ER 23, 1928,

three years. sed on ability a plan.

drinking amo

Walter Peters

haircuts

Beauty

219 No. 12th

PRICE 5 CENTS.

PLANS FOR 20TH MILITARY BALL ARE BEING MADE

Executive Group for Annual Affair Names Chairmen Of Committees

DATED FOR DECEMBER 7

1928-1929 University Formal Season

Plans for the twentieth annual military ball to be given on December 7 in the Collsoum are under way and the committee in charge ideas for this year.

carried out along militaristic fashon and the committee plans to make this ball one of the most and the following men will have charge of the year's first formal Committees Named

Reception, Elton Fee; ticket sale,

FORUM WILL DISCUSS POLICIES OF PARTIES

Democratic Platform Will Be Topic of Paul Good's Address Today

EXPECT CAMPUS CLUBS

World Forum's third luncheon will be held today, October 24, at 12 o'clock at the Nebraskan Hotel. Paul Good, former University of Nebraska student, and now attorney in Lincoln, will speak on the Democratic platform and policies. Mr. Good has spoken to World Forum groups in former years, and is well known by many students. Wednesday's World Forum meet ing is the third in a series of four devoted to the political problems of today. Last Wednesday's meetdiscussion of the Republican party. Oct. 28, from 3:00 to 4:30 o'clock plans for the coming debate so that and after today's Democratic talk at the Wesley Foundation parson-there will also be a discussion by age at 1417 R St. The society will bate will be the first of its kind passes the campus as if the spirit students who wish to remain.

sold at the door for an additional

All students and faculty memcareful and intelligent voting can coming year.

The Al Smith club and the Hoover-Curtis club are both ex tional organization of Wesley Play- ject of pected to be present at the meet ing today. Both political clubs as a dramatic director and correlation be obtained, were represented at the World tor of music and drama During Members of b Forum meeting last Wednesday.

been carried on for University of ment of speech and expression at it is new on the campus and be Nebraska students for several the University of Wisconsin. She years by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. is the author of a historical pag-W. C. A. They are open to all eart called, "For Humanity's students and faculty members in Sake," presented at New Bedford, terested, and these are urged to

MODERNISTIC NUMBER WILL APPEAR NOV. 10

Awgwan Copy Deadline Is KEMMER-WILES Set For Today; Many Jokes Needed

which are at present being withheld, will feature the "Modernistic" number of the Awgwan, university humorous magazine, which will appear November 10, according to Kenneth G. Anderson, editor.

All articles, poems, short jokes, and short quips will be of a modern tone, thus making possible a mer has appeared in numerous mer has appeared in numerous former tone, thus making possible a mer has appeared in numerous former tone, thus making possible a mer has appeared in numerous former tone. "Modernistic" issue. A number of Kosmet Klub productions, both feature stories have already been while she was in University and turned in, but a call has been is since. sued by the editor for more short Jokes and quips to be contributed before the deadline for all contributions this afternoon. Cartoonists Contribute Cartoons for this number have been drawn by Margaret Keiring. '29, Lincoln; Alan Klein, '30, Lincoln, and Jimmy Pickering, '29, Kansas City. Those who have sub-mitted coppy for the 'Modernistic" edition are Virginia Faulkner, 31, tober 10 is to celebrate the firing Lincoln; Bill McCleery, 31, Hast of the first shot in the Chinese ings; Raymond Murray, '31, To-revolution in 1911. Thus it is to be peka, Kansas; Cliff Sandahl, '30, compared with the Fourth of July Genoa, and others.

Many Appreciative Responses Come To Students From Dads Day Visitors

sponses:

Comments on Annual Affair following the annual Dad's Day program and grid game Saturday. The following letter is an exact copy of one of these appreciative re-

Dear Joe: We certainly enjoyed Dad's Day and the trip to see you and that you were doing so well under the circumstances of having such a heavy course. Eighteen hours is too much and next semester cut it down so you can do better work. We would like to have had the time to meet some of your instructors as it does one good to get in touch and have this acquaintance, they appreciate it too if they are the right kind terest in their students.

The entertainment and the game of it but these things are a very minor matter as compared with the service to the world and humanity.

tution, tho it takes many students

Continued on Page 2.

