TICKETS ARE RESERVED

Kosmet Announces Reduced
Prices for Special
Performance

"Don't Be Silly," Kosmet Klub's 1929 spring musical comedy, will play a matinee in the Liberty theater Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made yesterday. Tickets for the special performance will go on sale Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Liberty box office.

All seats for the special matinee will be reserved. One dollar each will be charged for seats in the first ten rows of the main floor and the first two rows of the balcony. All remaining seats are priced at seventy-five cents. No tickets for evening performances may be exchanged for seats in the Saturday afternoon matinee.

Cast Holds Review

Members of the "Don't Be Silly" cast went through a complete review-rehearsal yesterday evening. Principal characters practiced individually with the pony and society choruses rehearsing together.

Tickets for the Friday and Saturday evening shows are selling satisfactorily, in the words of Kosmet Klub's business manager. A complete sell-out is anticipated for the Saturday show. In particular, Kosmet Klub members feel that "Don't Be Silly" is the best musical comedy they have ever produced and that its success on Friday evening will assure a capacity crowd for the following performance.

Group Blocks Purchased

Liberty theater box office will be open after 10 o'clock each morning including Saturday. Practically all fraternities and sororities have purchased blocks of seats, but a number of good seats remain. Seats in the first ten rows of the main floor and first two rows of the balcony are $1.50 for the evening performance. One dollar is being charged for remaining seats on the first floor, and seventy-five cents for those in the balcony.

Lincoln theater-goers have expressed their intent to support "Don't Be Silly." Reports of the 1929 show that have come in from the Nebraska towns played on the road trip have played a large part in securing attendance at the presentations of Kosmet Klub's latest production.

Curtain Falls Early

Announcement was made in yesterday's issue of The Daily Nebraskan that the final curtain on evening performances will come at 10:30 o'clock. "Don't Be Silly" will last for two hours, giving those who plan to attend parties on Friday and Saturday evenings an opportunity to leave as early as possible.

Kosmet Klub members and those taking part in the show have stated their expectations that "Don't Be Silly" will get the best reception in Lincoln of any towns played. The play itself is somewhat connected with college life and its characters are familiar to the people of a university city such as Lincoln. Written by a university student the production has an abundance of humorous lines which apply to college life, and which should be appreciated by the Lincoln audiences.

'Don't Be Silly' Cast Puts on Radio Hour Over Station KFAB

"Don't Be Silly" was the theme of an hour's radio program presented over KFAB late Wednesday evening by the Kosmet Klub and members of the cast for "Don't Be Silly." Linn K. Twineem familiarized himself with the microphone, acting as announcer, and poured out information to "friends of radio land" concerning the Lincoln presentation of the Klub's all-male cast musical comedy Friday and Saturday of this week.

Donald Carlson, who plays the leading masculine role in the production was featured during the course of the hour in several songs from the show. The Kosmet Klub trio did a few numbers as did Harry Pritchard, Warren Chiles and Stanley Day, all members of the "Don't Be Silly" company. Harold Turner, who accompanied the different soloists, was featured in a piano solo consisting of a medley of melodies from "Don't Be Silly."

Colonel Philip Hall Will Review R.O.T.C.

Colonel Philip Hall, commanding officer of the 355th infantry, will review the R. O. T. C. regiment next Tuesday, April 30. No parade was held yesterday because of the weather conditions.

After the review, Colonel Hall will give a short talk to graduating seniors who will receive commissions. Most graduates from the University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. unit receiving commissions go to the 355th infantry.

Writes Klub Production

William T. McCleery, 31, Hastings, who is responsible for the book of Kosmet Klub's 1929 musical comedy. He has packed the show with humorous lines and laugh-demanding situations.

EDITOR ANNOUNCES AWGWAN DEADLINE

'Bye-bye' Issue Copy Must Be Turned in by Next
Saturday Noon

Copy for the May or 'Bye, Bye' number of the Awgwan, humorous magazine of the campus sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, must be in by Saturday noon, April 27, according to Douglas Timmerman, editor. As yet only a small number of cartoons and jokes have been submitted.

