COUNCIL MAKES PLANS FOR FIRST VARSITY PARTY

Opening University Party Supervised by Barbs to Be Saturday.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

Vaudeville and Dancing to Be Features of This Entertainment.

The first All University Party, under the supervision of the Barb council, will be held Saturday night at 8:30 p. m. in the university coliseum.

"Freshmen are especially urged to attend," Meredith Nelson, president of the Barb council stated. "All university students are welcome," he said. "No distinction will be made as to race, creed, or color."

"The purpose of the parties is to create a more democratic spirit at Nebraska and both fraternity and non-fraternity students are urged to attend," he added. "Some people have the mistaken idea that these are barb parties such as the Barb council sponsored last year." He explained that there was no connection between the two affairs except that the barb council sponsored both. "No political speeches will be made at the All University parties," Nelson said.

"Entertainment will consist of a program and dancing. Vaudeville from a local theater has been secured, while comedy acts by students will also be features of the program which is not yet fully completed."

Nelson said that modernistic lighting effects will be used for decoration. An admission charge of thirty-five cents will be made at the door.

"We are making an effort to make these parties self supporting," Nelson stated, "alho we are not assuming the deficiency of the Varsity parties of last year."

STUDENT ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD OCT. 8

Applicants Must File for Positions by Friday Evening, 5 p. m.

Class presidents, the honorary colonel, and senior woman-at-large on the Student council will be elected at an election to be held Oct. 8 at the Temple. Applications for these positions should be filed at the student activities office by 5 p. m. Friday. Identification cards must be presented with the applications. The polls will be open between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. on election day.

Candidates for the presidency of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes must be in good standing in twelve hours, must have a general average of seventy, and must have passed in twenty-seven hours the two preceding semesters.

Applicants for the position of senior woman-at-large on the Student council must be in good standing in twelve hours, must have a general average of seventy-five and have passed in twenty-seven hours the two preceding semesters with an average of seventy-five.

Pershing Rifles Meeting Called for Wednesday

Pershing Rifles will meet in Nebraska hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of discussing tryouts and elections of new men, according to Stanley Day, captain.

All men are urged to be present since the admission of several new chapters into the organization will also be discussed. The most recent petition for membership was received from the University of California a few days ago. Several other petitions were received during the summer. The organization was founded at the University of Nebraska in 1894.

Students in Journalism 81 Disclose Startling Knowledge Regarding News

Believe it or not! Big secrets were revealed when Amelia Earhart, trans-Atlantic aviatrix, was reported to be a reporter on the staff of Zeppelin, a noted educator, and a famous evangelist from California, all in one day! Governor Weaver has changed his occupation of governor of Nebraska, and has become a New York business man and shrewd stock market authority.

Boulder dam is now located twenty miles from Boulder, Colo., and became famous when a new span bridge was recently dedicated at which ceremony Nebraska took and active part.

When the students of Journalism II, section II, were confronted with a news familiarity test, Sept. 19, such a variety of occupations and designations for each person and place was submitted that the real identity of the object was lost in a deluge of answers.

Three guesses who Charles G.

Murray States Time Of Awgwan Deadline

Deadline for Awgwan copy including cartoons as well as editorial matter is Thursday, Oct. 3, according to Ray Murray, editor of the magazine.

DEBATERS MUST MEET WITH COACH THURSDAY NIGHT

All students desirous of a place on the University of Nebraska debate team, which will meet a team from Oxford university in Lincoln Nov. 21, must report for a meeting in room 105 of University hall at 7:15 p. m. Thursday, according to an announcement made by H. A. White, coach of debate.

Tryouts for the team will be held Oct. 8. The candidates will present eight minute arguments on the proposition, "The Modern Jury is Unnecessary in the Administration of Justice," which is the subject for the debate with Oxford.

Professor White states that books and bibliographies on the subject may be obtained at the library and that all students expecting to try for the team should begin work immediately. Plans are being made to debate the same proposition with the University of Iowa before the Public Teachers association late in November.

