GREEKS ERECT NEW HOMES AND BUY PROPERTY

Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega Sororities Move Into Palatial Homes.

BUILDING PROGRESSES

Sigma Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternities Choose Sites.

Erection of two sorority houses, purchase of two building sites by fraternities and a home by another, and changes in location of two other Greek letter societies finds the environs of the Nebraska campus somewhat changed from last year.

New homes have been built by Alpha Xi Delta and Chi Omega sororities. Sigma Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternities have new homes. Phi Kappa Alpha has purchased the large brick residence at Twelfth and J streets formerly owned by Dr. George Dayton.

Into the redecorated and repainted house occupied last year by Chi Omega have moved members of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. The Theta Phi Alpha sorority has taken over the former Lambda Chi dwelling.

Two New Homes.

Just completed in time for rush week activities, the Alpha Xi Delta house at 1609 R street is one of the most distinctive sorority houses at the university. It is of light gray, natural stone construction and is three stories in height. The large double doors with small glass panels lead out on to a flagstone terrace in front. Above the doors are decorated arches which add to the stately appearance of the house.

An effective red tile roof on the Chi Omega sorority, 440 North Sixteenth street, goes well with the yellow brick used in its construction. Here French doors lead out to a wide terrace. Its general appearance is enhanced by the large shade trees which fill the front yard and spread over its roof in contrast with the brilliant tile.

First of fraternities to secure a lot in the latest fraternity building area approved by the board of regents is Sigma Chi, which has purchased a lot on the northeast corner of Fifteenth and Vine streets. Building plans call for erection of a $30,000 home to house twenty-five men. Change in location of the Sigma Chi house, now situated at 318 North Sixteenth street, was necessitated as it is in the dormitory district.

MURRAY SEEKS AID OF ADVISORY BOARD

New Committee Will Confer With Awgwan Editor To Help Publication.

Appointment of a committee from Sigma Delta Chi journalistic fraternity to assist in reorganization of the Awgwan is announced today by Ray Murray, editor. It is to be known as the Awgwan advisory board and is composed of Gene Robb, chairman, Douglas Timmerman and Charles Wahlquist.

This board will confer with Murray in regard to Awgwan policy and plans. It will serve as the connecting link between the humor magazine and the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Delta Chi which sponsors the Awgwan.

Sigma Delta Chi, which in the past has not taken a prominent part in publication of the Awgwan, expects to co-operate during the semester more closely than before. Members of the advisory board are active members in the journalistic fraternity. Robb is president of the chapter. Timmerman is last semester's editor of the Awgwan. Wahlquist served as business manager the first semester of last year.

Several students interested in working on the Awgwan met with Murray Thursday afternoon. Any others are invited to come to the Awgwan office in the basement of university hall between 3 and 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. Applications for editorships of numerous new departments to be instituted in the Awgwan will be made soon, according to Murray. Students who would like to apply should see Murray before doing so, he said Thursday.

Show Big Enrollment

Wednesday, the second day of registration, indicated an enrollment slightly larger than that of the year previous. The Wednesday total of 1,171 students surpassed the Tuesday registration by 144.

At the close of the second day in 1928, 4,544 students registered. This year, the total was 4,648, but comparisons are inaccurate since a two-day period is all that has been allotted for registration this year while three days were used in 1928.

MINIATURE COUNTY FAIR EXHIBIT MADE IN SUMMER TERM

A complete miniature county fair with lunch stand, agricultural and school exhibits, and shadow and movie puppet shows was one of the most interesting exhibits shown in teachers college during the summer school session.

The fair was made as a part of the work of the kindergarten-primary department under the supervision of Miss Blenda Butts, visiting teacher from Long Beach, Calif., and graduate of the university.

Miss Butts also directed an exhibit showing the possibilities of handwork in the primary grades. This display consisted of various articles made from easily obtainable materials such as corn cobs, paper tubes, soap spoons and so on.

A card table constructed of nearly 700 pieces of wood was an outstanding article in the furniture exhibit made and displayed by students in the practical arts department of teachers college under the supervision of Prof. A. C. Easton. A Jacobean server and table, telephone stands, end tables, book racks and a chest were some of the other articles included in the display.

WHITE ARRANGES PLAN FOR OXFORD CONTEST

English Debaters Will Offer Eight Subjects for Argument Here.

LOCAL TEAM NOT INTACT

University of Nebraska debaters will meet Oxford university of England here sometime in November, according to arrangements being made by Prof. H. A. White, debate coach. With the national student federation of New York City, sponsor of the tour, west of the Mississippi of the English collegians.

