NEBRASKA TEAM PULLS AWAY FOR SOONER CONTEST

Large Squad Will Make Trip To Oklahoma and Attempt Another Victory

HUSKERS LEAVE AT 3:40

Lindsey Pushing Men Hard In Preparation for Advent of Scarlet Eleven

Nebraska's mighty Cornhusker football squad pulls away from Lincoln at 3:40 o'clock this afternoon for the camp of the Oklahoma Sooners and the fourth Big Six conference game. The Sooners game will be the hardest conference game on the Husker schedule and the Nebraska coaching staff has drilled the Scarlet squad in a hard week of practice for the coming tilt. Oklahoma has been pointing for Nebraska all season and after their first reversal of the season last week at the hands of the Iowa State Cyclones, the Sooners will be harder to beat than ever before. Coach "Choppy" Rhodes of the Husker coaching staff watched the Sooners go down to their first defeat last week and he came back to the Cornhusker camp with the report that the Nebraska Cornhuskers would have a big battle on their hands and a much bigger one than they have been anticipating.

Final Husker Workout

Coach Ad Lindsey of the Oklahoma squad is not even stopping for rain and mud in preparing for the coming of the Nebraska "powerhouse." Last night, the Sooners coach had the yearling eleven set up Nebraska plays and the Sooners line found it a comparatively easy task to stop the Husker formations. Rain fell Tuesday but this did not hinder the Sooners football mentor from his regular session on the gridiron.

Wednesday evening Coach Ernest E. Berg, head football coach in the

Flood of Girls Apply After Seeing 'Two Girls Wanted' Sign at Temple

Not every girl aspires to be an actress.

"Two Girls Wanted," painted on a large sign at the corner of the Temple, flashing out its (vague) meaning, might be a means of employment besides the fact that it is advertising a University Players production.

With no evil intent or meaning to lead astray the "wooking goll," Ray Ramsay had erected a large sign with but these words "Two Girls Wanted" emblazoned on its face. Innocently, like a Kappa pledge in church, Mrs. S. Louise Viney, manager of the Temple cafeteria, hung out her shingle reading "Temple Cafeteria" (with arrows and more arrows).

True, two signs don't spell anything, but the funny part is the fact that only these things could be read from one side of the sign—"Two Girls Wanted—Temple Cafeteria."

Nebraska, being the school of ambitious co-eds desiring to make the Kosmet Klub show or lift the family mortgage, "Two Girls

Wednesday Hare And Hound Race Postponed

The hare and hound race which was to have been run Wednesday afternoon has been postponed to Tuesday, November 13. Conditions of the course were such that a race would have been impossible, and for that reason Coach Schulte postponed the event.

GRID GRAPH WILL GIVE GAME RETURNS HERE

Giant Indicator Employed To Illustrate Play of Team At Sooner Stadium

COLISEUM WILL BE USED

Cornhusker football fans who do not make the trip to Norman Saturday where Nebraska and Oklahoma will meet in a Big Six football game will again be able to hear reports of the game at the Coliseum according to Carl Olson who has been in charge of the previous grid parties. The giant grid graph will again be in operation, giving the spectators first hand information on the position and movements of the ball.

The chart is fifteen feet high and eight feet wide and has room on each side for the names of the players competing in the game. It is operated in connection with the loud speaking unit at the Coliseum where a direct wire from Norman will be installed by radio station KFAB.

As in the previous games, the Oklahoma-Nebraska tussle will be

KOSMET KLUB SHOW OFFERS NEW TALENT

Review of Acts Being Made By Committee Before Final Choice

TAP DANCER DISCOVERED

"Kosmet Klub's Thanksgiving show," "King Kosmet's Royal Revue" has some wonderful talent," declared John Trout, show manager last night. "We have made some real finds in reviewing of some of the acts, and we will be able to offer in 'King Kosmet's Royal Revue' some entertainment that students are sure to enjoy."

According to the practice of the Kosmet Klub committee, composed of John Trout, Lynn Twinen, Lowell Miller and Charles Dox, the committee has visited all fraternities and sororities entering skits for the Thanksgiving show to review these acts before passing judgment on the ones to comprise the Thanksgiving program.

Mr. Trout stated last night, that in one night's reviewing of skits entered, some new talent long sought after has been uncovered. Committee members claim that they have found a tap dancer who was in one of the Kosmet shows two years ago and that she is one of the best ever seen on a Kosmet stage. They also report the finding of a girl blues singer, which they

INTERFRAT COUNCIL WILL MEET TONIGHT

Chairman Schramm Calls First Gathering for This Evening

The first meeting of the Interfraternity Council has been called for this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the lecture room in the basement of Morrill hall, Morrill hall 29, by E. F. Schramm, chairman of the council, according to an announcement from his office yesterday.

Notices were mailed Wednesday to all fraternities and the fine of five dollars assessable against fraternities failing to have a representative present.

