Smith and Hoover Clubs to Fight It Out in Heated Argument at Nebraska

The greatest political storm in ON DRILL FIELD the history of the University of Nebraska is last gathering. From one side comes the fierce war-cry of "Who but Hoover" and from HOMECOMING other side we hear the notes of "East Side-West Side, All around the Town." "Smith" or Hoover" is the password for any EDUCATORS CONVENE city league teams. The reason for this ruling, Mr. Gish explained, is to prevent a student from competing too much in any sport, and especially basket ball. It has been found that many men have been playing city league, fraternity, and possibly freshmen basket ball all at the same time, and this hurts the athletes' scholastic standing materially. This has caused the ineligibility of several likely varsity candidates for basket ball.