The Oxford squad, according to a federation bulletin, will commence its tour about October 20. A reduction of $125 this year enables American universities to engage their services for $125, allowance for traveling expenses. At least twenty debaters must be scheduled to insure the tour.

Nebraska debaters will probably be given their choice of eight questions upon which Oxford is prepared to debate. Two years ago Nebraska was host to Cambridge university and last year University of Sydney, Australia, debated in Lincoln.

Call issued soon.

A meeting for all upperclassmen interested in debate will be called soon. White said, since much new material must be uncovered for this year's squad. Only six veterans are expected to return and between fifteen and twenty men will be named for the squad.

No definite plans have been made for this year's schedule but Professor White is arranging debates with most of the schools met last year. Last year's squad participated in fourteen debates, all no decision contests in accordance with the policy adopted at Nebraska ten years ago.

For benefit of Nebraska high schools, Professor White will arrange a series of radio debates on last year's University question. "Resolved, that the present jury system in criminal trials in the United States should be abolished." High schools debate this question this year.

Both three and two-man teams will be used. Many of the debates will be held before local clubs. A committee of Lincoln men, former university debaters, will pick the squad at competitive tryouts.

UNIVERSITY TEACHES LIP-READING COURSES

Extension Division Has Both Beginning and Advanced Work in Subject.

Miss Emma B. Kesler, A.B., normal graduate Central institute for the deaf, and Nichie school of lip-reading, through the university extension division is offering two courses in lip-reading.

The first semester course of thirty lessons, with tuition set at $25, based upon Edward B. Nichie lip-reading; Principles and practice is now being offered. An advanced course based upon Elizabeth Helm Nichie is also being offered.

These courses are open to young and old people, whether university students or not. These classes are being offered every Tuesday and Friday in 102 former Museum building beginning Oct. 1. The first section meets 10:30 to 12 o'clock in the morning and the second section from 2:30 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. For further information regarding the subject inquire of the university extension division, A. A. Reed, director, 902 former Museum building.

R. A. Lyman Appointed To National Committee

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the college of pharmacy, was elected to a position on the executive committee of the American association of colleges of pharmacy at a convention of the association held in Rapid City, S. D.

STATE SCHOOLS HIRE NEBRASKA GRADUATES

Numerous Calls Come From Almost Every County For Teachers.

Nebraska schools like Nebraska teachers. With the exception of six every county in the state has employed one or more teachers from the University of Nebraska during the last year.

Lancaster county led the list by employing fifty University of Nebraska students. Gage county was second with twenty-two and Dodge county with eighteen. Sioux, Arthur, McPherson, Wheeler, Banner, and Hays were the six counties which did not send in calls for university trained teachers.

Iowa, Kansas, and Wyoming ranked high among the states demanding Nebraska graduates. Twenty-four other states sent in calls.

Recent appointments made through the department of education service are: Elizabeth Gage, home economics, Stapleton; Alice Bly, sixth grade, Plattsmouth; Josephine Roy, Latin and music, Bawle Creek; Jeanette Collins, commercial arts, Centerville; Iola Metheny, home economics and history, Eustis; Emma Wheeler, kindergarten, Burwell.

STUDENT SOLDIERS TAKE HIGH HONORS AT R-O T. C. CAMP

Besides winning the intercollegiate marksmanship cup at the R. O. T. C. camp at Fort Crook, near Omaha, in August, University of Nebraska students captured several individual prizes, according to the military department.

Paul W. Burgert, Jim Blackman and Lloyd White qualified as pistol sharpshooters. Gordon Reefe, Otto T. Saar, Malhan M. Carpenter, Omar E. Snyder and Lysie C. Woelner were commissioned second lieutenants in the infantry reserve. Thirty-six Nebraskans qualified as pistol marksmen, six as expert riflemen, six as sharpshooters and forty-seven as marksmen.

LYMAN FOSTERS NEW FEE FOR MEDICAL AID

Dean Avers That Objection Toward Monetary Gain Is From Minority.

The board of regents donated $10,000 to the infirmary upon its opening last year which enabled the institution to operate until the end of the semester in the spring. It was then that more money would have to come from somewhere if the infirmary continued to exist. A medical fee has been paid out of the general university fund for the last few years but this was not large enough to take care of the cost of the present medical service given by the university so the additional fee of one dollar per student was put into effect.

UNIVERSITY Y. M. C. A. DISCONTINUES USE OF BOOK MARKET

That Y. M. C. A. book exchange has been discontinued, was announced Wednesday by C. D. Hayes, general secretary of the university Y. M. C. A. "It took too much time," Hayes stated, "although the commissions paid the expense of operating the exchange. People would not observe the hours when the exchange was open and there was a constant call to open the exchange at every time of open the exchange of the fact that it was closed," he said and remarked that the Y. M. C. A. should do something else beside run a book store, but that little time was left for other matters.