TODAY IS DEADLINE FOR TICKET SALES

Big Sister Dinner to Be Held in Ellen Smith Hall Thursday.

BOARD PLANS PROGRAM

All tickets for the Big and Little Sister dinner which will be held Thursday, Oct. 3 in Memorial Hall at six o'clock, must be purchased by six o'clock Tuesday. Tickets are on sale for fifty cents at Ellen Smith hall, the College Book store, and the Co-op book store, and may be secured in addition from any member of the Big Sister board.

The dinner is the first big frolic which big and little sisters may attend as a well organized group, and it is expected that a record crowd will attend. Games have been arranged under the direction of Della Hoy and Edna Schrick. A special program during the dinner hour will be presented, and other special numbers for the later program are also being planned by Evelyn West. In addition music for those who care to dance is being provided.

All university women are cordially invited to attend the party, even tho they may not be actively identified with the Big Sister organization. Freshmen are especially urged to attend, in order to get acquainted with their own classmen and with upperclassmen as well.

HERTZLER PUBLISHES EXPLANATORY VOLUME

'Social Institutions' Gives Essential Factors of Modern Society.

"Social Institutions" is the name of a volume released early this summer by the McGraw Hill Publishing company. The author is Dr. J. O. Hertzler, of the university department of sociology.

Under the heading of "Social Institutions," Dr. Hertzler, as he expresses it, deals in a "comprehensive and systematic way with the essential components of social institutions, certain aspects of their origin and evolution, the way in which they develop their general and unique characteristics, their connection with social values, the interplay between individual and institutions and the factors involved in their progressive adaptability."

But Dr. Hertzler does not choose to designate this volume for the use of students only in the professional field of sociology. He has

TASSELS WILL ASSIST BAND EARN UNIFORMS

Pep Organization to Sell 'N' Feathers Before the Game Saturday.

PLAN HAS DUAL PURPOSE

Large red feathers decorated with white letter "N's" will be sold next Saturday morning from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. before the Nebraska-Southern Methodist football game. The Tassels, women's pep organization, will sell these on the streets and at the stadium for the purpose of raising revenue for the Nebraska unit of the R. O. T. C. band.

Nebraska's band has two purposes in mind in this drive. The first is to raise enough money to help pay for the new equipment for the uniforms. New caps and capes are to be given out Thursday. Since the United States government does not provide new uniforms, the band must raise its own money. Those in charge of the band hope to start off the move toward new outfits by purchasing caps and capes this year. These will be added to year after year until complete new uniforms are procured.

The second purpose of the drive is to start a long trip fund which will be added to from time to time and from which a long trip will be taken at least once every three years.

COOK, DANN RECEIVE STAFF APPOINTMENTS

Awgwan Copy Deadline Set For Oct. 3; All Work In Is Excellent.

George Cook, '30, Casper, Wyo., has been appointed circulation manager of the Awgwan, and Willard Dann, '32, Beatrice, has been made advertising manager, according to an announcement made by the editor yesterday.

Deadline for all copy has been set for Thursday, Oct. 3. Some clever material has been handed in up to date which the editor is selecting and preparing for the October issue. Work on the magazine is progressing very satisfactorily and indications point to the publishing of a very entertaining college humor book.

All persons wishing to sell advertising should consult with Jack Ames, acting business manager, in the Awgwan office, basement of "U" hall, between 3 and 5 o'clock some day soon. A meeting of the business staff was held in the office Monday afternoon and another meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the same place.

Yell King Aspirants Compete for Places In Tryout Yesterday

The old locomotive yell was the big favorite among the candidates for the cheer leader positions in the tryouts Monday afternoon. The cadets who served as an audience responded to the efforts of the leaders and sent out the popular cry with enough volume to satisfy even the most exacting applicant.

