

LEAGUE WINNERS ARE LOOMING IN TOURNEY

Farm House-Kappa Sigma Leads Cage Games in Deciding Titles

TONIGHT'S CARD HEAVY

Basketball teams from Farm House and Kappa Sigma meet at 8:35 o'clock on the Coliseum floor in the feature game of tonight's inter-fraternity tournament program. The two quintets are undefeated in league four, and the outcome of tonight's game will determine leadership in that division. Comparative scores indicate that the battle will be waged on fairly even terms.

Picking winners in the other four leagues seems to be an easy job, since there is but one team undefeated in each. The dope bucket would be upset if any of these teams were to meet defeat in the remainder of the preliminary round. But one other unbeaten team plays tonight when Alpha Sigma Phi meets Phi Kappa Psi on the main floor at 9 o'clock.

The schedule:

Class A
Sigma Phi Sigma vs. Omega Beta Pi, floor 1, 8:35 o'clock; Delta Upsilon vs. Sigma Chi, main floor, 7:25 o'clock; Kappa Sigma vs. Farm House, main floor, 8:35 o'clock; Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Phi Kappa Psi, main floor, 9 o'clock; Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon, main floor, 9 o'clock; Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon, main floor, 7 o'clock; Xi Psi Phi vs. Phi Kappa, floor 3, 9 o'clock.

Class B
Delta Sigma Lambda vs. Sigma Chi, floor 3, 7:25 o'clock; Farm House vs. Phi Sigma Kappa, floor 3, 7 o'clock.

It was erroneously stated in Sunday's Daily Nebraskan that Delta Upsilon played Sigma Chi at 9 o'clock. The correct time is 7:25 o'clock.

An admission charge of ten cents will be made for the games tonight.

Ames Gridmen Show Advance In Scholarship

Ames, Ia., January 15.—That the football players at Iowa State college are growing to be better and better students is the conclusion reached by T. N. Metcalf, director of athletics, following a survey of the football squads of the last three seasons.

Last year 70 percent of the freshman football players and 92 percent of the varsity gridgers received passing grades in more than fifteen hours of college work. Records show that the freshman scholarship was much better last fall than ever before. In 1926 forty percent of the freshmen were dropped from school because of poor scholarship. The following year only 19 percent received dismissal and last fall the figure fell to 5 percent. Director Metcalf attributes the

RIFLERS TURN IN WINS AS SEASON STARTERS

Connecticut Aggies, Depauw Go Down Before Fire Of Cornhuskers

Connecticut Aggies and Depauw university were defeated by a ten-man rifle team representing the University of Nebraska under the leadership of Chauncey Hager. These were the first two matches on the Nebraska slate.

The total score of the Nebraska team was 3318 out of a possible 4000. This is considered a good score for early in the season and the lateness of the opening of the gallery for practice. Depauw's score was 3307 while Connecticut was only able to amass 3217 points. Merrill Flood was high man for Nebraska with a score of 356 points out of a possible 400.

This week a match is being fired between the Universities of Dayton, Tennessee, and Wyoming. The range is open every afternoon from 1 to 4:30 o'clock and Friday mornings from 9 to 12 o'clock. This practice is for the men only. Girls are now practicing until some future date. All matches should be fired off before 3 o'clock Friday.

University of Michigan

According to Dr. C. H. Copley, head of the sociology department at Ann Arbor, Michigan students live in more than ordinary state of maladjustment. A scientific investigation was held of the individual conditions of 219 unselected students.

University of Oklahoma

The Oklahoma Anthology for 1929, the third collection of verse written by University Oklahoma students and members of the faculty is just off the university press. Fifty-three poets are represented in the volume.

Bullock's office, Social Science 306. The Akron office of the Goodrich company speaks very highly of the Nebraska graduates who were chosen for this course last year, according to Mr. Kiplinger.

AMSTERDAM ASKS HISTORY DISPLAY

A letter was received this week by the Nebraska State Historical society asking for exhibits for an exhibition, to be held in Amsterdam next summer.

The letter was sent by professor N. W. Posthumus, secretary of the society "Nederlandsch Economisch-Historisch Archief."

The exhibition will consist of and documents, and is to span a period from about 1250 up to about 1900.

In a reply to Amsterdam, the Nebraska society offered to send a group of pictures from its sod house collection showing the homes of pioneers upon the western American plains.

