PLAYERS' SHOW OPENS BEFORE GOOD AUDIENCE

Thirza Faye, Herbert Yenne
Carry Leads of Play
Successfully.

REST OF CAST IS GOOD

Several Outstanding Actors
And Actresses Support
Principal Roles

Featuring Miss Thirza Faye and Herbert Yenne, as the leads, University Players last night successfully presented Gladys Unger's play, "Two Girls Wanted" before a good sized audience as the second seasonal production playing the week of November 5 to 10 inclusive.

Miss Faye, showing dramatic ability and poise, convincingly carried the feminine lead of the show, with her flashes of comedy and character portrayal. In her first University Players production this season, Miss Faye has decidedly shined through her professional ability.

Yenne Carries Part Well

As the male lead of the show, Herbert Yenne, member of the University Players and instructor in the department of dramatics, carried the audience with his usual style of acting and personality. Portraying the part of a young business man, engaged to a girl, and falling in love with another, Mr. Yenne, plays opposite Miss Faye, the young stenographer, who suddenly turns house maid and for whose sake? Only one guess.

With an excellent supporting cast, consisting of Ray Ramsay, Margaret Masterson, Mary Murchison, Irene Martin, Grace Rowe, Irene Davies, Elwood Ramay, Joy Storm, Robert Reade, and John Dunman, "Two Girls Wanted" probably is one of the best truly modern comedy-dramas produced the last few seasons.

Recently Closes on Broadway

A new play, recently finishing its premier showing on Broadway, for which the Players paid $350 royalty, "Two Girls Wanted" presents a new angle on the problem of trying to get your man and keep him. However, it isn't at all one sided, as seen by the art of love, which Herbert Yenne uncannily possesses.

"Two Girls Wanted" has the most ultra-modern settings. From the poorly furnished room in Mrs. Gock's rooming house, to the palatial living room of Mrs. Delafield's home, the superior designs of Prof. Dwight Kirsh, editor of a permanent member of the University Players production staff, Mr. Kirsh has done much in the advancement of a new type of stage art.

Acting is Good

Individual acting which is especially worthy of mention was found in the character of Miss Timoney, Mrs. Delafield, and Edna Delafield, the parts portrayed by Irene Martin, Grace Rowe, and Irene Davies, respectively. Although some of the other characters did not present the same opportunity.

FIRST WORLD FORUM GROUP IS COMPLETED

New Series of Luncheons
Will Be Arranged in
Near Future

There will be no World Forum luncheon Wednesday, November 7, according to announcement made by Julia Rider, University Y. W. C. A. representative. The World Forum meetings this year are to be run in series or groups. The first group, which was finished last Wednesday, was on the political situation of today.

Four meetings have been held this year. The first was a summary of the political situation; the second was about the republican policies; the third about the democratic party; and the last about the socialist party.

A new series will be arranged in a few days and World Forum meetings will be held as usual. Announcements will be made as soon as the plans are complete.

Fashionable Dress Will Be Taboo When 'War Dance' Goes Over Top

"Over the top!" That's where the "War Dance" is expected to go, with all committee members slaving and spending the most precious hours of their lives to accomplish such a feat.

And incidentally, since we haven't been able to afford a trench coat yet, this will give the more fortunate lads a chance to be in correct dress for once with their military sheepskins.

Krause's Band Plays

"Red" Krause's band will constitute the "string squad" at this beligerent ball. The more fire the better, incidentally. There will be no tom-tom beating, because American youth has grown too fond of that fan-loving Rover.

There won't be very many parties for you to crash that night, folks, so the "War Dance" will be the logical answer to "where shall

Classes Are Excused For Armistice Parade

All classes will be suspended on Monday, November 12, to allow for participation in the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, according to T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs. A bulletin to that effect will be sent to all instructional officers some time this week from Dean Thompson's office.

Classes will be dismissed in order to permit students to take part in the military parade but the day will not be a holiday. By direction of the Chancellor, the cadet regiment will parade in the Armistice day celebration.

STUDENT BODY WILL HEAR URGENT APPEAL

Campus Will Be Requested
To Give Aid in Sending
R.O.T.C. Band East

MORE SPIRIT IS NEEDED

An urgent appeal to the Nebraska student body to support the project of sending the band to West Point will be launched on the Cornhusker campus within the next week, with the idea of Cornhusker students doing their bit toward sending a representation east when the fighting Huskers meet the strong Army eleven, November 24. To date response for assistance in the project has been very good from down town business firms and state alumni but it is the opinion of those in charge that the students should do their bit in this worthwhile enterprise.

Army Game Is Tough

Nebraska will meet their toughest assignment of the season at West Point and a victory over the Army team would be welcomed by Husker supporters. The far famed Cornhusker spirit has done a great deal toward the victorious season to date and a team backed by that same spirit stands a great chance of continuing on their victorious march.

