

Prof. R. J. Pool Will Supervise Botany Course at Estes Park

Prof. Raymond J. Pool, chairman of the department of botany, will personally direct work of classes in certain botany courses at Camp Olympus in the Rocky Mountain national park this summer from July 11 to July 19. The enthusiastic response to this project and the notable success of the class work in the mountains in 1928, 1927, and 1925 amply justify the continuation of the work for another summer.

Camp Olympus in Estes Park furnishes an ideal place for students and teachers who desire wholesome recreation, rest, and study in a homelike atmosphere and under inspiring natural surroundings.

Two Courses Offered

The principal course, which will be general in scope, will utilize the wonderfully rich and varied natural resources of the mountain environment to present broad view of modern botany with particular reference to flowering plants, forests, etc. This will be done under unusually pleasant conditions. It is necessary to limit the registration in this course to thirty since it will be impossible to accommodate a larger group.

An advanced course will also be available for those with considerable training in plant taxonomy or ecology and who will be able to work independently or with minimum guidance. The limit in this course is ten.

Camp Olympus is a group of new attractive and comfortably equipped buildings which occupy one of the finest of the Rocky Mountain national park region. The camp faces the beautiful Thompson meadows, across which is a full, broadside view of majestic Long's peak and the snowy summits of the continental divide.

Dr. Pool makes the following comment on the location. "There are few spots so brimming over with outdoor interest and beauty as Rocky Mountain national park to one in tune with the dynamic of noble mountains and to one who catches the call of the great outdoors. Our classes cover the region thoroughly by means of a very carefully arranged series of field-trips by autobus and on foot. We usually take three all-day trips and one or two half-day trips each week. A delightful and valuable feature of the program includes two overnight camping trips. Areas of the park included in our studies of past summers are: Sie Thompson canyon, North St. Vrain canyon, Devil's gulch, Fall river pass and Trall ridge, Bear lake, Odessa lake, Fern lake, Casam lake, Loch vale, Wild basin, and the summits of the more interesting mountains such as Mt. Chapin, Twin Sisters Mt., Specimen Mt., and Long's peak. The daily life in the open, on the trail, in the forest, on the mountain top, and by the campfire, in the midst of vast array of magnificent natural splendors leaves a lasting impression upon all who come to know the region and to enjoy the hospitality and cordial co-operation of the good people who manage Camp Olympus.

GENERAL EDUCATIONAL MEETING IS PLANNED

Gathering at Grand Hotel Has Varied Topics on Program List

Dinner and meeting for all people interested in vocational guidance employment management, personnel work, vocational education or general education will be held at the Grand Hotel, Friday, March 8, at 6:30.

A. L. Erick, state labor commissioner of Iowa will discuss "Super-Change in Industry: Does It Create New Responsibilities with Reference to Vocational Guidance and Vocational Education?" from the standpoint of industry in general.

"The Engineering College and the Engineering Field" will be discussed by Jiles W. Haney, professor of mechanical engineering of the University of Nebraska.

Caster on Program

Mark T. Caster, plant superintendent of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company will give a talk on "The Communications of Industry." Millard C. Leffer, superintendent of the Lincoln schools will discuss the subject "A Superintendent of Schools."

Students are requested to make reservations for the dinner by telephoning or writing T. V. Goodrich of the Board of Education of the Lincoln schools. His telephone number is B-6981. Students who are unable to attend the dinner are urged to come for the program which will be unusually instructive and interesting. The program will commence at 7:30.

Y. W. SLATES NEW TALK ON INDIANS

Mrs. M. H. Merrill Consents To Continue Speech This Afternoon

Mrs. Maurine Hitchcock Merrill will conduct the round table discussion on the subject of Indians at the regular meeting of the inter-racial group of the Y. W. C. A., in Ellen Smith hall at 5 o'clock today.

Mrs. Merrill, wife of Professor Merrill of the College of Law, spoke before this same group last week and so much interest in the subject was evidenced that it was decided to continue it this Thursday, again under her guidance.