HOOVER-SMITH CLUBS

long time to realize this and

WILL STAGE DEBATE

Political Clubs To Meet in

First Encounter Thursday

November 1

G.O.P. CLUB CHALLENGES

A debate of this kind is some-tion can be obtained on the sub-

Matschullet President.

Democrats Determined Club.

SMAY SPEAKS AT

School of Engineering, has been in-

Thursday, November 1.

not yet been picked.

ject at present.

later years

people and have the proper in-

Indicate That Reception And Corn Cob Applicants Program Are Impressive to Requested to Appear All students who have filed for Corn Cobs are requested to Numerous communications have appear before the Student Counbeen received from the fathers of cil at their regular meeting in students attending the University the Temple at 5 o'clock today.

DECORATION JUDGING IS CHANGED TO FRIDAY

Party Will Officially Open Judges Will Name Winners After Tour of Houses This Weekend

FLOOD LIGHTS NEEDED

Judging of house decorations for expect to present a host of novel the contest arranged by the Innocents as a part of the Homecoming The ball will open the formal season at Nebraska as it has done evening, starting at 7 o'clock, infor the past years. The military stead of Saturday, it was annually stead of Saturday, it was annually stead of Saturday it was annually stead of Saturday it was annually stead of Saturday. It was annually stead of Saturday it was annually stead of Saturday. lights of the campus social life. charge of the contest. The state-Opening the formal season with the | ment in The Dally Nebraskan Tuesmilitary ball and closing the sea- day morning designating Saturday son with the junior-senior prom has as the judging date was made in been in vogue on the campus for view of previous arrangements. Frinumber of years.

Decorations for the event will be nounced as the judging time.

Although the judging will be completed Friday evening, it is ex-The executive committee in charge of the ball has been named and the following men will be left in place to lend atmosphere to the Homecoming program on Sarusten

Fenton B. Fleming, donor of the cups used in previous contests, has given another cup to be used as an award in the fraternity division, since Sigma Phi Epsilon has won William Mentzer; music, entertain-ment, programs, Jack McKnight; thereby gaining permanent posses the first cup three successive times

> Expense is Limited The ruling of the committee that no house shall spend more than twenty-rive dollars for decorating by the Hoover-Curtis club, the Al will be rigidly enforced. Each organization competing must make a Trout at the Sigma Nu house Fri day evening before six o'clock.

Another rule laid down by the committee is that flood lights be used in lighting the decorations for judging. This is absolutely imperative since the judging will be done complete list of expenditures, and place this list in the hands of John

Mrs. Harriett Barr, Last Year's Director, To Be Present

Wesley Players, Methodist dra-matic organization, will hold an McGrew, and Squire Cassem. All back and Nebraska is going to ing was given over to a talk and open meeting Sunday afternoon, meet and talk at this time with all on the university campus, much of gladness were gone. But no, not Over seventy tickets have been students interested in the presentasold up to date, and more will be tion of drama of a religious nature. Mrs. Harriett Dell Barr, who diprice of five cents. The regular rected the Wesley Players last price is 35c. winter in the opening production "The Rock" at St. Paul's Methbers are invited to the World odist church, Lincoln, will arrive in Placek, and Catherine Edbery are Forum meetings. The program is Lincoln Saturday morning, and will the vice presidents. The execubegun early so that those who have be present for the Sunday afterone o'clock classes will not be late noon meeting. Mrs. Barr will be to them. The aim of the political here until the first of December talks is to give the policies and and will assist in organizing the Haberlan is secretary. facts of the two major political Players, and directing a new play parties and to show the political which will be presented in Lincoln situation as a whole so that more and out in the state during the Mrs. Barr Is Officer the past summer, she was a mem-World Forum luncheons have ber of the faculty of the depart- will draw a large crowd, because is the author of a historical pag- shown at this time. Mass. She has also dramatized Gounod's auditorio "The Redemp-tion" and some of the works of Longfellow. Last year the Wesley Players gave the religious drama, Rock," in seventeen churches in eastern Nebraska. The group recently submitted a petition for membership in the national organization of Wesley Players.