The sending of the band east means a great deal to the university from a publicity point of view and will carry the message to New York that Nebraska not only has a great football team but also a great student body that is supporting them to the end.

This year when Southern Methodist university played the Army

NAVY MUSICIANS HEAD ELECTION PARTY PROGRAM

Famous Radio Entertainers
Appear by Permission
Of Congress

BAND PERFORMS TWICE

Matinee Program Will Have Similar Features as Evening Concert

Appearance of the United States Navy Band at the University of Nebraska Coliseum Tuesday afternoon and evening brings to Lincoln one of the world-famous band organizations.

The band was authorized by a special act of Congress and is now on tour by permission of the President, Lincoln being one of the sixty cities included on the concert itinerary. It is the band which millions have heard over the national broadcasting chain.

Telegraph Gives Returns

The band concert will be the occasion for an election party. A Western Union wire direct to the Coliseum will bring the latest election reports which will be announced to the crowd through the University public address system.

It is quite a coincidence that the Navy Band's last performance in Lincoln was on November 6, 1926, the same date as this year. At that time the band drew a crowd of 4000 people.

While the concert is primarily classical, the Navy jazz band, a unit of the big organization is certain to delight lovers of popular music. Lieutenant Charles Benter,

Five Hundred Books Are Sold Before Noon of
First Day

SUPPLY IS EXHAUSTED

Five hundred student directories were sold by 11 o'clock yesterday on the first day of sale, according to Sherman Wapton, editor of the book this year. This record opening day sale exhausted the supply on hand but an additional five hundred will be ready for distribution this morning, he declared.

Twenty-five hundred books were ordered but because of printing difficulties, the entire order could not be shipped on the date promised. The demand for books this year has greatly exceeded the call of previous years, according to the publishers.

Complete Roster is Given

The directory contains the names of all faculty members and students, listed alphabetically, and also gives a separate section for the roster and officers of each fraternity and sorority on the campus. The home town and state of the student is also given.

The books can be obtained at the Temple Activities building on the College of Agriculture campus. The price of the directory this year is fifty cents.

DEBATERS WILL BE CHOSEN WEDNESDAY

Men Making Best Showing
To Compete Against
Australia

The three men who will represent Nebraska against the University of Sydney, Australia, in debate will be selected Wednesday when those eligible will try out at 7:30 o'clock in U. hall. The preliminary trials have been held and eight men selected to compete in this second elimination.

The men to compete in the try-out Wednesday are James H. Anderson, David Fellman, Walter Huber, Evert M. Hunt, George E. Johnson, Jr., Nathan Levy, Lloyd L. Speer, and Paul W. White. "Competition among these men has been unusually close, and some fine speaking is expected," Professor White stated yesterday.

Those who speak best will appear in the debate with Australia and three others will compete in the radio debate over KFOP on November 30 against students of the Kansas State Agricultural college at Manhattan. In the tryouts Wednesday the debaters will speak individually before the judges on the negative side of the proposition, "The parliamentary system is superior to the presidential form."

RECEIPTS FOR ANNUAL MUST BE IN THURSDAY

Campaign Ends Wednesday
But Salesmen May Check
In Following Day

NEW DATE IS APPROVED

Books recording sales of the 1929 Cornhusker must be turned in at noon Thursday, according to Bruce Thomas, business manager. The campaign ends at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, but salesmen will be given until 12 o'clock the following day to get their books ready.

The campaign started yesterday with renewed vigor on the part of Cornhusker salesmen. They were posted on all corners near the campus and carried on a campaign more effective than that last week due to the warm weather. Individual salesmen have expressed their approval of the three day extension of campaign time, stating that sales are better this week than at the beginning of the campaign.

Wednesday Is Last Day

Until 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the 1929 Cornhusker may be purchased for $4.50, a ten percent reduction from the regular price. Salesmen wishing to win the prize trip to West Point are stressing the saving that may be made by buying the year book now. As has been announced before, a three dollar payment reserves a book, the balance payable in the spring when the book comes out.

BANDSMEN SPONSOR TICKETS FOR PLAY

Half of Money Will Go to R.O.T.C. Band Fund for
West Point Trip

As another move in the campaign to send the R. O. T. C. Band to West Point November 24, the Bandsmen are sponsoring ticket sales for the University Players' production, "Two Girls Wanted."

The play is being presented every night this week in the Temple theater.

Money Goes to Band

Ray Ramsey, business manager of the Players, has announced that one-half of all the money realized from ticket sales by members of the Band will be turned over to that organization.

Approximately $5,000 is needed to send the Cadet Band to the Army game. Less than a third of this amount was netted from the Band Ball, given in the Coliseum October 27, and about $3,500 more must be raised to meet the limit of the full quota.

