Huskers Return With Flaming Spirit After Longshot Victory Over Fighting Orange: Bible Saving Witte and Sloan for Saturday Game.

By JACK ELLIOTT.

The eyes of the football world will focus on the Nebraska ference championship in the Big Cornhuskers this weekend when the mighty Searlet from the plains of Nebraska takes on its toughtest intersectional fee of coach at Nebraska, issued his first of the year-the Pittsburgh Panthers from the University of Pittsburgh

Arriving back from their first cast-west grid battle of the season, the Nebraska eleven will go through a hard week of practice drill in preparation for the coming of Coach Jock Sutherland and his band of Panthers. with an undefeated eleven.

Memories of last year's score-less tie on a soggy Memorial stadium field still burn in the football plans of the eastern grid mentor. Nebraska football scouts who watched the Pitt team down West Virginia Saturday were so impressed with the showing made by the Panther eleven that their reports to head footbali Coach Dana L Bible were to the effect that the Cornhuskers are going to be pushed to the limit to down this fighting team from the east.

Nebraska's showing against their intersectional opponent in Saturday's classic was very satisfactory to Coach Bible and the Scarlet seemed to be that fighting band of Cornhuskers of old, but the Nebraska tutor realizes that his grid machine is going to have to do more than they did against the most successful in Cornhusker Syracuse to down Sutherland and his Pitt eleven.

Save Witte, Sloan.

"Dutch" Witte and Clair Sloan who have been widely heralded in the east as two of the outstanding gridiron warriors in the west, will oth start the Pitt game Saturday, according to an announcement grade by Coach Bible Monday as he Scarlet worked out on Soldiers field in Chicago. Witte failed to get into the Syracuse game as the usker mentor did not wish to take any chances of losing Witte for the Pitt game. Sloan was injected in the Nebraska backfield late in the Husker-Orange game from Nebra

Nebraska scouts say the Suther-land crew is fast, mighty and packs a wallop that will keep the Huskers on the lookout from the kickoff until the final pop of the gun. Last year on a soggy Memorial stadium field the Panthers and Huskers battled to a scoreless tie with the Huskers playing their gret. worst brand of ball during the season but the Pitt game came after a hard campaign in Big Six cir-cles and with the Scarlet pointing for its game with the Army. The Pitt game this year will be a dif-terent story for the Cornhusker machine is under way and has caught up with its stride to make the 1929 gridiron campaign one of history. On the floor of Memorial stadium in Saturday's classic football fans will see a different Cornhusker football team than they saw in the clash with the Mustangs in the season opener two weeks ago. In the Orange game the mighty Cornhuskers found their pace and will be hitting it until the end of the season. In addition to getting organized, Ne-braska now has the addition of Clair Sloan, one of the fastest and cleverest ball toters in the entire middlewest. And in addition to Sloan, the Huskers will have the

With Witte and Sloan both in the Husker backfield against the Pitt aggregation. Nebraska will have the best set of backs that football fans have seen this year. Sloan is dangerous on both lugging the oval and in the Husker passing attack. Witte is a speedy hall lugger and the second triple-threater that Bible will have in his backfield. The injury list from the Orange game is not serious and the Nebraska coaching staff ex-pects to start practically the same line as started in the Syracuse game

Husker Spirit Back.

Those who witnessed the Syracuse-Husker battle on the floor of Archibold stadium in the east Saturday are confident that the Scarlet and Cream footballers from Nebraska are off for a big year in Cornhusker football. That famous Cornhusker spirit that seemed dor-mant in the Southern Methodist game, flared up against "Big Bill Orange" and blazed its way across the football pages of the country and stuck in the hearts of all eastern football fans who packed the stadium for the game in Syracuse.

Weidemann Receives Bid To Dewey Birthday Fete

Prof. C.C. Sloan Sloan got into the game back at Syracuse Saturday and the way his mates rallied around him to carry the pigskin over for that second touchdown was a pleasing sensa-tion to Mr. Dana Bible. Cornhusker football tutor. Bible stated out at Soldiers field yesterday in Chicago that the "Dutchman" would be in trim for the Panthers and with the way Captain Farley is lugging the pellet, will make the Husker back-field a driving one that will be able to handle every department in the game in dazzling fashion.