ACT IS BOOKED and of the courses offered in the Announcement has been made that Harriet Cruise Kemmer, a fav-A three-color cover, the details orite with university students for some time, will go on the stage. Mr. and Mrs. Kemmer and "Chuck" Wiles will leave Sunday for Chicago, where Mrs. Kemmer and Mr. Wiles will make their initial vaudeville appearance. The two artists will also be regu-

Syracuse Chinese Pay Tribute to Revolution

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 24.-(IP)-Chinese students at Syracuse uni-versity recently celebrated their national holiday with an elaborate banquet of typical Oriental dishes at the Asia restaurant here. The holiday, which falls on Oc-in the United States.

MIZZOU HEADS WILL ADDRESS HUSKER RALLY

Tiger Director of Athletics Accepts Invitation to Appear Friday.

HENRY MAY ALSO SPEAK

All Freshmen Are Urged to Contribute 'Burnables' For Bonfire

Officials of the athletic department of Missouri university will address the Nebraska student body, Friday evening at the Llncoln hotel when the Cornhusker ere great and we truly enjoyed all students extend a welcome to the Tiger team at the gigantic Home coming bonfire rally planned for great work of you young folks have that evening. A telegram received to do in preparing for life and your Tuesday by Herb Gish from C. L. Brewer, director of athletics at the That is the big end of it all and the real purpose of the whole insti-Show Me institution states that either Gwinn Henry, coach of the vention of the Association of Sum-Tiger aggregation, Mr. Brewer or mer School Directors, to be held both will address the group from Friday and Saturday at the Unithe balcony of the hotel.

They have also promised to have members of the Missouri varsity squad at the hotel to be introduced the program and will be taken up to the rally attenders.

The consent of the Missouri officials to respond to the tremendous welcome the Scarlet and school. Cream students have for them speaks well for the wonderful spirit prevailing between the two institutions and the sentimental regard held for the annual game of the two schools.

Alumni Are Invited Alumni, who will return for the annual Homecoming game to-gether with the present student body will gather at the drill field Continued on Page 2

In answer to a challenge made Smith club will meet the Hoover- Even Elements Curtis club for a political debate, Decree That We 'Beat Missouri' thing new at the University of Nebraska. Students only will do the debating, though the teams have The exact wording of the questhe gods of the elements are smiltion will be made as soon as posing at the beginning of the week sible, so that the two teams may and giving Netraska real autumstart their work immediately. As nal weather. the idea is new, no exact informa-The leaves turn brown and yellow with sometimes a crimson hue. A kindly wind hurls them into the air and they dance merrily about. The Hoover-Curtis club was Why are they so happy? Because formed on the campus some time Nebraska is going to beat Missouri ago to promote the interests of the for the elements Republican candidates for this fall's The warm autumn sun plays its election. W. F. Matschullet was radiant warmth on the students as elected president at the first meet- they rush hurriedly from class to ing. Mary Glangrosso is vice presidents. Not a nook nor corner can dent, and the executive committee escape the heartening effect of is composed of George Johnson, gladness. Why is old Sol so happy of these officers are working on break that Missouri finx Even Sayeth Northwind work is being done to make it in- for long, for in the still night air teresting enough to continue in one may hear a student with the tter years. Cornhusker spirit singing "There James Cody has been elected is no Flace Like Nebraska." Then president of the Al Smith club, there is another stillnes and the eon Sprague, David Fellman, Enid northwind mutters under its breath Placek, and Catherine Edbery are "Beat Missourl." The Dean plods homeward his weary way. His mind is muddled tive committee is made up of Blue" Howell, John Skiles, Gordon as he tries to think of all that has Hager, Betty Thompson, and Paul happened during the day. He has Haberlan is secretary. thinks of the flunkers, the excuses Because the Al Smith club mem-ers have accepted the challenge face brightens up. He says to him-

bers have accepted the challenge given by the Hoover-Curtis club, Another day comes and the sun the democratic club is determined continues to smile and the leaves Mrs. Barr is an officer of the nato win. The place and exact sub-ional organization of Wesley Play-ject of the debate will be an to dance. The limbs of the trees ers. she has had wide experience nounced as soon as this information begin to look bare and have a ghastly appearance. But as the wind rushes past the elm quietly Members of both clubs express the opinion that the political debate whispers to the oak, "Beat Missourt.

