ENTERTAINMENT IS OBTAINED FOR HUSKER BANQUET

Vaudeville and Band Will Augment Program at Friday Affair

MOYCE IS TOASTMASTER

Lincoln Alumnus Will Head Post-Dinner Speakers Of Evening

Beck's orchestra and some first class vaudeville acts will feature the entertainment for the Cornhusker banquet which takes place Bruce who is in charge of the af-

The varsity cheer leaders with the assistance of the R. O. T. C. hand will lead the students in Cornhuskers songs and yells. Beck's or-chestra will play during the ban-

M. A. Shaw Will Speak.

The toastmaster is Robert Joyce of Lincoln and the speaker for the affair is the newly elected regent for the University M. A. Shaw of Dadiv City, Nebraska, Chancellor E. A. Burnett will say a few words to the student body. Head Coach E. E Bearg will introduce the mem-bers of the 1928 Cornhusker football squad.

The Cornhusker banquet is a radition on the Nebraska campus and is annually attended by a large percentage of the men stud-Last year more than 900 attended and more than 1000 are expected Friday according to Charles asked to close their tables Friday evening and the stewards in all he houses have tickets to sell to heir groups. Tickets are priced at one dollar and are for sale at the book stores and at Latsch Brothers for the convenience of alumni who might wish to go.

Cafeteria Will Serve.

The University cafeteria is serving the meal. It will be a real banquet, Bruce sald yesterday. Arrangements have been made to have steam equipment and oil wive the meal 'piping hot.'

in order not to interfere with any-one's later engagements in the to the needs of the psychology dethe table by 5:45 o'clock and those who come later will have to be content with cold food.

CLASSES IN HISTORY WILL HAVE NOVELTY

Prof. R. E. Cochran Plans Illustrated Lecture For Wednesday

Slides depicting the manners and customs of the period before the American Revolution will be tion is "Mentality of Apes" by shown in Prof. Roy E. Cochran's Kohler, a German psychologist. History 9 and History 111 classes tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The slides were made from steel engravings which were taken from wood carvings and are contempor ary pictures according to Professor Cochran. The showing of these lides is an annual event in his original with him.

History 9 is a first semester survey of American history and History 111 is a history of the Amerthat the Social Sciences class traito;

HONORARIES WILL HOLD JOINT PARTY

Tassels and Mortarboard will gather for a party at the home of Blanche Farrens, president Tassels, on December 15. T party is for the purpose of bringing the two groups closer together. as Mortarboard sponsors the girls pep organization. The Tassels decided at the regular meeting held Thursday night at Ellen Smith hall, to give a stunt the Girls' Cornhusker party next Friday evening.

Grummann Will Address Women's Organizations

Prof. Paul H. Grummann, director of the School of Fine Arts, will address the Woman's club at Grand Island today on Brieux's The Red Robe." On Friday he will go to York to give a talk be-fore the Woman's club there on Gunoud's "Faust."

Pre-Dental Organization Holds Dinner for Group

Corntuskers, pre-dental organization, held a banquet last Friday Waite giving the main address of the evening. Prof. T. W. Anderen, instructor is zoology, and Dean Grubb of the College of Dentistry. bulb of the entertainment.

J. K. Selleck Issues Call For Basketball Ushers A call has been issued by John K. Selleck, business man-ager of athletics, for R. O. T. C. cadet ushers for basketball games. Applications will start today and Wednesday, in the student activities office of the

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC TAKES FURTHER TOLL

Additional Cases of Malady Are Reported in Ranks Of Student Body

DISMISS SOME CLASSES

The influenza epidemic continued to exact its toll yesterday Friday evening, December 15 The vaudeville acts will be kept a se in the absentees from classes. vandeville acts will be kept a se an increased number of vacant cret and one of the mespecially will seats and several classes were disbe a surprise, according to Charles missed because instructors were ceived.

Dr. R. A. Lyman of the College of Pharmacy noted little change in the situation yesterday. He said that while there is a great deal of influenza in school a large number served by the winning author. Sevof the so-called influenza cases are only severe colds or cases of grippe. There are a number of students who are going crazy over colds merely because of the influenza epidemic according to Dr. Lyman.

