Benedicts-To-Be Can Save Money At Y. W. Bazaar

"Brother wants a little gun, and some little cars that run." So runs the song of one's youth—but it never made any suggestions for the boy friend, or the "sweetie pie." Of course, one could learn the Scotchman's national anthem, "I Can't Give You Anything but Love" and sing that to him the night before Christmas—but that wouldn't be so hot.

The Y. W. C. A. is holding a big bazaar beginning Tuesday at 5 o'clock and lasting four days where much money will be spent, candy consumed, and whoopee made. The purpose is to raise money to send a delegate to the Y. W. C. A. summer conference at Estes Park, and all the fair co-eds have been pricking their pretty fingers sewing things they hope they can sell.

Donations have been made by all the sororities and dormitories, and there is a "goodly" collection, to wit: Puritanic of acceptable Christmas presents. Especially there is a collection of well-wrought brassware acceptable to any girl who intends to set up housekeeping. And the boy friend—he'd like a dinner congo or something—anybody'd say that. Save the shekels. Come to the bazaar.

BURNETT SPEAKS AT WASHINGTON

GIFTS-as a Man thinks

As the time of joy and jollity, etc., etc., etc., draws near--we find the old maddening, benumbing, and painful question haunting the minds of the fair co-eds: "My dear, what in the world can I get for Harry and my family?" In fact, we find this terrifying question being asked on the campus, behind locked doors and of room mates, neighbors and frat brothers