Everywhere the spirit of the day pervades the air. The Ford, as it jolts past the Chevrolet, snorts of the political interest vehement tones, "Beat Mis-

BEARG AND TEAM ENGINEER'S MEET ARE ENTERTAINED Prof. J. E. Smay, of the architec

Coach Bearg and the members ural engineering division of the of the Cornhusker football team were guests of the Rotary club at vited to speak at the meeting of the the football pep meeting held in Nebraska chapter of the American Institute of Architectural Engineerconnection with their noon lunching at Omaha today.

In his talk Professor Smay will impersonated by Will French, told tell of the architecture on the campus of the University of Nebraska, beaten Nebraska.

A chart on the wall told the story of last year's score with a victory W. L. Younkin, superintendent of of 7 to 6 for Missouri and showed architecture at the Nebraska state the 1928 score 20 to 0 for Necapital, will also attend the meeting. Mr. Younkin is one of the vice- of the players as an example for presidents of the Nebraska chapter. the Rotarians to follow.

TODAY IS THE DAY

Today is the day when the student body will start or ganized rallies for the Missouri-Nebraska game. Today is the day when the band will start the ten-minute rallies in front of Social Sciences between classes. Today is the day when students and instructors begin singing in classes.

Missouri's team is coming to Lincoln to win the game. Coach Gwinn Henry and his men are pointing to the game Saturday. Scouts report that the Tigers are twice as powerful as the Orange team which went to defeat here last week by one point. Mizzou is not hindered to any great extent by injuries. The student body can help the eleven men who will go on the field Saturday, by working up that Cornhusker spirit for which the University is noted. And the way to work up that spirit is to attend the rallies, sing before classes, yell victory, sing victory

THINK VICTORY

Homecoming Letter Seals Widely Used

Mail which has left the University during the past two weeks, has been vividly decor-ated with Homecoming letter seals

The seals are very typical of Nebraska University in that each one has the coveted "N" upon it, and in smaller print it can be seen that it is emblemat ic of homecoming. They have been easily available to every organization and from indica-tions it can be concluded that there has been a large distribu

DIRECTORS OF SUMMER SCHOOLS ARE GUESTS

National Convention Will Be Held Friday and Saturday At Morrill Hall

MANY TOPICS ARRANGED

Thirty-five of the leading summer schools of the country will be represented at the national conversity of Nebraska. Meetings will be held in Morrill hall.

Seventeen general topics are on in round-table discussion, according to R. D. Moritz, director of the Two New Subjects Introduced Special attention will be given two subjects introduced for the first time. Student welfare in summer schools, including the practice regarding medical examination, infirmary fee, consultation of college physicians, vaccination, and services to nurse, is the first of these. The other includes the examination of new activities arising in summer schools, such as conferences on current problems, nursery school, visual education, character education, Boy Scout work, Campfire Girls work, rural education, applied sociology and Y. M. C. A.

and Y. W. C. A. work.
Other topics will include physical education, extra-curricular ac-What is so rare as a day in tivities, requirements for admis-June? Nothing unless it is fair sion, length of summer session, schools the bell and its s weather on homecoming day. But tuition, publicity, question of the

Business Students To Hold Yearly Downtown Frolic On November 9

terday by Douglas Timmerman, 30 Lincoln general chairman.

The following appointments were made: Jessie Stearns, '29, Lincoln, dance; Glen Riechenbach, '29, Lincoln, and Reinhold Hofferber, '29, incoln, tickets; Harold Taylor, coln, program Kenneth Moore, '29, Stromsburg, Raymond Dein, '30, Powell, and Morris Bervin, '29, Fairbury, checking; and Cliff F. Sandahl, '30, Genoa, publicity.

The Frolic has been scheduled for Friday veening. November 9, and will be held at some downtown hall. Negotiations for one of the leading orchestras of the city are now under way. Refreshments will be served and adequate checking facilities will be provided. The price will be seventy-five cents per

NATIONAL GROUP WILL GATHER AT NEBRASKA

Engineering Magazines To Hold Association Meet

This Weekend

Engineer's College Magazines As ociated, a national organization of college engineer's magazines, will hold its annual meeting at the University of Nebraska Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Nebraska Blue Print is a unit of this organization. Representatives from the twenty one members are expected to be present, probably fifty in all.