The tryouts were under the direction of the innocents society with Joyce Ayres in charge. Each man had the privilege of selecting any two yells he wished and to deliver them in any way. Following is a list of the men and their classes: Seniors, Burgart, Stafford, Robinson, Juniors, Cook, Mickel, Robinson, Lechlitter, Characters, sophomores, Knight, Rogers, Felt, Kinkead, Kiger, Brewer.

Immediately after the tryouts on the drill field the candidates went to the stadium where they underwent a voice test with the megaphone. The results will be announced Wednesday.

University Commercial Club Plans for Smoker

The university commercial club is sponsoring an annual pie feed and smoker Wednesday, Oct. 2, at 7:15 p. m. in the Temple, room 103. Dean Le Rossignol is to speak. Men in the business administration college are invited, and new men especially are urged to come.

Editor of Directory Urges Students to Correct Addresses

Students whose names begin with A, B, and C today are urged to check over a list of names beginning with these letters which was posted late Monday afternoon on the first floor of Social Science hall.

The list is that which will be used for the annual student directory. Robert C. Venner, editor of the directory, made an especial request to students who have changed their addresses since registering to check the list. "Put your proper address on the list," he advised. "If you don't, it will be printed wrong in the directory and will remain so all year."

The A, B, and C lists will remain posted until Wednesday noon, when names beginning with other letters will be posted.

WINS $300 PRIZE

CHARLES W. SHARP. Who recently won a territorial prize in the National Aviation essay contest sponsored by the Eaglerock Aviation company of Colorado Springs, Colo.

EVELYN ADLER WILL DELIVER FORUM TALK

University Woman Spends Summer Studying in Chicago Slums.

Evelyn Adler, a university junior of Omaha, who spent six weeks last summer in Chicago studying the conditions among the working classes, will speak at the initial meeting of World Forum Wednesday noon in the dining room of the Nebraska hotel.

"Scum of the Earth" will be the subject of Miss Adler's talk. Miss Adler is a socialist. She is very much interested in plans for benefiting the condition of the people living in the slums of the cities. She is a member of Sigma Delta Tau sorority.

The Nebraska hotel has been chosen as the meeting place for the first gathering of the World Forum. Meredith Nelson, chairman of the World Forum committee of the University Y. M. C. A., announced Monday.

The meeting will start at 12 o'clock and continue till 12:50. Nelson said, "making it possible for those having 1 o'clock classes to attend." There will be a discussion after the meeting for those caring to remain.

Tickets may be obtained from salesmen on the campus for thirty-five cents. They may also be bought at the door for forty cents. C. D. Hayes, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has tickets for sale in his office in the Temple, as has Miss Erma Appley, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., at her office in Ellen Smith hall.

CHARLES W. SHARP WINS ESSAY CONTEST

Engineering Student Wins $300 Aviation Course In Kansas City.

AIR SCHOOL IS DONOR

Competing against fifteen hundred college students in the middle west, Charles Willard Sharp, of Lincoln, a University of Nebraska engineering student, recently won a $300 flying course.

The course was awarded to Sharp as a territorial prize in the national aviation essay contest, conducted by the Alexander Eaglerock company of Colorado Springs, Colo. The donor of the prize is the Bennett Flying school of Kansas City, Mo. Sharp is planning to take the course next summer in Kansas City.

Kansas, Nebraska, and western Missouri are included in the district of which Sharp was the winner. Prof. J. W. Haney, chairman of the department of mechanical engineering stated, "This shows what a student can accomplish if he puts forth an effort in some field in which he is interested."

Although enrolled as an undergraduate at Nebraska, Sharp has received two degrees. The first was an A. B. degree at Nebraska Wesleyan after which he attended the state University of Iowa where he received an M. S. degree in physics. He is interested in the development branch of the aviation game and intends to specialize in aeronautical engineering. At present he is enrolled as a junior in the College of Engineering at Nebraska.

