

SCARLET BASKETEERS MEET AGGIES TONIGHT

Nebraska Quint Will Take On Oklahoma Sooners Saturday

TEN MEN MAKE TRIP

The Husker basketball squad with ten players, Coach Charley Mack, and manager Harold Fisher, pulled out for Manhattan this morning at 7 o'clock on the Union Pacific. They will play the first of their two game campaigns with the Kansas Aggies tonight.

The roster of the squad making the trip is as follows: Glenn Schmitt, Harvey Grace, Morris Fisher, Adolph Lewandowski, William W. Elmer, Holm, Bob Hall, Selden Davey, Carl Olson, and Don MacLay.

Following the Aggie game, the team will entrain for Topeka, where they will work out Friday at the Washburn college gym. Saturday night will find the Nebraska Aggies in an important conference with Oklahoma, an undefeated five in the Big Six.

Coach Mack let his proteges off with a short workout last night. The practice session included a short signal drill, with stress on fundamentals.

SMALL COLLEGES AND CIVIC CLUBS MAKE EXTENSIVE USE OF UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

received. German, Bohemian and Swedish books are in popular demand.

Hup Professor in Search

A former professor in a German university asked for a German history of education. The set was sent to him one volume at a time. When one volume was lost in the mail, the library received a letter from the professor every day for a month during his frantic search for the missing volume.

A Hastings engineer, working on an invention, was supplied with technical material without the expense of making trips to and from Lincoln.

The most frequent calls, perhaps, come from superintendents and other teachers out in the state. Many want information about the best encyclopedias, dictionaries, and other reference books for school use. Occasionally a chance is given to help in the selection of a school library. Such a request came this September and several days were spent in comparing various graded lists for a junior-senior high school library. A list of some three hundred of the choicest titles was sent to the superintendent.

with information as to publisher, date, and price, to facilitate buying them.

School Heads Make Requests

"The requests these superintendents make are always interesting," Miss Craig says. "Even a class ring may be made to serve the purpose of education as evidenced by the superintendent of the Ravenna public schools."

"In his search for an emblem of some significance he led his students back through the years to that ancient city of Ravenna, Italy, when she sat at the head of the Adriatic Sea in all her splendor and freedom. The library was able to help in the project by furnishing the coat-of-arms of the city depicted in color. It was a fascinating trail to follow and the children who wear the ring will doubtless have an abiding interest in old Italy."

In the work of helping the schools, the reference department has been aiding materially in connection with the high school debate league. As soon as the question is decided upon, the library compiles a bibliography of all the material on hand on the subject and co-operate with those having charge of abstracting the articles. Very frequently high school students from nearer towns come to the University on Saturdays and other holidays to work on the debate and require much individual attention.

Library Members Broadcast

Once a month some member of the library staff broadcasts a talk on some topic concerning books. Sometimes poetry is read, or a general discussion of book news given.

Due to the greater publicity given to the collecting of books a noticeable increase of interest in collections has been noticed. Many are forming libraries of their own, sometimes concentrating on one field, as one man is collecting the works of Kipling.

An increasing number ask about the value of books. In general, Librarian Doane says, books printed before 1500 have a value of from $10 to $100,000. The value, he explains, depends upon their rarity and importance in their field.

Club Women Use Library

Club women of the state ask for material for club papers on almost any subject, but are particularly interested in anything pertaining to Nebraska. The Indians of Nebraska, wild flowers, birds and other wild life in the state, Nebraska artists and authors are subjects frequently called for. A pamphlet on Nebraska authors compiled some years ago by the reference librarian has been in great demand. Work is being done on a new edition, but this is not yet in shape.

Calls from individuals in the state have a wide range. The library has been asked to translate a letter from a French orphan, send a list of references on the miracles at Lourdes, suggest suitable readings for a small town church entertainment, send quota-

One man having a suit at law wished to know all about electric shock, the treatment of cases suffering from shock and the amount of current that will kill a man. As Miss Craig says, "We have been asked what salamanders eat, what is the eleventh commandment, does H. G. Wells believe in a college education, what connection if any, between religious revivals and economic crises, and whether we have any illustrations of Colonial dolls made of corn husks."