The program includes a banquet at the Lincoln hotel Thursday evening, business meetings Friday an inspection of the capitol build ing Saturday morning, and according to Dean O. J. Ferguson of the engineering department, "Saturday afternoon we are going to watch Nebraska beat Missouri.

DRAWING EXHIBIT IS ON DISPLAY

The division of architecture, De partment of Applied Mechanics, is sponsoring an exhibit of architec- Daily Nebraskan. tural renderings and drawings. The work is on display on the top floor of the former Museum building, city campus.

Professor Smay of the University of Nebraska is in charge of this display until November 1.

Students Will Find It Hard 'To Beat The Band'

Win or lose Missouri and Ne-braska are going to bury the well known axe and join hands in the merriment staged at the Coliseum Saturday night after the traditional tussle between these two schools The medium of compromise has been secured thru Herb Fick's Missouri Quadrangle orchestra making their fuitial invasion in Husker-land. The fact that Herb is "the biggest man on the Missouri cam pus" should carry some weight.

This is one time that those who can't toot horns can get on band wagon. It costs but a dollar to take a whirl and the wagon will let you off right on the steps of the Coliseum. There won't be any pro-grams at this dance so nobody will be admitted free. The Band Ball should come as a relief to fraternities that have been for entertainment for their returning alumni. After the annual banquets what could be a more fitting climax for a successful homecoming than three hours at the Band Ball?

Fond mothers have been wailing, "I didn't raise my boy to be a sol-dier," but the boys are determined to go to Army. The band is "pointing for West Point" and all they need is a boost

MIZZOU-HUSKER BELL WILL HAVE STANDARD

Work on Mounting of New Tradition

WILL FIT TROPHY ROOMS

An appropriate standard upon which the Missouri-Nebraska bell may hang during the game Saturday is being constructed under the supervision of Coach Henry F. Schulte. The Innocents society announced yesterday that the standard will be suitable for placing the bell in a trophy room of either Missouri or Nebraska.

After its presentation to rep resentatives from the University of Missouri before the traditional sion, length of summer session, tuition, publicity, question of the college paper if published during summer, distribution and emphasis summer, distribution and emphasis Centimed on Page 3.

PICKS CHAIRMAN FOR

Class between the two Valley scrottles which were alleged to schools the bell and its standard will be placed before the stands and rung at intervals to impress upon fans and students the spiritimportance of this game. After the final period the bell will be awarded to the winning from the event of Misouri winning from Nahraelas for the fourth course.

BAND BALL TICKETS Nebraska for the fourth consecu tive time the bell will travel back to Columbia with the victorious Tigers. If Nebraska succeeds in Missouri Is Enthusiastic Students at the University of Lincoln Business Firms Are Missouri have accepted with en thusiasm the plan to start a "Mis sourt-Nebraska" bell tradition, voic ing their approval through Francisco O. Knight, president of the Mis-Announcement of the chairman souri Student Government associaof the various committees for the tion. A committee from this assoannual Bizad Frolic was made yes clation will meet with the Innocents society some time before the great game Saturday to decide a plan of presentation and rules for the possession of the bell.

Friendly aniagonism has grown between the two schools whose teams will meet on the football 23. Ord. and Eleanor Paul '29, Lin- field Saturday. As a further incentive to increase spirit and improve Misouri-Nebraska games the bell Innocents society at Nebraska. The bell was originally a subject of dispute between Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta fraternities but these Greek-letter contenders possession of the bell relin quished their claims in favor of the innocents society.

SPECIAL PROGRAM WILL BE ISSUED

In observance of the Homecoming Mizzou-Husker game next Saturday, a special fifty page program is being put out by the athletic deand the regularly listed informa-tion about the teams, the Home-coming program will control to the R. O. T. C. Bal-tion about the teams, the Home-been restricted to one delice coming program will contain a resume of the intra-mural tourna-ments which were run off last year. Articles on the track and basketball teams will also be listed.