Short Time Left

Tickets to "Two Girls Wanted" will be issued to all R. O. T. C. Band members today. It is hoped that an appreciable sum will be raised from ticket sales in order to help swell the West Point fund, for the Band has only a short time left in which to raise the money needed for the trip.

English Claim Canadian Co-Eds Use Much Rouge

Toronto, Ont.—(IP)—Canadian college girls use more rouge than British co-eds, according to a group of English women students who visited the University of Toronto here recently. One of the visitors suggested the situation as being a result of American influence.

Essays on Today's Election Indicate Big Differences of Opinion on Issues

Difference in opinion as to the issues and the personalities involved in the coming presidential election was shown by essays written by members of Prof. John P. Jennings' beginning class in political science. Each student was asked to write a paper on his choice for president and give his reasons for supporting that candidate.

As to the election in general, one student wrote, "There are no party issues and the two men's minds run strikingly parallel," while another wrote, "There are a big difference between the two parties."

The prohibition question was given consideration by most of the students. One person, however, dismissed it with, "To drink or not to drink, seems to be the question. Who cares?" Two supporters of Smith gave varying opinions, one

HUSKERS ARE AT TOP OF BIG SIX LOOP STANDINGS

Two More Conference Crews
Confront 'Powerhouse'
Before Year Ends

TEAM IS HIGHLY RATED

Nebraskans Are Outstanding
Among 12 Undeclared
Elevens in U. S.

Nebraska's Cornhusker football team is now leading the Big Six conference with a perfect percentage column and with three consecutive victories tucked away and two inter-conference games put away in the win column. Two more conference teams remain before the Huskers on the 1928 schedule and these are with the Oklahoma Sooners at Norman this week and the Kansas Aggies on Memorial Stadium field on Thanksgiving day.

The Big Standings:

| TEAM         | W | L | T | PCT.  |
|--------------|---|---|---|-------|
| NEBRASKA     | 9 | 0 | 0 | 1.000 |
| MISSOURI     | 7 | 1 | 0 | .875  |
| KANSAS       | 6 | 2 | 1 | .750  |
| OKLAHOMA     | 5 | 3 | 0 | .625  |
| KANSAS STATE | 4 | 4 | 0 | .500  |

Saturday afternoon the Cornhusker "powerhouse" thumped his fifth opponent on the gridiron this year and the third conference foe, undefeated so far this season, Coach Bearz will take his scarlet clad mole-skin warriors to the south this week end for a conference tilt with the Oklahoma Sooners at Norman. The Sooner eleven has lost one game this season and that was to the Iowa State Cyclones last week. Coach Ad Lunney will have a powerful backfield combination to stop the Cornhusker "powerhouse" and it is to Buss Haskins, Sooner halfback that the Oklahoma coaching staff is looking to make extensive gains against the scarlet from Nebraska.

Critics Concede Huskers Best

Sport critics throughout the country are figuring on the Huskers to win the first Big Six football championship but Nebraska followers are still looking to the Oklahoma and Kansas Aggie games before the season is over.

Four of the conference teams have games this week that are considered easier games than the schedule of last week. Nebraska goes to Norman for a conference game with the Oklahoma Sooners. Iowa State rests this week after the first conference victory over Oklahoma. Probably the outstanding gridiron games in the conference will be the Sooner-Husker game at Norman and the Tiger-Kansas Aggie game at Manhattan.

Coach "Bo" McMillin has his clamps set for a victory over Coach Iwinn Henry's Tiger eleven from Columbia and after a week's rest, the Aggie Wildcats will be ready for the Missourians.

Twelve football elevens in the country remain undefeated at the present as the football season goes into the closing month of the great

Juniors, Seniors Must Have Cornhusker Pictures in
By Next Week

Final deadline for junior and senior pictures has been set for November 17, according to the 1929 Cornhusker staff. Photographers report that the students in these two classes have not been reporting at the studio in compliance with schedules listed in the Daily Nebraska.

Studios Close Monday

Studios will not be open next Monday because of Armistice day celebrations in Lincoln. This will shorten the period remaining for taking photographs for the year book.

Students are urgently requested to appear at the studios as soon as possible. The junior and senior sections will not be complete unless the members of these classes respond to the requests made by the Cornhusker staff for sittings at the studios mentioned.

Laud Humanitarian

Hoover was frequently alluded to as a humanitarian, and one student said of Smith, "His record of accomplishment in behalf of the sick, the poor and those with physical or mental disabilities and his success in improving the living conditions of the people mark him as unique among our statesmen."

One student argued that Smith's experience as governor of New York would make him a better ex-

The "Jazz" Band of the U. S. Navy

The U. S. Navy "Jazz Band" is a unit of the United States Navy Band organization will appear at the University of Nebraska Coliseum Tuesday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the University.