Report Is Unfounded

A report that school was to be dismissed a week early on account of the epidemic was denied Saturday by Chancellor E. A. Burnett. This statement was verified by Dean T. J. Thompson. "It wasn't even considered" was his state

Repeating his warning of Saturday, Dr. Lyman urges students to take care of themselves and to stay inside if possible. Plenty of Fraternities have been rest in bed, a light diet, and the use of laxatives were his recom-mendations for relief from the

Will Have New Research Room

The University of Nebraska's department of psychology is soon to have an animal laboratory. It will stoves at the Coliseum in order to and will be available to both grad-The banquet will begin at 5:45 uate and undergraduate students,

The entire top floor of the old and will be over promptly at 8:00 German building is being trans-The food will be put on partment. There will be two graduate laboratories and one large room for undergraduate students. In addition there will be an animal room, a workshop and a dark room.

Can Use Any Kind of Animal. Almost any kind of animal can he used in psychological experiments depending, of course, on the experiment. White rats, chickens, goldfish and dogs will be used in the laboratory Most of the large universities in the country have these laboratories department. Psychologists are very much concerned now with animal insight in animals. They are terested in the way in which animals think. Among the recent works of interest in this connec-

QUARTETTE WILL SING ON PROGRAM

"The Morning of the Year," a song cycle by Charles Wakefield Cadman will be sung by a quartette history classes but are entirely for the regular Fine Arts convocation in the Temple theater at 11:00 o'clock this morning. The quartette is composed of fera Augusta Upton, soprano; ican Revolution. Owing to the fact Charlotte Hullhorst Hummel, cono; Homer Compton, tenor; Hermann T. Decker, bass. be shown, will be filled with stu-gents the meeting will not be open pany the group on the plane.

Mr. Decker is a member of the faculty of the School of Fine Arts. The other members of the quartet are teachers of music and voice accredited to the University of Ne-

ROBERTS WILL SEE ENGINEERS

Dr. E. B. Roberts, of the educational department of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, plans to be on the Uniecsity of Nebraska campus December 10 and 11, when he will interengineering students intersted in finding positions in that has been associated in "Y" universities, and places them in their school and shops for a year's work. Last year they made 260 ap- national questions. pointments from ninety-six colleges, located in forty-three states.

Chicago's Grid Schedule Will Include East-West

Chicago (IP) - Rivairies of the University of Chicago football team More Princeton Grads will extend from coast to coast next season, officials of the university have announced.

The Maroons will renew their series with Princeton in the east, and will bring the University of Princeton graduates go directly Washington, from Seattle to Stagg into business than did twenty field for the final game. Four conference teams, Indiana, Purdue, tion have announced after a sur-Wisconsin and Illinois are on the vey. At that, half of the graduates Music and readings constituted the schedule, and two more are yet to evince a desire to enter diploma-

KLUB'S CONTEST FOR SHOWS NETS GOOD MATERIAL

Playwrights Vie for Prize Submitting Scripts for Consideration

RULES ARE ANNOUNCED

Costume, Scenery, Light and Character Plots Must Accompany Book

That the Cosmet Klub will produce a three act musical comedy during spring vacation was made yesterday with the an nouncement by Lynn Twinem, president of the Klub, that a number of manuscripts had been re

As the spring show is produced from the manuscript which is adjudged winner in the prize contest the Klub is stressing the rules of eral conditions in the contest were announced last night by Mr.

One Hundred Dollar Prize complete musical score with incidental instructions as to the pre-Continued on Page 1.

SWEETHEART MAY BE

Kosmet Klub Plans to Have 'Princess' Preside at First Matinee

ton, Nebraska's Sweetheart, preday afternoon, according to an decorations on the morning before nouncement made by Kosmet Klub a varsity dance. last night.