Many Turn in Copy

Dean Hokanson has provided an intimate diary of the Kosmet Klub trip which will fill an entire page and be set up in newspaper style. Raymond Murray has contributed several of his poems to mock graduating seniors.

Copy from Phil Blake, Warren Chiles, Paul Gallup, LaSelle Gilman, Neal Gomom, Bob Kelly, Gordon Larson, Wendell Mellor, Roger Robinson, and Elmont Waite has already been received at the Awgwan office according to Douglas Timmerman, editor of the comic monthly.

Art material by Bob Bundy, LaSelle Gilman, Roger Robinson and Frank Roehl is in the hands of the staff. The cover, drawn by Archie Powell, has already come from the engravers and is a marked success, according to the editorial staff.

"As this is the last Awgwan of the year, we want to make it the best," according to the editor. "All students interested are urged to submit material concerning graduation and graduating personages."

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NOMINEES

Officers Declare Buckley,
Douglas Candidates
For President

Candidates for officers in the Nebraska Alumni association have been announced and balloting by mail will begin soon according to an announcement made yesterday by officers of the association.

The candidates for president are J. B. Douglas of Tecumseh and N. E. Buckley of North Platte. Both the candidates for the presidency were very prominent in school affairs while in the University. Mr. Douglas graduated from the law college in 1901. He helped to organize the Tecumseh Building and Loan association in 1905 and has been actively connected with organization ever since.

Buckley graduated in 1903. Mr. Buckley received his bachelor's degree from the College of Engineering in 1903, having majored in civil engineering. For a number of years he was connected with the Union Pacific Railroad company in the engineering department. In 1918 he left the service of the company to engage in commercial work. He is now connected with the firm of Bratt, Goodman and Buckley and the Goodman-Buckley Trust company of North Platte. He was president of the Lincoln County Alumni association.

Other officers to be elected are two vice presidents, two board members at large and one from each district. Election will be carried on by mail vote and the announcement of the results will be made June 1, during Round-up week.

Home Ec Group Will Entertain With Mixer

Phi Epsilon Omicron, professional home economics group, will hold a College of Agriculture mixer at the Student Activities building, Saturday, April 27. Special entertainment will be provided during intermission. Students are requested to bring identification cards for presentation at the door.

NEW PAIRINGS ARE MADE

High School League Winners
Argue on Government
Question Today

Seven high school debating teams advanced to the second round of the final competition for the championship of the Nebraska state high school debating league at the University of Nebraska by winning contests Thursday evening. The debates were held in Andrews hall on the question: "Resolved, that the English cabinet form of government is preferable to the presidential form of the United States."

Jackson high school of Lincoln, Omaha Technical high school of Lincoln, Omaha Technical high school of Hartington, Seward, Hastings, Craig and Geneva were victorious in their first appearances.

Draw for Second Round

Drawings were made at the end of the debates for the second round contests. Omaha Technical meets Hartington at 9 o'clock Friday morning in Morrill hall, room 212, with Technical high having the affirmative and Hartington the negative. Seward will have the affirmative against Craig at 9 o'clock in Morrill hall, room 219. At 9:30 o'clock in Morrill hall, room 20, Jackson high of Lincoln will oppose Geneva, Jackson upholding the affirmative. Hastings drew a bye for the second round and automatically advanced to the semi-finals which will be held Friday evening.

Two unanimous victories were awarded by the judges in the first round debates. Geneva, affirmative, won from Stromsburg, and Seward, affirmative, won from Wyoming, both by votes of 3 to 0.

Jackson High Wins

Jackson high school of Lincoln defeated Auburn 2 to 1. Jackson had the negative of the question. Hartington put Sidney, western district champion, out of the running, 2 to 1, talking on the affirmative side.

Fremont was beaten 2 to 1 by Omaha Technical. Fremont upheld.

