

OKLAHOMA PROVIDES SERIOUS OPPOSITION

Year by Year Sooners Are Getting Better in the Fall Pastime

HUSKERS LOSE IN 1924

When Nebraska invades the Oklahoma stronghold Saturday she cannot assume an air of cocksureness if past games may be taken as an indication. Oklahoma seems to have taken the celebrated Dr. Coue suggestion and declares, "Year by year in every way we are getting better and better."

Back in the good old days when Nebraska was king to her football realm and crushed those who would challenge her supremacy she looked upon the game with the lads in the southland as just another one of those games. Now the Sooners are one of her most feared opponents in the Big Six.

In 1923 Nebraska defeated Oklahoma by a score of 24 to 0. Verne Lewellen was captain but was out of the game with a twisted knee, but Noble, Herb Dewitz, and Locke bore the brunt of the ball carrying burden. The game was closed than the one the previous year when under Captain Hartley, the Huskers swamped the Sooners 39 to 7.

Sooners Defeat Huskers

It was an over-confident Nebraska team that journeyed to the Soonerland in 1924 and it was an inspired team before an enthusiastic crowd that they met. It was the usual story of such a defeat. Aided by blocked punt which they converted into a touchdown, Oklahoma won 14 to 7. Nebraska carried the ball to the six inch line but the desperate Oklahoma team was not to be denied. It was a great surprise to Nebraskans and everyone exclaimed that it must have been luck but Coach Dawson put an end to their yipping by saying that Nebraska was outplayed.

Nebraska had sweet revenge in 1925 when Oklahoma came up to Lincoln to receive a 12 to 0 defeat. The Nebraska team was desperate, having received some unfortunate setbacks at the hands of Missouri and Washington. The game with Washington was a 6 to 6 tie. It was that year that Nebraska was to destroy the national championship aspirations of Notre Dame before a record breaking crowd.

For two years Nebraska discontinued football relations with Oklahoma and since then the Sooners have received national recognition. For two consecutive years they defeated the powerful University of Chicago team and this year were defeated by Indiana university by one point.

OLYMPIC POINT SYSTEM GIVES SOPHS CHANCE

more coeds will be given white ribbons. Fifteen points are offered to the class having the largest assemblage of women. The one stipulation to this however, is that the freshman delegation must be twenty-five percent larger than the sophomore to begin with, because of the fact that freshman enrollment is initially much larger than that of the sophomore class.

Fifty men will be selected from each class to participate in the bull pen event. The idea of the bull pen is that the men attempt to capture rival class men and drag them across their respective goal lines. At the end of an allotted time the prisoners are counted and the winner determined.

Tug-of-War Counts Ten

An even number of men from each class will be selected to participate in the tug-of-war, probably twenty. This event will count ten points. Four men will be chosen to run in the quarter-mile relay race. Coach Schulte will supervise this race.

The three weights of boxing and the three weights of wrestling will count five points per match. Contestants must enter in the 145, 155, and 175 pound classes.

Presidents of the two classes have been notified of the events on the Olympic program, and will direct the selection of their respective boxing, wrestling and relay contestants. The announcement of these contestants will be made prior to the Olympics.

Point System Listed

The events have been rated to make a possible hundred points, in the following proportions:

- Boxing, 145 pound class..... 5
- Boxing, 155 pound class..... 5
- Boxing, 175 pound class..... 5
- Wrestling, 145 pound class..... 5
- Wrestling, 155 pound class..... 5
- Wrestling, 175 pound class..... 5
- 440 yard relay race..... 10
- Tug-of-War..... 10
- Bull Pen..... 15
- Co-Ed Representation..... 15
- Pole Rush..... 20

Boxing and wrestling events will be staged in the Coliseum Saturday

MY DIARY

Nov. 3.—Spent morning studying. In bed. Breakfast and lunch "together." A matinee. Wings. Last half of the game over the radio. Nebraska won, of course. Ten and two pretty schoolnarms. Chicken Little Inn. Our quick assets weren't quick enough for the girls. Held them down to Chicken Pie Dinners. Bridge. My teacher and I won. I was dummy all the time. That's why we won. Danced some. Hot coffee before we left Chicken Little. An ice cream petting party. Sweet, but cold. Home. To bed.

morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, while the group events will start at 2 o'clock on the stadium practice field.

Freshmen Always Win

Glancing back at the accounts of past Olympic programs one discovers that the first year men have won every contest. The vast differences in numbers of sophomores and freshmen, and mass events have usually determined the winner of Olympic contests.

Colorful demonstrations marked some past Olympic contests. Last year there was evidence of decadence in noisy and near-riotous gatherings seeking sophomores who ventured out the night before Olympics. The record shows that the first year men won an overwhelming victory in the contest of last year when the final score read 82 1-2 to 17 1-2 points. The sophomores won but three wrestling matches.

Oklahoma Has Novel Football Scheme In Use

University of Oklahoma has inaugurated a novel plan in the line of freshman football. The freshman squad being an exceptionally large group has been divided into six teams comparable to the league system of Nebraska. This league is called the "Little Six." Each team is named after its big brother in the Big Six conference. They are playing a regular schedule but probably results will differ greatly from the results of the Big Six outcome.

The season of the "Little Six" was commented last Friday afternoon, when the "Missouri Tigers" handed the "Kansas Aggies" a decisive defeat, 130 in a thrilling game.