1700 DIRECTORIES ARE PUT OUT TO STUDENTS

Sale of Books Moves Very Rapidly; 2600 Copies Were Printed

Sale of the Student Directory, which started Monday morning on both the city campus and the College of Agriculture campus, is going forward rapidly.

Twenty-six hundred copies of the book have been delivered to the editor, Sherman Weipont. Of these seventeen hundred have been sold. Students wishing to obtain directories may get them from the Student Activities building on the College of Agriculture campus, in the hall of Social Sciences, at the College and Co-Op book stores, and from the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. offices.

The directories contain names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all University students and the faculty members. There is also a section containing the names and officers of the various fraternities and sororities.

FRESHMEN WILL MEET IN PRE-OLYMPIC RALLY

Spirit for Annual Scramble Will Come to Peak in Drill Field Meet

SOPHS ARE DANGEROUS

A giant rally, which the freshmen say will be second only to that held before the Missouri game, is planned for next Friday night at 7:30 o'clock, when thousands of freshmen are expected to gather for their pre-olympic rally to be held on the drill field.

"Every freshman should be responsible for getting out his fellowclassmen both Friday night and Saturday morning," said Merideth K. Nelson, freshman president.

Response of the class has been surprisingly good, according to Nelson. The first year men have volunteered well and prospects are looking much brighter than they have been. Although things are looming in fine shape, there can be no slacking of interest now, if a victory is to be expected Saturday.

Chances Nearly Even

Due to a new schedule adopted this year there are fewer elements in favor of the freshmen, who have had a considerable advantage in the past, due to their superior numbers.

In all but the pole rush there is at least an even chance for a sophomore victory, and these events may easily total more than the one mass event. An added obstacle to be overcome is the determination of the sophomores to break the series of first year wins.

The Olympic committee consisting of Theodore Kisselbach, chairman; Roscoe Kroger, Jean Rathburn and Dorothy Kimmell are still seeking entries for several events.

There is special need of middle-weight boxers and wrestlers as well as men for the bull pen. Those wishing to try out should call Kisselbach at M5497, Kroger at B1482 or Nelson at F4100.

First events of the Olympics will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the Coliseum, when the boxing and wrestling matches will be held. Other events will be held in the Stadium, beginning at 2 o'clock.

AG FORMAL PROMISES INTERESTING EVENING

Remaining Tickets Will Be Sold at Farm Campus For Annual Ball

Remaining tickets for the Farmers Frolic Friday evening may be purchased today and tomorrow from Miss Zimmer in Agricultural hall.

A great deal of time and effort have been put forth at the party house for a most successful party tomorrow night. The Students Activities building has been transferred completely into an open air garden.

In the center of the picket fenced dance floor will be a fountain spray, fish and tadpoles, according to present plans. Through the overhanging bows, the dancers will be able to view the glittering stars. The moon will be seen at the extreme east end of the building just glimmering over the horizon.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINS AT FRIENDSHIP PARTY

Members Point Out Purpose of Organization at Tea Wednesday Afternoon

Four hundred university women students attended the Fellowship and Friendship tea sponsored by the university Y. W. C. A., which was held Wednesday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock in Eilen Smith hall.

Friendship and acquaintance with the purpose and activities of the Y. W. C. A. were stressed by the members of the association, the cabinet, and various staffs of the organization, who greeted the guests informally and tried to get acquainted with as many as possible. There was no receiving line.

Another tea, with a similar purpose will be held this afternoon in Eilen Smith hall from four-thirty until six.

HARRIERS WILL MEET OKLAHOMA

Members of Nebraska's cross country team will compete in a five mile cross country event with the University of Oklahoma at Norman, next Saturday.

The race will probably take place between halves of the football game between Oklahoma and Nebraska.

The six men on the team who will make the trip are Batey, Griffin, Garbey, Etherton, Janulewicz, and Cummings.

Regimental Parade Is Scheduled for Tonight

The first Regimental parade of the year will be formed tonight with first call at 4:50 o'clock and Assembly at 5 o'clock. This will be the initial presentation of the regiment to its new commander, Col. Trout.

THREE LAW STUDENTS SELECTED TO DEBATE

Johnson, Fellman and Hunt Picked to Meet Team From Australia

GOVERNMENT IS TOPIC

George E. Johnson, Jr., '29, David Fellman, '29, and Evert M. Hunt, '29, were chosen to represent the University of Nebraska in their debate against the University of Sydney, Australia, team to be held in the University Coliseum, November 27. The tryouts were held last evening in Andrews hall.

The subject of the debate against Australia will be: "The parliamentary system is superior to the presidential form." Nebraska will take the negative side of the proposition and in the tryouts, each debater was required to give a ten minute constructive argument on the negative.

