HERE AND THERE

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—(IP) and Utah Chronicle.—Splendid and unbelievable is the co-operation which has recently come about at the University of Utah.

It happened in this wise: The co-eds of the institution wanted very badly to see some of those brutish wrestling matches. But the wrestlers were nude above the waist!

So Frank Crosby, coach of the cauliflower ears, was seized with a brilliant idea, and issued a proclamation, amounting to an ultimatum, to the effect that the boys must cover themselves with sleeveless persies.

Now the co-eds are satisfied. Dean Lucy is satisfied, Crosby is satisfied, and the boys are extremely uncomfortable.

ITHACA, N. Y.—(IP)—Law students at Cornell university have demonstrated that a new form of legal "service" may be made upon unsuspecting defendants. Recently they dropped from an airplane a number of summons and complaints, which landed in the campus...

FRANKLIN, Ind.—(IP)—The Indiana Baptist convention recently asked the history department of Franklin college to prepare a history of the Baptist church in Indiana, for use at the Centennial of the organization of the convention, to be held in 1923.

To collect material for this history, the department organized a course in history of the Baptist church in Indiana, which was started this semester. The course is research in nature and students taking it work along the lines of those in an "honors" course.

COLUMBUS, O.—(IP)—Roy G. Heidlhoff, a junior at Ohio State university, wanted to go right by his college, yet he frowned upon the idea of deserting, a friend at the

Grumann Prepares Lecture Of Explanation About Gounod's Opera

Special convocation will be held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, in the Temple. All university students who plan to attend Gounod's opera Faust are invited to attend.

At this time Mr. Walter Wheatley, professor of voice, will sing the tenor air from the third act of the opera, "All Hail Thy Dwelling Pure and Holy." Possibly a duet may be sung also.

The opera will be presented by the Chicago Civic Opera company's articles on Thursday, March 21, in the University Coliseum.

FOSSLER GOES TO BIRTHDAY PARTY

German Professor Reaches Seventy-Second Year On Tuesday

A birthday party was held Tuesday afternoon in the German seminar room of Andrews hall in honor of the seventy-second birthday of Professor Laurence Fossler, chairman of the department of German.

Professor Fossler is the second oldest professor of the University in years of service, Dr. Sherman of the department of English being the only person who has served the University longer.

Many of Professor Fossler's friends were present, including Doctor Candy, chairman of the department of mathematics, whose birthday is the same date and whose age is the same.

GRACE COPPOCK CAMPAIGN OPENS SATISFACTORILY

Continued from Page 1. Women conferences are held annually. The headquarters of China's Y. W. C. A. are in Shanghai. There the work of the 100 local Y. W. C. A. organizations is supervised.

Two hundred and eight girls on the down town campus are working on the drive. A large group of girls on the campus of the College of Agriculture are also working. Those girls in charge of one month are:

Beth Pilling, January; Dorcas Weathers, February; Dorothy W. Brown, March; Evelyn Collins, April; Julia Rider, May; Dorothy McCoy, June; Mildred Olson, July; Irene W. Anderson, August; Marie Brown, September; Margaret Bowles, October; Olga in charge of one week are: Helen Knapp, Lucille Herfen, Marjorie Stuart, Kathryn Indoe, Harriet Horton, Lucille Ledwith, Gene Miller, Dorothy Hyde, Leona Lewis, Mildred Keller, Charlotte Walk, Vanda West, Ingeborg Nielsen, Anna Nord, Ingeborg Margaret Adams, Frances Holvock, Susan Lau, Marian Wilkinson, Ruth Roberts, Lois Martin, Gertrude Ray, Edna Shrick, Sus Hall, Annie Klack, Mildred, Mary McCall, Josephine Paul, Marjorie Hyde, Eva Cooper, Edith Quinlan, Lois Russomanno, Virginia Black, Genevieve, Rachel Hanson, Margaret Ray, Betty Pringle, and Winifred Webster.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(IP)—Approximately four thousand University of Michigan students were dispersed with tear bombs here last week after doing damage estimated at $2,000 to a theater in which they staged a riot.

The appearance of President Clarence Cook Little had much to do with the ending of the scrap with the police who were called to the scene after the students, celebrating a basketball victory over Wisconsin, stormed a theater.

The undergraduates used potatoes, eggs, bottles and rocks in defiance of the police tear bombs.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(IP)—The woman whom President Herbert Hoover gives credit for "laying the foundation" of his character, Mollie Carran, of West Branch, Iowa, was one of the happiest women in the United States last Tuesday.

"I've nothing left to wish for in life now," she said. "I could not be any more pleased if it were a ticket to heaven."

Mrs. Carran likes to tell of the time when young Hoover was her student. The principal of the school came in the room one day she says, and gave the boys a lecture on good behavior.

"It will pay you to be good," she says the principal told them, "because it is possible that some day one of you boys may be president of the United States."

University Student Dies in Crash of Training Plane

Lawrence, Kas.—William Walker, of Minneapolis, Minn., a sophomore at the University, and Glenn Sutherin, of Topeka, plane pilot, were instantly killed last week when the plane in which they were flying crashed into a field about a mile south of Haskell Institute.

Walker was taking lessons from a flying school here when the accident occurred. He is supposed to have been hold of the controls when the plane began to spin, and neither the nor Sutherin could bring it out.

A brother, Dr. Oliver Walker, of Salina, arrived in Lawrence the next day and took charge of the body.

ALPHA DELTA THETA WINS GOLF CONTEST

Kappa Kappa Gamma Place Second in Intramural Putting Games

Alpha Delta Theta sorority won the girls intramural golf putting contest, and Kappa Kappa Gamma was runner up. Members of the Alpha Delta Theta team are Minnie Zuehke, Alfreda Johnson, Helen Wynatt, and Parthenia Schneider, and Madge Gaughen.

Members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma team are Betty Wahlgist, Dean Robbins, Jane Steen, Jeanette May, and Helen Rice.

This game closed the golf putting tournament. Twenty-eight teams entered the contest, which was played under the supervision of Harold Holloway. This is the first year that golf putting has been entered as an intramural sport, and according to the enthusiastic reports of the participants, it has been a success.

University Masons Fix Tonight Date for Meet

Regular monthly meeting of the Square and Compass club, the university Masonic organization, will be held at 1:30 o'clock this evening at the Temple. The speaker of the evening is Dr. David C. Hilton. His subject will be "Signs and Symbols of Masonry." All student and faculty Masons of any degree are invited.

Painters Work on Walls in Bessey Hall Corridors

The walls and ceiling of the corridors in Bessey hall are being repaired this week due to the fact that the old paint has been peeling and dropping off recently. Some of the offices and class rooms will be repainted also, but since the need is not so great, this will probably done in the summer as it would interfere with class schedules at present.

Carrier pigeons habitually fly in the daytime.

UNIVERSITY SECURES STAPLES FOR SPEECH

New Mexico Man Knows of Indian Arts and Crafts From Experience

R. I. Staples, of the University of New Mexico, authority on Indian crafts and arts, will give addresses at the University today and Friday.

Three Navajos, a silversmith, a weaver and a sandpainter, accompany Mr. Staples and will give exhibitions of their work in native costume in the art gallery at Morrill hall, where samples of their work will be on display during the morning and afternoon exhibition hours. Mr. Staples will give gallery talks.

At 11 o'clock this morning a special convocation will be held in the Temple where Mr. Staples will speak on the subject, "The Indians of the Southwest."

For twenty years Mr. Staples has lived on the Navajo reservation and is said to have more influence than any other American in developing the art and crafts of the Indian. He is one of the few white men who has their complete confidence, and has been accepted into tribal membership.