Klub last night that the Kabaret past two years, according to prom-Kosmet should be opened by Ne- inent students. Publicity workers braska's representative co-ed, who no longer appeal to the student was recently chosen Sweetheart of body for "support," but endeavor, Nebraska by the men of the Uni- rather, to arrange parties that will y and coronated at the annua Thanksgiving morning show. Plans for the Kabaret Kosmet are being made by Kosmet Klub, headed by Lynn Twinem, president, to con tinue the Saturday afternoon dances, from 3 to 5 o'clock, throughout the school year, as long as Nebraska students desire that kind of entertainment.

Other Schools Do

In a recent investigation in the entertainments had in other large co-educational institutions, students seem to favor the idea of havand it is merely in line with the ing their own afternoon dances, plan for the enlargement of the mixed with programs of entertain ment. For the Saturday opening of Kabaret Kosmet, several acts have been arranged and will be announced later in the week.

Beck's orchestra will play for all afternoon sessions of Kabaret Kosmet and will entertain with specialty numbers. A master of ceremonles will be announced who will conduct the orchestra and entertain. Hosts of the afternoon will members of the Kosmet Klub. As the Kabaret Kosmet accepts as admission band script which must be redeemed by the Univer-Continued on Page 3.

H. FAM WILL SPEAK BEFORE FORUM GROUP

Egyptian Student Life Is Nucleus of Discussion By Cairo Native

"Student Life in Egypt" will be the subject of the World Forum talk to be given Wednesday, December 12, at the Nebraskan hotel, by John Hanna Fam, an Egyptian sho is a native of Cairo. Mr. Fam will arrive in Lincoln.

Tuesday, and will make a short visit before going on to take up Y. M. C. A. work. He has just completed graduate work at the University of Chicago. Mr. Fam in Cairo, Egypt, with C. Steele Each year the company selects a Holcombe, a graduate from the group of students from the various University of Nebraska in 1916. Wednesday's meeting is the second of a series dealing with intercents is charged for the luncheor that begins promptly at 12:10 o'clock. The tickets may be obtained at the "Y" office in the Temp'e or at Ellen Smith hall. The program will be over in time for 1 o'clock classes. Go Right Into Business

Princeton, N. J .- (IP)-More than twenty times as many years ago, officials of the institu-

Exhibit From Kansas College Is Displayed

Kansas State Agricultural college department of architecture has furnished the second group of a series of architectural exhibits to be shown at the University of Nebraska this year.

The exhibit which contains approximately a hundred architectural renderings is being shown in Morrill hall and the Museum building. Gallery Ain Morrill hall contains over half of the showing which will be on display for the next two

SATURDAY PARTY LIST FAVORS 'HOLIDAY HOP'

Committee Is Pleased With Cooperation of Greeks For Next Dance

EXPECT LARGE CROWD

Two formal parties and five house dances have been scheduled for Saturday evening, December 15, according to word received from the office of the dean of women. Varsity Party committee members expressed satisfaction that no more dances had been scheduled, and expect an unusually large attendance at the "Holiday Hop."

"We hope that eventually fra-In competition for the one hun-ternities and sororities will codred dollar prize, the author must operate with us enough to refrain enter the complete libretto, the from booking parties on dates that conflict with varsity parties,' stated one member of the committee. "However, we are aware that many students attend both their own dances and the Varsity Party when they are held on the same evening.

'Hop' Will Be Annual Affair The "Holiday Hop" will be the Christmas varsity party appual Decorations will carry out the Christmas theme and will be as elaborate as any party of the sea-son. The task of decorating the Coliseum is acknowledged to be a large one, but in the past year and a half the Varsity Party committee has gained a reputation for un-Tentative plans have been made usual decorations. The decorating by Kosmet Klub to have Ruth Hill staff is larger than any other department of the Varsity Party committee, and in addition to this numside as the hostess of the Kabaret ber every member of the complete Kosmet at the opening next Satur- committee assists in putting up the

It was decided by members of the undergone a marked change in the

held Saturday evening will have excellent music, provided by one of Continued on Page 2.

DOCTOR BREUER WILL SPEAK TUESDAY NIGHT

Reverend Hunt Will Talk On Religion's Contribution To Personality

Social Science auditorium, at 7:30 the articles contributed by the vao'clock Tuesday evening. Dr. Miles rious campus groups—bridge table
J. Breuer will speak on the sublect of "adolescence." The general bags and painted shoe-trees—will public is invited.