University of Utah

Of the ten sororities of the University of Utah, it was found that eight did not admit for membership any girl who smoked. These eight sororities considered smoking a mark of moral turpitude.

Goodrich Company Opens Course for Nebraskans

B. F. Goodrich Rubber company of Akron, O., is offering this year what amounts to a post graduate course in business. The next class starts in February. W. Y. Kiplinger of Akron will be here Thursday to interview seniors graduating in January in regard to their qualifications for scholarships.

Those chosen will, after completion of the training course, be placed in the organization but will be moved from one position to another, so that within the first year or two a comprehensive view of all phases of the company's operations will be obtained. It is hoped by the Goodrich people that in the future its executives may be chosen from the groups of college men given this training.

Mr. Kiplinger plans to meet for shorter interviews seniors graduimproved scholarship to the advisor system that is now being practiced at Iowa State and to the greater emphasis placed on good teaching and general scholarship by President R. M. Hughes.

LaFayette College
The coin slot in the public pay telephone at La Fayette college recently was left open when the phone was installed, and as a result all money used in making calls was returned.

Not a few students took advantage of this as soon as it became generally known, and the telephone did a thriving business in long distance calls.

When they returned home from Thanksgiving vacation, however, they were somewhat chagrined to learn that the telephone company had traced their calls and had taken advantage of the vacation to distribute bills for payment. Now a few students are broke.

Coach Bible's new coaching staff has been selected and with the array of veteran football men on it—well, every one seems well pleased with the selection. Coach "Bunny" Oakes, who for the past two seasons has turned out what was termed one of the greatest lines on a Cornhusker team, has been selected by Coach Bible to assist him with the Scarlet gridgers. Coach Oakes, in our estimation, has a powerful big job on his hands for the autumn of 1929. With the big gap left in the Cornhusker line by the graduation of Co-Captain Elmer Holm, Dannie McMullen and Ted James, Coach Oakes will have plenty to do, developing men of his caliber. At the wing coaching position, Coach Dana Bible selected Ed Weir, Nebraska's All-American tackle, for 1924 and 1925. Weir has been in the professional ranks for the past years playing end for the Frankfurt Yellow Jackets, one of the leading pro teams. And what seems to be one of the biggest things is that Coach Henry F. "Indian" Schulte is going to help Coach Bible turn out Scarlet football teams. Everything is all set now for the spring football practice and the 1929 Cornhuskers.

Kansas and Missouri met last night in the feature Big Six game of the conference. The Tigers, defeated the Nebraskans, had defeated the Kansas five in a pre-season game at Kansas City, Saturday night the Jayhawkers came to Lincoln for the headliner in the conference Saturday. "Phog" Allen's team is never a set-up and the protégés of Charley Black will have just plenty on their hands in handling the crew from the Kaw. Allen is having the same difficulty as Black, and that is locating a man to hold down the pivot position. Black has two prospects for the tip-off position, Glenn Munn and Maclay, but both lack some essential in the court game. Don Maclay, a sophomore, is fast on his feet and has a wicked eye for the rim but the Missouri game showed that the young basketballer lacks old man experience when bucking men like Waldorf, Ruble or guards of like calibre. Munn, the tallest man on the Husker squad, apparently is easily rattled and plays a nice rough brand of ball.

Members of the 1928 Cornhusker football team are justly proud of the white sweaters they are wearing which are emblematic of a Big Six football championship. The white sweaters and gold footballs arrived Monday. This is the first time Nebraska footballers have worn the white sweaters of victory for the past four seasons. Blue Howell and Dannie McMullen are also wearing the white sweater of victory beside the Nebraska sweater. Blue and Mac were presented with white sweaters after the east-west game at San Francisco on December 29. The white sweater has a football on the side and in the football is written East.

Not including the games of last night, Captain Lester Lande of Iowa State is heading the Big Six scorers with eight field goals and one free throw. Welch of Missouri is in second with seven field goals scored against the Huskers. The Cyclone-Oklahoma clash at Norman Saturday will be one of the feature games of the week. The Sators and Sooners are rated as two of the strongest in the Big Six and one is doomed to fall, which will in all probability leave Missouri at the head of the conference, providing Nebraska can take Kansas into camp Saturday night.
