving the Husker team under shelter. A forward passing drill was the main dish on the program, and Coach Bearg sent his backs through a fast aerial workout. A squad of freshman gridlers were thrown against the Varsity with an assortment of forward flips, the kind that Syracuse may use against the Scarlet tomorrow on Stadium field.

Butler University of Indianapolis has formally declined to enter the Missouri Valley conference, as was announced by "Patsy" Clark, athletic director at the Indiana school. The four "left over" members of the conference were desirous of having Butler in the conference, but athletic officials at Butler deemed it a bad move because Butler was too far removed from the territory of the Valley. The four members of the old conference still retain the name of Missouri Valley and are attempting to increase the membership.

Coach Ad Lindsey, football mentor at Oklahoma, is having a tough time of it right at the present and the prospects of the Sooner eleven taking Creighton this week, look anything but favorable. Lindsey has been trying to build a powerful forward wall, but it seems that the Varsity defensive line has its hands full to hold the Oklahoma freshman team. Tom Churchill, veteran athlete at the Sooner school, is out of the practice session with an injury and Lindsey does not hope to have this powerful end in shape for the Sooner-Blue-Jay game at Omaha Saturday.

Iowa State is banking on a real fight in Saturday's contest with Coach Gwinn Henry's Missouri Tiger eleven. The Missouri eleven meet the Cyclones in the first conference game of the season for the "show me" team. Coach Workman is drilling his squad overtime in an effort to stop the powerful Missourians. He figures on having a harder game than he did with the Cornhuskers two weeks ago.

The Pitt Panthers, Husker foes for November 17, will entertain Allegheny College for this week's football game at the Pitt Stadium. Last year Pitt had little difficulty in downing the mountain team, winning 52 to 0, but this year the Panther eleven is expecting a stronger team and a fast passing crew. The Pitt team demonstrated its weak aerial game against West Virginia last week and Coach Sutherland expects to drill his men all week on the passing department.

For four consecutive years the Kansas Aggies have beaten the Kansas Jayhawk eleven and for four years a revengeful Kansas team has tried in vain to stop this flow of defeats. This year Coach "Bill" Hargiss, takes his Kansas football proteges over to Manhattan to fight it out again—the old, old fight for the Kansas supremacy on the gridiron. And it is a real battle, win, lose or draw, Kansas could only hold the Washington University eleven to a 7 to 7 tie and this week's game with Coach "Bob" McMillin's Aggie Wildcats is going to be plenty tough for a Jayhawk team to win.

Better Bran Flakes

HEAP them high in the bowl. Then pour on the milk or cream. Now taste a spoonful. Such flavor! Such crispness! And no wonder—you are eating the best bran flakes you can buy.

Try these better bran flakes. They have the peppy flavor of PEP. The nourishment from the wheat. Just enough bran to be mildly laxative. Try them with milk or cream. You'll say they're great.

"Dream House"

Art Hickman and his crowd have a record here that says "come on and dance" with every rhythm. Boisterous sax notes, merry muted trumpet effects, and a clear vocal refrain make a wonderful musical picture. The melody itself is smooth and delightful—the kind that lingers in your mind. Make it a point to stop in and hear all of these new Victor releases soon!