Nathan Levy, '30, Loyd L. Speer, '30, and Walter Hybert, '30, were chosen in the same tryouts to compete with the debaters of the Kansas State Agricultural College in a radio debate over KFOP, November 30, on the same question.

NEW COLLEGE SPORT ENTERED AT NEBRASKA

Swimming Is Reinstated After Absence of Over Three Seasons

FINE MATERIAL PRESENT

Upon recommendation of Herbert D. Gish, director of athletics, to the finance committee of the athletic board, swimming will be re-instated as one of the intercollegiate sports. The finance committee reported favorably on the idea yesterday and preparation for varsity meets will begin at once.

After three years' absence from intercollegiate sport in the University, swimming was re-instated along with baseball which was also dropped three years ago. Swimming is one of the recognized sports in the Big Six conference and Nebraska will take her place in the conference with this activity.

At the present time, Oklahoma is the only conference institution unable to foster the aquatic sport.

"There is a wealth of good material in the enthusiasts who have been practicing for the team through intramural water polo, physical education classes, and those generally interested, and I believe that Nebraska will be able to turn out a good team ranking with the best of them," declared Mr. Gish yesterday.

Jayhawks Possible Opponents

Although the schedule has not been completed, Mr. Gish has several meets in mind, notably meets with Kansas, Kansas Aggies, and

HUSKER BAND PRAISED IN NEW YORK ARTICLE

Possibility of Visit East Welcomed by Eastern Publication

Nebraska's band, as well as her football team, has received a great deal of notice in the east if we may take the following article from the Sunday edition of the New York Times as evidence:

"Nebraska's band, one of the best among the mid-Western universities, will entertain the crowd at the Nebraska-Army football game at West Point on Nov. 24 with its well-executed manoeuvres on the field and its stirring tunes. Undergraduates and eastern alumni are raising funds so that the 100-piece Cornhusker student organization may journey from Lincoln along with the Nebraska squad. In addition to the band, about 1,000 rooters will accompany the players on a special train which has been chartered for the round trip. The team will stay at West Point, while the band and rooters will have quarters in New York."

SOPHS ORGANIZATION IS NEARLY COMPLETED

Committees Named and Entrants Called for the Olympic Events

SCHULTE IS HEAD JUDGE

Organization of sophomores for the coming sophomore-freshman Olympics to be held at the University Coliseum and the Nebraska Memorial Stadium, Saturday, November 10, is rapidly nearing completion. Members of committees announce entries for the contests have reached unexpected proportions.

Calls have been issued for entrants in some of the mass events and all sophomores wishing to try out for the boxing, wrestling, and relay teams are asked to get in touch with Coburn Tomson, Willard Urban, Robert Dobson or Allan Williams.

Coburn Tomson has been appointed chairman of the committee on event entrants and will also have charge of the relay team. Willard Urban will handle the boxing and wrestling. Dobson will have charge of getting a large turnout of sophomores for the flag rush while Williams will have charge of entrants in the tug-of-war and bull pen festivities.

Walquist Co-Ed Chairman

Betty Walquist has been appointed as chairman of a committee on co-ed representation. The class having the largest co-ed representation will receive fifteen points which will count toward the winning of the Olympics.

Due to the change in the scoring system it is expected that the sophomore class will have an even chance to win the Olympics. The second year men have never won an Olympic contest since the introduction of the traditional classic on Nebraska's campus. Coach Schulte has devised the new scoring system and will be head judge of the contests.

The south stadium field is in good condition for the strenuous competition of Saturday. Arrangements for the special events are rapidly nearing completion.

UNUSUAL DECORATIONS PLANNED FOR DANCE

Committee Will Use Pictures and New Lighting Effects at 'War Dance'

Flood Lights Used

For the party Saturday evening all lighting will be done by floodlights on the Coliseum floor. This will give a novel effect, and enhance the beauty of decorations.

Eleven floodlights have been procured, and perhaps more will be

Students attending the "War Dance" in the Coliseum Saturday evening will be confronted with an unusual spectacle in the way of decorations, if the plans made by the Varsity Party decorations committee are carried out. Work has already begun on the "dressingup" of the Coliseum in honor of the second Varsity Party.

The decorations committee, headed by Paul Burgert and Catherine Clapp is being assisted by James Pickering. Mr. Pickering decorated the Scottish Rite Temple for Kosmet Klub's "Interfraternity Ball" last year and is a well-known student artist. He will paint Indian figures and camp scenes for use in the decorating. Persons who attended the "Interfraternity Ball" last year will remember the type of decorations designed by Pickering.

Lighting effects for the "War Dance" will be entirely different. The Coliseum, because of its size, has presented a problem to decorating committees for the past two years. Last year a large spotlight was used from the balcony, throwing different colored lights across the floor. This was not considered satisfactory, for it made the ceiling seem higher than ever. The strings of colored lights helped to give the low-ceiling effect for the last party, but the Varsity Party committee was still dissatisfied.