Nebraska also has initiated a system somewhat similar to the one at Oklahoma. They have selected a freshman "varsity" and the remainder of the squad is divided up into teams that are playing a definite schedule.

KOSMET WILL ACCEPT SKITS UNTIL TUESDAY

Alpha Phi, Theta Phi Alpha, Alpha Omicron Pi, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Gamma Delta. An individual skit was submitted by Helen Chase, Don Carlson and Bill McCleery have also written a short act. The acts to be used in King Kosmet's Royal Revue will be decided upon by the Klub after all skits have been turned in. Representatives from fraternities and sororities whose acts are being considered and also individuals who have submitted material will meet with the Kosmet Klub this week to determine personnel for the various acts.

Urge Skits Be Submitted

Organizations are urgently requested to submit material for skits. As yet no organizations other than fraternities and sororities have turned in material. Kosmet Klub wishes to take advantage of all dramatic or musical talent in the University. The large number of skits that have been turned in so far indicates that the Klub will have a wide range of selectivity in deciding what acts will be combined to make up the Thanksgiving morning show.

As usual, the show will be a fast presentation of varied acts. This time, however, it will be based upon a central theme. Short curtain skits to be presented by two persons are in demand at present. Kosmet Klub is anxious for all students who have ideas for acts to consult members at the Klub rooms in the German building as soon as possible.

NEW BUILDING WILL HOUSE AMES GRADS

Homecoming Activities Mark Opening of Memorial Union Rooms

Great hall in the newly completed Memorial Union building at Iowa State, aside from the annual homecoming game on State field with Oklahoma, will be the center of interest for the alumni for the 1928 Homecoming celebration this week-end.

Following a giant pep meeting on State field homecoming activities will be initiated in Great hall Friday evening by a stag dance and home talent vaudeville performances between dances. Tolbert MacRae, head of the music department, will act as master of ceremonies and under his direction, acts will be presented by the Chi Omega and Delta Upsilon social organizations, the A-M-E-S quartet, and the Ames Twinettes, entertainment singers.

Nineteen Suites Reserved

Nineteen suites of rooms in the Union have been reserved during the homecoming week-end by visiting alumni, according to H. E. Pride, secretary of the Memorial Union association. In addition forty-five cots have been arranged on the second floor to care for late arrivals.

Homecoming grads will find that aside from functioning as the heart of social affairs at Iowa State, the Union daily is feeding close to 1,000 persons in the State Commons cafeteria, that barber shop and beauty parlor facilities are provided in the building as well as tea rooms and lounges for parties.

HUSKER RUNNERS LOSE AT KANSAS

Nebraska cross country team lost to the Kansas runners by a score of 19 to 36 in a race run Saturday afternoon during halves of the Nebraska-Kansas football game. Diminutive "Poco" Frazier led the field in 21 minutes, 1 second for the four and one-half mile course.

Russell Batie was the first Nebraska runner to cross the finish line, coming in third after McComb, Kansas harrier, Springer, Kansas finished fourth; Saurenman, Kansas, fifth; Griffin, Nebraska, sixth; Fortune, Kansas, seventh; Etherton, Nebraska, eighth; Garvey, Nebraska, ninth; Cummings, Nebraska, tenth.

coin. The remainder of the third quarter went scoreless.

Line Play Stressed

Opening the fourth quarter with a renewed attack on the ever-weakening Kansas line, Nebraska ploughed and tore at the opposing forward wall until it wavered then gave way for the powerful Cornhusker backfield.

Early in the fourth quarter, Art Lawrence, Jayhawk back, threw a long pass to Lyman but was intercepted by Sloan who ran through the entire Kansas team for 52 yards and the second touchdown of the game. Sloan's long run was one of the outstanding feats of the Big Six game and his perfect kick from placement added another point giving Nebraska 14 to 0.

"Bud" McBride, reserve Husker back accounted for the final Nebraska touchdown when he drove the Kansas line until he had crossed the line. He also tried for a kick from placement, but the kick was low, the final score standing at 20 to 0, for the invaders from the north.

McCormick Breaks Collar Bone

The Kansas team suffered several injuries from the Husker game. McCormick, Kansas end, was taken from the game with a broken collar bone and will probably be lost to the Jayhawk squad for the remainder of the season. Captain Hauser was another Kansas player who was injured in the homecoming tilt and was forced from the game. Art Lawrence, Cooper, Lyman and Cox were the outstanding men on the Kansas team and put up a strong fight against the overpowering Husker eleven.

Captain Blue Howell was the iron man of the day and was ably assisted by Clair Sloan, his running-mate in the Husker backfield. Sloan and Howell carried the brunt of the ball lugging job for Nebraska and accounted for long gains around the Kansas wings and through the line. The Cornhusker end run formation was functioning in the Kansas game, and long runs around the Jayhawk wing positions were chalked up for Nebraska. "Red" Russell, Nebraska quarterback, was the only consistent gainer in the first half and his long drives through the Kansas line were of the spectacular in the opening period.

In the final few minutes of the fourth quarter, Coach Bearg sent in his second and third elevens who held the Kansas team to no first downs. Nebraska rolled up a total of 14 first downs and held the Kansas team to 4.

Sub Backs Perform Well

"Red" Young, Kowley, and McBride were performing for Nebraska when the game ended and the trio of backs was doing plenty of damage against the men of