No objections heard.

No comment has been made yet on the additional fee, according to Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the college of pharmacy. He sees no reason why comment should be made since almost every university in the country is now charging a medical fee. Some of the fees, he stated, are much higher than those charged by the University of Nebraska. The rates of the Nebraska infirmary after the initial fee of one dollar are one dollar a day.

The University of Kansas, according to Doctor Lyman, gives free service in its infirmary for three days and then charges a dollar a day but the medical fees per semester are three dollars, an increase of two dollars over Nebraska's charge.

"The University of Oklahoma," stated Doctor Lyman, "charges a fee of three dollars each semester and an infirmary rate of one dollar." (Continued on Page 4.)

FROSH EXPECTED IN MAJORITY FOR ANNUAL MEETING

Burnett Entertains Tonight With Reception for All Nebraskans.

ART EXHIBITS PLANNED

Instructors and Wives Will Assist Chancellor in Tour of Gallery.

Hundreds of green caps are expected to lead the line of students to the chancellor's annual reception to students in Morrill hall this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett will be hosts at the affair.

EDITOR CHOOSES NEW FEATURE FOR ANNUAL

Cornhusker Will Introduce New Type of Portrait Art Engraving.

EXPANSION IS EFFECTED

Plans for the 1930 Cornhusker have been going on all summer, and now that school is starting work is getting under way in fine shape, according to Arthur Bailey, editor. The opening sections are practically complete. The 1930 staff plans to have the book out a month earlier in the spring than has been the custom heretofore.

The new Cornhusker will be a larger book than that of last year, but there will be no advance in the price. The contract for engraving has been let to the Artcraft engraving company of St. Louis, Mo. This is the same organization which did the work for the 1929 Cornhusker.

One of the features of the new Cornhusker will be a complete reorganization and arrangement of the book. This will be an innovation never before used in annual work and members of the staff are completing plans for it.

Natural Color Scenes.

Eight scenes of the university, part of the college of agriculture campus and part of the very campus will be reproduced for the Cornhusker through a special arrangement by Mr. Guenther, president of the Artcraft Engraving company. These reproductions will be made in a special process which will make them appear as oil paintings on canvas. This process of reproduction has recently been perfected by Mr. Guenther, and will be used exclusively in the Cornhusker this year. The process will not be released to the public until after publication of the book in the spring.

There will be an added number of pictures of campus life and activities in the book. Mr. Brockman, head of the art department of the Artcraft Engraving company, will have charge of all the art work.

Members of the Cornhusker staff for 1930 are: Editor, Arthur Bailey; managing editor, Kenneth Gammill and Albert Wahl; business manager, George Kenney; assistant business managers, Edwin Edmonds and Norman Wiley.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT BUREAU TRANSFERRED

Office of Student Affairs Takes Over Work of University 'Y.'

The student employment bureau has been transferred from the university Y. M. C. A. offices to the office of student affairs, according to an announcement today.

The office of student affairs plunged into the work during the first weeks of August in the form of a canvass of a majority of the business houses in the city of Lincoln. Eight hundred calls were made and more than 400 filled out unfiled part time positions were located.

Students wishing employment have made good use of the bureau since the beginning of registration. Two hundred and twenty-five applications have been received. Many students obtain work indirectly through the bureau, which fact makes it difficult to estimate accurately, how many positions have been filled. Nearly fifty students have obtained work for the 1929-30 semester and more than three hundred directly through the bureau, while officers have assisted in placing many more jobs.

It is the policy of the student employment bureau, under its new management, to adjust the amount of work done by a student according to the number of hours class work he is carrying. An effort will be made, it was said by officers in charge, to place school work first and labor for money in a secondary position.

Brumback, Sophomore, Receives Scholarship

Lyndell Brumback, sophomore at the University of Nebraska last year, received the competitive scholarship for Scripps college at Claremont, Calif., and is there studying with Dr. H. B. Alexander former professor of philosophy.

BIG SHOVEL PLOW'S THROUGH VARSITY PRACTICE COURTS

High dirt embankments thrown up by a power digger will soon mark the trail of destruction through the newly constructed tennis courts east of the coliseum.

The courts, opened for use late last spring, must give way eventually before the plans for the extension of the new university heating system, terminating a block north of the coliseum.

Tennis courts, however, are not all that will suffer. Shrubbery, trees newly planted, grass, and in fact all greenery nearby has been uprooted, carried away, or buried for the present. Meanwhile tennis enthusiasts will have to be content to vent their vigor on the courts south of Bessie hall, of which there are only three in shape for use at present, or else try their patience upon those west of the coliseum.