The action of the story of "The Other Wise Man" has given in Dr. Van Dyke's book has been preserved almost intact by the author in his dramatized version. The story centers about Artaban, the Median, who planned to journey with the three other Wise Men as spoken of in the Bible to find and worship the newly born Christ child, but who tarried along the way doing deeds of kindness and charity, thus missing his friends and failing to find the Saviour.

METHODISTS WILL GIVE NEW VAN DYKE PLAY

'The Other Wise Man' to Be Presented by Club on November 18.

"The Other Wise Man," a dramatized version in four scenes of Dr. Henry Van Dyke's widely known book by the same name, will be presented by Wesley Players, Methodist dramatic organization, at St. Paul Methodist church, Lincoln, on Sunday evening, November 18.

Something of a unique nature is being given by Wesley Players in giving this religious drama. Dr. Van Dyke himself prepared the dramatized version of his famous book only a few months ago, and the play has been presented only once before in this section of the United States. That was last summer when Mrs. Harriet Dell Barr, who is directing the coming production of the Lincoln group, supervised the presentation of this drama at the University of Wisconsin.

Wet Courts May Cause Tennis Transference

If University tennis courts fall to dry off, the games of the Intramural mixed doubles tennis tournament may be played off on the Coliseum courts any week day before 3 o'clock. Call the athletic office for appointments.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO CALL NEW ELECTION

Petition by Fifty Juniors Alleging Discrepancies Is Turned Down

MUSIC COSTS PROBED

The junior class election that was protested by a petition signed by fifty juniors, was declared authentic by the Student Council at its regular meeting last night. The Council also passed a recommendation to be presented to the Interfraternity Council and the Pan-Hellenic Council that orchestras prices be limited by the sororities and fraternities on the campus.

Petitions protesting the special junior class meeting election, which was held Thursday, October 6, was presented to the Student Council just before meeting time for its investigation. The petition was signed by fifty juniors, and declares that a real "mass meeting" was not held for the election, and that the polls were not opened for a long enough period, so that many juniors did not have a chance to vote.

Record Books of Individuals and Organizations Must Be Returned Today

SALES RECORD IS SET

Winner Trip to West Point and Result of Drive Announced Later

"Record books for 1929 Cornhusker sales will not receive credit unless turned in before noon today," stated Bruce Thomas, business manager of the year book, yesterday. Students who are completing for the individual prize of a trip to West Point with expenses paid must have their sales reported in the Cornhusker office by 12 o'clock today. Credit will not be given to the organization whose members do not turn in their books before the deadline.

Announcement of the individual and organization winners will be made in The Daily Nebraskan Sunday morning. The contest closed at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. According to Mr. Thomas the campaign was very successful, although the total number of books sold will not be released until Sunday.

Salesmen Are Numerous

A ten percent reduction on the 1929 Cornhusker was offered during the sales campaign. The first period set for the contest was scheduled to close on November 3, but because of repeated requests for books at the Cornhusker office the sales campaign was extended three days, to close yesterday. All Cornhusker salesmen report that the sales were better after the first period had closed, than before. This, in the opinion of members of the business staff, was caused by bad weather during the first period, and the fact that many students went to Kansas for the weekend. Cornhusker salesmen were in

'TWO GIRLS WANTED' RECEIVES APPROVAL

Production by University Players Is Given to Large Houses

BAND SELLS TICKETS

With increasing attendance and much improvement in the ticket sales over Monday and Tuesday nights, "Two Girls Wanted" continues to play at the Temple theater. Last night the University Players production showed a marked increase in sales due to the fact that the University Band is selling tickets.

Members of the band have been given tickets to sell, receiving 50 percent of their sales toward the fund to send the band to West Point. Fraternities and sororities are reserving seats for the evening and Saturday afternoon performances, buying their tickets from the band members in an effort to send them to the Army game.

Ray Ramsay, business manager of the Players, announces that if more tickets are sold than the theater can accommodate that additional performances will be given next week. He states that besides receiving an evening's entertainment in this production, fraternities and sororities can do their bit toward sending the band by buying tickets from them.

Rifles March As Unit

Tuesday at five o'clock the first drill as a unit was held. The Pershing Rifle company will march as a unit and not with the members scattered throughout the other companies. The company will form directly west of Company A in today's parade. This parade will be in the nature of a regimental review in preparation for the Armistice day parade on the afternoon of November 12. At six o'clock this evening the Pershing Rifles are having a banquet at the Grand Hotel for the new members.

In an article in a recent issue of the Nebraska Educational Journal B. Clifford Hendricks and John S. Chambers, of the University of Nebraska department of chemistry gave some interesting statistics on chemistry teaching in Nebraska. A summary of the results of a recent investigation, made under the direction of the committee of chemical education of the American Chemical Society, is given.
