Friday noon the team will arrive in Topeka, Kansas, the home of Washburn college and Coach Ernest Bearg's new coaching station. They will practice in the Washburn field heuse, leaving Friday night for Norman where they will encounter the conference leading Sooners. If Nebraska can take a fall out of the Oklahoma aggregation, their stock will be boosted considerably and have only Missouri as title the trexas Aggie coach that has ever been accorded to an athletic mentor. When Coach Bible leaves College Station in the spring, he will be entertained at Fort Worth by the Fort Worth Athletic club. The appreciation banquet is not only to express gratification for the great work Bible has done for Texas but for the high calibre of football he has helped introduce and his clean sportsmanship at Texas A. & M.

are a guide to value

Experts can roughly estimate the value of a product by looking at it. More accurately, by handling and examining it. Its appearance, its texture, the "feel" and the balance of it all mean something to their trained eyes and fingers. But no one person can be an expert on steel, brass, wood, leather, foodstuffs, fabrics, and all of the materials that make up a list of personal purchases. And even experts are fooled, sometimes, by concealed flaws and imperfections.

There is a surer index of value than the senses of sight and touch . . . knowledge of the maker's name and for what it stands. Here is the most certain method, except that of actual use, for judging the value of any manufactured goods. Here is the only guarantee against careless workmanship, or the use of shoddy materials.

This is one important reason why it pays to read advertisements and to buy advertised goods. The product that is advertised is worthy of your confidence.

Merchandise must be good or it could not be advertised. Buy advertised goods.