Dean Lyman has the distinction of being the first voting representative of American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy to the American Council of Education.

Kosmet Men Broadcast
Program This Evening

Members of the Kosmet Klub's cast for "Don't Be Silly" will broadcast an hour of music and entertainment over the Public Service company's telephone radio system at 6 o'clock Friday evening. Donald Carlson, masculine lead, will sing several numbers and Linn Twineem will preside at the microphone. Bill McCleery, author of the libretto of the musical comedy will be introduced and make a short talk. A trio composed of Joyce Ayres, Barney Allen and George Coyle will sing.

Teachers Woman's Club Arranges Picnic Tonight

Eighty members of the Teachers College Woman's club will picnic this evening at the Teachers college building. Miss Lucy Hill is chairman of the committee planning the affair.

Madame Schumann-Heink Declares Success Due to Aid From Artists

"When people ask me to what I owe my success as a singer I do not tell them hard work because that goes without mention," says Madame Schumann-Heink, greatest of contraltos, who will be heard here in her farewell concert on Wednesday, May 1, at the University Coliseum.

"But I always say that I owe it to four women who helped me. First of all came the Ursuline nun in Prague, Bohemia, who discovered my voice when I was twelve years old and secured me the honor of singing in the cathedral. I shall never forget the day she came up to me in the convent corridor and said, 'Ernestine, my child, you shall sing tenor at mass from now on.'"

"A year later the choir was very much excited over the advent of Marietta Le Claire, the great French prima donna who was to

Chancellor's Welcome

I am glad to welcome to Lincoln the members of the fourteen debate teams who are taking part in the 1929 Nebraska high school debating league tournament. Coming as you do from all sections of the state, as winners in your district debate contests, you represent the outstanding forensic teams of Nebraska. I hope that while you are in Lincoln and on the campus of the University of Nebraska you will take the opportunity to acquaint yourself better with the University. While here you have an excellent opportunity to find an answer to the question, "What will a college education do for me?" and learn what the University of Nebraska can do for you.

E. A. BURNETT
Chancellor

Plans Are Made for Nebraskan Banquet

Annual "flag" banquet will be held at the Lincoln hotel, according to an announcement made by Mary Nichols, chairman of the banquet committee yesterday. Invitations will be mailed out Friday for the event.

The "flag" banquet is an annual affair of The Daily Nebraskan staff. All students who worked regularly on the Daily Nebraskan during the year will attend the banquet. Members of the staff will publish a special scandal sheet for the event.

The "Ragger," Bill McCleery is editor of "The Ragger" this year. He will be assisted by Don Carlson, Neal Gomom, and Lyra Tall.

FAIR BOARD ADDS NEW EVENT FOR CHILDREN

Committee Provides Special
Pet Contest with Many
Class Prizes

Farmers Fair board has added a new attraction to the original fair. The exhibition which will have its center north of the plant industry building, is open to all boys and girls, ages 9 to 15 inclusive. No entry fee will be charged.

Puppies, pigeons, rabbits, cats, guinea pigs, doves, in fact any pet may be entered to compete for the prizes offered within the various classes. Lincoln merchants are awarding prizes for the pet with most color, the best trained pet, the smallest mature pet, the most unusual pet, and the largest and best exhibit.

In connection with this show the Lincoln Rabbit Club will furnish a real live merry-go-round for the kiddies. Eaton Clark, manager of the show, has his plans under way and which promise to make it a permanent attraction of Farmers Fair.

CHEMISTS PLAN TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Three Nebraska Professors
Go to Read Papers at Meeting in East

Dr. Samuel Avery, chancellor emeritus and professor of research in chemistry; Dr. F. W. Upson, chairman of the department of chemistry, and Dr. W. H. Adolph, associate professor of chemistry, are going to attend the general convention of the American Chemical Society to be held at Columbus, O., April 29 to May 3.

Doctor Avery will read a paper entitled "The Isomeric A, B Diphenylglutaric," prepared by him and W. D. Macleay. This grew out of research reported in a paper Doctor Avery read at the general meeting of the American Chemical society last year at St. Louis, Mo.