Sharp is president of the University Glider club. He submitted four essays in the contest. Two essays dealt with Diesel engines, one was on the development of commercial aviation and one on research of aviation. These essays will probably appear in the issues of the Blue Print for this semester.

INNOCENTS PUT OUT GREETING PLACARDS

'Howdy Do S.M.U.' Slogan With Which to Greet Texas Visitors.

Large placards for automobile radiators, bearing the greeting, "Howdy do, S. M. U." will appear upon the university campus Tuesday, and will symbolize the Nebraskans' welcome to the Cornhuskers who are to meet the Mustangs on the stadium sod Saturday.

Small white cards, bearing a similar expression, will be distributed Wednesday. Campus fluffers and straight eights alike will carry a friendly "Hello" to the southerners.

The cards are to be distributed by the Innocents, honorary senior organization. Similar placards will be distributed for every game, in accordance with the past custom of the Cornhuskers. Greetings in past years have varied from a warm welcome to a ferocious challenge to battle. In no case, however, has hard feeling been evident.

Freshman Loses His Shoes While Trying On Better Trousers

The quartermaster's storeroom for the R. O. T. C. military haberdashery is to be found in the basement of Nebraska hall. It is a place from which all misfits come, and to which all misfits must go if they desire a change.

A freshman last week, felt that he had a misfit in trouser apparel. This he would seek to remedy. Stepping to an adjoining hall of the storeroom in Nebraska hall, he removed his shoes preparatory to changing into another pair of trousers which the storemaster had given him. While engaged nearby in trying on the new pair, someone had the temerity to "lift" his shoes. It is not known where they were lifted, but it is suspected that they did not go heavenward.

The freshmen's position, at present, is said to be most suspicious and uncompromising.

Bradford Announces Meeting of Student Publications Board

H. E. Bradford, acting chairman of the publication board, has announced that the board will meet at 4:30 p. m. Thursday, to consider the applications which have been received for positions now vacant on the staffs of the Awgwan and The Daily Nebraskan. The meeting will be held in the office of the school of journalism, University hall 104.

The applications under consideration include five for the position of business manager of the Awgwan, and thirteen for the position of assistant business managers of The Daily Nebraskan.

Sandahl Sends Out Call for Editorials

Nineteen applications for the positions of contributing editors on The Daily Nebraskan staff have been received by Cliff F. Sandahl, editor. Each applicant is requested to submit one editorial, on a subject of his own choosing, before Wednesday, Oct. 2. These editorials will assist the editor in making his appointments for the positions.

LUTHERAN BIBLE LEAGUE RESUMES YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Activities of the Lutheran Bible League of the University of Nebraska were resumed under the direction of the Rev. H. Erick, university Lutheran pastor, last week. The following officers were elected at a meeting held last Wednesday evening: Elder Splittgerber, '31, president; Letha Rastede, '31, vice president; Charles DeVore, '32, secretary, and Paul Gruber, '30, treasurer.

The class meets for Bible study each Wednesday evening in room 205 of the Temple building. This is its fifth consecutive year, during which time the attendance has constantly increased.

APPLICANTS RECEIVE HELP FROM ALUMNAE

Graduate Association Lends $3,000 to Students This Semester.

Nine additional applicants will receive help through the Alumni Association Student Loan Fund as a result of a meeting of the alumni association student loan fund committee in the Temple Monday morning.

Ray E. Ramsey, secretary of the alumni association, says that the committee is well pleased with the applications and feels that in every case the monetary assistance will help students who would otherwise find it impossible to continue their college education.

Twenty university students have received loans this semester. Seven of the number are women and thirteen are men. Nebraska students were first advised of the loan fund by slips which were included in their registration envelopes.

The student loan fund has been made possible by life membership fees in the Alumni association. Life members pay $30 cash or $50 on the installment plan. This has amounted to a principle of about

LE ROSSIGNOL TELLS OF ESSAY CONTEST

Alvan T. Simonds Offers Winner Ample Prize For Manuscript.