A former resident of Oklahoma, Mrs. Merrill knows the actual conditions among the Indians on the reservations today.

BASKETBALL CLASSIC OPENS AT COLISEUM

Continued from Page 1.

Opened by the state high school athletic association.

The quintet from St. Paul, coached by Pat Panek, and made up of University Players

PRESENT Eugene O'Neill's 'Emperor Jones' The Great Negro Spectacle

TEMPLE THEATER ALL WEEK Tickets at Ross P. Curtice Sat. Mat. 50c Nite 75c

Capitol Thurs.—Fri.—Sat. "DAWN" The Drama of a Woman's Supreme Sacrifice. Don't miss it! WITH SYBIL THORNDYKE

Letter Contest Winner

Miss Lillian Renner, letter contest winner.

MISS RENNER WINS IN LETTER CONTEST

Miss Lillian Renner of the Nebraska Alumni association received fifth prize in a recent national letter writing contest sponsored by the Gregg Publishing Company of New York. The object of the contest was to write ten distinct types of business letters of between 40 and 200 words in length useful in some one business.

Miss Renner won the fifth prize with her letters on the publishing business. The contest began December 15 and closed February 15. During Christmas vacation Miss Renner noticed the announcement in "The Gregg Writer," the magazine of the Gregg Publishing Co., and entered it. About two weeks ago she received the prize check.

"I certainly was surprised," Miss Renner said today, "I really didn't expect it."

South Dakota Coed Wins Consecutive Social Distinctions

VERMILION, S. D., Mar. 5.—Just a week after leading the grand march in the Military Ball at the University of South Dakota as Honorary Colonel, Miss Edna Lass, of Ipswich, was again selected as the junior Prom queen, the second highest social distinction which can be given to a woman student at the University.

Miss Lass is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and an officer in Guidon, women's auxiliary organization affiliated with Scabbard and Blade. She is a member of Mortarboard, national honorary senior women's society, and she was recently elected student secretary and representative of the Pan-Hellenic council at the university.

Miss Lass earns part of her way at college by working in a local newspaper office. She is a major student in mathematics at the University, and is a member of Aethian literary society.

South Dakota Student May Get Business Award

Vermilion, S. D., Feb. 28.—Dean E. S. Sparks, head of the School of Business Administration at the University of South Dakota, has been notified that the American Bankers' foundation will for the second time grant a scholarship loan to a deserving student at the University. The recipient of the loan, who must plan to enter the banking profession, will be announced this month. The loan amounts to $250 and the basis of selection is scholarship and self-support.

COMING EXPOSITION PRESENTS FEATURES

The third annual Greater Lincoln exposition will open Monday night, March 11 in the university Coliseum. The exposition is reported to be larger than ever before, with double the number of displays and several more exhibitors.

The automobile show will be one of the outstanding features with nearly every make of car sold in the city on display.

Feature Airplane Apparatus

Other displays will include a miniature airplane, a replica of the airmail planes, and new airmail maps with the latest rates and schedules. The industrial arts department of the city schools, the community chest and the state department of public works will have displays.

Entertainment will be furnished by professional as well as amateur entertainers. The University of Nebraska band, the Wesleyan university orchestra, the Lincoln high school consolidated band, and the American Legion drum corps will furnish music. Professional entertainment will be given by Harper's dog and pony novelty circus and the Bauers, aerial acrobatic performers. Three programs will be given each evening.

Miss Metzger Will Address Students

Miss Evelyn Joan Metzger, assistant professor of design in the department of home economics, will address the students of the department of architectural engineering at their regular meeting in the former museum, Thursday evening, March 7. Miss Metzger, who has studied in Paris, will talk on European architecture and schools in France. All those interested are invited to attend.

LeRossignol Gives Talk

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the College of Business Administration talked to the Rotary club in Nebraska City at a luncheon meeting Wednesday on "Farm Relief."