SLOAN RECEIVES MOST VOTES AT CLASS ELECTION

Yellow Jacket Candidate Is In Receipt of Fifty-Five Ballots

SABATA PLACES SECOND

Two New Factions Entered In Race Fall Behind in Mass Meeting

By a plurality of nine votes, Clair Sloan, Yellow Jacket candi-date for junior class president for this semester, overcame his oppo nents in the second junior class election held yesterday in Social Sciences auditorium. How

Claire Sloan

Helen McNeny Because of violation of election rules by some of the candidates, the election was held again yester-day. The entire vote cast at the election was 129. This was very small, as the vote cast at the regu lar election was over the 400

Ray Sabata, the Blue Shirt candidate for the office, placed second with a vote of forty-six out of the Coach Schulte Supervises 129 votes cast. George Gant, the from the faction which caused the upset in the other election, had the third highest number of votes of the candidates, hits total number of votes being twenty-one Helen McNeny, alleged member of the new sorority combine, came in last with a total vote of seven The Student Council, presided over by Eldred Larson, was in charge of conduct of the election, and identification cards were required from those who voted.

ing was done by validated ballot-Much comment was made ovthe two new political combines, the sorority combine, and the independ ent faction which caused the u set in the recent election. socorities which were alleged to

Backing Sales Better Than University

Unless the student body of the University of Nebraska alines itself solidly behind the movement to send the R. O. T. C. Band to West Point, the project is doomed to miserable failure. Although Lincoln business firms have for the most part responded loyally to the call, early returns from ticket sale checkups show that very few students have bough tickets to the Band Ball which is to be held in the Collacum Satur Between $4,500 and $5,000 mile be realized from the Bail if the band is to go to West Point, and the bulk of the tickets must be sold to University students

Ball Held Saturday.

Contrary to rumors about the held Priday night at the Lincoln hotel, the Band Ball is not being held that night. The one and only real Bail is scheduled for Home coming night, Oct. 27, in the Coll-seum, and the orchestra is Horb Fick and his Missouri Quadrangle Collegians. Tickets to the R. O. T. C. Ball

There is not the slightest doub that the band can be sent to th Army game, if the student body will but lend its whole-hearted support to the project.

Fifty Bucks to Organization Selling Most Cornhuskers,' Shouts Thomas

(By Bill McCleery.)

dered the journalism professor. "Beat Missouri!" cried the Corn Cob in the back row, showing what organizations have done for Nebraska. In the interest of such organizations the 1929 Cornhusker is offering a fifty dollar ($50.00) prize to the organization selling the most year books in the contest period from Oct. 29 to Nov. 3.

The business manager of the Cornhusker, Bruce Thomas, came through yesterday with information about a trip to West Point and now announces this $50 prize. Just where all this money is coming from is hard to tell. Pretty soon Mentzer will sell his Wyoming Ford and the Cornhusker will start borrowing copy paper from The Fraternities May Compete.

of typewriters in the basement of display which is sent here through Courtesy of Iowa State College of sororitles will not get to enter the it and th first thing anybody knew coming.

the Pi Phis would pull the T "Name an important beat," or fire escape down, starting a revolution in general. As for the lo-Gammas they should be able to so a 1929 Cornhusker to anybody they can pledge as many giro every year as they have been

Tassels Win Last Year,

Last year the Tasseis won th contest. They are a sister organ zation to Corn Cobs but they don't brag about it and neither do the Corn Cobs. If you haven't heard of the Tassels it isn't their faunt and the only place you don't see Corn Cobs is selling programs in the stadium.

All fooling aside, if your organization needs $50, and it probably could use that much, drop in at the Cornhusker office and see Bruce Thomas, If your organization is unable to compete for some reason he will be courteous and sympa "Fraternities will be allowed to thetic. One gets that way from compete in this contest," shouted working on publications. The Corn-Mr. Thomas above the roar and din husker office faces the College Book Store which, in turn, faces the campus. That makes Hoover a sororities will not get to enter the likely candidate for president and Ames, Iowa. The puble is invited competition, probably because they Gamma Phi Beta winners of the to view this work which will be on would be sure to geet catty about decoration contest held last home