The adolescent period is very period that many of the problems of mental hygiene originate or become acute. Our knowledge of the characteristics of adolescence is very meager and many parents and teachers "just don't know what to do" with children at this stage of development Therefore, the address of Dr. Breuer will be of wide interest.

Rev. Ray Hunt will also speak at this meeting on the subject of The Contribution of Religion to Personality.

So much interest has been shown in these meetings that it is pro posed to continue them during the winter and to present, at some time or other, the subject of mental hygiene from many different

On January 8 the general topics for discussion will be "The Psy-chiatric Clinic" and "Child Goldance," under the leadership of Dr. Paul Royal and Superintendent M.

Nebraska Alumni Visit Department of Geology

Earl Dunlap, '26, Gillette, Wyoming, and A. P. Allison, '25, chief geologist of the Sherwood B. Owens district at Brownwood, Texas, visited the department of geology early tthis week.

Survey by M.E. Church Shows Registration Syracuse, N. Y.—(IP)—The enrollment this fall at colleges and universities sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal church is 62,167, which is 4,734 less than that of last year. Some of the schools with the number of full-time and parttime students are as follows: Boston university 10,393; North western university 10.874; Syra-cuse university 5.426; Univer-sity of Denver 2,714; University Southern California 7.834; DePauw iniversity 1,820; Ohio Wesleyna university Union college 205.

THREE SKITS ARE ON PROGRAM FOR COSTUME FROLIC

Intramural Board, Tassels And W. A. A. Will Give Entertainment

AWARDS WILL BE MADE

Prizes for Best Act as Well As Best Costume Are Party Features

Three features skits will head-line the annual girls' Cornhusker costume party program Friday general chairman of the committee in charge of the fun fest sponsored by the Associated Women Students' board. Plans for the traditional entertainment are forging ahead the first of this week, in preparation for the biggest party ever spon-sored by the A. W. S. board. Tassels, W. A. A., and the girls' ever sponintramural board have scheduled the skits to be presented at the Armory, Friday night. There is a possibility of a fourth skit being added to the program, according to the chairman Monday night. No disclosed information has been concerning the nature of any of the trio of skits, other than that they will be burlesque. The girls' intramural board have hinted that their Continued on Page 2.

Y.W.C.A. WILL SPONSOR CONFERENCE BENEFIT

Proceeds From Bazaar Will Help Send Delegates To Estes Park

The annual Y. W. C. A. Chritmas Bazaar sponsored by the conference group will be held at Ellen Smith Hall from Tuesday, December 11 to Friday, December 14. The purpose of the bazaar is to raise money to send two Nebraska delegates to the annual Y. W. C. A. na-tional convention to be held at Estea Park in June. The bazaar will open just before Vespers on Tuesday.

mered brass nut dishes, bowls, and even a hammered brass lamp base may be had. As the brass ware is a special order from New York the conference group has been able to price it very low Candy Will Be on Sale. In the same booth with the brass various campus groups - creamy home-made fudge, taffy and peanut

The grab-bag booth will probably be second in popularity. Small hat checks will be lost. brown packages will disclose, when 'Whoopee' From unwrapped, delightful surprises-

To Sell Other Articles.
In another booth will be handker-Third of a series of meetings dealing with the general subject of mental hygiene will be held in the sewing bee last week. Beside these sewing bee last week. Beside these be seen. A representative of the confercommonly one of instability, both ence group will answer any quesof the emotional life and of person-ality in general, and it is at this conference at Estes Park next She will be in the confer-June. ence booth.

'HOLIDAY NUMBER' OF AWGWAN IS RELEASED

Contents of December Issue Carry Suggestions of Season's Spirit

"Holiday" number of the Awgwan will be distributed to subscribers this morning. Charles W. Wahlquist, business manager, announced Monday. The magazines may be they will go on sale this afternoon.

