

BIG SIX ROUND ROBIN BEGINS SECOND ROUND

Each Team Now in Line For Next Conference Term; Oklahoma Leads

HUSKERS AT LAWRENCE

Round robin of Big Six basketball games is being resumed this week with every member of the conference active in the race for the championship. So far each member of the Big Six has played every other school, and the three games scheduled for this week begin the round of return contests.

Oklahoma, who leads the conference with no defeats, will play Iowa State on Saturday night. The game promises to be a repetition of the defeat which the lawsons sustained early in January.

Missouri At Manhattan
Missouri will be opposed at Manhattan, Saturday night, by the Kansas Aggies. The Tigers hold second place in the conference race with four victories and one defeat. The Nebraska-Kansas game on Thursday night will complete the list of conference games. The game will be played at Lawrence, Kansas.

Following is the schedule of Big Six standings:

	W	L	Pct.	TP	OP
Oklahoma	5	0	1000	175	124
Missouri	4	1	.800	178	150
Nebraska	3	2	.600	141	127
Iowa State	2	3	.400	148	183
Kansas	1	4	.200	139	142
Kansas Aggies	1	4	.200	143	188

DOCTOR REPORTS FARLEY BETTER

According to a report late Thursday afternoon, by his physician, Dr. J. J. Hompes, George Farley, captain-elect of the 1929 Cornhuskers is resting comfortably at the Lincoln General hospital. Farley has been confined there since Monday when he underwent a nasal operation for injuries sustained during the football season.

Two Sooner Vets Vie For Place on Coach McDermott's Squad

Norman, Oklahoma.—(Special) Although he has had to rebuild his team almost completely, Coach H. V. McDermott has two experienced guards who can be sent into the Sooner lineup.

They are Bill Noble of Eldorado, Kans., and Melvin Culbertson, of Amber who earned their spurs in the heated campaign that saw the Sooners ride through an eighteen-game schedule in the Missouri Valley conference without defeat. Noble is of the rangy type, and stands out in his ability to take the ball off the backboard and start counter-attacks that frequently result in points for Oklahoma.

Culbertson, however, is short and chunky, but makes up for his lack of height in the speed and aggressiveness he shows when he gets on the court. Both have a good average, too, in shooting baskets from long range and in finding the hoop after long, fast dribbles down the court. Both Noble and Culbertson are Juniors and have another year on the Sooner quintet.