Occasionally a letter is received such as this, received some time ago. "I want to get trace of a book I used many years ago when I was a student in the University, fifteen years ago to be exact. I do not know the author or the title, but the book told the old German legends used by Wagner in such a beautiful way that I want to get it for my children. If you can find the book and give me the author, publisher and price, I shall be most grateful."

"It is surely worth much," Miss Craig said, "to have supplied a student with a book having an inspirational value lasting fifteen years."

CLASS B BASKETMEN PLAY THREE GAMES

Phi Gams Defeat Tke's, Phi Sigs Shut Out Alpha Sigma Phi

NO CONTESTS TONIGHT

Three class B games were played last night on the Coliseum floor in the intrafraternity basketball tournament. Another game was played, but the winning team forfeited because of using class A men.

Phi Gamma Delta had an easy time of it with Tau Kappa Epsilon, taking the heavy end of a 19-2 score. The Tke's lone score came in the last half when Jenkins connected for a field basket. Long was the main factor in the Phi Gam scoring machine, tallying ten points with five field baskets.

In the first shut-out of the tournament, Phi Sigma Kappa trounced Alpha Sigma Phi, 16-0. Scoring honors were evenly divided among the winners, with Burkhardt high with six points, and Craig and Schultz next with five each.

Beta Theta Pi defeated Alpha Sigma Phi, 20-8. Lohmeyer and Kube accounted for six points each for the Betas.

In the only class A game scheduled, Sigma Chi forfeited to Alpha Gamma Rho.

After the Phi Kappa Psi and Xi Psi Phi teams had played their game, Phi Kappa Psi forfeited to Xi Psi Phi because of having used class A men.

Kappa Sigma won by forfeit from Phi Delta Theta.

No games are scheduled for tonight because of examinations next week, and Carnival preparations.

SCHULTE UNEARTHES NEW PHASE WHICH CALLS FOR REMODELING OF TRACK SHOES

The center toe spikes are to be set back under the ball of the foot with an extra spike in the center.
The broad-jump and pole-vault men require much the same shoe as the hurdlers without the heel spikes. In every case the spikes are set so as to insure the maximum result of pull for the force thrust on the spikes.
The spikes in all of these new shoes will be removable. When a meet is held on a board track the long spikes may be replaced by short ones, or when the spikes become worn they may be renewed.
Coach Schulte has made an extensive study of each man and each event, and he knows where the results come from or where they fall to come from. He spares no experiment or endeavor to bring out the ability of the men and to bring laurels to the school.

WRESTLING LINEUP IS STILL UNDECIDED

Nebraskans Will Make Trip To Columbia to Meet Tigers Saturday

The lineup of Nebraska wrestlers who will make the trip to Columbia to meet the University of Missouri wrestling team Saturday was still undecided yesterday, as tryouts were being held in two weights.

Coach Fisher of Missouri has several veterans back from last year's team and the match Saturday promises to be a closely contested one. Especially interesting should be the match between the two captains, Hawkins of Missouri and Toman of Nebraska. Hawkins is one of the best men in the 165 pound class in the Big Six conference.

The probable lineup, as announced by Coach Kellogg last night will be: 115 pound class, John Kish; 125 pound class, Aubrey Hurren or Russell Lindskog; 135 pound class, Ralph Andrews; 145 pound class, Everett Reimers; 155 pound class, Adolph Simile; 165 pound class, Captain Joe Toman; 175 pound class, Marion Stone; heavyweight, Andrew Peterson or Raymond Richards.

Cold and Snow Reign Supreme In Husker State

Light snow and continued cold, was the weather forecast for last night, with a slowly rising temperature for today, according to T. A. Blair, meteorologist.
The mercury sank to three below zero Tuesday night which was colder by two degrees than any previous, authentic report. Outstate reports indicated that the cold wave was more general over the eastern section of the state. Omaha reported six below, while Valentine had the lowest report in the state of ten below. North Platte had a low temperature of two below zero.