Basketball Players and Coaches Special Announcement

Due to the fact that your team requires the best of foods we will prepare any special order you may desire.

Year after year coaches have chosen us to serve their teams.

We are one of the most up-to-date and fair priced restaurants you will find.

CENTRALLY LOCATED

Let Us Serve You. Mr. A. A. ANDROS, Prop.

Blackstone Cafe 1324 "O" St

JOHN ELDER ARRIVES TO MAKE ADDRESSES

Persian 'Y' Worker Comes To University for Series Of Talks Here

Nebraska in Egypt committee members will meet at a dinner at the Grand hotel tonight at 6 o'clock to hear a talk by John Elder of Persia.

Mr. Elder will speak of his experiences in Persia, and give his impressions of Mohammedanism. This subject will be of special interest to committee members, who are sponsoring the work of Steele Holcombe, Nebraska '16, in Egypt, a Moslem country. All university men are welcome. Tickets may be purchased for fifty cents at the Y. M. C. A. office in the Temple.

Mr. Elder is scheduled to speak on "The Allies in Armenia" before Professor Hill's class in international law in Social Sciences 113 at 10 o'clock Friday morning. He will also talk on "Persian-Arabian Culture" before Prof. Orin Stepanek's class in European literature at 11 o'clock in Mechanical Engineering 206. Other talks may be arranged through the University Y. M. C. A. office.

South Dakota Coed Wins Consecutive Social Distinctions

VERMILION, S. D., Mar. 5.—Just a week after leading the grand march in the Military Ball at the University of South Dakota as Honorary Colonel, Miss Edna Lass, of Ipswich, was again selected as the junior Prom queen, the second highest social distinction which can be given to a woman student at the University.

Miss Lass is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and an officer in Guidon, women's auxiliary organization affiliated with Scabbard and Blade. She is a member of Mortarboard, national honorary senior women's society, and she was recently elected student secretary and representative of the Pan-Hellenic council at the university.

Miss Lass earns part of her way at college by working in a local newspaper office. She is a major student in mathematics at the University, and is a member of Aethian literary society.

South Dakota Student May Get Business Award

Vermilion, S. D., Feb. 28.—Dean E. S. Sparks, head of the School of Business Administration at the University of South Dakota, has been notified that the American Bankers' foundation will for the second time grant a scholarship loan to a deserving student at the University. The recipient of the loan, who must plan to enter the banking profession, will be announced this month. The loan amounts to $250 and the basis of selection is scholarship and self-support.

Classified Ads

Lost and Found

WANTED—Students for summer work. Need four. Apply Mr. Hamilton, Vermilion, Iowa, Friday.

Records Just Out

- 1731—Lover Come Back to Me—Paul Whiteman.
- 21853—Dream Train—Nat Shilkret and orchestra.
- 21855—Glad Rag Doll—George Olsen.
- 21850—I'll Get By—Jesse Crawford.
- 21852—My Mothers Eyes—George Jessel.
- 1702—The Sun Is At My Window—Leo Riesman and orchestra.

Schmoller & Mueller's 1220 O St.

THE BIG ADVANCE SALE

Scores of New Spring Two Trouser SUITS

fresh from the makers $29.75

Dollars and dollars off our regular spring selling price—during this brief advance sale. Can you imagine anything more profitable—more worthy of your immediate attention.

Handsome year-round worsteds in fashionable plain and fancy blues, grays, tans, oxfords. Every correct new style.

College models and smart styles for young business men—models for most every figure.

For this sale—and this sale only, these suits with extra trousers at $29.75.

MEN'S CLOTHING—Street Floor.

A Special Sale of Underwear Shirts and Shorts

THE SHIRTS are either mercerized Swiss ribs or flat knit combed Egyptian cotton.

THE SHORTS in neat designs, black and white stripes, plain white and colorful effects in stripe or modernistic patterns. Garment—

65c

FURNISHINGS—Street Floor.

Rudge & Gruenzel Co