

NEW SPORTS BOARD STARTS FALL WORK

Coeds Outline Schedule for 1929 Tournaments in Athletics.

Members of the women's sports board for intramurals have been selected and plans are under way for fall tournaments. As chairman of the board, Ruth Diamond, president of the Women's Athletic association, has general charge of the plans.

A round robin tournament in speedball will be held under the management of Betty Kelson, and about the same time Nebraska ball, handled by Margaret Hurd. Round robin tournaments are conducted so that each of the intramural teams entered will have a chance to play the other teams, and their standing will depend upon the percentage of games won.

Have Rifle Competition.

Women who wish to compete in rifle marksmanship will have the opportunity in the gallery in the basement of Andrew's hall later in the fall. The team will be chosen from those entering the intramural rifle tournament, and members of last year's team. The rifle team of last season won twenty-one of the twenty-five telegraphic meets which they entered with other schools. Mary Ann Davis is in charge of rifle marksmanship for W. A. A.

Grade On Hours.

Points for uncompetitive fall sports, hiking and horseback riding, will be given according to hours spent in the activity. LeNette Knox is in charge of hiking, and Jane Beaumont, of horseback riding.

Those in charge of winter and spring sports are Lucille Ackerman, archery; Minerva Worthman, baseball; Alice Buffet, basketball; Helen McCoy, bowling; Antoinette Leocco, dancing; Fayette Norris, golf; Louise Westover, hockey; and Jean Rathburn, swimming.

Cricket was introduced into England from France in the middle ages. The name of the game is derived from the French criquet, a stick used in the game of bowls.

W. A. A. SCHEDULES MEETING DURING SESSION OF STAFF

Schedule of the meetings for Women's Athletic association were planned at a recent meeting of the officers and the faculty advisers. The officers, president, Ruth Diamond; vice president, Betty Wahlquist; secretary, Dorothy Weaver; treasurer, Mildred Olsen; Mabel Lee, Miss Wagner and Clarice McDonald, faculty advisers, will meet every first and third Thursday of the month at 5 o'clock in the W. A. A. office.

The executive council which is made up of the officers and the chairman of the committees, will meet the second and fourth Thursday of the month at 5 o'clock in the women's gymnasium. The leaders for this year are Margaret Ward, concession; Harriet Horton, editorial; Ruth Hatfield, expansion; Brigetta Koerting, points; Adele Eisler, publicity; Dorothy McGinley, social; and Hilda Parker, business manager of Orchestras.

The intramural representatives are to meet the second Thursday of the month at 7:15 o'clock in the gymnasium. The members of the sport are to meet the first Thursday at 7:15.

ORGANIZED TOURS BEGIN TODAY FOR MUSEUM GUESTS

Beginning this Sunday afternoon, organized tours of Morrill hall and the museum will be conducted for the visitors wishing to get the greatest benefit of inspecting the collections. Previously visitors were not guided through the museum nor given any special data on the various specimens. It is thought that much more benefit can be derived from such a systemized tour and instruction. The tours will start each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The regular winter program to be given in Morrill hall will be started Oct. 12, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. For the initial program, government files have been obtained showing the collecting of all new types of plants from all corners of the earth and acclimating them to the United States.

FRESHMAN LOSE TO REGULARS IN ANNUAL BATTLE

A very capable field general, and is a ball lugger of no mean ability. His quarterback sneaks had the tang of Red Russell, except for size and weight.

During the course of the struggle it was very apparent that Nebraska is to have the most versatile team that has ever been assembled here. Many lateral passes were attempted during the fray, which is something very novel for a Nebraska team to be trying. Some of the long passes were very well screened, and made several yards. Scherzinger shows himself very adept at tossing a football and making it go where it should. As a proof of this, the varsity tried thirteen passes and made eight of them good.

Varsity Off Side.

The varsity was bothered at keeping on side and many times they lost five yards by being too anxious to upast the freshmen. Several times the regulars were penalized for holding, clipping and roughing.

The freshmen were full of pep when they trotted out on the field, but the varsity seemed to take it as merely another workout. The frosh displayed their enthusiasm throughout the game. The freshmen gained a lot of valuable experience, and the varsity gained the knowledge that they have a lot of polishing to do in the next week. Ossowski had plenty of pep and was holding up his tackle in nice style.

Frosh Kick.

The yearlings kicked off thirty yards to Richards, and he proceeded to return the kick about fifteen yards. Morris Fisher sifted through and partially blocked one of the freshman kicks. This was a break that started the varsity on their first drive for a touchdown. Mathis made a first down for the frosh by driving through a hole in the center of the regulars' line. The rest of the first quarter was spent in each team punting. Roby was punting for the yearlings, and Rowley was doing the varsity's kicking.

Morrow started the second quarter off by returning a punt for twenty-five yards. Long and Perry gained twenty-five yards on a pass, with Perry on the receiving end. Captain Farley demonstrated in this period that he was as adept as ever in backing up the line. Many times he drove into a hole and stopped the frosh from sifting through. Marvin Paul got loose for fifteen yards around end and nearly got away for a touchdown.

Bible Uses Substitutes.

The second half started with Coach Bible using his C team. They made the second and last touchdown for the varsity early in the third quarter. Scherzinger drove off tackle for the marker. The rest of the half found both teams using plenty of substitutes. The absence of passes on the freshman team's part was unexpected, as they had drilled most of the week on some passing plays. UNIVERSITY PLAYERS ANNOUNCE OPENING kings and queens of the stage. Unlike other plays of shows and show people, this one deals with their home life and takes place in an exclusive New York apartment. It is unique in its portrayal of the actor away from the theater.

Full of Action.

The play has won the reputation of being full of life, action, thrills and spice. Alexander Woolcott, dramatic critic of the New York World, was enthusiastic in his praise of it. He said:

"It seemed to me one of the happiest evenings ever I spent in the theater. This is the fond, hilarious, tender comedy which George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber have written around a mighty tribe of show folk. 'The Royal Family' gave me the most thoroughly enjoyable first night I have experienced in many and many a week."

Charles Brackett in the New Yorker writes: "The Royal Family is about as much fun as any play I have ever seen. Oh, a grand play! Thank you, Miss Ferber and Mr. Kaufman. It's just what I needed."

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA HEAD VISITS LINCOLN

Dr. L. D. Coffman, president of the University of Minnesota, was the guest at a luncheon given by Chancellor Burnett at the University club Friday noon. Dr. Coffman gave a summary of the studies carried on in the various phases of educational administration. He also described some of the problems and difficulties which educators are facing, and outlined scientific methods by which attempts are being made to solve them.

Friday evening, Dr. Coffman spoke before the interprofessional men's institute at the Lincoln hotel. His talk to this group concerned the great experiment of communism in Russia. He believes that that great nation will be a future factor in world peace. Dr. Coffman was one of a party of twenty-seven Americans, composed of college leaders and heads of large institutions, which toured Russia.

Supt. Weaver Visits University Tuesday

vided the entertainment. Light refreshments were served.

Noisy balloons and confetti featured the "circus" party held at the Second Baptist church. A short program of violin and vocal selections and addresses by the pastor and secretary was followed by games. Tickets were given out for circus like refreshments of peanuts and ice cream sandwiches.

Receptions at all the other churches were declared delightful by both those in charge and the students attending. All-university church night is closed to parties and is annually held the second Friday after school starts.