Adolph Prepares Paper

"Aspects of Nutrition and Metabolism in China," is the title of the paper which Professor Adolph will read. Doctor Adolph spent about ten years in China as a professor at Cheeoo university in northeast China and this paper is the result of researches conducted while residing in China.

While Dr. B. Clifford Hendricks, associate professor of chemistry, is not to attend this meeting, a paper, "The Permeability of Metals to Hydrogen," prepared by him and Robert R. Ralston will be read. Mr. Ralston, who is now at Ann Arbor, will read it. It was used by him as a master's thesis when he studied at Nebraska last year.

Doctors Avery and Adolph are leaving today and Doctor Upson plans to leave tomorrow. It is expected that as many as 3,000 scientists from all over the nation will attend the convention at Columbus. When the meeting was held last year at St. Louis nearly this many were present and Columbus is a more convenient meeting place for many eastern chemists.

Large Crowd Attends
Count Ilya Tolstoy, second son of Leo Tolstoy, Russia's great writer and philosopher, told the story of the life of his father at a university convocation in the Temple theater Tuesday morning before the largest crowd that has assembled in that building this season. Many stood in the aisles and along the passages, while others, less fortunate, were unable to force their way through the doors, and had to go away without hearing the address.

This talk was part of a tour of Lowell A. Miller, 25, Lincoln, who directs the 1929 Kosmet Klub spring musical comedy "Jigs" has succeeded in directing a show which Nebraska has branded as Kosmet Klub's best.

BANQUET TICKETS GO ON SALE THURSDAY

Interfraternity Committee
Asks Cooperation of Greek Groups

EXPECT RECORD CROWD

Ticket sales for the interfraternity banquet will go on sale Thursday morning, May 2, according to the committee from the Interfraternity council in charge. Cooperation of all fraternities is being urged and a record breaking crowd is being provided for.

Governor Arthur Weaver has been secured to give the principal address of the evening, according to Charles Lawlor, chairman of the banquet committee. The annual Greek rally will be held at the Coliseum May 9.

Daily Is Toastmaster

Harriet Cruise Kemmer has been obtained to give several vocal numbers for the entertainment of the fraternities. Fritz Daily, president of the Innocents society, will act as toastmaster.

The award of the Hainer cup to the national social fraternity making the highest scholastic average will be the feature of the evening's program. A second place cup will be awarded and fifteen plaques given to the ranking groups in scholastic attainment.

Committee Engages Band

Leo Beck's band will furnish music during the evening and if ticket sales warrant, an extra act of entertainment will be provided by the committee.

Stewards at the various fraternities houses are being urged to close their tables the night of the banquet to insure a capacity turnout. Accommodations for a larger number than ever before are being made.

Tickets will sell for one dollar and will be distributed in the various fraternity houses next Thursday. In addition to the chairman, Gordon Larson and Douglas Timmerman are members of the banquet committee.

STANFORD PROFESSOR TALKS HERE TONIGHT

University Chemical Group
Gets James McBain
For Speaker

Prof. James W. McBain of Stanford university will speak tonight before a meeting of the Nebraska chapter of the American Chemical society. His topic will be "Soaps and Colloids."

Born in Canada, educated at Toronto, Leipzig and at Heidelberg where he took his doctor's degree in 1908, Professor McBain has become well known both in American and Europe for his research in physical colloid chemistry. Numerous learned societies have conferred honors upon him.

Universities Confer Degrees

From Brown university he received the honorary degree of doctor of science. Later he was tendered the same degree from the University of Bristol, England. For a number of years he was an instructor in Liverpool.

He was detailed as visiting professor to California in 1926 and his temporary stay became permanent. Since that time his reputation in the field of colloid chemistry has been gained.