James Pickering's cover gives the Awgwan a clever outside ap-pearance and the art work throughout the magazine is of the calibe that gave the paper first place among the college humor maga-zines of the middle west as awarded by Sigma Delt Chi, professional journalistic fraternity. The Aw gwan is sponsored by the local chapter of Sigma Delta Chi.

Virginia Faulkner's book review section, a story by Bill McCleery, tary club, December 12, on "Ecofrontispiece by Margaret Ketring, nomic Geography of the Omaha and "Adventures in Dementia" by Maurice Konkel and Art Schroede are among the features of the A long list of cartoonmagazine. ists and writers contributed to the December issue of the Awgwan.

Ohio State Co-Ed Is

at Ohio State university. She came away from Stillwater. to her grandmother's here for lous condition.

Kosmet Klub Extends Manuscript Deadline

According to an announce-ment coming from the office of Kosmet Klub yesterday, the dealine for the submitting of manuscripts for the spring musical comedy has been extended to Tuesday, December 18. The announcement re-affirmed the offer of one-hundred dollars for the accepted complete scrip with musical score. Those submitting manuscripts may do so until 5 o'clock Tuesday, at the Kosmet Klub office, 1228 R

BIG SIX FACULTY MEN DISCUSS SCHOLARSHIP

Conference Representatives Agree Studies Are Part Of Qualifications

WILL CREATE AWARDS

A scholarship as an integral part of the qualifications of a wellrounded athlete, was recognized at the recent meeting of the faculty members of the new Big Six conference. The action taken was toward the end of awarding the best scholar-athlete in each school. It was one of the important matters taken care of in the December meeting of the Big Six conference Saturday.

According to the action of the committee the honor scholar-ath-lete of each of the Big Six schools would be selected and honored in the spring with the presentation of the production, that of Laiage Stur-either a medal or a plaque of some dee, the crippled daughter of one The candidates for this honor would be required to excell in Her interpretation, sympathy for scholarship as well as athletics in the strenuous character, and the order to secure this honor. It would be a stimulus for athletes to the lines of Dorothy Brandon, the to the field only. Adopt Big Six Medal.

At this meeting the members also adopted a Big Six medal, to be given in track, wrestling, swim-Continued on Page 3.

Student Query Is 'Night Clubs In Afternoon?"

Whoever heard of a night club in the afternoon? Nebraska stu-been crippled since birth and her dents have been asking themselves father, besides other surgeons projust that. When most students nounce her incurable, Ragatzy ap-Brass ware from New York is the would ordinarily be resting from a pears, then, on the scene, a man e enjoyed by students.

As usual the varsity party to be Clever cone-shaped vases hamformal or caking on Sixteenth cago stockyards, a man with little street with one of those campus crushers (not a co-ed), Kabaret Kosmet will be having its opening next Saturday afternoon at the Hotel Cornhusker. As a preliminary to the Saturday night date, Kosmet Klub will en-tertain with Beck's orchestra in ware will be candy donated by the their new Kabaret Kosmet, in the Georgian room. Catering service will be had at the hotel which will include the serving of tempting dishes, aside from the fact that no

'Whoopee' From 3 to 5

Two hours of "whoopee", from to 5 o'clock, will mark the big frolic staged by King Kosmet and His royal entertainers, and with a master of ceremonies, everything promises to be as gay as the wait r's night off in the "Singing Fool" Several acts of entertainment have been planned for Saturday's fun fest, which are reputed to be good, despite the fact that they were not in the Thanksgiving show.

What to wear to the Kabaret Kosmet, which by the way, has replaced the struggle in the stadium on Saturday afternoons as an all-University activity, will be foretold in the weekly social calendar. According to the Kosmet Klub, the Kabaret Kosmet is open to all students holding two-bits in each right hand, so let 'er go boys!

SWEZEY SPEAKS TO CHURCHMEN

Professor Swezey, head of the department of astronomy, addressed the University class of the First Baptist church Sunday morn-ing on the subject, "Astronomy and Professor Swezey traced the growth of knowledge of astronomy from ancient to modern times. He purchas deat news-stands where brought out the fact that the universal law by which the heavenly bodies are governed is an awesome indication of the omnipotence of the creator.