PHI DELTA KAPPA TAKES BIG CLASS AT END OF SCHOOL

Phi Delta Kappa, honorary educational fraternity initiated twenty-one candidates at the close of the summer session.

The senior men honored were: Millard Bell, Edgar, Vern Arnold, Hastings; G. F. Liebenowder, Sid Hickman, Fremont; Earl Platt, Crookston; Lloyd Hunkins, E. H. Regier, Seward; S. E. Mills, Sutton; C. S. Hetrick, Elmcreek; Milton Transchel, College View.

The new Cornhusker will be a larger book than that of last year, but there will be no advance in the price. The contract for engraving has been let to the Artcraft engraving company of St. Louis, Mo. This is the same organization which did the work for the 1929 Cornhusker.

SELECTION COMMITTEE WILL DESIGNATE MAN TO GO TO OXFORD SOON

Nebraska is to receive a Rhodes scholarship this year, according to an announcement from the Nebraska committee on selection. The scholarship makes it possible for its holder to attend Oxford for three years, yielding $400 a year.

Requirements for candidacy for the scholarship are that the applicant be a male citizen of this country, unmarried, and with at least five years residence. The age limits are 19 years as a minimum, and 25 years as a maximum, and the age to be recorded Oct. 1, 1930. On this date, applicants are to have completed at least two years work in some recognized college or university in this country.

It is also required that candidates be approved by their respective colleges and that the number of candidates from each college be limited in proportion to the enrollment.

Applications may be made through Paul F. Good, 613 Security Mutual building, Mr. Good is secretary of the Nebraska committee on selection.

At present, Nebraska has two men at Oxford as Rhodes scholars. Hugh B. Cox has recently passed his final examination for a degree in law with high honors. Robert Lasch has completed a year of study with a degree in philosophy as his objective.

Women students at the summer session outnumbered the men nearly two to one. There were 1,681 women and 927 men enrolled. Eighty-eight of the ninety-three Nebraska counties had students taking summer school work.

The registrar's figures show that nearly one-half of the students were registered in teachers college, 1,207 out of 2,608. Of this number 453 were freshmen students. The graduate college was second, with 542 students with an enrollment of 542.

The college of arts and sciences had 410 students, college of engineering 96, school of nursing at Omaha 93, college of agriculture 83, college of business administration 76, college of medicine at Omaha 53, law college 24, college of pharmacy 15, and college of dentistry 6.

The various schools, included in the above totals, had a registration as follows: school of fine arts 119, school of journalism 35, pre-legal 1, pre-legal 2, and pre-med 25.

SELLECK INITIATES NEW TICKET SALE

Plan of Obtaining Student Athletic Duets Changed in Attempt for Fair and Equitable Distribution of Seats in Cornhusker Section.

ORGANIZATIONS MAY SECURE BLOCKS IN FILING

Identification Card Accompanied by Nine Dollars in Sealed Envelop Will Be Drawn From Box Determining Individual's Choice.

Sale of student tickets for all varsity athletic contests will start Thursday, Sept. 26. The price will be $9, with an extra charge of fifty cents for seats in the cheering section.

In order to avoid the confusion caused by the former method of sales, an entirely new plan has been devised. Under the new system students will be requested to bring their money and identification cards to the student activities office. The cash and money will be placed in an envelope and the student issued a receipt. After the deadline for applications, Sept. 28, the envelopes will be mixed and the seat assignments made in order. Clifford F. Sandahl, editor of The Daily Nebraskan, will be in charge of the distribution.

Blocks of Seats Prevail.

Organization blocks will again be possible under this plan, with the entire block included in one envelope. In following this idea, seats will be given out in order of their desirability, but all seats will be a part of the student section, located in the center of the east side. All seats in the student sections are in the very best positions, according to John K. Selleck, manager of student activities, who stressed the fact that the 4,000 seats in that section are the best of the 16,000 on the east side.

Rooting section tickets, for sale both to men and women, will be issued in the same manner. Envelopes should be marked to designate which are to be in the cheering section, and should contain an additional fifty cents.

Applications will be received at the student activities office on Thursday, Sept. 26, with the final deadline set at noon on Saturday, Sept. 28. Identification cards will be returned when the tickets are called for the following week.

Only one ticket will be issued for each identification card. Those admitted to games free, such as band men, letter men, freshmen football men, and concession girls will not be allowed to purchase tickets.

During the summer considerable work has been done on the seats in the stadium. The wooden parts have been smoothed up and painted, in preparation for the Southern Methodist game on Oct. 5.