LARSON CALLS FOR MORE APPLICANTS

Eldred Larson, president of the Student Council, has issued a call for more applications for the joint chairmanships of the publicity and the checking sub-committees of the Varsity Par, committee. One man joint chairmen of the publicity committee, and two men will be named as joint chairmen of the checking committee at the Council meeting next Wednesday evening.

Applications for these positions should be filed before 5 o'clock on Tuesday evening, April 30, at the Student Activities office in the Coliseum. The chairmanships were not filled at the meeting of the Council held last Wednesday because of the small number of applications submitted.

BURNETT TALKS HOPEFULLY OF APPROPRIATION

Large Increase Granted by
Solons Is Pleasing
To Chancellor

DORMITORIES ASSURED

Board of Regents Intends to Increase Salaries
By $300,000

"It is the best increase we have had in six years and it will help us materially," was the comment of Chancellor E. A. Burnett yesterday on the appropriation measure which was finally passed by the legislature Wednesday. The legislature did not appropriate as much as the Board of Regents had asked, according to the chancellor, but it is more than was at the disposal of the University during the last biennium.

The increase in general maintenance was about $100,000 for the next biennium. Commenting on this increase Chancellor Burnett said: "As much as possible of this increase will go for salaries. Some of it will be needed for general maintenance and for expansion of departments but the chances are that we will be able to use $200,000 of it for increases in salaries."

Solons Change Items

The legislature appropriated a total of $4,830,000 for the University for the next two years. Of this amount there are several special items that have been changed.

Agricultural extension was granted an increase of $57,000. Conservation and survey gets $10,000 more than for the last two years.

The legislature inserted an item of $300,000 for maintenance of the university hospital in Omaha. For the last two years the upkeep for this building has come out of the regular university maintenance. In addition the College of Medicine was granted $40,000 for equipment.

Building Appropriation Same

For lands and building the legislature appropriated a total of $515,000 although this amount is included in the total. Heretofore the legislature has appropriated separate items for the buildings and for maintenance but it was all included in one total this session.

The last session of the legislature appropriated $500,000 for lands and buildings so this item is about the same at this session. The legislature authorizes the Board of Regents to spend $315,000 for the University's share of a new heating plant and $200,000 for the purchase of land and partial construction of dormitories.

University Income Large

In addition to the $4,830,000 that the legislature appropriates, the University has an additional income estimated to amount to about $2,776,000 for the next biennium. This income is made up in student fees which amount to about $900,000, income from the hospital in Omaha $50,000; income from the sale of products at the College of Agriculture, $200,000; federal aid to various departments, about $200,000. There are various other miscellaneous sources of income. Some of these are not true sources in that as much is paid out as comes in. Such departments are the bookstore, the Temple cafeteria and Agriculture College cafeteria.

The grand total of income for the University for the next biennium is estimated by Chancellor Burnett to be about $7,600,000. The total for the last two years has been $6,929,134.54.

Dormitories Planned

The Board of Regents intends to spend about $400,000 for the construction of dormitories, according to Chancellor Burnett. Although the University already owns some of the land for dormitories more will be purchased. In all likelihood, according to the chancellor, the Board of Regents will purchase some property on sixteenth street, north of R. street. The dormitories will be in "sorority row."

Chancellor Burnett does not see the least possibility of a reduction of fees. "The student fees represent about a quarter of the cost of education. We feel that we would be doing an injustice to the students by the curtailment of activities that would be necessary with a reduction of fees."

Jane Steen and Gladys Loetterle Go to McCook

Jane Steen and Gladys Loetterle, University students, left Lincoln early Friday morning for McCook where they will sing in the Nebraska College student music contest. They are from the Edith Lucille Robbins studios.

Embryo Journalists Will Cover Debates

Members of the News Writing and Reporting class, Journalism 52, are covering the annual debating tournament of the Nebraska High School Debating League for the University News Service. Two reporters are assigned to cover each debate for the home papers of the contesting teams.

During the high school basketball tournament the class furnished 176 columns of copy for 214 papers throughout the state. One hundred four students served as reporters and twenty-three as copy readers.