Survey Division Head Is Slated for Omaha Speech

Dr. George E. Condra, head of the conservation and survey divi-sion, will speak to the Omaha Ro-Trade Area.'

Five Men on Sooner Ag Grid Squad Are Married

Oklahoma A. and M. College-(IP)-Five of the eleven first string men of the Oklahoma A. and Burned at Open Grate M. footba'l squad are married. Zanesville, O.—(IP)—A visit to but Coach J. F. Maulbetsch does grandmother's almost proved fatal not permit them to accompany to Esther Nelson, twenty, student their heroes when the team goes

The benedicts are Brady Burli-Thanksgiving, her dress caught son, tackle; Sam Myers, center; fire from an open grate, and she Ambrose Patterson, guard; Barney was taken to the hospital in a ser- Hendrickson, tackle; and Roy Danford, quarterback

THE OUTSIDER' SCORES BIG AT OPENING SHOW

Acting of Cornelia J. Ayres And Zolley Lerner Aid Performance

ARE WELL SUPPORTED

Secondary Roles of Reade And Ramay Serve to Assist Leads

"The Outsider" featuring the professional acting of Cornelia Ayres and Zolley Lerner, as the leads, played to an almost capacity house last night, for the opening performance in the week's run of the production. As Ragatzy, the outsider, ostra cized from the select circle of Bril-ish surgeons, Mr. Lerner presented one of the best bits of amateur dramatization since his perform ance in "Lilliom" last year. His ability at pantomime, was not over shadowed by his ability in holding his character by displaying a for eign accent which had been ac-quired for the sole purpose of strengthening his acting in

Outsider." Feminine Lead Is Good

A newcomer in the ranks of University Players is Cornelia Ayres. who played the teminine lead in of Britain's most eminent surgeons sincerity in which try for excellency in scholarship crippled author, made her out-instead of confining their abilities standing with her fine impression of her major role.

In the supporting cast of characters, Elwood Ramsay, as Vincent Helmore, a British surgeon, and Alta Reade, as Madame Klost, added to their own glory with their exceptional bits of characterization and to the action of Mr. Lerner and Miss Ayres by strengthening their characters, Miss Lempke should be commended in her interpretation of the English maid because of her acquired accent. Features Three Characters

The action of the play concerns for the most part Lalage, her fame and debase the reputations Continued on Page 8.

LELA MARSHALL WILL BE VESPERS SPEAKER

Meeting Will Be Held in Ellen Smith Hall December 11

Lela Marshall, Wayne, will be the main speaker on the Vespers program which will be held in Ellen Smith hall, Tuesday December 11, at 5 o'clock. A description of her experiences among the working girls in the larger cities has been selected as the theme of her address. Mary Ball will also appear on the program to stimulate interest among Nebraska women to attend summer camps in the United States. She spent the past summer at Camp Maqua on Thompson's lake, forty miles from Portland. Experiences and the advantages of a summer's work at Lake Oka boji will be the theme of a talk to

Vespers will be led by Helen Day,

chairman of the Y. W. C. A. public Officials Predict Tough Session for Big 10 Heads be given by buth Hatfield.

Chicago - (IP) - One of the storiest sessions in years is predicted by the Big Ten coaches at their annual meeting January caused by indignant protests on the part of several of the members against three changes in the Big Ten basketball rules, designed to speed up the game. The new rules affect stalling, held balls, the tip-off at center and dribbling. The coaches protesting the changes contended that unless different interpretations are made their entire style of defense and offense will be ruined.

Schmidt, Allison Visit Department of Geology

Visitors at the department of geology during the week were: Ar-thur W. Schmidt, '23, now a teacher in Lead, S. D., high school; A. P. Allison, '25, in geological work in Allison, Abilene, Tevx.

Physicist Writes Article On Use of X-Ray Mirrors

Dr. H. E. Strauss of the depart-ment of physics is the author of an article on "The Use of Mirrors as 'Equivalent Slits' for X-rays,' in the November number of magazine of the Optical society.