The announcement from the office of Dean J. E. Le Rossignol to the effect that a national essay contest is under way for students of economics was made yesterday. A prize of $1,500 has been offered by Alvan T. Simonds, president of the Simonds Saw and Steel company for the best essays on an economic subject. This prize has been offered annually for the best essays since 1921. Mr. Simonds suggests for this year the following subject: "The federal reserve system and the control of credit."

One thousand dollars is to be awarded the essay decided by the judges to be the best and five hundred dollars for the second best. The contest is open to everybody everywhere. The essays may be as short or as long as the contestant chooses. Each essay, however, must open or close with a summary (not exceeding 2,500 words in length) written in such a manner that it may be used as a separate magazine article. The

'Get-a-Data' Club Is Plan of Omaha Student; Aim to Eliminate Loneliness

Plans for a new type of organization, a "Get-a-Data" club, are being formulated by Helen Whitmore, Omaha, University of Nebraska senior, according to the Omaha World Herald.

The purpose of the club will be to create a "get-together" feeling among the students on the university campus who are non-members of fraternities or sororities. Speaking of her hopes for the organizing of the plan, Miss Whitmore says:

"I don't see any reason why I couldn't establish a lonesome club among university students. I am working out my plan and hope it will meet with the approval of the faculty members."

"Barbs are naturally left out of all the leading social activities in connection with university life because they do not belong to the fraternity set. Of course they feel the isolation and they have a very lonely time. I've always felt sorry for them as I thought about them throughout my university life and

SELLECK LOOKS FOR 25,000 AT GAME SATURDAY

Business Manager Predicts Record Attendance for Mustang Game.

TEXAS BRINGING CROWD

2,900 Season Tickets Sold Students and Faculty Mustang Battle.

Approximately 25,000 people will gather in Memorial stadium Saturday to witness the intercollegiate football struggle between the Cornhuskers and the Southern Methodist university Mustangs. That was the prediction made Monday by John K. Selleck, business manager of athletics. His estimate was made on the basis of advance ticket sales but was tempered with the condition that the weather must be favorable.

If Selleck's predictions are correct the crowd will be the largest ever to witness an opening game at home in Cornhusker history. Texas is sending up a delegation to the game of about 1,000.

2,900 Tickets Sold Students and faculty members bought 2,900 season tickets according to Selleck. There are a few good seats available in the cheering section and in the east stand outside of the cheering section. Some of these seats are on the fifty yard line. Selleck expects all of these to be gone before the game. Drawings for seats in the student section were made Saturday. The cheering section, including

GISH CONFERS WITH RAILROAD OFFICIALS

Athletic Director Seeks to Get Uniform Rates on Athletic Teams.

Representing the big big conference athletic directors Herbert D. Gish was in Chicago Saturday conferring with railroad companies with regard to a uniform system of rates for conference teams. Mr. Gish was also in Buffalo and Niagara Falls last week making arrangements for Nebraska's trip to Syracuse Oct. 12.

In the past the railroads have been inconsistent in charging transportation to university football teams, according to Gish. In some cases they have given greater reductions than in others. Gish was appointed as a committee of one at the last conference meeting to confer with the railroads on these matters.

He was in conference with officials of all the railroads serving conference territory and also representatives of the Western Passenger association. Final action will be taken at a meeting of railroad officials in Chicago Tuesday.

GENTLEMAN LIVING IN AFRICA SENDS FOR INFORMATION

The university extension division is in receipt of a letter from G. E. Shankel, Box 22, Somerset West, C. P. South Africa, asking for one of their bulletins and expressing himself as interested in taking an extension course through this department. Mr. Shankel is connected with Helderberg college of Somerset West, South Africa. The letter from that far away place was written Aug. 27 and was received in Lincoln Monday morning, Sept. 30.

The extension division has students in many states in our union, three provinces in Canada, Mexico, Porto Rico, Venezuela and South America. Students in China, India and other countries in the Orient have taken correspondence work through this division.
